Scriptural Promise

The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God stands forever.

Isaiah 40:8

The New American Standard Bible has been produced with the conviction that the words of Scripture as originally penned in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek were inspired by God. Since they are the eternal Word of God, the Holy Scriptures speak with fresh power to each generation, to give wisdom that leads to salvation, that men may serve Christ to the glory of God.

The purpose of the Editorial Board in making this translation was to adhere as closely as possible to the original languages of the Holy Scriptures, and to make the translation in a fluent and readable style according to current English usage.

The Fourfold Aim
The Lockman Foundation

1. These publications shall be true to the original Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek.
2. They shall be grammatically correct.
3. They shall be understandable.
4. They shall give the Lord Jesus Christ His proper place, the place which the Word gives Him; therefore, no work will ever be personalized.

Preface to The
New American Standard Bible

In the history of English Bible translations, the King James Version is the most prestigious. This time-honored version of 1611, itself a revision of the Bishops' Bible of 1568, became the basis for the English Revised Version appearing in 1881 (New Testament) and 1885 (Old Testament). The American counterpart of this last work was published in 1901 as the American Standard Version. The ASV, a product of both British and American scholarship, has been highly regarded for its scholarship and accuracy. Recognizing the values of the American Standard Version, the Lockman Foundation felt an urgency to preserve these and other lasting values of the ASV by incorporating recent discoveries of Hebrew and Greek textual sources and by rendering it into more current English. Therefore, in 1959 a new translation project was launched, based on the time-honored principles of translation of the ASV and KJV. The result is the New American Standard Bible.

Translation work for the NASB was begun in 1959. In the preparation of this work numerous other translations have been consulted along with the linguistic tools and literature of biblical scholarship. Decisions about English renderings were made by consensus of a team composed of educators and pastors. Subsequently, review and evaluation by other Hebrew and Greek scholars outside the Editorial Board were sought and carefully considered.

The Editorial Board has continued to function since publication of the complete Bible in 1971. This edition of the NASB represents revisions and refinements recommended over the last several years as well as thorough research based on modern English usage.

Principles of Translation

MODERN ENGLISH USAGE: The attempt has been made to render the grammar and terminology in contemporary English. When it was felt that the word-for-word literalness was unacceptable to the modern reader, a change was made in the direction of a more current English idiom. In the instances where this has been done, the more literal rendering has been indicated in the notes. There are a few exceptions to this procedure. In particular, frequently "And" is not translated at the beginning of sentences because of differences in style between ancient and modern writing. Punctuation is a relatively modern invention, and ancient writers often linked most of their sentences with "and" or other connectives. Also, the Hebrew idiom "answered and said" is sometimes reduced to "answered" or "said" as demanded by the context. For current English the idiom "it came about that" has not been translated in the New Testament except when a major transition is needed.

HEBREW TEXT: In the present translation the latest edition of Rudolf Kittel's BIBLIA HEBRAICA has been employed together with the most recent light from lexicography, cognate languages, and the Dead Sea Scrolls.

HEBREW TENSES: Consecution of tenses in Hebrew remains a puzzling factor in translation. The translators have been guided by the requirements of a literal translation, the sequence of tenses, and the immediate and broad contexts.

THE PROPER NAME OF GOD IN THE OLD TESTAMENT: In the Scriptures, the name of God is most significant and understandably so. It is inconceivable to think of spiritual matters without a proper designation for the Supreme Deity. Thus the most common name for the Deity is God, a translation of the original Elohim. One of the titles for God is Lord, a translation of Adonai. There is yet another name which is particularly assigned to God as His special or proper name, that is, the four letters YHWH (Exodus 3:14 and Isaiah 42:8). This name has not been pronounced by the Jews because of reverence for the great sacredness of the divine name. Therefore, it has been consistently translated LORD. The only exception to this translation of YHWH is when it occurs in immediate proximity to the word Lord, that is, Adonai. In that case it is regularly translated GOD in order to avoid confusion.

It is known that for many years YHWH has been transliterated as Yahweh, however no complete certainty attaches to this pronunciation.

GREEK TEXT: Consideration was given to the latest available manuscripts with a view to determining the best Greek text. In most instances the 26th edition of Eberhard Nestle's NOVUM TESTAMENTUM GRAECE was followed.

GREEK TENSES: A careful distinction has been made in the treatment of the Greek aorist tense (usually translated as the English past, "He did") and the Greek imperfect tense (normally rendered either as English past progressive, "He was doing"; or, if inceptive, as "He began to do" or "He started to do"; or else if customary past, as "He used to do"). "Began" is italicized if it renders an imperfect tense, in order to distinguish it from the Greek verb for "begin." In some contexts the difference between the Greek imperfect and the English past is conveyed better by the choice of vocabulary or by other words in the context, and in such cases the Greek imperfect may be rendered as a simple past tense (e.g. "had an illness for many years" would be preferable to "was having an illness for many years" and would be understood in the same way).

On the other hand, not all aorists have been rendered as English pasts ("He did"), for some of them are clearly to be rendered as English perfects ("He has done"), or even as past perfects ("He had done"), judging from the context in which they occur. Such aorists have been rendered as perfects or past perfects in this translation.

As for the distinction between aorist and present imperatives, the translators have usually rendered these imperatives in the customary manner, rather than attempting any such fine distinction as "Begin to do!" (for the aorist imperative), or, "Continually do!" (for the present imperative).

As for sequence of tenses, the translators took care to follow English rules rather than Greek in translating Greek presents, imperfects and aorists. Thus, where English says, "We knew that he was doing," Greek puts it, "We knew that he does"; similarly, "We knew that he had done" is the Greek, "We knew that he did." Likewise, the English, "When he had come, they met him," is represented in Greek by: "When he came, they met him." In all cases a consistent transfer has been made from the Greek tense in the subordinate clause to the appropriate tense in English.

In the rendering of negative questions introduced by the particle me- (which always expects the answer "No") the wording has been altered from a mere, "Will he not do this?" to a more accurate, "He will not do this, will he?"

EXPLANATION OF GENERAL FORMAT

[\[Contents / Books of the Bible\]](#)

TRANSLATORS' NOTES are in brackets [ ] following each paragraph and verse of poetry. When after a paragraph, they are identified by the verse number in which they occur. However if a note repeats, it will be shown with the first verse number in which it occurred.

PERSONAL PRONOUNS are capitalized when pertaining to Deity.

ITALICS are used in the text to indicate words which are not found in the original Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek but implied by it. Italics are used in the translator's notes to signify alternate readings for the text. Roman text in the translator's alternate readings is the same as italics in the Bible text.

ALL CAPS in the New Testament are used in the text to indicate Old Testament quotations or obvious references to Old Testament texts. Variations of Old Testament wording are found in New Testament citations depending on whether the New Testament writer translated from a Hebrew text, used existing Greek or Aramaic translations, or paraphrased the material. It should be noted that modern rules for the indication of direct quotation were not used in biblical times thus the ancient writer would use exact quotations or references to quotation without specific indication of such. Also see THE PROPER NAME OF GOD IN THE OLD TESTAMENT under Principles of Translation.

ASTERISKS are used to mark verbs that are historical presents in the Greek which have been translated with an English past tense in order to conform to modern usage. The translators recognized that in some contexts the present tense seems more unexpected and unjustified to the English reader than a past tense would have been. But Greek authors frequently used the present tense for the sake of heightened vividness, thereby transporting their readers in imagination to the actual scene at the time of occurrence. However, the translators felt that it would be wise to change these historical presents to English past tenses.

GENESIS 1 [\[Books\]](#)

<sup>9</sup> Then God said, “Let the waters below the heavens be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear”; and it was so. <sup>10</sup>God called the dry land earth, and the gathering of the waters He called seas; and God saw that it was good. <sup>11</sup>Then God said, “Let the earth sprout <sup>a</sup>vegetation, <sup>b</sup>plants yielding seed, and fruit trees on the earth bearing fruit after <sup>c</sup>their kind <sup>d</sup>with seed in them”; and it was so. <sup>12</sup>The earth brought forth <sup>a</sup>vegetation, <sup>b</sup>plants yielding seed after <sup>c</sup>their kind, and trees bearing fruit <sup>d</sup>with seed in them, after <sup>c</sup>their kind; and God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup>There was evening and there was morning, a third day. <sup>14</sup> Then God said, “Let there be <sup>a</sup>lights in the <sup>b</sup>expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years; <sup>15</sup>and let them be for <sup>a</sup>lights in the <sup>b</sup>expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth”; and it was so. <sup>16</sup>God made the two <sup>a</sup>great lights, the greater <sup>c</sup>light <sup>d</sup>to govern the day, and the lesser <sup>c</sup>light <sup>d</sup>to govern the night; He made the stars also. <sup>17</sup>God placed them in the <sup>b</sup>expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth, <sup>18</sup>and <sup>d</sup>to govern the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup>There was evening and there was morning, a fourth day. <sup>20</sup> Then God said, “Let the waters <sup>a</sup>teem with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth <sup>b</sup>in the open <sup>c</sup>expanse of the heavens.” <sup>21</sup>God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind; and God saw that it was good. <sup>22</sup>God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” <sup>23</sup>There was evening and there was morning, a fifth day. <sup>24</sup> Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures after <sup>a</sup>their kind: cattle and creeping things and beasts of the earth after <sup>a</sup>their kind”; and it was so. <sup>25</sup>God made the beasts of the earth after <sup>a</sup>their kind, and the cattle after <sup>a</sup>their kind, and everything that creeps on the ground after its kind; and God saw that it was good. [<sup>24</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit its]

<sup>26</sup> Then God said, “Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the <sup>a</sup>sky and over the cattle and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.” <sup>27</sup>God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. <sup>28</sup>God blessed them; and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the <sup>a</sup>sky and over every living thing that <sup>b</sup>moves on the earth.” <sup>29</sup>Then God said, “Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the <sup>c</sup>surface of all the earth, and every tree <sup>d</sup>which has fruit yielding seed; it shall be food for you; <sup>30</sup>and to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the <sup>a</sup>sky and to every thing that <sup>b</sup>moves on the earth <sup>e</sup>which has life, I have given every green plant for food”; and it was so. <sup>31</sup>God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day. [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit heavens 28 <sup>b</sup>Or creeps 29 <sup>c</sup>Lit face of <sup>d</sup>Lit in which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed 30 <sup>e</sup>Lit in which is a living soul]

The Creation of Man and Woman

1 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed, and all their hosts. <sup>2</sup>By the seventh day God completed His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done. <sup>3</sup>Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created <sup>a</sup>and made. [<sup>3</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit to make]

4 <sup>a</sup>This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made earth and heaven. <sup>5</sup>Now no shrub of the field was yet in the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not sent rain upon the earth, and there was no man to <sup>b</sup>cultivate the ground. <sup>6</sup>But a <sup>c</sup>mist used to rise from the earth and water the whole <sup>d</sup>surface of the ground. <sup>7</sup>Then the LORD God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living <sup>e</sup>being. <sup>8</sup>The LORD God planted a garden toward the east, in Eden; and there He placed the man whom He had formed. <sup>9</sup>Out of the ground the LORD God caused to grow every tree that is pleasing to the sight and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. [<sup>4</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit These are the generations <sup>5</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit work, serve <sup>6</sup> <sup>c</sup>Or flow <sup>d</sup>Lit face of <sup>7</sup> <sup>e</sup>Lit soul]

cultivate it and keep it. <sup>16</sup>The LORD God commanded the man, saying, “From any tree of the garden you may eat freely; <sup>17</sup>but from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not <sup>a</sup>eat, for in the day that you eat from it you will surely die.” [<sup>17</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit eat from it]

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone; I will make him a helper <sup>a</sup>suitable for him.” <sup>19</sup>Out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the <sup>b</sup>sky, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called a living creature, that was its name. <sup>20</sup>The man gave names to all the cattle, and to the birds of the <sup>b</sup>sky, and to every beast of the field, but for <sup>c</sup>Adam there was not found a helper <sup>a</sup>suitable for him. <sup>21</sup>So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh at that place. <sup>22</sup>The LORD God <sup>d</sup>fashioned into a woman the rib which He had taken from the man, and brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup>The man said,

“This is now bone of my bones,

The Fall of Man

1 Now the serpent was more crafty than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, “Indeed, has God said, ‘You shall not eat from <sup>a</sup>any tree of the garden?’” 2The woman said to the serpent, “From the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat; <sup>3</sup>but from the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, ‘You shall not eat from it or touch it, or you will die.’ ” 4The serpent said to the woman, “You surely will not die! <sup>5</sup>For God knows that in the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.” 6When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took from its fruit and ate; and she gave also to her husband with her, and he ate. 7Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves <sup>b</sup>loin coverings. [1 <sup>a</sup>Or every 7 <sup>b</sup>Or girdles]

8 They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the <sup>a</sup>cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. 9Then the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, “Where are you?” 10He said, “I heard the sound of You in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid myself.” 11And He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?” 12The man said, “The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me from the tree, and I ate.” 13Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” And the woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.” 14The LORD God said to the serpent,

“Because you have done this,
Cursed are you more than all cattle,
And more than every beast of the field;
On your belly you will go,

And dust you will eat
All the days of your life; [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit wind, breeze]
<sup>15</sup>And I will put enmity
Between you and the woman,
And between your seed and her seed;
He shall <sup>a</sup>bruise you on the head,
And you shall bruise him on the heel.” [<sup>a</sup>Or crush]
<sup>16</sup>To the woman He said,
“I will greatly multiply
Your pain <sup>a</sup>in childbirth,
In pain you will bring forth children;
Yet your desire will be for your husband,
And he will rule over you.”

<sup>17</sup>Then to Adam He said, “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree about which I commanded you, saying, ‘You shall not eat from it’;

Cursed is the ground because of you;
In <sup>b</sup>toil you will eat of it
All the days of your life. [<sup>a</sup>Lit and your pregnancy, conception <sup>b</sup>Or

<sup>18</sup>“Both thorns and thistles it shall grow for you;
And you will eat the <sup>a</sup>plants of the field; [<sup>a</sup>Lit plant]
<sup>19</sup>By the sweat of your face
You will eat bread,
Till you return to the ground,
Because from it you were taken;
For you are dust,
And to dust you shall return.”

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil; and now, he might stretch out his hand, and take also from the tree of life, and eat, and live forever”—<sup>23</sup>therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden, to cultivate the ground from which he was taken. <sup>24</sup>So He drove the man out; and at the east of the garden of Eden He stationed the cherubim and the flaming sword which turned every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

Cain and Abel

1 Now the man <sup>a</sup>had relations with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to <sup>b</sup>Cain, and she said, “I have gotten a <sup>c</sup>manchild with the help of the LORD.” <sup>2</sup>Again, she gave birth to his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of flocks, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. <sup>3</sup>So it came about <sup>d</sup>in the course of time that Cain brought an offering to the LORD of the fruit of the ground. <sup>4</sup>Abel, on his part also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of their fat portions. And the LORD had regard for Abel and for his offering; <sup>5</sup>but for Cain and for his offering He had no regard. So Cain became very angry and his countenance fell. <sup>6</sup>Then the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? <sup>7</sup>If you do well, <sup>e</sup>will not your countenance be lifted up? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door; and its desire is for you, but you must master it.” <sup>8</sup>Cain <sup>f</sup>told Abel his brother. And it came about when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him. 9 Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is Abel your brother?” And he said, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?” <sup>10</sup>He said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood is crying to Me from the ground. <sup>11</sup>Now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand. <sup>12</sup>When you cultivate the ground, it will no longer yield its strength to you; you will be a vagrant and a wanderer on the earth.” <sup>13</sup>Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment is too great to bear! <sup>14</sup>Behold, You have driven me this day from the face of the ground; and from Your face I will be hidden, and I will be a vagrant and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me.” <sup>15</sup>So the LORD said to him, “Therefore whoever kills Cain, vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold.” And the LORD <sup>a</sup>appointed a sign for Cain, so that no one finding him would slay him. [15 <sup>a</sup>Or set a mark on]

17 Cain <sup>a</sup>had relations with his wife and she conceived, and gave birth to Enoch; and he built a city, and called the name of the city Enoch, after the name of his son. <sup>18</sup>Now to Enoch was born Irad, and Irad <sup>b</sup>became the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael <sup>b</sup>became the father of Methushael, and Methushael <sup>b</sup>became the father of Lamech. <sup>19</sup>Lamech took to himself two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other, Zillah. <sup>20</sup>Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. <sup>21</sup>His brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all those who play the lyre and pipe. <sup>22</sup>As for Zillah, she also gave birth to Tubal-cain, the forger of all implements of bronze and iron; and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah. And a boy for striking me; [23 <sup>a</sup>Or kill]

25 Adam <sup>a</sup>had relations with his wife again; and she gave birth to a son, and named him <sup>b</sup>Seth, for, she said, “God <sup>c</sup>has appointed me another <sup>d</sup>offspring in place of Abel, for Cain killed him.” <sup>26</sup>To Seth, to him also a son was born; and he called his name Enosh. Descendants of Adam 1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day when God created man, He made him in the likeness of God.

2 He created them male and female, and He blessed them and named them <sup>a</sup>Man in the day when they were created. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit Adam]

3 When Adam had lived one hundred and thirty years, he <sup>a</sup>became the father of a son in his own likeness, according to his image, and named him Seth. 4 Then the days of Adam after he became the father of Seth were eight hundred years, and he had other sons and daughters. 5 So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years, and he died. [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit begot, and so throughout the ch]

6 Seth lived one hundred and five years, and became the father of Enosh. 7 Then Seth lived eight hundred and seven years after he became the father of Enosh, and he had other sons and daughters. 8 So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years, and he died.

9 Enosh lived ninety years, and became the father of Kenan. 10 Then Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years after he became the father of Kenan, and he had other sons and daughters. 11 So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years, and he died.

12 Kenan lived seventy years, and became the father of Mahalalel. 13 Then Kenan lived eight hundred and forty years after he became the father of Mahalalel, and he had other sons and daughters. 14 So all the days of Kenan were nine hundred and ten years, and he died.

15 Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and became the father of Jared. 16 Then Mahalalel lived eight hundred and thirty years after he became the father of Jared, and he had other sons and daughters. 17 So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years, and he died.

18 Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and became the father of Enoch. <sup>19</sup>Then Jared lived eight hundred years after he became the father of Enoch, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup>So all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years, and he died.

21 Enoch lived sixty-five years, and became the father of Methuselah. <sup>22</sup>Then Enoch walked with God three hundred years after he became the father of Methuselah, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>23</sup>So all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years. <sup>24</sup>Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.

25 Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and became the father of Lamech. <sup>26</sup>Then Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty-two years after he became the father of Lamech, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup>So all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years, and he died.

28 Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and became the father of a son. <sup>29</sup>Now he called his name Noah, saying, “This one will <sup>a</sup>give us rest from our work and from the toil of our hands arising from the ground which the LORD has cursed.” <sup>30</sup>Then Lamech lived five hundred and ninety-five years after he became the father of Noah, and he had other sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup>So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years, and he died. The Corruption of Mankind <sup>1</sup> Now it came about, when men began to multiply on the face of the land, and daughters were born to them, <sup>2</sup> that the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were <sup>a</sup> beautiful; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose. <sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said, “My Spirit shall not <sup>b</sup> strive with man forever, <sup>c</sup> because he also is flesh; <sup>d</sup> nevertheless his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.”

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. <sup>6</sup> The LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved <sup>a</sup> in His heart. <sup>7</sup> The LORD said, “I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping things and to birds of the <sup>b</sup> sky; for I am sorry that I have made them.” <sup>8</sup> But Noah found favor in the eyes of the LORD. <sup>11</sup> Now the earth was corrupt in the sight of God, and the earth was filled with violence. <sup>12</sup> God looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way upon the earth.

<sup>13</sup> Then God said to Noah, “The end of all flesh has come before Me; for the earth is filled with violence because of them; and behold, I am about to destroy them with the earth. <sup>14</sup>Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood; you shall make the ark with rooms, and shall <sup>a</sup>cover it inside and out with pitch. <sup>15</sup>This is how you shall make it: the length of the ark three hundred <sup>b</sup>cubits, its breadth fifty <sup>b</sup>cubits, and its height thirty <sup>b</sup>cubits. <sup>16</sup>You shall make a <sup>c</sup>window for the ark, and finish it to a cubit from <sup>d</sup>the top; and set the door of the ark in the side of it; you shall make it with lower, second, and third decks. <sup>17</sup>Behold, I, even I am bringing the flood of water upon the earth, to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life, from under heaven; everything that is on the earth shall perish. <sup>18</sup>But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall enter the ark—you and your sons and your wife, and your sons' wives with you. <sup>19</sup>And of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. <sup>20</sup>Of the birds after their kind, and of the animals after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every kind will come to you to keep them alive. <sup>21</sup>As for you, take for yourself some of all food which is edible, and gather it to yourself; and it shall be for food for you and for them.” <sup>22</sup>Thus Noah did; according to all that God had commanded him, so he did. The Flood 1 Then the LORD said to Noah, “Enter the ark, you and all your household, for you alone I have seen to be righteous before Me in this <sup>a</sup>time. 2 You shall take <sup>b</sup>with you of every clean animal <sup>c</sup>by sevens, a male and his female; and of the animals that are not clean two, a male and his female; 3 also of the birds of the <sup>d</sup>sky, <sup>e</sup>by sevens, male and female, to keep <sup>f</sup>offspring alive on the face of all the earth. 4 For after seven more days, I will send rain on the earth forty days and forty nights; and I will blot out from the face of the land every living thing that I have made.” 5 Noah did according to all that the LORD had commanded him. 6 Now Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of water <sup>a</sup>came upon the earth. 7 Then Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives with him entered the ark because of the water of the flood. 8 Of clean animals and animals that are not clean and birds and everything that creeps on the ground, 9 there went into the ark to Noah <sup>b</sup>by twos, male and female, as God had commanded Noah. 10 It came about after the seven days, that the water of the flood <sup>c</sup>came upon the earth. 11 In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the same day all the fountains of the great deep burst open, and the <sup>d</sup>floodgates of the sky were opened. 12 The rain <sup>a</sup>fell upon the earth for forty days and forty nights. 13 On the very same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah’s wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark, 14 they and every beast after its kind, and all the cattle after <sup>a</sup>their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, <sup>b</sup>all sorts of birds. 15 So they went into the ark to Noah, by twos of all flesh in which was the breath of life. 16 Those that entered, male and female of all flesh, entered

17 Then the flood <sup>a</sup>came upon the earth for forty days, and the water increased and lifted up the ark, so that it rose above the earth. <sup>18</sup>The water prevailed and increased greatly upon the earth, and the ark <sup>b</sup>floated on the <sup>c</sup>surface of the water. <sup>19</sup>The water prevailed more and more upon the earth, so that all the high mountains <sup>d</sup>everywhere under the heavens were covered. <sup>20</sup>The water prevailed fifteen <sup>e</sup>cubits higher, and the mountains were covered. <sup>21</sup>All flesh that <sup>f</sup>moved on the earth perished, birds and cattle and beasts and every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth, and all mankind; <sup>22</sup>of all that was on the dry land, all in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, died. <sup>23</sup>Thus He blotted out <sup>g</sup>every living thing that was upon the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping things and to birds of the <sup>h</sup>sky, and they were blotted out from the earth; and only Noah was left, together with those that were with him in the ark. <sup>24</sup>The water prevailed upon the earth one hundred and fifty days. The Flood Subsides 1 But God remembered Noah and all the beasts and all the cattle that were with him in the ark; and God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the water subsided. 2 Also the fountains of the deep and the <sup>a</sup>floodgates of the sky were closed, and the rain from the sky was restrained; 3 and the water receded steadily from the earth, and at the end of one hundred and fifty days the water decreased. 4 In the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested upon the mountains of Ararat. 5 The water decreased steadily until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains became visible. 6 Then it came about at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made; 7 and he sent out a raven, and it <sup>a</sup>flew here and there until the water was dried up <sup>b</sup>from the earth. 8 Then he sent out a dove from him, to see if the water was abated from the face of the land; 9 but the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, so she returned to him into the ark, for the water was on the <sup>c</sup>surface of all the earth. ### Covenant of the Rainbow

1 And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth. 2The fear of you and the terror of you will be on every beast of the earth and on every bird of the <sup>a</sup>sky; with everything that creeps on the ground, and all the fish of the sea, into your hand they are given. 3Every moving thing that is alive shall be food for you; I give all to you, as I gave the green plant. 4Only you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood. 5Surely I will require <sup>b</sup>your lifeblood; <sup>c</sup>from every beast I will require it. 8 Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, 9“Now behold, I Myself do establish My covenant with you, and with your <sup>a</sup>descendants after you; 10and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you; of all that comes out of the ark, even every beast of the earth. 11I establish My covenant with you; and all flesh shall never again be cut off by the water of the flood, neither shall there again be a flood to destroy the earth.” 12God said, “This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for <sup>b</sup>all successive generations; 13I set My bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth. <sup>14</sup>It shall come about, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow will be seen in the cloud, <sup>15</sup>and I will remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and never again shall the water become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>16</sup>When the bow is in the cloud, then I will look upon it, to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.” <sup>17</sup>And God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth.” [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit seed 12 <sup>b</sup>Or everlasting generations]

18 Now the sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem and Ham and Japheth; and Ham was the father of Canaan. <sup>19</sup>These three were the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was <sup>a</sup>populated. [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit scattered]

20 Then Noah began <sup>a</sup>farming and planted a vineyard. <sup>21</sup>He drank of the wine and became drunk, and uncovered himself inside his tent. <sup>22</sup>Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside. <sup>23</sup>But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it upon both their shoulders and walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were <sup>b</sup>turned away, so that they did not see their father’s nakedness. <sup>24</sup>When Noah awoke from his wine, he knew what his youngest son had done to him. <sup>25</sup>So he said, “Cursed be Canaan;

He shall be to his brothers.”

<sup>26</sup>He also said,

Descendants of Noah <sup>1</sup> Now these are the records of the generations of Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah; and sons were born to them after the flood.

3 They said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks and burn them thoroughly.” And they used brick for stone, and they used tar for mortar. 4 They said, “Come, let us build for ourselves a city, and a tower whose top will reach into heaven, and let us make for ourselves a name, otherwise we will be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth.”

5 The LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built. 6 The LORD said, “Behold, they are one people, and they all have <sup>d</sup>the same language. And this is what they began to do, and now nothing which they purpose to do will be <sup>e</sup>impossible for them. 7 Come, let Us go down and there confuse their <sup>f</sup>language, so that they will not understand one another’s <sup>g</sup>speech.” 8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of the whole earth; and they stopped building the city. 9 Therefore its name was called <sup>h</sup>Babel, because there the LORD confused the <sup>i</sup>language of the whole earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of the whole earth. 14 Shelah lived thirty years, and became the father of Eber; <sup>15</sup>and Shelah lived four hundred and three years after he became the father of Eber, and he had other sons and daughters.

20 Reu lived thirty-two years, and became the father of Serug; <sup>21</sup>and Reu lived two hundred and seven years after he became the father of Serug, and he had other sons and daughters.

22 Serug lived thirty years, and became the father of Nahor; <sup>23</sup>and Serug lived two hundred years after he became the father of Nahor, and he had other sons and daughters.

Abram Journeys to Egypt

1 Now the LORD said to Abram,

<sup>4</sup> So Abram went forth as the LORD had spoken to him; and Lot went with him. Now Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. <sup>5</sup>Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his nephew, and all their possessions which they had accumulated, and the <sup>a</sup>persons which they had acquired in Haran, and they <sup>b</sup>set out for the land of Canaan; thus they came to the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup>Abram passed through the land as far as the site of Shechem, to the <sup>c</sup>oak of Moreh. Now the Canaanite was then in the land. <sup>7</sup>The LORD appeared to Abram and said, “To your <sup>d</sup>descendants I will give this land.” So he built an altar there to the LORD who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup>Then he proceeded from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and called upon the name of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>Abram journeyed on, continuing toward the <sup>e</sup>Negev. <sup>10</sup> Now there was a famine in the land; so Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine was severe in the land. <sup>11</sup>It came about when he <sup>a</sup>came near to Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, “See now, I know that you are a <sup>b</sup>beautiful woman; <sup>12</sup>and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife’; and they will kill me, but they will let you live.

<sup>13</sup>Please say that you are my sister so that it may go well with me because of you, and that <sup>c</sup>I may live on account of you.” <sup>14</sup>It came about when Abram came into Egypt, the Egyptians <sup>d</sup>saw that the woman was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup>Pharaoh’s officials saw her and praised her to Pharaoh; and the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house. <sup>16</sup>Therefore he treated Abram well for her sake; and <sup>e</sup>gave him sheep and oxen and donkeys and male and female servants and female donkeys and camels. 17 But the LORD struck Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram’s wife. <sup>18</sup>Then Pharaoh called Abram and said, “What is this you have done to me? ### Abram and Lot

1 So Abram went up from Egypt to the <sup>a</sup>Negev, he and his wife and all that belonged to him, and Lot with him. [1 <sup>a</sup>I.e. South country]

2 Now Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver and in gold. <sup>3</sup>He went <sup>a</sup>on his journeys from the <sup>b</sup>Negev as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, <sup>4</sup>to the place of the altar which he had made there formerly; and there Abram called on the name of the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Now Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents. <sup>6</sup>And the land could not <sup>c</sup>sustain them <sup>d</sup>while dwelling together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to remain together. <sup>7</sup>And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. Now the Canaanite and the Perizzite were dwelling then in the land. [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit by his stages <sup>b</sup>I.e. South country 6 <sup>c</sup>Lit bear <sup>d</sup>Lit to dwell]

8 So Abram said to Lot, "Please let there be no strife between you and me, nor between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are brothers. <sup>9</sup>Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me; if to the left, then I will go to the right; or if to the right, then I will go to the left." <sup>10</sup>Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the <sup>a</sup>valley of the Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere—this was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah—like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you go to Zoar. <sup>11</sup>So Lot chose for himself all the <sup>a</sup>valley of the Jordan, and Lot journeyed eastward. Thus they separated from each other. <sup>12</sup>Abram <sup>b</sup>settled in the land of Canaan, while Lot <sup>b</sup>settled in the cities of the <sup>a</sup>valley, and moved his tents as far as Sodom. <sup>13</sup>Now the men of Sodom were wicked <sup>c</sup>exceedingly and sinners against the LORD. [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit circle 12 <sup>b</sup>Lit dwelt 13 <sup>c</sup>Lit wicked and sinners exceedingly] your eyes and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward; <sup>15</sup>for all the land which you see, I will give it to you and to your <sup>a</sup>descendants forever. <sup>16</sup>I will make your <sup>a</sup>descendants as the dust of the earth, so that if anyone can number the dust of the earth, then your <sup>a</sup>descendants can also be numbered. <sup>17</sup>Arise, walk about the land through its length and breadth; for I will give it to you.” <sup>18</sup>Then Abram moved his tent and came and dwelt by the <sup>b</sup>oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and there he built an altar to the LORD. War of the Kings 1 And it came about in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of <sup>a</sup>Goiim, <sup>2</sup>that they made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar). <sup>3</sup>All these <sup>b</sup>came as allies to the valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea). <sup>4</sup>Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, but the thirteenth year they rebelled. <sup>5</sup>In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him, came and <sup>c</sup>defeated the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim and the Zuzim in Ham and the Emim in <sup>d</sup>Shaveh-kiriathaim, <sup>6</sup>and the Horites in their Mount Seir, as far as El-paran, which is by the wilderness. <sup>7</sup>Then they turned back and came to En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and <sup>e</sup>conquered all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, who lived in Hazazon-tamar. <sup>8</sup>And the king of Sodom and the king of Gomorrah and the king of Admah and the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) came out; and they arrayed for battle against them in the valley of Siddim, <sup>9</sup>against Chedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of <sup>a</sup>Goiim and Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ellasar—four kings against five. <sup>10</sup>Now the valley of Siddim was full of tar pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and they fell <sup>e</sup>into them. But those who survived fled to the hill country. <sup>11</sup>Then they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food supply, and departed.

1 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying,

“Do not fear, Abram,
I am a shield to you;

Sarai and Hagar

1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife had borne him no children, and she had an Egyptian maid whose name was Hagar. 2 So Sarai said to Abram, "Now behold, the LORD has prevented me from bearing children. Please go in to my maid; perhaps I will <sup>a</sup>obtain children through her." And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. 3 After Abram had <sup>b</sup>lived ten years in the land of Canaan, Abram's wife Sarai took Hagar the Egyptian, her maid, and gave her to her husband Abram as his wife. 4 He went in to Hagar, and she conceived; and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her sight. 5 And Sarai said to Abram, "May the wrong done me be upon you. I gave my maid into your <sup>c</sup>arms, but when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her <sup>d</sup>sight. May the LORD judge between <sup>e</sup>you and me." 6 But Abram said to Sarai, "Behold, your maid is in your <sup>f</sup>power; do to her what is good in your <sup>d</sup>sight." <sup>13</sup>Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, “<sup>c</sup>You are <sup>d</sup>a God who sees”; for she said, “Have I even <sup>e</sup>remained alive here after seeing Him?” <sup>14</sup>Therefore the well was called <sup>f</sup>Beer-lahai-roi; behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered. <sup>4</sup>“As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you,
And you will be the father of a multitude of nations.

But your name shall be <sup>b</sup>Abraham;
For I have made you the father of a multitude of nations.

<sup>6</sup>I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings will come forth from you. <sup>7</sup>I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your <sup>c</sup>descendants after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your <sup>c</sup>descendants after you.

9 God said further to Abraham, “Now as for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your <sup>a</sup>descendants after you throughout their generations. <sup>10</sup>This is My covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your <sup>a</sup>descendants after you: every male among you shall be circumcised. <sup>11</sup>And you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin, and it shall be the sign of the covenant between Me and you. <sup>12</sup>And every male among you who is eight days old shall be circumcised throughout your generations, a servant who is born in the house or who is bought with money from any foreigner, who is not of your <sup>a</sup>descendants. <sup>13</sup>A servant who is born in your house or who is bought with your money shall surely be circumcised; thus shall My covenant be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup>But an uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.” [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit seed]

15 Then God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but <sup>a</sup>Sarah shall be her name. <sup>16</sup>I will bless her, and indeed I will give you a son by her. Then I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peoples will <sup>b</sup>come from her.” <sup>17</sup>Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, “Will a child be born to a man one hundred years old? And will Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?” <sup>18</sup>And Abraham said to God, “Oh that Ishmael might live before You!” <sup>19</sup>But God said, “No, but Sarah your wife will bear you a son, and you shall call his name <sup>c</sup>Isaac; and I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant for his <sup>d</sup>descendants after him. <sup>20</sup>As for Ishmael, I have heard you; behold, I will bless him, and will make him fruitful and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall <sup>e</sup>become the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. <sup>21</sup>But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this season next year.” <sup>22</sup>When He finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham. 23 Then Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all the servants who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s household, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the very same day, as God had said to him. <sup>24</sup>Now Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

<sup>25</sup>And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>26</sup>In the very same day Abraham was circumcised, and Ishmael his son. <sup>27</sup>All the men of his household, who were born in the house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

1 Now the LORD appeared to him by the <sup>a</sup>oaks of Mamre, while he was sitting at the tent door in the heat of the day. <sup>2</sup>When he lifted up his eyes and looked, behold, three men were standing opposite him; and when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed himself to the earth, <sup>3</sup>and said, “<sup>b</sup>My Lord, if now I have found favor in Your sight, please do not <sup>c</sup>pass Your servant by. <sup>4</sup>Please let a little water be brought and wash your feet, and <sup>d</sup>rest yourselves under the tree; <sup>5</sup>and I will <sup>e</sup>bring a piece of bread, that you may <sup>f</sup>refresh yourselves; after that you may go on, since you have <sup>g</sup>visited your servant.” And they said, “So do, as you have said.” <sup>6</sup>So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, “<sup>h</sup>Quickly, prepare three <sup>i</sup>measures of fine flour, knead it and make bread cakes.” <sup>7</sup>Abraham also ran to the herd, and took a tender and <sup>j</sup>choice calf and gave it to the servant, and he hurried to prepare it. <sup>8</sup>He took curds and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and placed it before them; and he was standing by them under the tree <sup>k</sup>as they ate. 9 Then they said to him, “Where is Sarah your wife?” And he said, “There, in the tent.” <sup>10</sup>He said, “I will surely return to you <sup>a</sup>at this time next year; and behold, Sarah your wife will have a son.” And Sarah was listening at the tent door, which was behind him. <sup>11</sup>Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; Sarah was past <sup>b</sup>childbearing. <sup>12</sup>Sarah laughed <sup>c</sup>to herself, saying, “After I have become old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?” <sup>13</sup>And the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Shall I indeed <sup>d</sup>bear a child, when I am so old?’ <sup>14</sup>Is anything too <sup>e</sup>difficult for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, <sup>a</sup>at this time next year, and Sarah will have a son.” <sup>15</sup>Sarah denied it however, saying, “I did not laugh”; for she was afraid. 16 Then the men rose up from there, and looked down toward Sodom; and Abraham was walking with them to send them off. 17The LORD said, “Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do, 18since Abraham will surely become a great and <sup>a</sup>mighty nation, and in him all the nations of the earth will be blessed? 19For I have <sup>b</sup>chosen him, so that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring upon Abraham what He has spoken about him.” 20And the LORD said, “The outcry of Sodom and Gomorrah is indeed great, and their sin is exceedingly grave. 21I will go down now, and see if they have done entirely according to its outcry, which has come to Me; and if not, I will know.” [18 <sup>a</sup>Or populous 19 <sup>b</sup>Lit known]

22 Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, while Abraham was still standing before the LORD. 23Abraham came near and said, “Will You indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked? 24Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; will You indeed sweep it away and not <sup>a</sup>spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who are in it? 25Far be it from You to do <sup>b</sup>such a thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous and the wicked are treated alike. Far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth <sup>c</sup>deal justly?” 26So the LORD said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will <sup>a</sup>spare the whole place on their account.” 27And Abraham replied, “Now behold, I have <sup>d</sup>ventured to speak to the Lord, although I am but dust and ashes. 28Suppose the fifty righteous are lacking five, will You destroy the whole city because of five?” And He said, “I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.” 29He spoke to Him yet again and said, “Suppose forty are found there?” And He said, “I will not do it on account of the forty.” 30Then he said, “Oh may the Lord not be angry, and I shall speak; suppose thirty are found there?” And He said, “I will not do it if I find thirty there.” 31And he said, “Now behold, I have <sup>d</sup>ventured to speak to the Lord; suppose twenty are found there?” And He said, “I will not destroy it on account of the twenty.” 32Then he said, “Oh may the Lord not be angry, and I shall speak only this once; suppose ten are found there?” And He said, “I will not destroy it on account of the ten.” 33As soon as He had finished speaking to Abraham the LORD

The Doom of Sodom <sup>1</sup> Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening as Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them and <sup>a</sup>bowed down with his face to the ground. <sup>2</sup> And he said, “Now behold, my lords, please turn aside into your servant’s house, and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way.” They said however, “No, but we shall spend the night in the square.” <sup>3</sup> Yet he urged them strongly, so they turned aside to him and entered his house; and he prepared a feast for them, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. <sup>4</sup> Before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people <sup>b</sup>from every quarter; <sup>5</sup> and they called to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may <sup>c</sup>have relations with them.” <sup>6</sup> But Lot went out to them at the doorway, and shut the door behind him, <sup>7</sup> and said, “Please, my brothers, do not act wickedly. <sup>8</sup> Now behold, I have two daughters who have not <sup>d</sup>had relations with man; please let me bring them out to you, and do to them <sup>e</sup>whatever you like; only do nothing to these men, inasmuch as they have come under the <sup>f</sup>shelter of my roof.” <sup>9</sup> But they said, “Stand aside.” Furthermore, they said, “This one came in <sup>g</sup>as an alien, and already he is acting like a judge; now we will treat you worse than them.” So they pressed hard against <sup>h</sup>Lot and came near to break the door. <sup>10</sup> But the men reached out their <sup>i</sup>hands and brought Lot into the house <sup>j</sup>with them, and shut the door. <sup>11</sup> They <sup>k</sup>struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves trying to find the doorway. <sup>12</sup> Then the two men said to Lot, “Whom else have you here? A son-in-law, and your sons, and your daughters, and whomever you have in the city, bring them out of the place; <sup>13</sup>for we are about to destroy this place, because their outcry has become so great before the LORD that the LORD has sent us to destroy it.” <sup>14</sup>Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who <sup>a</sup>were to marry his daughters, and said, “Up, get out of this place, for the LORD will destroy the city.” But he appeared to his sons-in-law <sup>b</sup>to be jesting. <sup>15</sup> When morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, “Up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the <sup>a</sup>punishment of the city.” <sup>16</sup>But he hesitated. So the men seized his hand and the hand of his wife and the <sup>b</sup>hands of his two daughters, for the compassion of the LORD was upon him; and they brought him out, and put him outside the city. <sup>17</sup>When they had brought them outside, <sup>c</sup>one said, “Escape for your life! Do not look behind you, and do not stay <sup>d</sup>anywhere in the valley; escape to the <sup>e</sup>mountains, or you will be swept away.” <sup>18</sup>But Lot said to them, “Oh no, my lords! <sup>19</sup>Now behold, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have magnified your lovingkindness, which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the <sup>e</sup>mountains, for the disaster will overtake me and I will die; <sup>20</sup>now behold, this town is near enough to flee to, and it is small. Please, let me escape there (is it not small?) <sup>f</sup>that my life may be saved.” <sup>21</sup>He said to him, “Behold, I grant you this <sup>g</sup>request also, not to overthrow the town of which you have spoken. <sup>22</sup>Hurry, escape there, for I cannot do anything until you arrive there.” Therefore the name of the town was called <sup>h</sup>Zoar. <sup>23</sup> The sun had risen over the earth when Lot came to Zoar. <sup>24</sup>Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven, <sup>25</sup>and He overthrew those cities, and all the <sup>a</sup>valley, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground. <sup>26</sup>But his wife, from behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt. [<sup>25</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit circle]

where he had stood before the LORD; <sup>28</sup>and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the <sup>a</sup>valley, and he saw, and behold, the smoke of the land ascended like the smoke of a <sup>b</sup>furnace. [28 <sup>a</sup>Lit circle <sup>b</sup>Lit kiln]

29 Thus it came about, when God destroyed the cities of the <sup>a</sup>valley, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot lived. [29 <sup>a</sup>Lit circle]

Lot Is Debased 30 Lot went up from Zoar, and <sup>a</sup>stayed in the <sup>b</sup>mountains, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to <sup>c</sup>stay in Zoar; and he <sup>a</sup>stayed in a cave, he and his two daughters. <sup>31</sup>Then the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is not a man <sup>d</sup>on earth to come in to us after the manner of the earth. <sup>32</sup>Come, let us make our father drink wine, and let us lie with him that we may preserve <sup>e</sup>our family through our father.” <sup>33</sup>So they made their father drink wine that night, and the firstborn went in and lay with her father; and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose. <sup>34</sup>On the following day, the firstborn said to the younger, “Behold, I lay last night with my father; let us make him drink wine tonight also; then you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve <sup>e</sup>our family through our father.” <sup>35</sup>So they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger arose and lay with him; and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose. <sup>36</sup>Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father. <sup>37</sup>The firstborn bore a son, and called his name Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day. <sup>38</sup>As for the younger, she also bore a son, and called his name Ben-ammi; he is the father of the <sup>f</sup>sons of Ammon to this day. Abraham's Treachery 1 Now Abraham journeyed from there toward the land of the <sup>a</sup>Negev, and <sup>b</sup>settled between Kadesh and Shur; then he sojourned in Gerar. 2 Abraham said of Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." So Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah. 3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Behold, you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is <sup>c</sup>married." 4 Now Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, "Lord, will You slay a nation, even though <sup>d</sup>blameless? 5 Did he not himself say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my <sup>e</sup>hands I have done this." 6 Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also <sup>f</sup>kept you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her. 7 Now therefore, restore the man's wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. 8 So Abimelech arose early in the morning and called all his servants and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were greatly frightened. 9 Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? And <sup>a</sup>how have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me <sup>b</sup>things that ought not to be done." 10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, "What have you <sup>c</sup>encountered, that you have done this thing?" 11 Abraham said, "Because I thought, surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife. 12 Besides, she actually is my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife; 13 and it came about, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, 'This is <sup>d</sup>the kindness which you will show to me: <sup>e</sup>everywhere we go, say of me, “He is my brother.” ’ ” <sup>14</sup>Abimelech then took sheep and oxen and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored his wife Sarah to him. <sup>15</sup>Abimelech said, “Behold, my land is before you; <sup>f</sup>settle wherever <sup>g</sup>you please.” <sup>16</sup>To Sarah he said, “Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; behold, it is <sup>h</sup>your vindication before all who are with you, and before all men you are cleared.” <sup>17</sup>Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his maids, so that they bore children. <sup>18</sup>For the LORD had closed fast all the wombs of the household of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife. Isaac Is Born 1 Then the LORD took note of Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as He had <sup>a</sup>promised. 2 So Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time of which God had spoken to him. 3 Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac. 4 Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. 5 Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. 6 Sarah said, “God has made laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh <sup>b</sup>with me.” 7 And she said, “Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit spoken 6 <sup>b</sup>Lit for]

8 The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

Sarah Turns against Hagar 9 Now Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, <sup>a</sup>mocking. 10 Therefore she said to Abraham, “Drive out this maid and her son, for the son of this maid shall not be an heir with my son <sup>b</sup>Isaac.” 11 The matter <sup>c</sup>distressed Abraham greatly because of his son. 12 But God said to Abraham, “<sup>d</sup>Do not be distressed because of the lad and your maid; whatever Sarah tells you, listen to her, for through Isaac <sup>e</sup>your descendants shall be named. 13 And of the son of the maid I will make a nation also, because he is your <sup>f</sup>descendant.” 14 So Abraham rose early in the morning and took bread and a <sup>g</sup>skin of water and gave them to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder, and gave her the boy, and sent her away. Do not fear, for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is. <sup>18</sup>Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him by <sup>c</sup>the hand, for I will make a great nation of him.” <sup>19</sup>Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water; and she went and filled the <sup>d</sup>skin with water and gave the lad a drink. Covenant with Abimelech <sup>22</sup> Now it came about at that time that Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, “God is with you in all that you do; <sup>23</sup>now therefore, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my offspring or with my posterity, but according to the kindness that I have shown to you, you shall show to me and to the land in which you have sojourned.” <sup>24</sup>Abraham said, “I swear it.” <sup>25</sup>But Abraham <sup>a</sup>complained to Abimelech because of the well of water which the servants of Abimelech had seized. <sup>26</sup>And Abimelech said, “I do not know who has done this thing; you did not tell me, nor did I hear of it <sup>b</sup>until today.” [<sup>25</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit reproved <sup>26</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit except]

<sup>27</sup> Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant. <sup>28</sup>Then Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. <sup>29</sup>Abimelech said to Abraham, “What do these seven ewe lambs mean, which you have set by themselves?” <sup>30</sup>He said, “You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand so that it may be a witness to me, that I dug this well.” <sup>31</sup>Therefore he called that place

Beersheba, because there the two of them took an oath. <sup>32</sup>So they made a covenant at Beersheba; and Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, arose and returned to the land of the Philistines. <sup>33</sup>Abraham planted a tamarisk tree at Beersheba, and there he called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. <sup>34</sup>And Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines for many days.

The Offering of Isaac <sup>1</sup> Now it came about after these things, that God tested Abraham, and said to him, “Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.” <sup>2</sup>He said, “Take now your son, your only son, whom you love, Isaac, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I will tell you.” <sup>3</sup>So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him and Isaac his son; and he split wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him.

<sup>4</sup>On the third day Abraham raised his eyes and saw the place from a distance. <sup>5</sup>Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey, and I and the lad will go over there; and we will worship and return to you.” <sup>6</sup>Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son, and he took in his hand the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. <sup>7</sup>Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, “My father!” And he said, “Here I am, my son.” And he said, “Behold, the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?” <sup>8</sup>Abraham said, “God will <sup>a</sup>provide for Himself the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” So the two of them walked on together. [8

<sup>9</sup> Then they came to the place of which God had told him; and Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood, and bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. <sup>10</sup>Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. <sup>11</sup>But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.” <sup>12</sup>He said, “Do not stretch out your hand against the lad, and do nothing to him; for now I know that you <sup>a</sup>fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.” <sup>13</sup>Then Abraham raised his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him a ram caught in the thicket by his horns; and Abraham went and took the ram and offered him up for a burnt offering in the place of his son. <sup>14</sup>Abraham called the name of that place <sup>b</sup>The LORD

Death and Burial of Sarah <sup>1</sup> Now <sup>a</sup>Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of the life of Sarah. <sup>2</sup>Sarah died in Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan; and Abraham <sup>b</sup>went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her. <sup>3</sup>Then Abraham rose from before his dead, and spoke to the sons of Heth, saying, <sup>4</sup>“I am a stranger and a sojourner among you; give me <sup>c</sup>a burial site among you that I may bury my dead out of my sight.” <sup>5</sup>The sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him, <sup>6</sup>“Hear us, my lord, you are a <sup>d</sup>mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our graves; none of us will refuse you his grave for burying your dead.” <sup>7</sup>So Abraham rose and bowed to the people of the land, the sons of Heth. <sup>8</sup>And he spoke with them, saying, “If it is your <sup>e</sup>wish for me to bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and approach Ephron the son of Zohar for me, <sup>9</sup>that he may give me the cave of Machpelah which he owns, which is at the end of his field; for the full price let him give it to me in <sup>f</sup>your presence for <sup>g</sup>a burial site.” <sup>10</sup>Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth; even of all who went in at the gate of his city, saying, <sup>11</sup>“No, my lord, hear me; I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. In the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you; bury your dead.” <sup>12</sup>And Abraham bowed before the people of the land. <sup>13</sup>He spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, “If you will only please listen to me; I will give the price of the field, accept it from me that I may bury my dead there.” <sup>14</sup>Then Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, <sup>15</sup>“My lord, listen to me; a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver, what is that between me and you? So bury your dead.” <sup>16</sup>Abraham listened to Ephron; and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver which he had named in the <sup>h</sup>hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, <sup>i</sup>commercial standard. ### A Bride for Isaac

1 Now Abraham was old, advanced in age; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in every way. <sup>2</sup>Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his household, who had charge of all that he owned, “Please place your hand under my thigh, <sup>3</sup>and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live, <sup>4</sup>but you will go to my country and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac.” <sup>5</sup>The servant said to him, “Suppose the woman is not willing to follow me to this land; should I take your son back to the land from where you came?” <sup>6</sup>Then Abraham said to him, “Beware that you do not take my son back there! <sup>7</sup>The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me and who swore to me, saying, ‘To your <sup>a</sup>descendants I will give this land,’ He will send His angel before you, and you will take a wife for my son from there. <sup>8</sup>But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from this my oath; only do not take my son back there.” <sup>9</sup>So the servant placed his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter. [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit seed]

10 Then the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master, and set out with a variety of good things of his master’s in his hand; and he arose and went to <sup>a</sup>Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor. <sup>11</sup>He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw water. <sup>12</sup>He said, “O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, please <sup>b</sup>grant me success today, and show lovingkindness to my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup>Behold, I am standing by the <sup>c</sup>spring, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water; <sup>14</sup>now may it be that the girl to whom I say, ‘Please let down your jar so that I may drink,’ and <sup>d</sup>who answers, ‘Drink, and I will water your camels also’—may she be the one whom You have appointed for Your servant Isaac; and by this I will

Rebekah Is Chosen

15 Before he had finished speaking, behold, Rebekah who was born to Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Abraham’s brother Nahor, came out with her jar on her shoulder. <sup>16</sup>The girl was very beautiful, a virgin, and no man had <sup>a</sup>had relations with her; and she went down to the spring and filled her jar and came up. <sup>17</sup>Then the servant ran to meet her, and said, “Please let me drink a little water from your jar.” <sup>18</sup>She said, “Drink, my lord”; and she quickly lowered her jar to her hand, and gave him a drink. <sup>19</sup>Now when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I will draw also for your camels until they have finished drinking.” <sup>20</sup>So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough, and ran back to the well to draw, and she drew for all his camels. <sup>21</sup>Meanwhile, the man was gazing at her <sup>b</sup>in silence, to know whether the LORD had made his journey successful or not. [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit known 21 <sup>b</sup>Lit keeping silent]

22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold ring weighing a half-shekel and two bracelets for her <sup>a</sup>wrists weighing ten shekels in gold, <sup>23</sup>and said, “Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room for us to lodge in your father’s house?” <sup>24</sup>She said to him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.” <sup>25</sup>Again she said to him, “We have plenty of both straw and feed, and room to lodge in.” <sup>26</sup>Then the man bowed low and worshiped the LORD. <sup>27</sup>He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His lovingkindness and His truth toward my master; as for me, the LORD has guided me in the way to the house of my master’s brothers.” [22 <sup>a</sup>Lit hands]

28 Then the girl ran and told her mother’s household about these things. <sup>29</sup>Now Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran outside to the man at the spring. <sup>30</sup>When he saw the ring and the bracelets on his sister's <sup>a</sup>wrists, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, "<sup>b</sup>This is what the man said to me," he went to the man; and behold, he was standing by the camels at the spring. <sup>31</sup>And he said, "Come in, blessed of the LORD! Why do you stand outside since I have prepared the house, and a place for the camels?" <sup>32</sup>So the man entered the house. Then <sup>c</sup>Laban unloaded the camels, and he gave straw and feed to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. <sup>33</sup>But when food was set before him to eat, he said, "I will not eat until I have told my business." And he said, "Speak on." <sup>34</sup>So he said, "I am Abraham's servant. <sup>35</sup>The LORD has greatly blessed my master, so that he has become <sup>d</sup>rich; and He has given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and servants and maids, and camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup>Now Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master <sup>e</sup>in her old age, and he has given him all that he has. <sup>37</sup>My master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I <sup>f</sup>live; <sup>38</sup>but you shall go to my father's house and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.' <sup>39</sup>I said to my master, 'Suppose the woman does not follow me.' <sup>40</sup>He said to me, 'The LORD, before whom I have walked, will send His angel with you to make your journey successful, and you will take a wife for my son from my relatives and from my father's house; <sup>41</sup>then you will be free from my oath, when you come to my relatives; and if they do not give her to you, you will be free from my oath.' [43 <sup>a</sup>Lit fountain of water]

<sup>45</sup> "Before I had finished speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder, and went down to the spring and drew, and I said to her, 'Please let me drink.' <sup>46</sup>She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will water your camels also'; so I drank, and she watered the camels also. <sup>47</sup>Then I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?’ And she said, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor’s son, whom Milcah bore to him’; and I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her <sup>a</sup>wrists. <sup>48</sup>And I bowed low and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had guided me in the right way to take the daughter of my master’s <sup>b</sup>kinsman for his son. <sup>49</sup>So now if you are going to <sup>c</sup>deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, let me know, that I may turn to the right hand or the left.” [47 <sup>a</sup>Lit hands 48 <sup>b</sup>Lit brother 49 <sup>c</sup>Lit show lovingkindness and truth]

<sup>50</sup> Then Laban and Bethuel replied, “The matter comes from the LORD; so we cannot speak to you bad or good. <sup>51</sup>Here is Rebekah before you, take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master’s son, as the LORD has spoken.”

<sup>52</sup> When Abraham’s servant heard their words, he bowed himself to the ground <sup>a</sup>before the LORD. <sup>53</sup>The servant brought out articles of silver and articles of gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother. <sup>54</sup>Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night. When they arose in the morning, he said, “Send me away to my master.” <sup>55</sup>But her brother and her mother said, “Let the girl stay with us a few days, say ten; afterward she may go.” <sup>56</sup>He said to them, “Do not delay me, since the LORD has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master.” <sup>57</sup>And they said, “We will call the girl and <sup>b</sup>consult her wishes.” <sup>58</sup>Then they called Rebekah and said to her, “Will you go with this man?” And she said, “I will go.” <sup>59</sup>Thus they sent away their sister Rebekah and her nurse with Abraham’s servant and his men. <sup>60</sup>They blessed Rebekah and said to her,

“May you, our sister,
Become thousands of ten thousands,
And may your <sup>c</sup>descendants possess

<sup>61</sup>Then Rebekah arose with her maids, and they mounted the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and departed. [52 <sup>a</sup>Lit to 57 <sup>b</sup>Lit ask her mouth 60 <sup>c</sup>Lit seed]

Isaac Marries Rebekah

Isaac Settles in Gerar <sup>1</sup> Now there was a famine in the land, besides the previous famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. So Isaac went to Gerar, to Abimelech king of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup>The LORD appeared to him and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; <sup>a</sup>stay in the land of which I shall tell you. <sup>3</sup>Sojourn in this land and I will be with you and bless you, for to you and to your <sup>b</sup>descendants I will give all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to your father Abraham. <sup>4</sup>I will multiply your <sup>b</sup>descendants as the stars of heaven, and will give your <sup>b</sup>descendants all these lands; and by your <sup>b</sup>descendants all the nations of the earth <sup>c</sup>shall be blessed; <sup>5</sup>because Abraham <sup>d</sup>obeyed Me and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes and My laws.” [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit dwell 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit seed 4 <sup>c</sup>Or bless themselves 5 <sup>d</sup>Lit hearkened to My voice]

Philistines envied him. <sup>15</sup>Now all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines stopped up <sup>d</sup>by filling them with earth. <sup>16</sup>Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for you are <sup>e</sup>too powerful for us." <sup>17</sup>And Isaac departed from there and camped in the valley of Gerar, and <sup>f</sup>settled there. So he named the well <sup>e</sup>Esek, because they contended with him. <sup>21</sup>Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over it too, so he named it <sup>f</sup>Sitnah. <sup>22</sup>He moved away from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it; so he named it <sup>g</sup>Rehoboth, for he said, "<sup>h</sup>At last the LORD has made <sup>i</sup>room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land." Jacob's Deception <sup>1</sup> Now it came about, when Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see, that he called his older son Esau and said to him, "My son." And he said to him, "Here I am." <sup>2a</sup> Isaac said, "Behold now, I am old and I do not know the day of my death. <sup>3</sup> Now then, please take your gear, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me; <sup>4</sup> and prepare a savory dish for me such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, so that my soul may bless you before I die." [2 <sup>a</sup> Lit He]

<sup>5</sup> Rebekah was listening while Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game to bring home, <sup>6</sup> Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Behold, I heard your father speak to your brother Esau, saying, <sup>7</sup> 'Bring me some game and prepare a savory dish for me, that I may eat, and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.' <sup>8</sup> Now therefore, my son, listen to <sup>a</sup>me <sup>b</sup>as I command you. <sup>9</sup> Go now to the flock and <sup>c</sup>bring me two choice <sup>d</sup>young goats from there, that I may prepare them as a savory dish for your father, such as he loves. <sup>10</sup> Then you shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death." <sup>11</sup> Jacob <sup>e</sup>answered his mother Rebekah, "Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man and I am a smooth man. <sup>12</sup> Perhaps my father will feel me, then I will be as a <sup>f</sup>deceiver in his sight, and I will bring upon myself a curse and not a blessing." <sup>13</sup> But his mother said to him, "Your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get them for me." <sup>14</sup> So he went and got them, and brought them to his mother; and his mother made savory food such as his father loved. <sup>15</sup> Then Rebekah took the <sup>g</sup>best garments of Esau her elder son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son. <sup>16</sup> And she put the skins of the <sup>h</sup>young goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck. <sup>17</sup> She also gave the savory food and the bread, which she had made, <sup>i</sup>to her son Jacob. 18 Then he came to his father and said, “My father.” And he said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?” 19 Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn; I have done as you told me. Get up, please, sit and eat of my game, that <sup>a</sup>you may bless me.” 20 Isaac said to his son, “How is it that you have it so quickly, my son?” And he said, “Because the LORD your God caused it to happen to me.” 21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Please come close, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not.” 22 So Jacob came close to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, “The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.” 23 He did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands; so he blessed him. 24 And he said, “Are you really my son Esau?” And he said, “I am.” 25 So he said, “Bring it to me, and I will eat of my son’s game, that <sup>b</sup>I may bless you.” And he brought it to him, and he ate; he also brought him wine and he drank. 26 Then his father Isaac said to him, “Please come close and kiss me, my son.” 27 So he came close and kissed him; and when he smelled the smell of his garments, he blessed him and said, “See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed; [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit your soul 25 <sup>b</sup>Lit my soul]

28 Now may God give you of the dew of heaven, And of the fatness of the earth, And an abundance of grain and new wine;

29 May peoples serve you, And nations bow down to you; Be master of your brothers, And may your mother’s sons bow down to you.

Cursed be those who curse you, And blessed be those who bless you.”

The Stolen Blessing 30 Now it came about, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had hardly gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup>Then he also made savory food, and brought it to his father; and he said to his father, “Let my father arise and eat of his son’s game, that <sup>a</sup>you may bless me.” <sup>32</sup>Isaac his father said to him, “Who are you?” And he said, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.” <sup>33</sup>Then Isaac <sup>b</sup>trembled violently, and said, “Who was he then that hunted game and brought it to me, so that I ate of all of it before you came, and blessed him? Yes, and he shall be blessed.” <sup>34</sup>When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, “Bless me, even me also, O my father!” <sup>35</sup>And he said, “Your brother came deceitfully and has taken away your blessing.” <sup>36</sup>Then he said, “<sup>c</sup>Is he not rightly named Jacob, for he has supplanted me these two times? He took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing.” And he said, “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?” <sup>37</sup>But Isaac replied to Esau, “Behold, I have made him your master, and all his <sup>d</sup>relatives I have given to him <sup>e</sup>as servants; and with grain and new wine I have sustained him. Now as for you then, what can I do, my son?” <sup>38</sup>Esau said to his father, “Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father.” So Esau lifted his voice and wept. <sup>39</sup> Then Isaac his father answered and said to him, “Behold, <sup>a</sup>away from the <sup>b</sup>fertility of the earth shall be your dwelling, And <sup>a</sup>away from the dew of heaven from above. [39 <sup>a</sup>Or of <sup>b</sup>Lit fatness]

41 So Esau bore a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him; and Esau said <sup>a</sup>to himself, “The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob.” <sup>42</sup>Now when the words of her elder son Esau were reported to Rebekah, she sent and called her younger son Jacob, and said to him, “Behold your brother Esau is consoling himself concerning you by planning to kill you. <sup>43</sup>Now therefore, my son, obey my voice, and arise, <sup>b</sup>flee to Haran, to my brother Laban! <sup>44</sup>Stay with him a few days, until your brother’s fury <sup>c</sup>subsides, <sup>45</sup>until your brother’s anger <sup>d</sup>against you subsides and he forgets what you did to him. Jacob Is Sent Away <sup>1</sup> So Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and charged him, and said to him, “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan. <sup>2</sup> Arise, go to Paddan-aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother’s father; and from there take to yourself a wife from the daughters of Laban your mother’s brother. <sup>3</sup> May <sup>a</sup> God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, that you may become a company of peoples. <sup>4</sup> May He also give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your <sup>b</sup> descendants with you, that you may possess the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Abraham.” <sup>5</sup> Then Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-aram to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau. [3 <sup>a</sup>Heb El Shaddai 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit seed]

<sup>6</sup> Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-aram to take to himself a wife from there, and that when he blessed him he charged him, saying, “You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,” <sup>7</sup> and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Paddan-aram. <sup>8</sup> So Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan displeased <sup>a</sup> his father Isaac; <sup>9</sup> and Esau went to Ishmael, and <sup>b</sup> married, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, the sister of Nebaioth. Jacob’s Dream <sup>10</sup> Then Jacob departed from Beersheba and went toward Haran. <sup>11</sup> He <sup>a</sup> came to <sup>b</sup> a certain place and spent the night there, because the sun had set; and he took one of the stones of the place and put it <sup>c</sup> under his head, and lay down in that place. <sup>12</sup> He had a dream, and behold, a ladder was set on the earth with its top reaching to heaven; and behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. <sup>13</sup> And behold, the LORD stood <sup>d</sup> above it and said, “I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie, I will give it to you and to your <sup>e</sup>descendants. <sup>14</sup>Your <sup>e</sup>descendants will also be like the dust of the earth, and you will <sup>f</sup>spread out to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and in you and in your <sup>e</sup>descendants shall all the families of the earth be blessed. <sup>15</sup>Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have <sup>g</sup>promised you.” <sup>16</sup>Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it.” <sup>17</sup>He was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! <sup>18</sup> So Jacob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put <sup>a</sup>under his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on its top. <sup>19</sup>He called the name of that place <sup>b</sup>Bethel; however, <sup>c</sup>previously the name of the city had been Luz. <sup>20</sup>Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and will keep me on this journey that I <sup>d</sup>take, and will give me <sup>e</sup>food to eat and garments to wear, <sup>21</sup>and I return to my father’s house in <sup>f</sup>safety, then the LORD will be my God. <sup>22</sup>This stone, which I have set up as a pillar, will be God’s house, and of all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You.” [18 <sup>a</sup>Lit at his head-place 19 <sup>b</sup>I.e. the house of God <sup>c</sup>Lit at the first 20 <sup>d</sup>Lit go <sup>e</sup>Lit bread 21 <sup>f</sup>Lit peace]

Jacob Meets Rachel <sup>1</sup> Then Jacob <sup>a</sup>went on his journey, and came to the land of the sons of the east. <sup>2</sup>He looked, and <sup>b</sup>saw a well in the field, and behold, three flocks of sheep were lying there beside it, for from that well they watered the flocks. Now the stone on the mouth of the well was large. <sup>3</sup>When all the flocks were gathered there, they would then roll the stone from the mouth of the well and water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the mouth of the well. [<sup>1</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit lifted up his feet <sup>2</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit behold]

<sup>4</sup> Jacob said to them, “My brothers, where are you from?” And they said, “We are from Haran.” <sup>5</sup>He said to them, “Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?” And they said, “We know him.” <sup>6</sup>And he said to them, “Is it well with him?” And they said, “It is well, and here is Rachel his daughter coming with the sheep.” <sup>7</sup>He said, “Behold, it is still high day; it is not time for the livestock to be gathered. Water the sheep, and go, pasture them.” <sup>8</sup>But they said, “We cannot, until all the flocks are gathered, and they roll the stone from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep.”

<sup>9</sup> While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father’s sheep, for she was a shepherdess. <sup>10</sup>When Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother’s brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother’s brother, Jacob went up and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well and watered the flock of Laban his mother’s brother. <sup>11</sup>Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted his voice and wept. <sup>12</sup>Jacob told Rachel that he was a <sup>a</sup>relative of her father and that he was Rebekah’s son, and she ran and told her father. [<sup>12</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit brother]

<sup>13</sup> So when Laban heard the news of Jacob his sister’s son, he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Then he related to Laban all these things. <sup>14</sup>Laban said to him, “Surely you are my bone and my flesh.” And he stayed with him a month.

15 Then Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my <sup>a</sup>relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?”

<sup>16</sup>Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. <sup>17</sup>And Leah’s eyes were weak, but he said, “I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter

Rachel was beautiful of form and <sup>b</sup>face. <sup>18</sup>Now Jacob loved Rachel, so

Rachel.” <sup>19</sup>Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you than to give her to another man; stay with me.” <sup>20</sup>So Jacob served seven years for Rachel and they seemed to him but a few days because of his love for her. [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit brother 17 <sup>b</sup>Lit beautiful of appearance]

Laban’s Treachery <sup>21</sup> Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wife, for my <sup>a</sup>time is completed, that I may go in to her.” <sup>22</sup>Laban gathered all the men of the place and made a feast. <sup>23</sup>Now in the evening he took his daughter Leah, and brought her to him; and Jacob went in to her.

<sup>24</sup>Laban also gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah as a maid. <sup>25</sup>So it came about in the morning that, behold, it was Leah! And he said to

Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? Why then have you deceived me?” <sup>26</sup>But Laban said,

“It is not <sup>b</sup>the practice in our place to <sup>c</sup>marry off the younger before the firstborn. <sup>27</sup>Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you shall serve with me for another seven years.” <sup>28</sup>Jacob did so and completed her week, and he gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife. <sup>29</sup>Laban also gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maid. <sup>30</sup>So Jacob went in to Rachel also, and indeed he loved Rachel more than Leah, and he served with <sup>d</sup>Laban for another seven years. [21 <sup>a</sup>Lit days are 26 <sup>b</sup>Lit done thus in <sup>c</sup>Lit give 30 <sup>d</sup>Lit

again and bore a son and said, “Because the LORD has <sup>d</sup>heard that I am <sup>a</sup>unloved, He has therefore given me this son also.” So she named him Simeon. <sup>34</sup>She conceived again and bore a son and said, “Now this time my husband will become <sup>e</sup>attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore he was named Levi. <sup>35</sup>And she conceived again and bore a son and said, “This time I will <sup>f</sup>praise the LORD.” Therefore she named him <sup>g</sup>Judah. The Sons of Jacob 1 Now when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, <sup>a</sup>she became jealous of her sister; and she said to Jacob, “Give me children, or else I die.” 2 Then Jacob’s anger burned against Rachel, and he said, “Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?” 3 She said, “Here is my maid Bilhah, go in to her that she may bear on my knees, that <sup>b</sup>through her I too may have children.” 4 So she gave him her maid Bilhah as a wife, and Jacob went in to her. 5 Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son. 6 Then Rachel said, “God has <sup>c</sup>vindicated me, and has indeed heard my voice and has given me a son.” Therefore she named him <sup>d</sup>Dan. 7 Rachel’s maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son. 8 So Rachel said, “With <sup>e</sup>mighty wrestlings I have <sup>f</sup>wrestled with my sister, and I have indeed prevailed.” And she named him Naphtali. 9 When Leah saw that she had stopped bearing, she took her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife. 10 Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son. 11 Then Leah said, “<sup>a</sup>How fortunate!” So she named him <sup>b</sup>Gad. 12 Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son. 13 Then Leah said, “<sup>c</sup>Happy am I! 14 Now in the days of wheat harvest Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.” 15 But she said to her, “Is it a small matter for you to take my husband? And would you take my son’s mandrakes also?” So Rachel said, “Therefore he may lie with you tonight in return for your son’s mandrakes.” 16 When Jacob came in from the field in the evening, then Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her that night. <sup>17</sup>God gave heed to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son. <sup>18</sup>Then Leah said, "God has given me my <sup>a</sup>wages because I gave my maid to my husband." So she named him Issachar. <sup>19</sup>Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Jacob. <sup>20</sup>Then Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good gift; now my husband <sup>b</sup>will dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulun. <sup>21</sup>Afterward she bore a daughter and named her Dinah. [18 <sup>a</sup>Heb sachar, related to Issachar 20 <sup>b</sup>Heb zabal, related to Zebulun. <sup>22</sup> Then God remembered Rachel, and God gave heed to her and opened her womb. <sup>23</sup>So she conceived and bore a son and said, "God has taken away my reproach." <sup>24</sup>She named him Joseph, saying, "May the LORD <sup>a</sup>give me another son." [24 <sup>a</sup>Lit add to me; Heb Joseph]

Jacob Prospers <sup>25</sup> Now it came about when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away, that I may go to my own place and to my own country. <sup>26</sup>Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me depart; for you yourself know my service which I have <sup>a</sup>rendered you." <sup>27</sup>But Laban said to him, "If now <sup>b</sup>it pleases you, stay with me; I have divined that the LORD has blessed me on your account." <sup>28</sup>He <sup>c</sup>continued, "Name me your wages, and I will give it." <sup>29</sup>But he said to him, "You yourself know how I have served you and how your cattle have <sup>d</sup>fared with me. <sup>30</sup>For you had little before <sup>e</sup>I came and it has <sup>f</sup>increased to a multitude, and the LORD has blessed you <sup>g</sup>wherever I turned. But now, when shall I provide for my own household also?" <sup>31</sup>So he said, "What shall I give you?" And Jacob said, "You shall not give me anything. If you will do this one thing for me, I will again pasture and keep your flock: <sup>32</sup>let me pass through your entire flock today, removing from there every speckled and spotted sheep and every black <sup>h</sup>one among the lambs and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and such shall be my wages. <sup>33</sup>So my <sup>i</sup>honesty will answer for me later, when you come concerning my <sup>j</sup>wages. black among the lambs, if found with me, will be considered stolen.”

<sup>2</sup>Jacob saw the <sup>c</sup>attitude of Laban, and behold, it was not friendly toward him as formerly. <sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you." <sup>4</sup>So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to his flock in the field, <sup>5</sup>and said to them, "I see your father's <sup>c</sup>attitude, that it is not friendly toward me as formerly, but the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup>You know that I have served your father with all my strength. <sup>7</sup>Yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times; however, God did not allow him to hurt me. <sup>8</sup>If he spoke thus, 'The speckled shall be your wages,' then all the flock brought forth speckled; and if he spoke thus, 'The striped shall be your wages,' then all the flock brought forth striped. <sup>9</sup>Thus God has taken away your father's livestock and given them to me. <sup>10</sup>And it came about at the time when the flock were <sup>d</sup>mating that I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the male goats which were <sup>e</sup>mating were striped, speckled, and mottled. <sup>11</sup>Then the angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am.' <sup>12</sup>He said, 'Lift up now your eyes and see that all the male goats which are <sup>e</sup>mating are striped, speckled, and mottled; for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you. <sup>13</sup>I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you made a vow to Me; now arise, <sup>f</sup>leave this land, and return to the land of your birth.' " <sup>14</sup>Rachel and Leah said to him, "Do we still have any portion or inheritance in our father's house? <sup>15</sup>Are we not reckoned by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and has also <sup>g</sup>entirely consumed <sup>h</sup>our purchase price. <sup>16</sup>Surely all the wealth which God has taken away from our father belongs to us and our children; now then, do whatever God has said to you." 17 Then Jacob arose and put his children and his wives upon camels;
18 and he drove away all his livestock and all his property which he had gathered, his acquired livestock which he had gathered in Paddan-aram, to go to the land of Canaan to his father Isaac. 19 When Laban had gone to shear his flock, then Rachel stole the <sup>a</sup>household idols that were her father's. 20 And Jacob <sup>b</sup>deceived Laban the Aramean by not telling him that he was fleeing. 21 So he fled with all that he had; and he arose and crossed the Euphrates River, and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead. 25 Laban caught up with Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban with his <sup>a</sup>kinsmen camped in the hill country of Gilead. 26 Then Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done <sup>b</sup>by deceiving me and carrying away my daughters like captives of the sword? 27 Why did you flee secretly and <sup>c</sup>deceive me, and did not tell me so that I might have sent you away with joy and with songs, with timbrel and with lyre; 28 and did not allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters? Now you have done foolishly. 29 It is in <sup>d</sup>my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, '<sup>e</sup>Be careful not to speak either good or bad to Jacob.' 30 Now you have indeed gone away because you longed greatly for your father's house; but why did you steal my gods?" 31 Then Jacob replied to Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force. 32 The one with whom you find your gods shall not live; in the presence of our <sup>a</sup>kinsmen <sup>f</sup>point out what is yours <sup>g</sup>among my belongings and take it for yourself." 33 So Laban went into Jacob’s tent and into Leah’s tent and into the tent of the two maids, but he did not find them. The Covenant of Mizpah <sup>43</sup> Then Laban replied to Jacob, “The daughters are my daughters, and the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their children whom they have borne?

<sup>6</sup> The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We came to your brother Esau, and furthermore he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him." <sup>7</sup> Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people who were with him, and the flocks and the herds and the camels, into two companies; <sup>8</sup> for he said, "If Esau comes to the one company and <sup>a</sup>attacks it, then the company which is left will escape." <sup>9</sup> Jacob said, "O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O LORD, who said to me, 'Return to your country and to your relatives, and I will <sup>a</sup>prosper you,' <sup>10</sup> <sup>b</sup> I am unworthy of all the lovingkindness and of all the <sup>c</sup>faithfulness which You have shown to Your servant; for with my staff only I crossed this Jordan, and now I have become two companies. <sup>11</sup> Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, that he will come and <sup>d</sup>attack me and the mothers with the children. <sup>12</sup> For You said, 'I will surely <sup>e</sup>prosper you and make your <sup>f</sup>descendants as the sand of the sea, which is too great to be numbered.' 13 So he spent the night there. Then he <sup>a</sup>selected from what <sup>b</sup>he had with him a present for his brother Esau: <sup>14</sup>two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, <sup>15</sup>thirty milking camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. <sup>16</sup>He delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Pass on before me, and put a space between droves.” <sup>17</sup>He commanded the <sup>c</sup>one in front, saying, “When my brother Esau meets you and asks you, saying, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and to whom do these animals in front of you belong?’ <sup>18</sup>then you shall say, ‘These belong to your servant Jacob; it is a present sent to my lord Esau. 22 Now he arose that same night and took his two wives and his two maids and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. <sup>23</sup>He took them and sent them across the stream. And he sent across whatever he had.

Jacob Wrestles <sup>24</sup>Then Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. <sup>25</sup>When he saw that he had not prevailed against him, he touched the socket of his thigh; so the socket of Jacob’s thigh was dislocated while he wrestled with him. <sup>26</sup>Then he said, “Let me go, for the dawn is breaking.” But he said, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.” <sup>27</sup>So he said to him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Jacob.” <sup>28</sup>He said, “Your name shall no longer be Jacob, but <sup>a</sup>Israel; for you have striven with God and with men and have prevailed.” <sup>29</sup>Then Jacob asked him and said, “Please tell me your name.” But he said, “Why is it that you ask my name?” And he blessed him there. <sup>30</sup>So

Jacob named the place <sup>b</sup>Peniel, for he said, “I have seen God face to face, yet my <sup>c</sup>life has been preserved.” <sup>31</sup>Now the sun rose upon him just as he crossed over Penuel, and he was limping on his thigh. <sup>32</sup>Therefore, to this day the sons of Israel do not eat the sinew of the hip which is on the socket of the thigh, because he touched the socket of Jacob’s thigh in the sinew of the hip. Jacob Meets Esau 1 Then Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, Esau was coming, and four hundred men with him. So he divided the children <sup>a</sup>among Leah and Rachel and the two maids. 2 He put the maids and their children <sup>b</sup>in front, and Leah and her children <sup>c</sup>next, and Rachel and Joseph <sup>c</sup>last. 3 But he himself passed on ahead of them and bowed down to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. [1 <sup>a</sup>Or to 2 <sup>b</sup>Lit first <sup>c</sup>Lit behind]

4 Then Esau ran to meet him and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept. 5 He lifted his eyes and saw the women and the children, and said, “<sup>a</sup>Who are these with you?” So he said, “The children whom God has graciously given your servant.” 6 Then the maids came near <sup>b</sup>with their children, and they bowed down. 7 Leah likewise came near with her children, and they bowed down; and afterward Joseph came near with Rachel, and they bowed down. 8 And he said, “What do you mean by all this company which I have met?” And he said, “To find favor in the sight of my lord.” 9 But Esau said, “I have plenty, my brother; let what you have be your own.” 10 Jacob said, “No, please, if now I have found favor in your sight, then take my present from my hand, <sup>c</sup>for I see your face as one sees the face of God, and you have received me favorably. 11 Please take my <sup>d</sup>gift which has been brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me and because I have <sup>e</sup>plenty.” Thus he urged him and he took it. 12 Then <sup>a</sup>Esau said, “Let us take our journey and go, and I will go before you.” 13 But he said to him, “My lord knows that the children are frail and that the flocks and herds which are nursing are <sup>b</sup>a care to me. And if they are driven hard one day, all the flocks will die. 14 Please let my lord pass on before his servant, and I will proceed at my leisure, according to the pace of the cattle that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord at Seir.” [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit he 13 <sup>b</sup>Lit upon me]

15 Esau said, “Please let me leave with you some of the people who are with me.” But he said, “<sup>a</sup>What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.” <sup>16</sup>So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir. <sup>17</sup>Jacob journeyed to <sup>b</sup>Succoth, and built for himself a house and made booths for his livestock; therefore the place is named Succoth. Jacob Settles in Shechem 18 Now Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Paddan-aram, and camped before the city. <sup>19</sup>He bought the piece of land where he had pitched his tent from the hand of the sons of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for one hundred <sup>a</sup>pieces of money. <sup>20</sup>Then he erected there an altar and called it <sup>b</sup>El-Elohe-Israel. The Treachery of Jacob's Sons 1 Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to <sup>a</sup>visit the daughters of the land. 2 When Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, he took her and lay with her <sup>b</sup>by force. 3<sup>c</sup> He was deeply attracted to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and <sup>d</sup>spoke tenderly to her. 4 So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, "Get me this young girl for a wife." 5 Now Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter; but his sons were with his livestock in the field, so Jacob kept silent until they came in. 6 Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. 7 Now the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it; and the men were grieved, and they were very angry because he had done a <sup>e</sup>disgraceful thing in Israel <sup>f</sup>by lying with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing ought not to be done. 8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter; please give her to him <sup>a</sup>in marriage. 9 Intermarry with us; give your daughters to us and take our daughters for yourselves. 10 Thus you shall <sup>b</sup>live with us, and the land shall be open before you; <sup>b</sup>live and trade in it and acquire property in it." 11 Shechem also said to her father and to her brothers, "If I find favor in your sight, then I will give whatever you say to me. 12 Ask me ever so much bridal payment and gift, and I will give according as you say to me; but give me the girl <sup>a</sup>in marriage." [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit for a wife 10 <sup>b</sup>Lit  dwell]

13 But Jacob's sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor with deceit, because he had defiled Dinah their sister. 14 They said to them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a disgrace to us. 15 Only on this condition will we consent to you: if you will become like us, in that every male of you be circumcised, 16 then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for ourselves, and we will <sup>a</sup>live with you and become one people. <sup>17</sup>But if you will not listen to us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go.” [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit dwell]

Now there were twelve sons of Jacob— <sup>23</sup>the sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn, then Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Zebulun; <sup>24</sup>the sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin; <sup>25</sup>and the sons of Bilhah, Rachel’s maid: Dan and Naphtali; <sup>26</sup>and the sons of Zilpah, Leah’s maid: Gad and

Joseph, when seventeen years of age, was pasturing the flock with his brothers while he was still a youth, along with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought back a bad report about them to their father. 3Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a <sup>a</sup>varicolored tunic. 4His brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers; and so they hated him and could not speak to him <sup>b</sup>on friendly terms. [3 <sup>a</sup>Or full-length robe 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit in peace]

5 Then Joseph <sup>a</sup>had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. 6He said to them, "Please listen to this dream which I have <sup>a</sup>had; 7for behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, my sheaf rose up and also stood erect; and behold, your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf." 8Then his brothers said to him, "Are you actually going to reign over us? Or are you really going to rule over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words. [5 <sup>a</sup>Lit dreamed]

9 Now he <sup>a</sup>had still another dream, and related it to his brothers, and said, "Lo, I have <sup>a</sup>had still another dream; and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me." 10He related it to his father and to his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you have <sup>a</sup>had? Shall I and your mother and your brothers actually come to bow ourselves down before you to the ground?" 11His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the saying in mind. [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit dreamed]

12 Then his brothers went to pasture their father's flock in Shechem.

<sup>13</sup>Israel said to Joseph, “Are not your brothers pasturing the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them.” And he said to him, “<sup>a</sup>I will go.” <sup>14</sup>Then he said to him, “Go now and see about the welfare of your brothers and the welfare of the flock, and bring word back to me.” So he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. [<sup>13</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit Behold me]

<sup>15</sup> A man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field; and the man asked him, “<sup>a</sup>What are you looking for?” <sup>16</sup>He said, “I am looking for my brothers; please tell me where they are pasturing the flock.” <sup>17</sup>Then the man said, “They have moved from here; for I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’ ” So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan. [<sup>15</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit saying, “What...?”]

The Plot against Joseph <sup>18</sup> <sup>a</sup>When they saw him from a distance and before he came close to them, they plotted against him to put him to death. <sup>19</sup>They said to one another, “<sup>b</sup>Here comes this dreamer! <sup>20</sup>Now then, come and let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; and we will say, ‘A wild beast devoured him.’ Then let us see what will become of his dreams!” <sup>21</sup>But Reuben heard this and rescued him out of their hands and said, “Let us not <sup>c</sup>take his life.” <sup>22</sup>Reuben further said to them, “Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but do not lay hands on him”—that he might rescue him out of their hands, to restore him to his father. <sup>23</sup>So it came about, when Joseph <sup>d</sup>reached his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his <sup>e</sup>tunic, the varicolored tunic that was on him; <sup>24</sup>and they took him and threw him into the pit. Now the pit was empty, without any water in it. <sup>25</sup> Then they sat down to eat <sup>a</sup>a meal. And as they raised their eyes and looked, behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing <sup>b</sup>aromatic gum and <sup>c</sup>balm and <sup>d</sup>myrrh, <sup>e</sup>on their way to bring them down to Egypt. <sup>26</sup>Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is it for us to kill our brother and cover up his blood? <sup>27</sup>Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh.” And his brothers listened to him. <sup>28</sup>Then some Midianite traders passed by, so they pulled him up and lifted Joseph out of the pit, and sold <sup>f</sup>him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. Thus they brought Joseph into Egypt. <sup>29</sup> Now Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit; so he tore his garments. <sup>30</sup>He returned to his brothers and said, “The boy is not there; as for me, where am I to go?” <sup>31</sup>So they took Joseph’s tunic, and slaughtered a male goat and dipped the tunic in the blood; <sup>32</sup>and they sent the varicolored tunic and brought it to their father and said, “We found this; please <sup>a</sup>examine it to see whether it is your son’s tunic or not.” <sup>33</sup>Then he <sup>b</sup>examined it and said, “It is my son’s tunic. A wild beast has devoured him; Joseph has surely been torn to pieces!” <sup>34</sup>So Jacob tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his loins and mourned for his son many days. <sup>35</sup>Then all his sons and all his daughters arose to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. And he said, “Surely I will go down to Sheol in mourning for my son.” So his father wept for him. <sup>36</sup>Meanwhile, the <sup>c</sup>Midianites sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, Pharaoh’s officer, the captain of the bodyguard. Judah and Tamar <sup>1</sup> And it came about at that time, that Judah <sup>a</sup>departed from his brothers and <sup>b</sup>visited a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. <sup>2</sup> Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua; and he took her and went in to her. <sup>3</sup> So she conceived and bore a son and he named him Er. <sup>4</sup> Then she conceived again and bore a son and named him Onan. <sup>5</sup> She bore still another son and named him Shelah; and it was at Chezib <sup>c</sup>that she bore him. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit went down <sup>b</sup>Lit turned aside to 5 <sup>c</sup>Lit when]

<sup>11</sup> Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Remain a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up"; for he <sup>c</sup>thought, "I am afraid that he too may die like his brothers." So Tamar went and lived in her father's house. [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit seed 9 <sup>b</sup>Lit spilled on the ground 11 <sup>c</sup>Lit said] her face. <sup>16</sup>So he turned aside to her by the road, and said, “<sup>g</sup>Here now, let me come in to you”; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. <sup>24</sup> Now it was about three months later that Judah was informed, “<sup>a</sup>Your daughter-in-law Tamar has played the harlot, and behold, she is also with child by harlotry.” Then Judah said, “Bring her out and let her be burned!” <sup>25</sup>It was while she was being brought out that she sent to her father-in-law, saying, “I am with child by the man to whom these things belong.” And she said, “Please examine and see, whose signet ring and cords and staff are these?” <sup>26</sup>Judah recognized them, and said, “She is more righteous than I, inasmuch as I did not give her to my son Shelah.” And he did not <sup>b</sup>have relations with her again. ### Joseph's Success in Egypt

1 Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an Egyptian officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the bodyguard, bought him <sup>a</sup>from the Ishmaelites, who had taken him down there. <sup>2</sup>The LORD was with Joseph, so he became a <sup>b</sup>successful man. And he was in the house of his master, the Egyptian. <sup>3</sup>Now his master saw that the LORD was with him and how the LORD caused all that he did to prosper in his hand. <sup>4</sup>So Joseph found favor in his sight and <sup>c</sup>became his personal servant; and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he owned he put in his <sup>d</sup>charge. <sup>5</sup>It came about that from the time he made him overseer in his house and over all that he owned, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house on account of Joseph; thus the LORD's blessing was upon all that he owned, in the house and in the field. <sup>6</sup>So he left everything he owned in Joseph's <sup>d</sup>charge; and with him there he did not <sup>e</sup>concern himself with anything except the <sup>f</sup>food which he <sup>g</sup>ate. Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance. <sup>7</sup>It came about after these events that his master's wife <sup>a</sup>looked with desire at Joseph, and she said, "Lie with me." <sup>8</sup>But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Behold, with me here, my master <sup>b</sup>does not concern himself with anything in the house, and he has put all that he owns in my <sup>c</sup>charge. <sup>9</sup><sup>d</sup>There is no one greater in this house than I, and he has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do this great evil and sin against God?" <sup>10</sup>As she spoke to Joseph day after day, he did not listen to her to lie beside her or be with her. <sup>11</sup>Now it happened <sup>e</sup>one day that he went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the household was there inside. <sup>12</sup>She caught him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me!" And he left his garment in her hand and fled, and went outside. <sup>13</sup><sup>f</sup>When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled outside, <sup>14</sup>she called to the men of her household and said to them, "See, he has brought in a

<sup>g</sup>Hebrew to us to make sport of us; he came in to me to lie with me, and I <sup>h</sup>screamed. <sup>15</sup>When he heard that I raised my voice and <sup>i</sup>screamed, he left his garment beside me and fled and went outside.” <sup>16</sup>So she <sup>j</sup>left his garment beside her until his master came home. <sup>17</sup>Then she spoke to him <sup>k</sup>with these words, “<sup>l</sup>The Hebrew slave, whom you brought to us, came in to me to make sport of me; <sup>18</sup>and as I raised my voice and <sup>m</sup>screamed, he left his garment beside me and fled outside.” [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit lifted up her eyes at 8 <sup>b</sup>Lit does not know what is in the house <sup>c</sup>Lit hand 9 <sup>d</sup>Or He is not greater 11 <sup>e</sup>Lit about this day 13 <sup>f</sup>Lit And it came about when 14 <sup>g</sup>Lit Hebrew man <sup>h</sup>Lit called with a great voice 15 <sup>i</sup>Lit called out 16 <sup>j</sup>Lit let...lie beside 17 <sup>k</sup>Lit according to <sup>l</sup>Lit saying, “The 18 <sup>m</sup>Lit called out]

Joseph Imprisoned

<sup>19</sup> Now when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spoke to him, saying, “<sup>a</sup>This is what your slave did to me,” his anger burned. <sup>20</sup>So Joseph’s master took him and put him into the jail, the place where the king’s prisoners were confined; and he was there in the jail. <sup>21</sup>But the LORD was with Joseph and extended kindness to him, and gave him favor in the sight of the chief jailer. <sup>22</sup>The chief jailer committed to Joseph’s <sup>b</sup>charge all the prisoners who were in the jail; so that whatever was done there, he was <sup>c</sup>responsible for it. <sup>23</sup>The chief jailer did not supervise anything under <sup>d</sup>Joseph’s charge because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made to prosper. Joseph Interprets a Dream 1 Then it came about after these things, the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt offended their lord, the king of Egypt. 2 Pharaoh was furious with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker. 3 So he put them in confinement in the house of the captain of the bodyguard, in the jail, the same place where Joseph was imprisoned. 4 The captain of the bodyguard put Joseph in charge of them, and he <sup>a</sup>took care of them; and they were in confinement for <sup>b</sup>some time. 5 Then the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt, who were confined in jail, both had a dream the same night, each man with his own dream and each dream with its own interpretation. 6 <sup>c</sup>When Joseph came to them in the morning and observed them, <sup>d</sup>behold, they were dejected. 7 He asked Pharaoh's officials who were with him in confinement in his master's house, <sup>e</sup>"Why are your faces so sad today?" 8 Then they said to him, "We have <sup>f</sup>had a dream and there is no one to interpret it." Then Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell it to me, please." 9 So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, "In my dream, <sup>a</sup>behold, there was a vine in front of me; <sup>10</sup>and on the vine were three branches. And as it was budding, its blossoms came out, and its clusters produced ripe grapes. <sup>11</sup>Now Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; so I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I put the cup into Pharaoh's <sup>b</sup>hand." <sup>12</sup>Then Joseph said to him, "This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days; <sup>13</sup>within three more days Pharaoh will <sup>c</sup>lift up your head and restore you to your <sup>d</sup>office; and you will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand according to your former custom when you were his cupbearer. <sup>14</sup>Only <sup>e</sup>keep me in mind when it goes well with you, and please do me a kindness <sup>f</sup>by mentioning me to Pharaoh and get me out of this house. <sup>15</sup>For I was in fact kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done

16 When the chief baker saw that he had interpreted favorably, he said to Joseph, “I also saw in my dream, and behold, there were three baskets of white bread on my head; <sup>17</sup>and in the top basket there were some of all <sup>a</sup>sorts of baked food for Pharaoh, and the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.” <sup>18</sup>Then Joseph answered and said, “This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days; <sup>19</sup>within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and will hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh off you.” [17 <sup>a</sup>Lit food for Pharaoh made by a baker]

20 Thus it came about on the third day, which was Pharaoh’s birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants; and he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants. <sup>21</sup>He restored the chief cupbearer to his <sup>a</sup>office, and he put the cup into Pharaoh’s <sup>b</sup>hand; <sup>22</sup>but he hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had interpreted to them. <sup>23</sup>Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him. ### Pharaoh's Dream

1 Now it happened at the end of two full years that Pharaoh had a dream, and behold, he was standing by the Nile. <sup>2</sup>And lo, from the Nile there came up seven cows, sleek and <sup>a</sup>fat; and they grazed in the marsh grass. <sup>3</sup>Then behold, seven other cows came up after them from the Nile, ugly and <sup>b</sup>gaunt, and they stood by the other cows on the bank of the Nile. <sup>4</sup>The ugly and <sup>b</sup>gaunt cows ate up the seven sleek and fat cows. Then Pharaoh awoke. <sup>5</sup>He fell asleep and dreamed a second time; and behold, seven ears of grain came up on a single stalk, plump and good. <sup>6</sup>Then behold, seven ears, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouted up after them. <sup>7</sup>The thin ears swallowed up the seven plump and full ears. Then Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream. <sup>8</sup>Now in the morning his spirit was troubled, so he sent and called for all the <sup>c</sup>magicians of Egypt, and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his <sup>d</sup>dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh. ## Joseph Interprets

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph, and they hurriedly brought him out of the dungeon; and when he had shaved himself and changed his clothes, he came to Pharaoh. 15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have had a dream, but no one can interpret it; and I have heard <sup>a</sup>it said about you, that <sup>b</sup>when you hear a dream you can interpret it.” 16 Joseph then answered Pharaoh, saying, “<sup>c</sup>It is not in me; God will <sup>d</sup>give Pharaoh a favorable answer.” 17 So Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, “In my dream, behold, I was standing on the bank of the Nile; 18 and behold, seven cows, <sup>e</sup>fat and sleek came up out of the Nile, and they grazed in the marsh grass. 19 Lo, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and <sup>f</sup>gaunt, such as I had never seen for <sup>g</sup>ugliness in all the land of Egypt; 20 and the lean and <sup>h</sup>ugly cows ate up the first seven fat cows. 21 Yet when they had <sup>i</sup>devoured them, it could not be <sup>j</sup>detected that they had <sup>k</sup>devoured them, <sup>l</sup>for they were just as ugly as <sup>m</sup>before. Then I awoke. 22 I saw also in my dream, and behold, seven ears, full and good, came up on a single stalk; 23 and lo, seven ears, withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind, sprouted up after them; 24 and the thin ears swallowed the seven good ears. 25 Now Joseph said to Pharaoh, “Pharaoh’s <sup>a</sup>dreams are one and the same; God has told to Pharaoh what He is about to do. 26 The seven good cows are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years; the <sup>a</sup>dreams are one and the same. 27 The seven lean and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven thin ears scorched by the east wind will be seven years of famine. 28 <sup>b</sup>It is as I have spoken to Pharaoh: God has shown to Pharaoh what He is about to do. 29 Behold, seven years of great abundance are coming in all the land of Egypt; 30 and after them seven years of famine will <sup>c</sup>come, and all the abundance will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will <sup>d</sup>ravage the land. 31 So the abundance will be unknown in the land because of that subsequent famine; for it will be very severe. 32 Now as for the repeating of the dream to Pharaoh twice, it means that the matter is determined by God, and God will quickly bring it about. <sup>33</sup>Now let Pharaoh look for a man discerning and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt. <sup>34</sup>Let Pharaoh take action to appoint overseers <sup>e</sup>in charge of the land, and let him exact a fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt in the seven years of abundance. <sup>35</sup>Then let them gather all the food of these good years that are coming, and store up the grain for food in the cities under Pharaoh's authority, and let them guard it. <sup>36</sup>Let the food become as a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which will occur in the land of Egypt, so that the land will not perish during the famine." 46 Now Joseph was thirty years old when he <sup>a</sup>stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and went through all the land of Egypt. <sup>47</sup>During the seven years of plenty the land brought forth <sup>b</sup>abundantly. <sup>48</sup>So he gathered all the food of these seven years which occurred in the land of Egypt and placed the food in the cities; he placed in every city the food from its own surrounding fields. <sup>49</sup>Thus Joseph stored up grain <sup>c</sup>in great abundance like the sand of the sea, until he stopped <sup>d</sup>measuring it, for it was <sup>e</sup>beyond measure. The Sons of Joseph <sup>50</sup> Now before the year of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphara priest of <sup>a</sup>On, bore to him. <sup>51</sup>Joseph named the firstborn <sup>b</sup>Manasseh, “For,” he said, “God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father’s household.” <sup>52</sup>He named the second <sup>c</sup>Ephraim, “For,” he said, “God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.” [<sup>50</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or Heliopolis <sup>51</sup> <sup>b</sup>I.e. making to forget <sup>52</sup> <sup>c</sup>I.e. fruitfulness]

<sup>53</sup> When the seven years of plenty which had been in the land of Egypt came to an end, <sup>54</sup>and the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said, then there was famine in all the lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. <sup>55</sup>So when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried out to Pharaoh for bread; and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph; whatever he says to you, you shall do.” <sup>56</sup>When the famine was spread over all the face of the earth, then Joseph opened all <sup>a</sup>the storehouses, and sold to the Egyptians; and the famine was severe in the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup>The people of all the earth came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe in all the earth. Joseph's Brothers Sent to Egypt <sup>1</sup> Now Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, "Why are you staring at one another?" <sup>2</sup> He said, "Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down there and buy some for us <sup>a</sup>from that place, so that we may live and not die." <sup>3</sup> Then ten brothers of Joseph went down to buy grain from Egypt. <sup>4</sup> But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, "I am afraid that harm may befall him." <sup>5</sup> So the sons of Israel came to buy grain among those who were coming, for the famine was in the land of Canaan also. [<sup>2</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit from there]

<sup>6</sup> Now Joseph was the ruler over the land; he was the one who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed down to him with their faces to the ground. <sup>7</sup> When Joseph saw his brothers he recognized them, but he disguised himself to them and spoke to them harshly. And he said to them, "Where have you come from?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan, to buy food."

<sup>8</sup> But Joseph had recognized his brothers, although they did not recognize him. <sup>9</sup> Joseph remembered the dreams which he <sup>a</sup>had about them, and said to them, "You are spies; you have come to look at the <sup>b</sup>undefended parts of our land." <sup>10</sup> Then they said to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. <sup>11</sup> We are all sons of one man; we are honest men, your servants are not spies." <sup>12</sup> Yet he said to them, "No, but you have come to look at the <sup>b</sup>undefended parts of our land!" <sup>13</sup> But they said, "Your servants are twelve brothers in all, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is with our father today, and one is no longer alive." <sup>14</sup> Joseph said to them, "It is as I said <sup>c</sup>to you, you are spies; <sup>15</sup> by this you will be tested: by the life of Pharaoh, you shall not go from this place unless your youngest brother comes here! <sup>16</sup> Send one of you that he may get your brother, while you remain confined, that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you. But if not, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies." <sup>17</sup> So he put them all together in prison for three days. [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit had dreamed <sup>b</sup>Lit nakedness of the land 14 <sup>c</sup>Lit to you, saying]

18 Now Joseph said to them on the third day, “Do this and live, for I fear God: <sup>19</sup>if you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined in <sup>a</sup>your prison; but as for the rest of you, go, carry grain for the famine of your households, <sup>20</sup>and bring your youngest brother to me, so your words may be verified, and you will not die.” And they did so. <sup>21</sup>Then they said to one another, “Truly we are guilty concerning our brother, because we saw the distress of his soul when he pleaded with us, yet we would not listen; therefore this distress has come upon us.” <sup>22</sup>Reuben answered them, saying, “Did I not tell <sup>b</sup>you, ‘Do not sin against the boy’; and you would not listen? <sup>c</sup>Now comes the reckoning for his blood.” <sup>23</sup>They did not know, however, that Joseph understood, for there was an interpreter between them. <sup>24</sup>He turned away from them and wept. But when he returned to them and spoke to them, he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes. <sup>25</sup>Then Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain and to restore every man’s money in his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. And thus it was done for them. [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit the house of your prison 22 <sup>b</sup>Lit you saying <sup>c</sup>Lit And behold, his blood also is required]

26 So they loaded their donkeys with their grain and departed from there. <sup>27</sup>As one of them opened his sack to give his donkey fodder at the lodging place, he saw his money; and behold, it was in the mouth of his sack. <sup>28</sup>Then he said to his brothers, “My money has been returned, and behold, it is even in my sack.” And their hearts <sup>a</sup>sank, and they turned <sup>b</sup>trembling to one another, saying, “What is this that God has done to us?” [28 <sup>a</sup>Lit went out <sup>b</sup>Lit trembled]

Simeon Is Held Hostage 29 When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them, saying, <sup>30</sup>“The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly with us, and took us for spies of the country. <sup>31</sup>But we said to him, ‘We are honest men; we are not spies. <sup>32</sup>We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no longer alive, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.’

<sup>33</sup>The man, the lord of the land, said to us, ‘By this I will know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me and take grain for the famine of your households, and go. <sup>34</sup>But bring your youngest brother to me that I may know that you are not spies, but <sup>a</sup>honest men. I will give your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.’ ” [34 <sup>a</sup>Lit you are honest]

<sup>35</sup> Now it came about as they were emptying their sacks, that behold, every man’s bundle of money was in his sack; and when they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were dismayed. <sup>36</sup>Their father Jacob said to them, “You have bereaved me of my children: Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and you would take Benjamin; all these things are against me.” <sup>37</sup>Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “You may put my two sons to death if I do not bring him back to you; put him in my <sup>a</sup>care, and I will return him to you.” <sup>38</sup>But <sup>b</sup>Jacob said, “My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should befall him on the journey <sup>c</sup>you are taking, then you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow.” [37 <sup>a</sup>Lit hand 38 <sup>b</sup>Lit he <sup>c</sup>Lit on which you are going]

The Return to Egypt 1 Now the famine was severe in the land. 2So it came about when they had finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, “Go back, buy us a little food.” 3Judah spoke to him, however, saying, “The man solemnly warned <sup>a</sup>us, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’

4If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. 5But if you do not send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’ ” 6Then Israel said, “Why did you treat me so badly <sup>b</sup>by telling the man whether you still had another brother?” 7But they said, “The man questioned particularly about us and our relatives, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?’ So we <sup>c</sup>answered his questions.

Could we possibly know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down’?” 8Judah said to his father Israel, “Send the lad with me and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, we as well as you and our little ones. 9I myself will be surety for him; <sup>d</sup>you may hold me responsible for him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then <sup>e</sup>let me bear the blame before you forever. 10For if we had not delayed, surely by now we could have returned twice.” [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit us, saying 6 <sup>b</sup>Lit to tell 7 <sup>c</sup>Lit told him according to these words 9 <sup>d</sup>Lit from my hand you may require him <sup>e</sup>Lit I shall have sinned before you all the days] of my children, I am bereaved.”<sup>15</sup> So the men took this present, and they took double the money in their hand, and Benjamin; then they arose and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph. Joseph Sees Benjamin 16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to his house steward, “Bring the men into the house, and slay an animal and make ready; for the men are to dine with me at noon.”<sup>17</sup> So the man did as Joseph said, and <sup>a</sup>brought the men to Joseph’s house.<sup>18</sup> Now the men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph’s house; and they said, “It is because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time that we are being brought in, that he may <sup>b</sup>seek occasion against us and fall upon us, and take us for slaves with our donkeys.”<sup>19</sup> So they came near to Joseph’s house steward, and spoke to him at the entrance of the house,<sup>20</sup> and said, “Oh, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food,<sup>21</sup> and it came about when we came to the lodging place, that we opened our sacks, and behold, each man’s money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in <sup>c</sup>full. So we have brought it back in our hand.<sup>22</sup> We have also brought down other money in our hand to buy food; we do not know who put our money in our sacks.”<sup>23</sup> He said, “<sup>d</sup>Be at ease, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; <sup>e</sup>I had your money.” Then he brought Simeon out to them.<sup>24</sup> Then the man brought the men into Joseph’s house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys fodder.<sup>25</sup> So they prepared the present <sup>f</sup>for Joseph’s coming at noon; for they had heard that they were to eat <sup>g</sup>a meal there. <sup>26</sup> When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the present which was in their hand and bowed to the ground before him.<sup>27</sup> Then he asked them about their welfare, and said, “Is your old father well, of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?”<sup>28</sup> They said, “Your servant our father is well; he is still alive.” They bowed down <sup>a</sup>in homage.<sup>29</sup> As he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, he said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?" And he said, "May God be gracious to you, my son." <sup>30</sup>Joseph hurried out for <sup>b</sup>he was deeply stirred over his brother, and he sought a place to weep; and he entered his chamber and wept there. <sup>31</sup>Then he washed his face and came out; and he controlled himself and said, "<sup>c</sup>Serve the meal." <sup>32</sup>So they served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is <sup>d</sup>loathsome to the Egyptians. <sup>33</sup>Now they <sup>e</sup>were seated before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, and the men looked at one another in astonishment. <sup>34</sup>He took portions to them from <sup>f</sup>his own table, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. The Brothers Are Brought Back <sup>1</sup> Then he commanded his house steward, saying, “Fill the men’s sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man’s money in the mouth of his sack. <sup>2</sup>Put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his money for the grain.” And he did <sup>a</sup>as Joseph had told him. <sup>3b</sup>As soon as it was light, the men were sent away, they with their donkeys. <sup>4</sup>They had just gone out of the city, and were not far off, when Joseph said to his house steward, “Up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you repaid evil for good? <sup>5</sup>Is not this the one from which my lord drinks and which he indeed uses for divination? You have done wrong in doing this.’ ” [2 <sup>a</sup>Or according to the word 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit The morning was light]

<sup>6</sup> So he overtook them and spoke these words to them. <sup>7</sup>They said to him, “Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing. <sup>8</sup>Behold, the money which we found in the mouth of our sacks we have brought back to you from the land of Canaan. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord’s house? <sup>9</sup>With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we also will be my lord’s slaves.” <sup>10</sup>So he said, “Now let it also be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and the rest of you shall be innocent.” <sup>11</sup>Then they hurried, each man lowered his sack to the ground, and each man opened his sack. <sup>12</sup>He searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin’s sack. <sup>13</sup>Then they tore their clothes, and when each man loaded his donkey, they returned to the city.

<sup>14</sup> When Judah and his brothers came to Joseph’s house, he was still there, and they fell to the ground before him. <sup>15</sup>Joseph said to them, “What is this deed that you have done? Do you not know that such a man as I can indeed practice divination?” <sup>16</sup>So Judah said, “What can we say to my lord? What can we speak? And how can we justify ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; behold, we are my lord's slaves, both we and the one in whose <sup>a</sup>possession the cup has been found." <sup>17</sup>But he said, "Far be it from me to do this. The man in whose <sup>a</sup>possession the cup has been found, he shall be my slave; but as for you, go up in peace to your father." [<sup>16</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit hand]

<sup>18</sup> Then Judah approached him, and said, "Oh my lord, may your servant please speak a word in my lord's ears, and <sup>a</sup>do not be angry with your servant; for you are equal to Pharaoh. <sup>19</sup>My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?' <sup>20</sup>We said to my lord, 'We have an old father and a little child of his old age. Now his brother is dead, so he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.' <sup>21</sup>Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me that I may set my eyes on him.' <sup>22</sup>But we said to my lord, 'The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, <sup>b</sup>his father would die.' <sup>23</sup>You said to your servants, however, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.' <sup>24</sup>Thus it came about when we went up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. <sup>25</sup>Our father said, 'Go back, buy us a little food.' <sup>26</sup>But we said, 'We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down; for we cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.' <sup>27</sup>Your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons; <sup>28</sup>and the one went out from me, and I said, "Surely he is torn in pieces," and I have not seen him since. <sup>29</sup>If you take this one also from <sup>c</sup>me, and harm befalls him, you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in <sup>d</sup>sorrow.' <sup>30</sup>Now, therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since <sup>e</sup>his life is bound up in the lad's life, <sup>31</sup>when he sees that the lad is not with us, he will die. Thus your servants will bring the gray hair of your servant our father down to Sheol in sorrow. <sup>32</sup>For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him back to you, then <sup>f</sup>let me bear the blame before my father forever.' <sup>33</sup>Now, therefore, please let your servant remain instead of the lad a slave to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers. <sup>34</sup>For how shall I go up to my father if the lad is not with me—for fear that I see the evil that would <sup>g</sup>overtake my father?" Jacob Moves to Egypt 1 So Israel set out with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. 2 God spoke to Israel <sup>a</sup>in visions of the night and said, “Jacob, Jacob.” And he said, “Here I am.” 3 He said, “I am God, the God of your father; do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you a great nation there. 4 I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely bring you up again; and Joseph will <sup>b</sup>close your eyes.” [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit in the visions 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit put his hand on]

5 Then Jacob arose from Beersheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob and their little ones and their wives in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. 6 They took their livestock and their property, which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and came to Egypt, Jacob and all his <sup>a</sup>descendants with him: 7 his sons and his grandsons with him, his daughters and his granddaughters, and all his <sup>a</sup>descendants he brought with him to Egypt. Jacob's Family Settles in Goshen 1 Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all that they have, have come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen." 2 He took five men from among his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh. 3 Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" So they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers." 4 They said to Pharaoh, "We have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now, therefore, please let your servants <sup>a</sup>live in the land of Goshen." 5 Then Pharaoh said to <sup>b</sup>Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. 6 The land of Egypt is <sup>c</sup>at your disposal; <sup>d</sup>settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land, let them <sup>a</sup>live in the land of Goshen; and if you know any capable men among them, then <sup>e</sup>put them in charge of my livestock." 7 Then Joseph brought his father Jacob and <sup>a</sup>presented him to Pharaoh; and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. 8 Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many <sup>b</sup>years have you lived?" 9 So Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The <sup>c</sup>years of my sojourning are one hundred and <sup>d</sup>thirty; few and <sup>e</sup>unpleasant have been the <sup>c</sup>years of my life, nor have they <sup>f</sup>attained the <sup>c</sup>years <sup>g</sup>that my fathers lived during the days of their sojourning." 10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from <sup>h</sup>his presence. 11 So Joseph <sup>i</sup>settled his father and his brothers and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had ordered. 12 Joseph provided his father and his brothers and all his father's household with <sup>j</sup>food, according to their little ones. 13 Now there was no <sup>a</sup>food in all the land, because the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine. 14 Joseph gathered all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain which they bought, and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. 15 When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph <sup>b</sup>and said, "Give us <sup>a</sup>food, for why should we die in your presence? For our money <sup>c</sup>is gone." 16 Then Joseph said, "Give up your livestock, and I will give you food for your livestock, since your money <sup>c</sup>is gone." 17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them <sup>a</sup>food in exchange for the horses and the <sup>d</sup>flocks and the herds and the donkeys; and he <sup>e</sup>fed them with <sup>a</sup>food in exchange for all their livestock <sup>f</sup>that year. 18 When that year was ended, they came to him the <sup>g</sup>next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that our money is all spent, and the <sup>h</sup>cattle are my lord's. There is nothing left <sup>i</sup>for my lord except our bodies and our lands. 19 Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Result of the Famine 20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for <sup>a</sup>every Egyptian sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. Thus the land became Pharaoh's. 21 As for the people, he removed them to the cities from one end of Egypt's border to the other. 22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy, for the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh, and they <sup>b</sup>lived off the allotment which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore, they did not sell their land. 23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Behold, I have today bought you and your land for Pharaoh; now, here is seed for you, and you may sow the land. 24<sup>c</sup> At the harvest you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and <sup>d</sup>four-fifths shall be your own for seed of the field and for your food and for those of your households and as food for your little ones.”<sup>25</sup> So they said, “You have saved our lives! Let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh’s slaves.”<sup>26</sup> Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt valid to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth; only the land of the priests <sup>e</sup>did not become Pharaoh’s. Please do not bury me in Egypt,<sup>30</sup> but when I lie down with my fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place.” And he said, “I will do as you have said.”<sup>31</sup> He said, “Swear to me.” So he swore to him. ### Israel's Last Days

1 Now it came about after these things that <sup>a</sup>Joseph was told, “Behold, your father is sick.” So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim with him. <sup>b</sup>When it was told to Jacob, “Behold, your son Joseph has come to you,” Israel <sup>c</sup>collected his strength and sat <sup>d</sup>up in the bed. <sup>3</sup>Then Jacob said to Joseph, “<sup>e</sup>God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me, <sup>4</sup>and He said to me, ‘Behold, I will make you fruitful and numerous, and I will make you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your <sup>f</sup>descendants after you for an everlasting possession.’ <sup>5</sup>Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are. <sup>6</sup>But your offspring that <sup>g</sup>have been born after them shall be yours; they shall be called by the <sup>h</sup>names of their brothers in their inheritance. <sup>7</sup>Now as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died, <sup>i</sup>to my sorrow, in the land of Canaan on the journey, when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit one said to Joseph 2 <sup>b</sup>Lit one told Jacob and said <sup>c</sup>Lit strengthened himself <sup>d</sup>Lit upon the bed 3 <sup>e</sup>Heb El Shaddai 4 <sup>f</sup>Lit seed 6 <sup>g</sup>Lit you have begotten <sup>h</sup>Lit name 7 <sup>i</sup>Lit upon me]

8 When Israel saw Joseph's sons, he said, “Who are these?” <sup>9</sup>Joseph said to his father, “They are my sons, whom God has given me here.” So he said, “Bring them to me, please, that I may bless them.” <sup>10</sup>Now the eyes of Israel were so dim from age that he could not see. Then <sup>a</sup>Joseph brought them close to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. <sup>11</sup>Israel said to Joseph, “I never <sup>b</sup>expected to see your face, and behold, God has let me see your <sup>c</sup>children as well.” <sup>12</sup>Then Joseph <sup>d</sup>took them from his knees, and bowed with his face to the ground. <sup>13</sup>Joseph took them both, Ephraim with his right hand toward Israel's left, and Manasseh with his left hand toward Israel's right, and brought them close to him. <sup>14</sup>But Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, who was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, <sup>e</sup>crossing his hands, <sup>f</sup>although Manasseh was the firstborn. <sup>15</sup>He blessed Joseph, and said,

“The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,

<sup>17</sup> When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on Ephraim's head, it displeased him; and he grasped his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. <sup>18</sup> Joseph said to his father, “Not so, my father, for this one is the firstborn. Place your right hand on his head.” <sup>19</sup> But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know; he also will become a people and he also will be great. However, his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his <sup>a</sup>descendants shall become a <sup>b</sup>multitude of nations.” <sup>20</sup> He blessed them that day, saying,

“By you Israel will pronounce blessing, saying,
‘May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh!’ ”

Thus he put Ephraim before Manasseh. <sup>21</sup> Then Israel said to Joseph, “Behold, I am about to die, but God will be with you, and bring you back to the land of your fathers. <sup>22</sup> I give you one <sup>c</sup>portion more than your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and my bow.” [<sup>19</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit seed <sup>b</sup>Lit fullness <sup>22</sup> <sup>c</sup>Or ridge; lit shoulder; Heb Shechem]

The Death of Israel 1 Then Joseph fell on his father's face, and wept over him and kissed him. 2 Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel. 3 Now forty days were <sup>a</sup>required for <sup>b</sup>it, for <sup>c</sup>such is the period required for embalming. And the Egyptians wept for him seventy days. [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit fulfilled <sup>b</sup>Or him <sup>c</sup>Lit so are fulfilled the days of embalming]

4 When the days of <sup>a</sup>mourning for him were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your sight, please speak <sup>b</sup>to Pharaoh, saying, 5 "My father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am about to die; in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father; then I will return.' " 6 Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear." [4 <sup>a</sup>Lit weeping <sup>b</sup>Lit In the ears of]

7 So Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his household and all the elders of the land of Egypt, <sup>8</sup>and all the household of Joseph and his brothers and his father's household; they left only their little ones and their flocks and their herds in the land of Goshen. 9 There also went up with him both chariots and horsemen; and it was a very great company. 10 When they came to the <sup>a</sup>threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they lamented there with a very great and <sup>b</sup>sorrowful lamentation; and he <sup>c</sup>observed seven days mourning for his father. 11 Now when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at <sup>a</sup>the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a <sup>b</sup>grievous <sup>d</sup>mourning for the Egyptians." Therefore it was named <sup>e</sup>Abel-mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan. <sup>15</sup> When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong which we did to him!" <sup>16</sup>So they <sup>a</sup>sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father charged before he died, saying, <sup>17</sup>"Thus you shall say to Joseph, "Please forgive, I beg you, the transgression of your brothers and their sin, for they did you wrong." ' And now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him. <sup>18</sup>Then his brothers also came and fell down before him and said, "Behold, we are your servants." <sup>19</sup>But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in God's place? <sup>20</sup>As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good in order to bring about <sup>b</sup>this present result, to preserve many people alive. <sup>21</sup>So therefore, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your little ones." Israel Multiplies in Egypt 1 Now these are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob; they came each one <sup>a</sup>with his household: 2Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah; 3Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin; 4Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher. 5All the <sup>b</sup>persons who came from the loins of Jacob were seventy <sup>c</sup>in number, but Joseph was already in Egypt. 6Joseph died, and all his brothers and all that generation. 7But the sons of Israel were fruitful and <sup>d</sup>increased greatly, and multiplied, and became exceedingly <sup>e</sup>mighty, so that the land was filled with them. 8 Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. 9He said to his people, “Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are <sup>a</sup>more and mightier than we. 10Come, let us deal wisely with them, or else they will multiply and <sup>b</sup>in the event of war, they will also join themselves to those who hate us, and fight against us and <sup>c</sup>depart from the land.” 11So they appointed taskmasters over them to afflict them with <sup>d</sup>hard labor. And they built for Pharaoh storage cities, Pithom and Raamses. 12But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they <sup>e</sup>spread out, so that they were in dread of the sons of Israel. 13The Egyptians compelled the sons of Israel to labor rigorously; 14and they made their lives bitter with hard labor in mortar and bricks and at all kinds of labor in the field, all their labors which they rigorously <sup>f</sup>imposed on them. 15 Then the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom <sup>a</sup>was named Shiphrah and the other <sup>a</sup>was named Puah; 16and he said, “When you are helping the Hebrew women to give birth and see them upon the birthstool, if it is a son, then you shall put him to death; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live.” 17But the midwives <sup>b</sup>feared God,

The Birth of Moses 1 Now a man from the house of Levi went and <sup>a</sup>married a daughter of Levi. 2The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw <sup>b</sup>that he was <sup>c</sup>beautiful, she hid him for three months. 3But when she could hide him no longer, she got him a <sup>d</sup>wicker <sup>e</sup>basket and covered it over with tar and pitch. ### The Burning Bush

1 Now Moses was pasturing the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian; and he led the flock to the <sup>a</sup>west side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. <sup>2</sup>The angel of the LORD appeared to him in a blazing fire from the midst of <sup>b</sup>a bush; and he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, yet the bush was not consumed. <sup>3</sup>So Moses said, “<sup>c</sup>I must turn aside now and see this <sup>d</sup>marvelous sight, why the bush is not burned up.” <sup>4</sup>When the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” <sup>5</sup>Then He said, “Do not come near here; remove your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.” <sup>6</sup>He said also, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” Then Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God. 7 The LORD said, “I have surely seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt, and have given heed to their cry because of their taskmasters, for I am aware of their sufferings. <sup>8</sup>So I have come down to deliver them from the <sup>a</sup>power of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite. <sup>9</sup>Now, behold, the cry of the sons of Israel has come to Me; furthermore, I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians are oppressing them. ### The Mission of Moses

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, come now, and I will send you to Pharaoh, so that you may bring My people, the sons of Israel, out of Egypt.” <sup>11</sup>But Moses said to God, “Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt?” <sup>12</sup>And He said, “Certainly I will be with you, and this shall be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall <sup>a</sup>worship God at this mountain.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Moses said to God, “Behold, I am going to the sons of Israel, and I will say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you.’ Now they may say to me, ‘What is His name?’ What shall I say to them?” <sup>14</sup>God said to Moses, “<sup>a</sup>I AM WHO <sup>a</sup>I AM”; and He said, “Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, ‘<sup>a</sup>I AM has sent me to you.’” <sup>15</sup>God, furthermore, said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.’ This is My name forever, and this is My memorial-name <sup>b</sup>to all generations. <sup>16</sup>Go and gather the elders of Israel together and say to them, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, “<sup>c</sup>I am indeed concerned about you and what has been done to you in Egypt. <sup>17</sup>So I said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey.”’ <sup>18</sup>They will <sup>d</sup>pay heed to what you say; and you with the elders of Israel will come to the king of Egypt and you will say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. So now, please, let us go a three days’ journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’ <sup>19</sup>But I know that the king of Egypt will not permit you to go, except <sup>e</sup>under compulsion. <sup>20</sup>So I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My miracles which I shall do in the midst of it; and after that he will let you go. <sup>21</sup>I will grant this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians; and it shall be that when you go, you will not go empty-handed. <sup>22</sup>But every woman shall ask of her neighbor and the woman who lives in her house, articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing; and you will put them on your sons and daughters. ### Moses Given Powers

1 Then Moses said, “What if they will not believe me or listen <sup>a</sup>to what I say? For they may say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you.’” <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?” And he said, “A staff.” <sup>3</sup>Then He said, “Throw it on the ground.” So he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from it. <sup>4</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand and grasp it by its tail”—so he stretched out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his <sup>b</sup>hand— <sup>5</sup>“that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit to my voice 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit palm]

6 The LORD furthermore said to him, “Now put your hand into your bosom.” So he put his hand into his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous like snow. <sup>7</sup>Then He said, “Put your hand into your bosom again.” So he put his hand into his bosom again, and when he took it out of his bosom, behold, it was restored like the rest of his flesh. <sup>8</sup>“If they will not believe you or <sup>a</sup>heed the <sup>b</sup>witness of the first sign, they may believe the <sup>b</sup>witness of the last sign. <sup>9</sup>But if they will not believe even these two signs or heed what you say, then you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground; and the water which you take from the Nile will become blood on the dry ground.” [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit listen to <sup>b</sup>Lit voice]

10 Then Moses said to the LORD, “Please, Lord, I have never been <sup>a</sup>eloquent, neither <sup>b</sup>recently nor in time past, nor since You have spoken to Your servant; for I am <sup>c</sup>slow of speech and <sup>c</sup>slow of tongue.” <sup>11</sup>The LORD said to him, “Who has made man’s mouth? Is it not I, the LORD? <sup>12</sup>Now then go, and I, even I, will be with your mouth, and teach you what you are to say.” <sup>13</sup>But he said, “Please, Lord, now <sup>d</sup>send the message by whomever You will.” [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit a man of words <sup>b</sup>Lit yesterday <sup>c</sup>Lit heavy 13 <sup>d</sup>Lit send by the hand which You send]

Aaron to Be Moses' Mouthpiece

<sup>14</sup>Then the anger of the LORD burned against Moses, and He said, “Is there not your brother Aaron the Levite? I know that <sup>a</sup>he speaks fluently. And moreover, behold, he is coming out to meet you; when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. <sup>15</sup>You are to speak to him and put the words in his mouth; and I, even I, will be with your mouth and his mouth, and I will teach you what you are to do. <sup>16</sup>Moreover, he shall speak for you to the people; and he will be as a mouth for you and you will be as God to him. <sup>17</sup>You shall take in your hand this staff, with which you shall perform the signs.” [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit speaking he speaks]

<sup>18</sup> Then Moses departed and returned to <sup>a</sup>Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, “Please, let me go, that I may return to my brethren who are in Egypt, and see if they are still alive.” And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.” <sup>19</sup>Now the LORD said to Moses in Midian, “Go <sup>b</sup>back to Egypt, for all the men who were seeking your life are dead.” <sup>20</sup>So Moses took his wife and his sons and mounted them on a donkey, and returned to the land of Egypt. Moses also took the staff of God in his hand. [18 <sup>a</sup>Heb Jether 19 <sup>b</sup>Lit return]

<sup>21</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “When you go <sup>a</sup>back to Egypt see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your <sup>b</sup>power; but I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup>Then you shall say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Israel is My son, My firstborn. <sup>23</sup>So I said to you, ‘Let My son go that he may serve Me’; but you have refused to let him go. Behold, I will kill your son, your firstborn.’ ’ ” [21 <sup>a</sup>Lit to return <sup>b</sup>Lit hand]

27 Now the LORD said to Aaron, “Go to meet Moses in the wilderness.” So he went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him. <sup>28</sup>Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which He had sent him, and all the signs that He had commanded him to do. <sup>29</sup>Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the sons of Israel; <sup>30</sup>and Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. He then performed the signs in the sight of the people. <sup>31</sup>So the people believed; and when they heard that the LORD <sup>a</sup>was concerned about the sons of Israel and that He had seen their affliction, then they bowed low and worshiped. ### Israel's Labor Increased

1 And afterward Moses and Aaron came and said to Pharaoh, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Let My people go that they may celebrate a feast to Me in the wilderness.’ ” 2But Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and besides, I will not let Israel go.” 3Then they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go a three days’ journey into the wilderness that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God, otherwise He will fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword.” 4But the king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why do you <sup>a</sup>draw the people away from their <sup>b</sup>work? Get back to your <sup>c</sup>labors!” 5Again Pharaoh said, “Look, the people of the land are now many, and you would have them cease from their labors!” 6So the same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters over the people and their foremen, saying, 7“You are no longer to give the people straw to make brick as previously; let them go and gather straw for themselves. 8But the quota of bricks which they were making previously, you shall impose on them; you are not to reduce any of it. 2 God spoke further to Moses and said to him, “I am the LORD; <sup>3</sup>and I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as <sup>a</sup>God Almighty, but by My name, <sup>b</sup>LORD, I did not make Myself known to them. <sup>4</sup>I also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the <sup>c</sup>land in which they sojourned. <sup>5</sup>Furthermore I have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, because the Egyptians are holding them in bondage, and I have remembered My covenant. <sup>6</sup>Say, therefore, to the sons of Israel, ‘I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will deliver you from their bondage. I will also redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments. <sup>7</sup>Then I will take you <sup>d</sup>for My people, and I will be <sup>e</sup>your God; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup>I will bring you to the land which I <sup>f</sup>swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and I will give it to you for a possession; I am the LORD.’ ” <sup>9</sup>So Moses spoke thus to the sons of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses on account of their <sup>g</sup>despondency and cruel bondage. But behold, you have not listened until now.” <sup>17</sup>Thus says the LORD, “By this you shall know that I am the LORD: behold, I will strike <sup>c</sup>the water that is in the Nile with the staff that is in my hand, and it will be turned to blood. <sup>18</sup>The fish that are in the Nile will die, and the Nile will <sup>d</sup>become foul, and the Egyptians will <sup>e</sup>find difficulty in drinking water from the Nile.” ’ ” <sup>19</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their <sup>f</sup>streams, and over their pools, and over all their reservoirs of water, that they may become blood; and there will be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.’ ” [14 <sup>a</sup>Or hard; lit heavy 15 <sup>b</sup>Lit behold 17 <sup>c</sup>Lit upon the waters 18 <sup>d</sup>I.e. have a bad smell <sup>e</sup>Or be weary of 19 <sup>f</sup>Or canals]

20 So Moses and Aaron did even as the LORD had commanded. ### Frogs over the Land

1 <sup>a</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Let My people go, that they may serve Me. <sup>2</sup>But if you refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite your whole territory with frogs. <sup>3</sup>The Nile will swarm with frogs, which will come up and go into your house and into your bedroom and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants and on your people, and into your ovens and into your kneading bowls. <sup>4</sup>So the frogs will come up on you and your people and all your servants.” ’ ”

<sup>5b</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, over the <sup>c</sup>streams and over the pools, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.’ ” <sup>6</sup>So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the <sup>d</sup>frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>The <sup>e</sup>magicians did <sup>f</sup>the same with their secret arts, <sup>g</sup>making frogs come up on the land of Egypt. 8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, “Entreat the LORD that He remove the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD.” <sup>9</sup>Moses said to Pharaoh, “<sup>a</sup>The honor is yours to tell me: when shall I entreat for you and your servants and your people, that the frogs be <sup>b</sup>destroyed from you and your houses, that they may be left only in the Nile?” [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit Glory over me <sup>b</sup>Lit cut off]

10 Then he said, “Tomorrow.” So he said, “May it be according to your word, that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God. <sup>11</sup>The frogs will depart from you and your houses and your servants and your people; they will be left only in the Nile.” <sup>12</sup>Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to the LORD concerning the frogs which He had <sup>a</sup>inflicted upon Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup>The LORD did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out of the houses, the courts, and the fields. <sup>14</sup>So they piled them in heaps, and the land <sup>b</sup>became foul. <sup>15</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he <sup>c</sup>hardened his heart and did not listen to them, as the LORD had said. ### The Plague of Insects

within the land.” <sup>26</sup>But Moses said, “It is not right to do so, for we will sacrifice to the LORD our God <sup>a</sup>what is an abomination to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice <sup>a</sup>what is an abomination to the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not then stone us? <sup>27</sup>We must go a three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as He <sup>b</sup>commands us.” <sup>28</sup>Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Make supplication for me.” <sup>29</sup>Then Moses said, “Behold, I am going out from you, and I shall make supplication to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow; only do not let Pharaoh deal deceitfully again in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.” [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit the abomination of Egypt 27 <sup>b</sup>Lit says to us]

30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and made supplication to the LORD. <sup>31</sup>The LORD did <sup>a</sup>as Moses asked, and removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants and from his people; not one remained. <sup>32</sup>But Pharaoh <sup>b</sup>hardened his heart this time also, and he did not let the people go. ### Egyptian Cattle Die

1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and speak to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, “Let My people go, that they may serve Me. <sup>2</sup>For if you refuse to let them go and <sup>a</sup>continue to hold them, <sup>3</sup>behold, the hand of the LORD <sup>b</sup>will come with a very severe pestilence on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks. <sup>4</sup>But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing will die of all that belongs to the sons of Israel.” ’ ’ <sup>5</sup>The LORD set a definite time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.” <sup>6</sup>So the LORD did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt died; but of the livestock of the sons of Israel, not one died. <sup>7</sup>Pharaoh sent, and behold, there was not even one of the livestock of Israel dead. ### The Plague of Boils

8 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take for yourselves handfuls of soot from a kiln, and let Moses throw it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup>It will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and will become boils breaking out with sores on man and beast through all the land of Egypt.” <sup>10</sup>So they took soot from a kiln, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses threw it toward the sky, and it became boils breaking out with sores on man and beast. <sup>11</sup>The <sup>a</sup>magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians <sup>b</sup>as well as on all the Egyptians. <sup>12</sup>And the LORD <sup>c</sup>hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses. ### The Plague of Hail

27 Then Pharaoh <sup>a</sup>sent for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “I have sinned this time; the LORD is the righteous one, and I and my people are the wicked ones. <sup>28</sup>Make supplication to the LORD, for there has been enough of God’s <sup>b</sup>thunder and hail; and I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.” <sup>29</sup>Moses said to him, “As soon as I go out of the city, I will spread out my <sup>c</sup>hands to the LORD; the <sup>b</sup>thunder will cease and there will be hail no longer, that you may know that the earth is the LORD’s. <sup>30</sup>But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet <sup>d</sup>fear <sup>e</sup>the LORD God.” <sup>31</sup>(Now the flax and the barley were <sup>f</sup>ruined, for the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bud. <sup>32</sup>But the wheat and the spelt were not <sup>g</sup>ruined, for they ripen late.) <sup>33</sup>So Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread out his <sup>c</sup>hands to the LORD; and the <sup>b</sup>thunder and the hail ceased, and rain <sup>h</sup>no longer poured on the earth. <sup>34</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the <sup>b</sup>thunder had ceased, he sinned again and <sup>i</sup>hardened his heart, he and his servants. <sup>35</sup>Pharaoh’s heart was <sup>j</sup>hardened, and he did not let the sons of Israel go, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses. ### The Plague of Locusts

3 Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may serve Me. <sup>4</sup>For if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory. <sup>5</sup>They shall cover the surface of the land, so that no one will be able to see the land. They will also eat the rest of what has escaped—what is left to you from the hail—and they will eat every tree which sprouts for you out of the field. <sup>6</sup>Then your houses shall be filled and the houses of all your servants and the houses of all the Egyptians, something which neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen, from the day that they <sup>a</sup>came upon the earth until this day.’ ” And he turned and went out from Pharaoh. <sup>7</sup>Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not <sup>b</sup>realize that Egypt is destroyed?” <sup>8</sup>So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God! <sup>c</sup>Who are the ones that are going?” <sup>9</sup>Moses said, “We shall go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds we shall go, for we <sup>d</sup>must hold a feast to the LORD.” <sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, “Thus may the LORD be with you, <sup>e</sup>if ever I let you and your little ones go! Take heed, for evil is <sup>f</sup>in your mind. <sup>11</sup>Not so! Go now, the men among you, and serve the LORD, for <sup>g</sup>that is what you desire.” So they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence. 12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt and eat every plant of the land, even all that the hail has left.” 13 So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD directed an east wind on the land all that day and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind <sup>a</sup>brought the locusts. 14 The locusts came up over all the land of Egypt and settled in all the territory of Egypt; they were very <sup>b</sup>numerous. There had never been so many <sup>c</sup>locusts, nor would there be so many <sup>d</sup>again. 15 For they covered the surface of the whole land, so that the land was darkened; and they ate every plant of the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. Thus nothing green was left on tree or plant of the field through all the land of Egypt. 16 Then Pharaoh hurriedly called for Moses and Aaron, and he said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you. 17 Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once, and make supplication to the LORD your God, that He would only remove this death from me.” 18 He went out from Pharaoh and made supplication to the LORD. 19 So the LORD shifted the wind to a very strong west wind which took up the locusts and drove them into the <sup>e</sup>Red Sea; not one locust was left in all the territory of Egypt. 20 But the LORD <sup>f</sup>hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go. ### Darkness over the Land

21 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even a darkness which may be felt.” 22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. 23 They did not see one another, nor did anyone rise from his place for three days, but all the sons of Israel had light in their dwellings. 24 Then Pharaoh called to Moses, and said, “Go, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be detained. Even your little ones may go with you.” 25 But Moses said, “You must also <sup>a</sup>let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may <sup>b</sup>sacrifice them to the LORD our God. 26 Therefore, our livestock too shall go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, for we shall take some of them to serve the LORD our God. And until we arrive there, we ourselves do not know with what we shall serve the LORD.”<sup>27</sup> But the LORD <sup>c</sup>hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he was not willing to let them go.<sup>28</sup> Then Pharaoh said to him, “Get away from me! <sup>d</sup>Beware, do not see my face again, for in the day you see my face you shall die!”<sup>29</sup> Moses said, “You are right; I shall never see your face again!” [25 <sup>a</sup>Lit give into our hand <sup>b</sup>Lit make 27 <sup>c</sup>Lit made strong 28 <sup>d</sup>Lit Take heed to yourself]

<sup>29</sup> Now it came about at midnight that the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of cattle. <sup>30</sup>Pharaoh arose in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians, and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was no home where there was not someone dead. <sup>31</sup>Then he called for Moses and Aaron at night and said, “Rise up, get out from among my people, both you and the sons of Israel; and go, <sup>a</sup>worship the LORD, as you have said. <sup>32</sup>Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and go, and bless me also.” [<sup>31</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or serve]

Exodus of Israel

<sup>33</sup>The Egyptians urged the people, to send them out of the land in haste, for they said, “We will all be dead.” <sup>34</sup>So the people took their dough before it was leavened, with their kneading bowls bound up in the clothes on their shoulders.

<sup>35</sup> Now the sons of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, for they had requested from the Egyptians articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing; <sup>36</sup>and the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have their request. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.

37 Now the sons of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, aside from children. <sup>38</sup>A mixed multitude also went up with them, <sup>a</sup>along with flocks and herds, a very large number of livestock. <sup>39</sup>They baked the dough which they had brought out of Egypt into cakes of unleavened bread. For it had not become leavened, since they were driven out of Egypt and could not delay, nor had they <sup>b</sup>prepared any provisions for themselves. 40 Now the time <sup>a</sup>that the sons of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years. <sup>41</sup>And at the end of four hundred and thirty years, <sup>b</sup>to the very day, all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. ### Ordinance of the Passover

<sup>42</sup>It is a night <sup>a</sup>to be observed for the LORD for having brought them out from the land of Egypt; this night is for the LORD, <sup>a</sup>to be observed <sup>b</sup>by all the sons of Israel throughout their generations. 43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “This is the ordinance of the Passover: no <sup>a</sup>foreigner is to eat of it; <sup>44</sup>but every man’s slave purchased with money, after you have circumcised him, then he may eat of it. <sup>45</sup>A sojourner or a hired servant shall not eat of it. <sup>46</sup>It is to be eaten in a single house; you are not to bring forth any of the flesh outside of the house, nor are you to break any bone of it. <sup>47</sup>All the congregation of Israel are to <sup>b</sup>celebrate this. <sup>48</sup>But if a <sup>c</sup>stranger sojourns with you, and <sup>d</sup>celebrates the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near to <sup>b</sup>celebrate it; and he shall be like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat of it. <sup>49</sup><sup>e</sup>The same law shall <sup>f</sup>apply to the native as to the <sup>c</sup>stranger who sojourns among you.” [<sup>43</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit son of a stranger <sup>47</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit do <sup>48</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit sojourner <sup>d</sup>Lit does <sup>49</sup> <sup>e</sup>Lit One law <sup>f</sup>Lit be]

50 Then all the sons of Israel did so; they did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron. <sup>51</sup>And on that same day the LORD brought

Consecration of the Firstborn

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Sanctify to Me every firstborn, the first <sup>a</sup>offspring of every womb among the sons of Israel, both of man and beast; it belongs to Me.” [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit opening]

3 Moses said to the people, “Remember this day in which you went out from Egypt, from the house of <sup>a</sup>slavery; for by <sup>b</sup>a powerful hand the LORD brought you out from this place. And nothing leavened shall be eaten. <sup>4</sup>On this day in the month of Abib, you are about to go forth. <sup>5</sup>It shall be when the LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall <sup>c</sup>observe this rite in this month. <sup>6</sup>For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; and nothing leavened shall be seen <sup>d</sup>among you, nor shall any leaven be seen <sup>d</sup>among you in all your borders. <sup>8</sup>You shall tell your son on that day, saying, ‘It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’ <sup>9</sup>And it shall <sup>e</sup>serve as a sign to you on your hand, and as a reminder <sup>f</sup>on your forehead, that the law of the LORD may be in your mouth; for with a powerful hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, you shall keep this ordinance at its appointed time from <sup>g</sup>year to year. 11 “Now when the LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanite, as He swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you, <sup>12</sup>you shall <sup>a</sup>devote to the LORD the first <sup>b</sup>offspring of every womb, and <sup>c</sup>the first offspring of every beast that you own; the males belong to the LORD. <sup>13</sup>But every first <sup>b</sup>offspring of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, then you shall break its neck; and every firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem. <sup>14</sup>And it shall be when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is this?’ then you shall say to him, ‘With a <sup>d</sup>powerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of

<sup>e</sup>slavery. <sup>15</sup>It came about, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go, that the LORD killed every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of beast. Therefore, I sacrifice to the LORD the males, the first <sup>b</sup>offspring of every womb, but every firstborn of my sons I redeem.’ <sup>16</sup>So it shall <sup>f</sup>serve as a sign on your hand and as <sup>g</sup>phylacteries <sup>h</sup>on your forehead, for with a <sup>d</sup>powerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.” [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit cause to pass over <sup>b</sup>Lit opening <sup>c</sup>Lit every issue the offspring of a beast 14 <sup>d</sup>Lit strength of hand <sup>e</sup>Lit slaves 16 <sup>f</sup>Lit be for <sup>g</sup>Or frontlet-bands <sup>h</sup>Lit between your eyes]

God Leads the People

<sup>17</sup> Now when Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, even though it was near; for God said, “The people might change their minds when they see war, and return to Egypt.” <sup>18</sup>Hence God led the people around by the way of the wilderness to the <sup>a</sup>Red Sea; and the sons of Israel went up in martial array from the land of Egypt. <sup>19</sup>Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the sons of Israel solemnly swear, saying, “God will surely <sup>b</sup>take care of you, and you shall carry my bones from here with you.” <sup>20</sup>Then they set out from Succoth and camped in Etham on the edge of the wilderness. <sup>21</sup>The LORD was going before them in a pillar of cloud by day to lead them on the way, and in a pillar of fire by night to give them light, that they might <sup>c</sup>travel by day and by night. <sup>22</sup><sup>d</sup>He did not take away the pillar of cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people. ### Pharaoh in Pursuit

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Tell the sons of Israel to turn back and camp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea; you shall camp in front of Baal-zephon, opposite it, by the sea. <sup>3</sup>For Pharaoh will say of the sons of Israel, ‘They are wandering aimlessly in the land; the wilderness has shut them in.’ <sup>4</sup>Thus I will <sup>a</sup>harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will chase after them; and I will be honored through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.” And they did so. [4 <sup>a</sup>Lit make strong]

5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, <sup>a</sup>Pharaoh and his servants had a change of heart toward the people, and they said, “What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?” <sup>6</sup>So he made his chariot ready and took his people with him; <sup>7</sup>and he took six hundred select chariots, and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them. <sup>8</sup>The LORD <sup>b</sup>hardened the heart of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he chased after the sons of Israel as the sons of Israel were going out <sup>c</sup>boldly. <sup>9</sup>Then the Egyptians chased after them with all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen and his army, and they overtook them camping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon. [5 <sup>a</sup>Lit the heart of Pharaoh...was changed 8 <sup>b</sup>Lit made strong <sup>c</sup>Lit with a high hand]

10 As Pharaoh drew near, the sons of Israel <sup>a</sup>looked, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them, and they became very frightened; so the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Then they said to Moses, “Is it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you dealt with us in this way, <sup>b</sup>bringing us out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup>Is this not the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, ‘<sup>c</sup>Leave us alone that we may serve the Egyptians?’ For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.” [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit lifted up their eyes 11 <sup>b</sup>Lit so as to bring 12 <sup>c</sup>Lit Cease from us]

The Sea Is Divided

<sup>13</sup>But Moses said to the people, “Do not fear! <sup>a</sup>Stand by and see the salvation of the LORD which He will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will never see them again forever. <sup>14</sup>The LORD will fight for you while you keep silent.” [<sup>13</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or Take your stand]

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the sons of Israel to go forward. <sup>16</sup>As for you, lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, and the sons of Israel shall <sup>a</sup>go through the midst of the sea on dry land. <sup>17</sup>As for Me, behold, I will <sup>b</sup>harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them; and I will be honored through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen. <sup>18</sup>Then the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD, when I am honored through Pharaoh, through his chariots and his horsemen.” [<sup>16</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit enter the <sup>17</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit make strong]

<sup>19</sup> The angel of God, who had been going before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them. <sup>20</sup>So it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud <sup>a</sup>along with the darkness, yet it gave light at night. Thus the one did not come near the other all night. [<sup>20</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit and the darkness]

26 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots and their horsemen.” 27 So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal state at daybreak, while the Egyptians were fleeing <sup>a</sup>right into it; then the LORD <sup>b</sup>overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. 28 The waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, <sup>c</sup>even Pharaoh’s entire army that had gone into the sea after them; not even one of them remained. 29 But the sons of Israel walked on dry land through the midst of the sea, and the waters were like a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. [27 <sup>a</sup>Lit to meet it <sup>b</sup>Lit shook off 28 <sup>c</sup>Lit in respect to]

30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. 31 When Israel saw the great <sup>a</sup>power which the LORD had <sup>b</sup>used against the Egyptians, the people <sup>c</sup>feared the LORD, and they believed in the LORD and in His servant Moses. 22 Then Moses <sup>a</sup>led Israel from the <sup>b</sup>Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness and found no water. <sup>23</sup>When they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters <sup>c</sup>of Marah, for they were <sup>d</sup>bitter; therefore it was named <sup>e</sup>Marah. <sup>24</sup>So the people grumbled at Moses, saying, “What shall we drink?” <sup>25</sup>Then he cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree; and he threw it into the waters, and the waters became sweet. ### The LORD Provides Manna

1 Then they set out from Elim, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departure from the land of Egypt. 2The whole congregation of the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. 3The sons of Israel said to them, “Would that we had died by the LORD’s hand in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of <sup>a</sup>meat, when we ate bread to the full; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.” [3 <sup>a</sup>Or flesh]

4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a day’s portion every day, that I may test them, whether or not they will walk in My <sup>a</sup>instruction. 5On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather daily.” 6So Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel, “At evening <sup>b</sup>you will know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt; 7and in the morning <sup>b</sup>you will see the glory of the LORD, for He hears your grumblings against the LORD; and what are we, that you grumble against us?” [4 <sup>a</sup>Or law 6 <sup>b</sup>Lit and you]

The LORD Provides Meat

8Moses said, “This will happen when the LORD gives you <sup>a</sup>meat to eat in the evening, and bread to the full in the morning; for the LORD hears your grumblings which you grumble against Him. And what are we? Your grumblings are not against us but against the LORD.” [8 <sup>a</sup>Or flesh]

9 Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for He has heard your grumblings.’ ”

<sup>10</sup>It came about as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, that they <sup>a</sup>looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. <sup>11</sup>And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>12</sup>“I have heard the grumbings of the sons of Israel; speak to them, saying, <sup>b</sup>‘At twilight you shall eat <sup>c</sup>meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’ ” [<sup>10</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit turned <sup>12</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit Between the two evenings <sup>c</sup>Or flesh]

<sup>13</sup> So it came about at evening that the quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. <sup>14</sup>When the layer of dew <sup>a</sup>evaporated, behold, on the <sup>b</sup>surface of the wilderness there was a fine flake-like thing, fine as the frost on the ground. <sup>15</sup>When the sons of Israel saw it, they said to one another, “<sup>c</sup>What is it?” For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, “It is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat. <sup>16</sup>This is <sup>d</sup>what the LORD has commanded, ‘Gather of it every man <sup>e</sup>as much as he should eat; you shall take <sup>f</sup>an omer apiece according to the number of persons each of you has in his tent.’ ” <sup>17</sup>The sons of Israel did so, and some gathered much and some little. <sup>18</sup>When they measured it with an omer, he who had gathered much had no excess, and he who had gathered little had no lack; every man gathered <sup>e</sup>as much as he should eat. <sup>19</sup>Moses said to them, “Let no man leave any of it until morning.” <sup>20</sup>But they did not listen to Moses, and some left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and became foul; and Moses was angry with them. <sup>21</sup>They gathered it morning by morning, every man <sup>e</sup>as much as he should eat; but when the sun grew hot, it would melt. ### The Sabbath Observed

until morning.” <sup>24</sup>So they <sup>c</sup>put it aside until morning, as Moses had ordered, and it did not become foul nor was there any worm in it. <sup>25</sup>Moses said, “Eat it today, for today is a sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field. <sup>26</sup>Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the sabbath, there will be <sup>d</sup>none.” [23 <sup>a</sup>Lit spoke <sup>b</sup>Lit lay up for you 24 <sup>c</sup>Lit laid it up 26 <sup>d</sup>Lit none on it]

<sup>27</sup> It came about on the seventh day that some of the people went out to gather, but they found none. <sup>28</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My <sup>a</sup>instructions? <sup>29</sup>See, <sup>b</sup>the LORD has given you the sabbath; therefore He gives you bread for two days on the sixth day. Remain every man in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.” <sup>30</sup>So the people rested on the seventh day. [28 <sup>a</sup>Or laws 29 <sup>b</sup>Lit for the LORD]

<sup>31</sup> The house of Israel named it <sup>a</sup>manna, and it was like coriander seed, white, and its taste was like wafers with honey. <sup>32</sup>Then Moses said, “This is <sup>b</sup>what the LORD has commanded, ‘Let an omerful of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread that I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’ ” <sup>33</sup>Moses said to Aaron, “Take a jar and put an omerful of manna in it, and place it before the LORD to be kept throughout your generations.” <sup>34</sup>As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before the Testimony, to be kept. <sup>35</sup>The sons of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land; they ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan. <sup>36</sup>(Now an omer is a tenth of an <sup>c</sup>ephah.) ### Water in the Rock

1 Then all the congregation of the sons of Israel journeyed by <sup>a</sup>stages from the wilderness of Sin, according to the <sup>b</sup>command of the LORD, and camped at Rephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup>Therefore the people quarreled with Moses and said, “Give us water that we may drink.” And Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?” <sup>3</sup>But the people thirsted there for water; and <sup>c</sup>they grumbled against Moses and said, “Why, now, have you brought us up from Egypt, to kill <sup>d</sup>us and <sup>e</sup>our children and <sup>e</sup>our livestock with thirst?” <sup>4</sup>So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “What shall I do to this people? A little more and they will stone me.” <sup>5</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pass before the people and take with you some of the elders of Israel; and take in your hand your staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. <sup>6</sup>Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink.” And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. <sup>7</sup>He named the place <sup>f</sup>Massah and <sup>g</sup>Meribah because of the quarrel of the sons of Israel, and because they tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us, or not?” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit their journeyings <sup>b</sup>Lit mouth 3 <sup>c</sup>Lit the people <sup>d</sup>Lit me <sup>e</sup>Lit my 7 <sup>f</sup>I.e. test <sup>g</sup>I.e. quarrel]

<sup>8</sup> Then Amalek came and fought against Israel at Rephidim. <sup>9</sup>So Moses said to Joshua, “Choose men for us and go out, fight against Amalek. Then they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it; and Aaron and Hur supported

Jethro, Moses' Father-in-law

1 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel His people, how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Moses' wife Zipporah, after he had sent her away, <sup>3</sup>and her two sons, of whom <sup>a</sup>one was named Gershom, for Moses said, "I have been a <sup>b</sup>sojourner in a foreign land." <sup>4c</sup>The other was named <sup>d</sup>Eliezer, for he said, "The God of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh." [<sup>3</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit the name of the one was <sup>b</sup>Heb ger <sup>4</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit The name of the other was <sup>d</sup>Heb El-ezer; i.e. my God is help]

5 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses <sup>a</sup>in the wilderness where he was camped, at the mount of God. <sup>6</sup>He <sup>b</sup>sent word to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her." <sup>7</sup>Then Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and he bowed down and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare and went into the tent. <sup>8</sup>Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had befallen them on the journey, and how the LORD had delivered them. <sup>9</sup>Jethro rejoiced over all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, <sup>c</sup>in delivering <sup>d</sup>them from the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>10</sup>So Jethro said, "Blessed be the LORD who delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharaoh, and who delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>11</sup>Now I know that the LORD is greater than all the gods; <sup>e</sup>indeed, it was proven when they dealt proudly against <sup>f</sup>the people." <sup>12</sup>Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat <sup>g</sup>a meal with Moses' father-in-law before God. 13 It came about the next day that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood about Moses from the morning until the evening. <sup>14</sup>Now when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, "What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge and all the people stand about you from morning until evening?" <sup>15</sup>Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God. <sup>16</sup>When they have a <sup>a</sup>dispute, it comes to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor and make known the statutes of God and His laws." [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit matter]

Jethro Counsels Moses

<sup>17</sup>Moses' father-in-law said to him, "The thing that you are doing is not good. <sup>18</sup>You will surely wear out, both yourself and <sup>a</sup>these people who are with you, for the <sup>b</sup>task is too heavy for you; you cannot do it alone. <sup>19</sup>Now listen to <sup>c</sup>me: I will give you counsel, and God be with you. <sup>d</sup>You be the people's representative before God, and you bring the <sup>e</sup>disputes to God, <sup>20</sup>then teach them the statutes and the laws, and make known to them the way in which they are to walk and the work they are to do. <sup>21</sup>Furthermore, you shall <sup>f</sup>select out of all the people able men who fear God, men of truth, those who hate dishonest gain; and you shall place these over them as leaders of thousands, <sup>g</sup>of hundreds, <sup>h</sup>of fifties and <sup>i</sup>of tens. <sup>22</sup>Let them judge the people at all times; and let it be that every major <sup>b</sup>dispute they will bring to you, but every minor <sup>b</sup>dispute they themselves will judge. So it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you. <sup>23</sup>If you do this thing and God so commands you, then you will be able to <sup>j</sup>endure, and all <sup>a</sup>these people also will go to <sup>k</sup>their place in peace." <sup>24</sup> So Moses listened <sup>a</sup>to his father-in-law and did all that he had said. <sup>25</sup>Moses chose able men out of all Israel and made them heads over the people, leaders of thousands, <sup>b</sup>of hundreds, <sup>b</sup>of fifties and <sup>b</sup>of tens. <sup>26</sup>They judged the people at all times; the difficult <sup>c</sup>dispute they would bring to Moses, but every minor <sup>c</sup>dispute they themselves would judge. <sup>27</sup>Then

Moses on Sinai

1 In the third month after the sons of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, <sup>a</sup>on that very day they came into the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>2</sup>When they set out from Rephidim, they came to the wilderness of Sinai and camped in the wilderness; and there Israel camped in front of the mountain. <sup>3</sup>Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the sons of Israel: <sup>4</sup>‘You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings, and brought you to Myself. <sup>5</sup>Now then, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be My <sup>b</sup>own possession among all the peoples, for all the earth is Mine; <sup>6</sup>and you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words that you shall speak to the sons of Israel.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit on this day 5 <sup>b</sup>Or special treasure]

7 So Moses came and called the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which the LORD had commanded him. <sup>8</sup>All the people answered together and said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do!” And Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD. <sup>9</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I will come to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you and may also believe in you forever.” Then Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

10 The LORD also said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments; <sup>11</sup>and let them be ready for the third day, for on the third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people. <sup>12</sup>You shall set bounds for the people all around, saying, ‘<sup>a</sup>Beware that you do not go up on the mountain or touch the border of it; whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death. <sup>13</sup>No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or <sup>b</sup>shot through; whether beast or man, he shall not live.’ When the ram’s horn sounds a long blast, they shall come up to the mountain.” <sup>14</sup>So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated the people, and they washed their garments. <sup>15</sup>He said to the people, “Be ready for the third day; do not go near a woman.” [<sup>12</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit Take heed to yourselves <sup>13</sup> <sup>b</sup>I.e. with arrows]

<sup>16</sup> So it came about on the third day, when it was morning, that there were <sup>a</sup>thunder and lightning flashes and a thick cloud upon the mountain and a very loud trumpet sound, so that all the people who were in the camp trembled. <sup>17</sup>And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the <sup>b</sup>foot of the mountain. ### The LORD Visits Sinai

<sup>18</sup>Now Mount Sinai was all in smoke because the LORD descended upon it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain <sup>a</sup>quaked violently. <sup>19</sup>When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and God answered him with <sup>b</sup>thunder. <sup>20</sup>The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain; and the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. <sup>21</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Go down, <sup>c</sup>warn the people, so that they do not break through to the LORD to gaze, and many of them <sup>d</sup>perish. <sup>22</sup>Also let the priests who come near to the LORD consecrate themselves, or else the LORD will break out against them.” <sup>23</sup>Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for You <sup>e</sup>warned us, saying, ‘Set bounds about the mountain and consecrate it.’ ” <sup>24</sup>Then the LORD said to him, “<sup>f</sup>Go down and come up again, you and Aaron with you; but do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, or He will break forth upon them.” <sup>25</sup>So Moses went down to the people and told them. 3 “You shall have no other gods <sup>a</sup>before Me. [3 <sup>a</sup>Or besides Me]

4 “You shall not make for yourself <sup>a</sup>an idol, or any likeness of what is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water under the earth.

<sup>5</sup>You shall not worship them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and the fourth generations of those who hate Me, <sup>6</sup>but showing lovingkindness to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments. [4 <sup>a</sup>Or a graven image]

7 “You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not <sup>a</sup>leave him unpunished who takes His name in vain. [7 <sup>a</sup>Or hold him guiltless]

8 “Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. <sup>9</sup>Six days you shall labor and do all your work, <sup>10</sup>but the seventh day is a sabbath of the LORD your God; in it you shall not do any work, you or your son or your daughter, your male or your female servant or your cattle or your sojourner who <sup>a</sup>stays with you. <sup>11</sup>For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and made it holy. [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit is in your gates]

12 “Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be prolonged in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

13 “You shall not murder.

14 “You shall not commit adultery.

15 “You shall not steal.

16 “You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

17 “You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife or his male servant or his female servant or his ox or his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.”

18 All the people perceived the <sup>a</sup>thunder and the lightning flashes and the sound of the trumpet and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw it, they trembled and stood at a distance. <sup>19</sup>Then they said to Moses, “Speak <sup>b</sup>to us yourself and we will listen; but let not God speak <sup>b</sup>to us, or we will die.” <sup>20</sup>Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid; for God has come in order to test you, and in order that the fear of Him may <sup>c</sup>remain with you, so that you may not sin.” <sup>21</sup>So the people stood at a distance, while Moses approached the thick cloud where God was.

Ordinances for the People 1 “Now these are the ordinances which you are to set before them:

2 “If you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve for six years; but on the seventh he shall go out as a free man without payment. 3 If he comes <sup>a</sup>alone, he shall go out <sup>a</sup>alone; if he is the husband of a wife, then his wife shall go out with him. 4 If his master gives him a wife, and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall belong to her master, and he shall go out <sup>a</sup>alone. 5 But if the slave plainly says, ‘I love my master, my wife and my children; I will not go out as a free man,’ 6 then his master shall bring him to <sup>b</sup>God, then he shall bring him to the door or the doorpost. ### People Affirm Their Covenant with God

1 Then He said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu and seventy of the elders of Israel, and you shall worship at a distance. 2Moses alone, however, shall come near to the LORD, but they shall not come near, nor shall the people come up with him.”

3 Then Moses came and recounted to the people all the words of the LORD and all the <sup>a</sup>ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice and said, “All the words which the LORD has spoken we will do!” 4Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. Then he arose early in the morning, and built an altar <sup>b</sup>at the foot of the mountain with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. 5He sent young men of the sons of Israel, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD. 6Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and the other half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. 7Then he took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient!” 8So Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, and said, “Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has <sup>c</sup>made with you <sup>d</sup>in accordance with all these words.” [3 <sup>a</sup>Or judgments 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit under 8 <sup>c</sup>Lit cut <sup>d</sup>Lit on all]

9 Then Moses went up <sup>a</sup>with Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, 10and they saw the God of Israel; and under His feet <sup>b</sup>there appeared to be a pavement of sapphire, <sup>c</sup>as clear as the sky itself. 11Yet He did not stretch out His hand against the nobles of the sons of Israel; and they saw God, and they ate and drank. 12 Now the LORD said to Moses, “Come up to Me on the mountain and <sup>a</sup>remain there, and I will give you the stone tablets <sup>b</sup>with the law and the commandment which I have written for their instruction.” 13So Moses arose

<sup>b</sup>with Joshua his <sup>c</sup>servant, and Moses went up to the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup>But to the elders he said, “Wait here for us until we return to you. And behold, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever <sup>d</sup>has a legal matter, let him approach them.” <sup>15</sup>Then Moses went up to the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. <sup>16</sup>The glory of the LORD <sup>e</sup>rested on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; and on the seventh day He called to Moses from the midst of the cloud. <sup>17</sup>And to the eyes of the sons of Israel the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the mountain top. <sup>18</sup>Moses entered the midst of the cloud <sup>b</sup>as he went up to the mountain; and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights. ### Consecration of the Priests

1 “Now this is <sup>a</sup>what you shall do to them to consecrate them to minister as priests to Me: take one young bull and two rams without blemish, <sup>2</sup>and unleavened bread and unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers <sup>b</sup>spread with oil; you shall make them of fine wheat flour. <sup>3</sup>You shall put them in one basket, and present them in the basket along with the bull and the two rams. <sup>4</sup>Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the doorway of the tent of meeting and wash them with water. <sup>5</sup>You shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the tunic and the robe of the ephod and the ephod and the <sup>c</sup>breastpiece, and gird him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod; <sup>6</sup>and you shall set the turban on his head and put the holy crown on the turban. <sup>7</sup>Then you shall take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and anoint him. <sup>8</sup>You shall bring his sons and put tunics on them. <sup>9</sup>You shall gird them with sashes, Aaron and his sons, and bind <sup>d</sup>caps on them, and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute. 10 “Then you shall bring the bull before the tent of meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull. <sup>11</sup>You shall slaughter the bull before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting. <sup>12</sup>You shall take some of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; and you shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>13</sup>You shall take all the fat that covers the entrails and the <sup>a</sup>lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and offer them up in smoke on the altar. <sup>14</sup>But the flesh of the bull and its hide and its refuse, you shall burn with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering. 15 “You shall also take the one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram; <sup>16</sup>and you shall slaughter the ram and shall take its blood and sprinkle it around on the altar. <sup>17</sup>Then you shall cut the ram into its pieces, and wash its entrails and its legs, and put them <sup>a</sup>with its pieces and <sup>b</sup>its head. <sup>18</sup>You shall offer up in smoke the whole ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering to the LORD: it is a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD. 22 “You shall also take the fat from the ram and the fat tail, and the fat that covers the entrails and the <sup>a</sup>lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them and the right thigh (for it is a ram of <sup>b</sup>ordination), <sup>23</sup>and one cake of bread and one cake of bread mixed with oil and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread which is set before the LORD; <sup>24</sup>and you shall put <sup>c</sup>all these <sup>d</sup>in the <sup>e</sup>hands of Aaron and <sup>d</sup>in the <sup>e</sup>hands of his sons, and shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>25</sup>You shall take them from their hands, and offer them up in smoke on the altar on the burnt offering for a soothing aroma before the LORD; it is an offering by fire to the LORD. 26 “Then you shall take the breast of Aaron’s ram of <sup>a</sup>ordination, and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion. <sup>27</sup>You shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering which was waved and which was <sup>b</sup>offered from the ram of <sup>a</sup>ordination, from the one which was for Aaron and from the one which was for his sons. <sup>28</sup>It shall be for Aaron and his sons as their portion forever from the sons of Israel, for it is a heave offering; and it shall be a heave

Food of the Priests

31 “You shall take the ram of <sup>a</sup>ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place. <sup>32</sup>Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket, at the doorway of the tent of meeting. <sup>33</sup>Thus they shall eat <sup>b</sup>those things by which atonement was made <sup>c</sup>at their ordination and consecration; but a <sup>d</sup>layman shall not eat them, because they are holy. <sup>34</sup>If any of the flesh of <sup>a</sup>ordination or any of the bread remains until morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten, because it is holy. ### The Golden Calf

<sup>1</sup> Now when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people assembled about Aaron and said to him, “Come, make us <sup>a</sup>a god who will go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.”

<sup>2</sup> Aaron said to them, “Tear off the gold rings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.” <sup>3</sup> Then all the people tore off the gold rings which were in their ears and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup> He took this from their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool and made it into a molten calf; and they said, “<sup>b</sup>This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.” <sup>5</sup> Now when Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation and said, “Tomorrow shall be a feast to the LORD.” <sup>6</sup> So the next day they rose early and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. [<sup>1</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or gods <sup>4</sup> <sup>b</sup>Or These are your gods]

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Go <sup>a</sup>down at once, for your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. <sup>8</sup> They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them. They have made for themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it and have sacrificed to it and said, ‘<sup>b</sup>This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!’ ” <sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “I have seen this people, and behold, they are <sup>c</sup>an obstinate people. <sup>10</sup> Now then let Me alone, that My anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them; and I will make of you a great nation.” [<sup>7</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit go down <sup>8</sup> <sup>b</sup>Or These are your gods <sup>9</sup> <sup>c</sup>Or a stiff-necked]

Moses' Entreaty

11 Then Moses entreated the LORD his God, and said, “O LORD, why does Your anger burn against Your people whom You have brought out from the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? <sup>12</sup>Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, ‘With evil intent He brought them out to kill them in the mountains and to destroy them from the face of the earth’? Turn from Your burning anger and change Your mind about doing harm to Your people. <sup>13</sup>Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants to whom You swore by Yourself, and said to them, ‘I will multiply your <sup>a</sup>descendants as the stars of the heavens, and all this land of which I have spoken I will give to your <sup>a</sup>descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’ ” <sup>14</sup>So the LORD changed His mind about the harm which He said He would do to His people. [<sup>13</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit seed]

15 Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets which were written on both <sup>a</sup>sides; they were written on one side and the other. <sup>16</sup>The tablets were God’s work, and the writing was God’s writing engraved on the tablets. <sup>17</sup>Now when Joshua heard the sound of the people <sup>b</sup>as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a sound of war in the camp.” <sup>18</sup>But he said,

“It is not the sound of the cry of triumph,
Nor is it the sound of the cry of defeat;

Moses’ Anger

<sup>19</sup>It came about, as soon as <sup>a</sup>Moses came near the camp, that he saw the calf and the dancing; and Moses’ anger burned, and he threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them <sup>b</sup>at the foot of the mountain. <sup>20</sup>He took the calf which they had made and burned it with fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it over the surface of the water and made the sons of Israel drink it. [<sup>19</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit he <sup>b</sup>Lit beneath]

21 Then Moses said to Aaron, “What did this people do to you, that you have brought such great sin upon them?” 22 Aaron said, “Do not let the anger of my lord burn; you know the people yourself, that they are <sup>a</sup>prone to evil. 23 For they said to me, ‘Make <sup>b</sup>a god for us who will go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.’ 24 I said to them, ‘Whoever has any gold, let them tear it off.’ So they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.” [22 <sup>a</sup>Lit in evil 23 <sup>b</sup>Or gods]

25 Now when Moses saw that the people were <sup>a</sup>out of control—for Aaron had let them <sup>b</sup>get out of control to be a derision among <sup>c</sup>their enemies— 26 then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, “Whoever is for the LORD, come to me!” And all the sons of Levi gathered together to him. 27 He said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Every man of you put his sword upon his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate in the camp, and kill every man his brother, and every man his friend, and every man his <sup>d</sup>neighbor.’ ” 28 So the sons of Levi did <sup>e</sup>as Moses instructed, and about three thousand men of the people fell that day. 29 Then Moses said, “<sup>f</sup>Dedicate yourselves today to the LORD—for every man has been against his son and against his brother—in order that He may bestow a blessing upon you today.” [25 <sup>a</sup>Lit let loose <sup>b</sup>Lit go loose <sup>c</sup>Lit those who rise against them 27 <sup>d</sup>Or kin 28 <sup>e</sup>Lit according to Moses’ word 29 <sup>f</sup>Lit Fill your hand]

30 On the next day Moses said to the people, “You yourselves have <sup>a</sup>committed a great sin; and now I am going up to the LORD, perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.” 31 Then Moses returned to the LORD, and said, “Alas, this people has <sup>a</sup>committed a great sin, and they have made <sup>b</sup>a god of gold for themselves. 32 But now, if You will, forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out from Your book which You have written!” 33 The LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book. 34 But go now, lead the people where I told you. Behold, My angel shall go before you; nevertheless in the day when I <sup>c</sup>punish, I will <sup>d</sup>punish them for their sin.” 35 Then the LORD smote the people, because of what they did with the calf which Aaron had made. ### The Journey Resumed

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, “Depart, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up from the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘To your <sup>a</sup>descendants I will give it.’ <sup>2</sup>I will send an angel before you and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite. <sup>3</sup>Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst, because you are <sup>b</sup>an obstinate people, and I might destroy you on the way.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit seed 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit a stiff-necked]

4 When the people heard this <sup>a</sup>sad word, they went into mourning, and none of them put on his ornaments. <sup>5</sup>For the LORD had said to Moses, “Say to the sons of Israel, ‘You are <sup>b</sup>an obstinate people; should I go up in your midst for one moment, I would destroy you. Now therefore, put off your ornaments from you, that I may know what I shall do with you.’ ” <sup>6</sup>So the sons of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments, from Mount Horeb onward. [4 <sup>a</sup>Lit evil 5 <sup>b</sup>Lit a stiff-necked]

7 Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, a good distance from the camp, and he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting which was outside the camp. <sup>8</sup>And it came about, whenever Moses went out to the tent, that all the people would arise and stand, each at the entrance of his tent, and gaze after Moses until he entered the tent. <sup>9</sup>Whenever Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent; and <sup>a</sup>the LORD would speak with Moses. <sup>10</sup>When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would arise and worship, each at the entrance of his tent. <sup>11</sup>Thus the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, just as a man speaks to his friend. When <sup>b</sup>Moses returned to the camp, his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, would not depart from the tent. [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit He 11 <sup>b</sup>Lit he]

Moses Intercedes

12 Then Moses said to the LORD, “See, You say to me, ‘Bring up this people!’ But You Yourself have not let me know whom You will send with me. Moreover, You have said, ‘I have known you by name, and you have also found favor in My sight.’<sup>13</sup> Now therefore, I pray You, if I have found favor in Your sight, let me know Your ways that I may know You, so that I may find favor in Your sight. Consider too, that this nation is Your people.”<sup>14</sup> And He said, “My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest.”<sup>15</sup> Then he said to Him, “If Your presence does not go with us, do not lead us up from here. <sup>16</sup>For how then can it be known that I have found favor in Your sight, I and Your people? Is it not by Your going with us, so that we, I and Your people, may be distinguished from all the other people who are upon the face of the <sup>a</sup>earth?” [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit ground]

17 The LORD said to Moses, “I will also do this thing of which you have spoken; for you have found favor in My sight and I have known you by name.”<sup>18</sup> Then <sup>a</sup>Moses said, “I pray You, show me Your glory!”<sup>19</sup> And He said, “I Myself will make all My goodness pass before you, and will proclaim the name of the LORD before you; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show compassion on whom I will show compassion.”<sup>20</sup> But He said, “You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live!”<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD said, “Behold, there is a place <sup>b</sup>by Me, and you shall stand there on the rock; <sup>22</sup>and it will come about, while My glory is passing by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock and cover you with My hand until I have passed by. <sup>23</sup>Then I will take My hand away and you shall see My back, but My face shall not be seen.” [18 <sup>a</sup>Lit he 21 <sup>b</sup>Lit with]

The Two Tablets Replaced

1 Now the LORD said to Moses, “Cut out for yourself two stone tablets like the former ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets which you shattered. 2 So be ready by morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and <sup>a</sup>present yourself there to Me on the top of the mountain. 3 No man is to come up with you, nor let any man be seen <sup>b</sup>anywhere on the mountain; even the flocks and the herds may not graze in front of that mountain.” 4 So he cut out two stone tablets like the former ones, and Moses rose up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and he took two stone tablets in his hand. 5 The LORD descended in the cloud and stood there with him as <sup>c</sup>he called upon the name of the LORD. 6 Then the LORD passed by in front of him and proclaimed, “The LORD, the LORD God, compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in lovingkindness and <sup>d</sup>truth; 7 who keeps lovingkindness for thousands, who forgives iniquity, transgression and sin; yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished, visiting the iniquity of fathers on the children and on the grandchildren to the third and fourth generations.” 8 Moses made haste <sup>e</sup>to bow low toward the earth and worship. 9 He said, “If now I have found favor in Your sight, O Lord, I pray, let the Lord go along in our midst, even though <sup>f</sup>the people are so obstinate, and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as Your own <sup>g</sup>possession.” [2 <sup>a</sup>Or place yourself before 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit on all 5 <sup>c</sup>Or he called out with the name of the LORD 6 <sup>d</sup>Or faithfulness 8 <sup>e</sup>Lit and bowed...worshipped 9 <sup>f</sup>Lit it is a people stiff-necked <sup>g</sup>Or inheritance]

Moses’ Face Shines

29 It came about when Moses was coming down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the testimony were in Moses’ hand as he was coming down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because of his speaking with Him. <sup>30</sup>So when Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him. <sup>31</sup>Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers in the congregation returned to him; and Moses spoke to them. <sup>32</sup>Afterward all the sons of Israel came near, and he commanded them to do everything that the LORD had spoken <sup>a</sup>to him on Mount Sinai. <sup>33</sup>When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. <sup>34</sup>But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he would take off the veil until he came out; and whenever he came out and spoke to the sons of Israel what he had been commanded, <sup>35</sup>the sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone. So Moses would replace the veil over his face until he went in to speak with Him. [32 <sup>a</sup>Lit with]

1 Moreover, from the <sup>a</sup>blue and purple and scarlet material, they made finely woven garments for ministering in the holy place <sup>b</sup>as well as the holy garments which were for Aaron, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. [1 <sup>a</sup>Or violet <sup>b</sup>Lit and they made]

2 He made the ephod of gold, and of <sup>a</sup>blue and purple and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen. <sup>3</sup>Then they hammered out gold sheets and cut them into threads <sup>b</sup>to be woven in with the <sup>a</sup>blue and the purple and the scarlet material, and the fine linen, the work of a skillful workman. <sup>4</sup>They made attaching shoulder pieces for <sup>c</sup>the ephod; it was attached at its two upper ends. <sup>5</sup>The skillfully woven band which was on it was like its workmanship, <sup>d</sup>of the same material: of gold and of <sup>a</sup>blue and purple and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. [2 <sup>a</sup>Or violet 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit to work 4 <sup>c</sup>Lit it 5 <sup>d</sup>Lit from it]

6 They made the onyx stones, set in gold filigree settings; they were engraved like the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel. <sup>7</sup>And he placed them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

8 He made the breastpiece, the work of a skillful workman, like the workmanship of the ephod: of gold and of <sup>a</sup>blue and purple and scarlet material and fine twisted linen. <sup>9</sup>It was square; they made the breastpiece folded double, a span <sup>b</sup>long and a span <sup>c</sup>wide when folded double. <sup>10</sup>And they <sup>d</sup>mounted four rows of stones on it. The first row was a row of ruby, topaz, and emerald; <sup>11</sup>and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire and a diamond; <sup>12</sup>and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>13</sup>and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They were set in gold filigree settings when they were <sup>d</sup>mounted. <sup>14</sup>The stones were corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel; they were twelve, corresponding to their names, engraved with the engravings of a signet, each with its name for the twelve tribes. <sup>15</sup>They made on the breastpiece chains like cords, of twisted cordage work in pure gold. <sup>16</sup>They made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece. <sup>17</sup>Then they put the two gold cords in the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece. <sup>18</sup>They put the other two ends of the two cords on the two filigree settings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it. <sup>19</sup>They made two gold rings and placed them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inner edge which was next to the ephod. <sup>20</sup>Furthermore, they made two gold rings and placed them on the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, on the front of it, close to the place where it joined, above the woven band of the ephod. <sup>21</sup>They bound the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a <sup>a</sup>blue cord, so that it would be on the woven band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece would not come loose from the ephod, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. [8 <sup>a</sup>Or violet 9 <sup>b</sup>Lit its length <sup>c</sup>Lit its width 10 <sup>d</sup>Lit filled]

<sup>34</sup> Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. <sup>35</sup>Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud had settled on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. <sup>36</sup>Throughout all their journeys whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the sons of Israel would set out; <sup>37</sup>but if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out until the day when it was taken up. <sup>38</sup>For throughout all their journeys, the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and there was fire in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel.

The Law of Burnt Offerings

1 Then the LORD called to Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When any man of you brings an <sup>a</sup>offering to the LORD, you shall bring your <sup>a</sup>offering of animals from the herd or the flock. <sup>3</sup>If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer it, a male without defect; he shall offer it at the doorway of the tent of meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD. <sup>4</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, that it may be accepted for him to make atonement on his behalf. <sup>5</sup>He shall slay the <sup>b</sup>young bull before the LORD; and Aaron’s sons the priests shall offer up the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the doorway of the tent of meeting. <sup>6</sup>He shall then skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces. <sup>7</sup>The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire. <sup>8</sup>Then Aaron’s sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, the head and the suet over the wood which is on the fire that is on the altar. <sup>9</sup>Its entrails, however, and its legs he shall wash with water. 10 ‘But if his offering is from the flock, of the sheep or of the goats, for a burnt offering, he shall offer it a male without defect. <sup>11</sup>He shall slay it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD, and Aaron’s sons the priests shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar. <sup>12</sup>He shall then cut it into its pieces with its head and its suet, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood which is on the fire that is on the altar. <sup>13</sup>The entrails, however, and the legs he shall wash with water. ### The Law of Grain Offerings

1 ‘Now when anyone presents a grain offering as an offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour, and he shall pour oil on it and put frankincense on it. <sup>2</sup>He shall then bring it to Aaron’s sons the priests; and shall take from it his handful of its fine flour and of its oil with all of its frankincense. And the priest shall offer it up in smoke as its memorial portion on the altar, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>The remainder of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons: a thing most holy, of the offerings to the LORD by fire.

4 ‘Now when you bring an offering of a grain offering baked in an oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers <sup>a</sup>spread with oil. <sup>5</sup>If your offering is a grain offering made on the griddle, it shall be of fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil; <sup>6</sup>you shall break it into bits and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering. <sup>7</sup>Now if your offering is a grain offering made in a <sup>b</sup>pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. <sup>8</sup>When you bring in the grain offering which is made of these things to the LORD, it shall be presented to the priest and he shall bring it to the altar. <sup>9</sup>The priest then shall take up from the grain offering its memorial portion, and shall offer it up in smoke on the altar as an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD. <sup>10</sup>The remainder of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons: a thing most holy of the offerings to the LORD by fire. [4 <sup>a</sup>Lit anointed 7 <sup>b</sup>Lit lidded cooking pan]

11 ‘No grain offering, which you bring to the LORD, shall be made with leaven, for you shall not offer <sup>a</sup>up in smoke any leaven or any honey as an offering by fire to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>As an offering of first fruits you shall bring them to the LORD, but they shall not ascend for a soothing aroma on the altar. <sup>13</sup>Every grain offering of yours, moreover, you shall season with salt, so that the salt of the covenant of your God shall not be lacking from your grain offering; with all your offerings you shall offer salt. [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit up from it]

14 'Also if you bring a grain offering of early ripened things to the LORD, you shall bring fresh heads of grain roasted in the fire, grits of new growth, for the grain offering of your early ripened things. <sup>15</sup>You shall then put oil on it and lay incense on it; it is a grain offering. <sup>16</sup>The priest shall offer up in smoke its memorial portion, part of its grits and its oil with all its incense as an offering by fire to the LORD.

1 ‘Now if a person sins after he hears a <sup>a</sup>public adjuration to testify when he is a witness, whether he has seen or otherwise known, if he does not tell it, then he will bear his <sup>b</sup>guilt. <sup>2</sup>Or if a person touches any unclean thing, whether a carcass of an unclean beast or the carcass of unclean cattle or a carcass of unclean swarming things, though it is hidden from him and he is unclean, then he will be guilty. <sup>3</sup>Or if he touches human uncleanness, of whatever sort his uncleanness may be with which he becomes unclean, and it is hidden from him, and then he comes to know it, he will be guilty. <sup>4</sup>Or if a person swears thoughtlessly with his lips to do evil or to do good, in whatever matter a man may speak thoughtlessly with an oath, and it is hidden from him, and then he comes to know it, he will be guilty in one of these. <sup>5</sup>So it shall be when he becomes guilty in one of these, that he shall confess that in which he has sinned. <sup>6</sup>He shall also bring his guilt offering to the LORD for his sin which he has <sup>c</sup>committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a <sup>d</sup>goat as a sin offering. ### The Consecration of Aaron and His Sons

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments and the anointing oil and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams and the basket of unleavened bread, <sup>3</sup>and assemble all the congregation at the doorway of the tent of meeting.” <sup>4</sup>So Moses did just as the LORD commanded him. When the congregation was assembled at the doorway of the tent of meeting, <sup>5</sup>Moses said to the congregation, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded to do.”

6 Then Moses had Aaron and his sons come near and washed them with water. <sup>7</sup>He put the tunic on him and girded him with the sash, and clothed him with the robe and put the ephod on him; and he girded him with the artistic band of the ephod, <sup>a</sup>with which he tied it to him. <sup>8</sup>He then placed the <sup>b</sup>breastpiece on him, and in the <sup>b</sup>breastpiece he put <sup>c</sup>the Urim and the Thummim. <sup>9</sup>He also placed the turban on his head, and on the turban, at its front, he placed the golden plate, the holy crown, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>14</sup> Then he brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering. <sup>15</sup>Next <sup>a</sup>Moses slaughtered it and took the blood and with his finger put some of it around on the horns of the altar, and purified the altar. Then he poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar and consecrated it, to make atonement for it. <sup>16</sup>He also took all the fat that was on the entrails and the <sup>b</sup>lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat; and Moses offered it up in smoke on the altar. <sup>17</sup>But the bull and its hide and its flesh and its refuse he burned in the fire outside the camp, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. 18 Then he presented the ram of the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. <sup>19a</sup>Moses slaughtered it and sprinkled the blood around on the altar. <sup>20</sup>When he had cut the ram into its pieces, Moses offered up the head and the pieces and the suet in smoke. <sup>21</sup>After he had washed the entrails and the legs with water, Moses offered up the whole ram in smoke on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a soothing aroma; it was an offering by fire to the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit He slaughtered it and Moses sprinkled]

22 Then he presented the second ram, the ram of <sup>a</sup>ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. <sup>23b</sup>Moses slaughtered it and took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>24</sup>He also had Aaron's sons come near; and Moses put some of the blood on the lobe of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand and on the big toe of their right foot. Moses then sprinkled the rest of the blood around on the altar. <sup>25</sup>He took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the <sup>c</sup>lobe of the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and the right thigh. <sup>26</sup>From the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake and one cake of bread mixed with oil and one wafer, and placed them on the portions of fat and on the right thigh. <sup>27</sup>He then put all these on the hands of Aaron and on the hands of his sons and presented them as a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Then Moses took them from their hands and offered them up in smoke on the altar with the burnt offering. They were an ordination offering for a soothing aroma; it was an offering by fire to the LORD. <sup>29</sup>Moses also took the breast and presented it for a wave offering before the LORD; it was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. 31 Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, “Boil the flesh at the doorway of the tent of meeting, and eat it there together with the bread which is in the basket of the ordination offering, just as I commanded, saying, ‘Aaron and his sons shall eat it.’”<sup>32</sup>The remainder of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn in the fire.<sup>33</sup>You shall not go outside the doorway of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the day that the period of your ordination is fulfilled; for he will <sup>a</sup>ordain you through seven days.<sup>34</sup>The LORD has commanded to do as has been done this day, to make atonement on your behalf.<sup>35</sup>At the doorway of the tent of meeting, moreover, you shall remain day and night for seven days and keep the charge of the LORD, so that you will not die, for so I have been commanded.”<sup>36</sup>Thus Aaron and his sons did all the things which the LORD had commanded through Moses. ### Aaron Offers Sacrifices

1 Now it came about on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel; <sup>2</sup>and he said to Aaron, “Take for yourself a calf, a bull, for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both without defect, and offer them before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Then to the sons of Israel you shall speak, saying, ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both one year old, without defect, for a burnt offering, <sup>4</sup>and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil; for today the LORD will appear to you.’ ” <sup>5</sup>So they took what Moses had commanded to the front of the tent of meeting, and the whole congregation came near and stood before the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded you to do, that the glory of the LORD may appear to you.” <sup>7</sup>Moses then said to Aaron, “Come near to the altar and <sup>a</sup>offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, that you may make atonement for yourself and for the people; then make the offering <sup>b</sup>for the people, that you may make atonement for them, just as the LORD has commanded.” [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit make <sup>b</sup>Lit of]

8 So Aaron came near to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering which was for himself. <sup>9</sup>Aaron’s sons presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood and put some on the horns of the altar, and poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>10</sup>The fat and the kidneys and the <sup>a</sup>lobe of the liver of the sin offering, he then offered up in smoke on the altar just as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup>The flesh and the skin, however, he burned with fire outside the camp. 12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering; and Aaron’s sons handed the blood to him and he sprinkled it around on the altar. <sup>13</sup>They handed the burnt offering to him in <sup>a</sup>pieces, with the head, and he offered them up in smoke on the altar. <sup>14</sup>He also washed the entrails and the legs, and offered

15 Then he presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and slaughtered it and offered it for sin, like the first. <sup>16</sup>He also presented the burnt offering, and <sup>a</sup>offered it according to the ordinance. <sup>17</sup>Next he presented the grain offering, and filled his <sup>b</sup>hand with some of it and offered it up in smoke on the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning. 22 Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them, and he stepped down after making the sin offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings. <sup>23</sup>Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting. When they came out and blessed the people, the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. <sup>24</sup>Then fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the portions of fat on the altar; and when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

The Sin of Nadab and Abihu

1 Now Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took their respective firepans, and after putting fire in them, placed incense on it and offered strange fire before the LORD, which He had not commanded them. <sup>2</sup>And fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, “It is what the LORD spoke, saying,

‘By those who come near Me I <sup>a</sup>will be treated as holy,
And before all the people I will be honored.’ ”

4 Moses called also to Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Aaron’s uncle Uzziel, and said to them, “Come forward, carry your <sup>a</sup>relatives away from the front of the sanctuary to the outside of the camp.” <sup>5</sup>So they came forward and carried them still in their tunics to the outside of the camp, as Moses had said. <sup>6</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, “Do not <sup>b</sup>uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, so that you will not die and that He will not become wrathful against all the congregation. But your <sup>a</sup>kinsmen, the whole house of Israel, shall bewail the burning which the LORD has <sup>c</sup>brought about. <sup>7</sup>You shall not even go out from the doorway of the tent of meeting, or you will die; for the LORD’s anointing oil is upon you.” So they did according to the word of Moses. [<sup>4</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit brothers <sup>6</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit unbind <sup>c</sup>Lit burned]

8 The LORD then spoke to Aaron, saying, <sup>9</sup>“Do not drink wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you come into the tent of meeting, so that you will not die—it is a perpetual statute throughout your generations— <sup>10</sup>and so as to make a distinction between the holy and the profane, and between the unclean and the clean, <sup>11</sup>and so as to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them through

Moses.”

12 Then Moses spoke to Aaron, and to his surviving sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, “Take the grain offering that is left over from the LORD’s offerings by fire and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy. <sup>13</sup>You shall eat it, moreover, in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons’ due out of the LORD’s offerings by fire; for thus I have been commanded. <sup>14</sup>The breast of the wave offering, however, and the thigh of the offering you may eat in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you; for they have been given as your due and your sons’ due out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the sons of Israel. <sup>15</sup>The thigh offered by lifting up and the breast offered by waving they shall bring along with the offerings by fire of the portions of fat, to present as a wave offering before the LORD; so it shall be a thing perpetually due you and your sons with you, just as the LORD has commanded.”

16 But Moses searched carefully for the goat of the sin offering, and behold, it had been burned up! So he was angry with Aaron’s surviving sons Eleazar and Ithamar, saying, <sup>17</sup>“Why did you not eat the sin offering at the holy place? For it is most holy, and <sup>a</sup>He gave it to you to bear away the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Behold, since its blood had not been brought inside, into the sanctuary, you should certainly have eaten it in the sanctuary, just as I commanded.” <sup>19</sup>But Aaron spoke to Moses, “Behold, this very day they presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD. When things like these happened to me, if I had eaten a sin offering today, would it have been good in the sight of the LORD?” <sup>20</sup>When Moses heard that, it seemed good in his sight. Laws about Animals for Food 1 The LORD spoke again to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them, 2“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘These are the creatures which you may eat from all the animals that are on the earth. 3Whatever divides a hoof, thus making split hoofs, and chews the cud, among the animals, that you may eat. 4Nevertheless, you are not to eat of these, among those which chew the cud, or among those which divide the hoof: the camel, for though it chews cud, it does not divide the hoof, it is unclean to you. 5Likewise, the <sup>a</sup>shaphan, for though it chews cud, it does not divide the hoof, it is unclean to you; 6the <sup>b</sup>rabbit also, for though it chews cud, it does not divide the hoof, it is unclean to you; 7and the pig, for though it divides the hoof, thus making a split hoof, it does not chew cud, it is unclean to you. 8You shall not eat of their flesh nor touch their carcasses; they are unclean to you. [20 <sup>a</sup>Lit swarming things with wings <sup>21</sup> <sup>b</sup>V 20, note 1]

24 ‘By these, moreover, you will be made unclean: whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until evening, <sup>25</sup>and whoever picks up any of their carcasses shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. <sup>26</sup>Concerning all the animals which divide the hoof but do not make a split hoof, or which do not chew cud, they are unclean to you: whoever touches them becomes unclean. <sup>27</sup>Also whatever walks on its paws, among all the creatures that walk on all fours, are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until evening, <sup>28</sup>and the one who picks up their carcasses shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening; they are unclean to you.

29 ‘Now these are to you the unclean among the swarming things which swarm on the earth: the mole, and the mouse, and the <sup>a</sup>great lizard in its kinds, <sup>30</sup>and the gecko, and the <sup>b</sup>crocodile, and the lizard, and the <sup>c</sup>sand reptile, and the chameleon. <sup>31</sup>These are to you the unclean among all the swarming things; whoever touches them when they are dead becomes unclean until evening. <sup>32</sup>Also anything on which one of them may fall when they are dead becomes unclean, including any wooden article, or clothing, or a skin, or a sack—any article <sup>d</sup>of which use is made—it shall be put in the water and be unclean until evening, then it becomes clean. <sup>33</sup>As for any earthenware vessel into which one of them may fall, whatever is in it becomes unclean and you shall break <sup>e</sup>the vessel. <sup>34</sup>Any of the <sup>f</sup>food which may be eaten, on which water comes, shall become unclean, and any <sup>g</sup>liquid which may be drunk in every vessel shall become unclean. <sup>35</sup>Everything, moreover, on which part of their carcass may fall becomes unclean; an oven or a <sup>h</sup>stove shall be smashed; they are unclean and shall continue as unclean to you.

39 ‘Also if one of the animals dies which you have for food, the one who touches its carcass becomes unclean until evening. <sup>40</sup>He too, who eats some of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening, and the one who picks up its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

41 ‘Now every swarming thing that swarms on the earth is detestable, not to be eaten. <sup>42</sup>Whatever crawls on its belly, and whatever walks on all fours, whatever has many feet, in respect to every swarming thing that swarms on the earth, you shall not eat them, for they are detestable. <sup>43</sup>Do not render <sup>a</sup>yourself detestable through any of the swarming things that swarm; and you shall not make yourself unclean with them so that you become unclean. <sup>44</sup>For I am the LORD your God. The Test for Leprosy 1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2“When a man has on the skin of his <sup>a</sup>body a swelling or a scab or a bright spot, and it becomes <sup>b</sup>an infection of leprosy on the skin of his <sup>a</sup>body, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests. 3The priest shall look at the mark on the skin of the <sup>a</sup>body, and if the hair in the infection has turned white and the infection appears to be deeper than the skin of his <sup>a</sup>body, it is an infection of leprosy; when the priest has looked at him, he shall pronounce him unclean. 4But if the bright spot is white on the skin of his <sup>a</sup>body, and <sup>c</sup>it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair on it has not turned white, then the priest shall <sup>d</sup>isolate him who has the infection for seven days. 5The priest shall look at him on the seventh day, and if in his eyes the infection <sup>e</sup>has not changed and the infection has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall <sup>d</sup>isolate him for seven more days. 6The priest shall look at him again on the seventh day, and if the infection has faded and the mark has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scab. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean. 7 “But if the scab spreads farther on the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again to the priest. 8The priest shall look, and if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.

9 “When the infection of leprosy is on a man, then he shall be brought to the priest. 10The priest shall then look, and if there is a white swelling in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is quick raw flesh in the swelling, 11it is <sup>a</sup>a chronic leprosy on the skin of his <sup>b</sup>body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not <sup>c</sup>isolate him, for he is unclean. 12If the leprosy breaks out farther on the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of him who has the infection from his head

<sup>14</sup>But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean. <sup>15</sup>The priest shall look at the raw flesh, and he shall pronounce him unclean; the raw flesh is unclean, it is leprosy. <sup>16</sup>Or if the raw flesh turns again and is changed to white, then he shall come to the priest, <sup>17</sup>and the priest shall look at him, and behold, if the infection has turned to white, then the priest shall pronounce clean him who has the infection; he is clean. 24 “Or if the <sup>a</sup>body sustains in its skin a burn by fire, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white, or white, <sup>25</sup>then the priest shall look at it. And if the hair in the bright spot has turned white and it appears to be deeper than the skin, it is leprosy; it has broken out in the burn. Therefore, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection of leprosy. <sup>26</sup>But if the priest looks at it, and indeed, there is no white hair in the bright spot and it is no <sup>b</sup>deeper than the skin, but is dim, then the priest shall <sup>c</sup>isolate him for seven days; <sup>27</sup>and the priest shall look at him on the seventh day. 1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. Now afterward, he may enter the camp, but he shall stay outside his tent for seven days. <sup>9</sup>It will be on the seventh day that he shall shave off all his hair: he shall shave his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair. priest shall then take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and the priest shall put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>15</sup>The priest shall also take some of the <sup>b</sup>log of oil, and pour it into his left palm; <sup>16</sup>the priest shall then dip his right-hand finger into the oil that is in his left palm, and with his finger sprinkle some of the oil seven times before the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Of the remaining oil which is in his palm, the priest shall put some on the right ear lobe of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the guilt offering; <sup>18</sup>while the rest of the oil that is in the priest's palm, he shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed. So the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD. <sup>19</sup>The priest shall next offer the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Then afterward, he shall slaughter the burnt offering. <sup>20</sup>The priest shall offer up the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. ### Cleansing a Leprous House

34 “When you enter the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put a mark of leprosy on a house in the land of your possession, <sup>35</sup>then the one who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, ‘Something like a mark of leprosy has become visible to me in the house.’ <sup>36</sup>The priest shall then command that they empty the house before the priest goes in to look at the mark, so that everything in the house need not become unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to look at the house. <sup>37</sup>So he shall look at the mark, and if the mark on the walls of the house has greenish or reddish depressions and appears deeper than the <sup>a</sup>surface, <sup>38</sup>then the priest shall come out of the house, to the <sup>b</sup>doorway, and <sup>c</sup>quarantine the house for seven days. <sup>39</sup>The priest shall return on the seventh day and <sup>d</sup>make an inspection. If the mark has indeed spread in the walls of the house, <sup>40</sup>then the priest shall order them to tear out the stones with the mark in them and throw them away <sup>e</sup>at an unclean place outside the city. <sup>41</sup>He shall have the house scraped all around <sup>f</sup>inside, and they shall dump the plaster that they scrape off at an unclean place outside the city. <sup>42</sup>Then they shall take other stones and replace those stones, and he shall take other plaster and replaster the house. 43 “If, however, the mark breaks out again in the house after he has torn out the stones and scraped the house, and after it has been replastered, <sup>44</sup>then the priest shall come in and <sup>a</sup>make an inspection. If he sees that the mark has indeed spread in the house, it is a malignant mark in the house; it is unclean. <sup>45</sup>He shall therefore tear down the house, its stones, and its timbers, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall take them outside the city to an unclean place. <sup>46</sup>Moreover, whoever goes into the house during the time that he has <sup>b</sup>quarantined it, becomes unclean until evening. <sup>47</sup>Likewise, whoever lies down in the house shall wash his clothes, and whoever eats in the house shall wash his clothes. [44 <sup>a</sup>Lit look 46 <sup>b</sup>Lit shut up]

48 “If, on the other hand, the priest comes in and <sup>a</sup>makes an inspection and the mark has not indeed spread in the house after the house has been replastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean because the mark has <sup>b</sup>not reappeared. <sup>49</sup>To cleanse the house then, he shall take two birds and cedar wood and a <sup>c</sup>scarlet string and hyssop, <sup>50</sup>and he shall slaughter the one bird in an earthenware vessel over <sup>d</sup>running water. <sup>51</sup>Then he shall take the cedar wood and the hyssop and the <sup>c</sup>scarlet string, with the live bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird as well as in the <sup>d</sup>running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>52</sup>He shall thus cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and with the <sup>d</sup>running water, along with the live bird and with the cedar wood and with the hyssop and with the <sup>c</sup>scarlet string. <sup>53</sup>However, he shall let the live bird go free outside the city into the open field. So he shall make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.” [48 <sup>a</sup>Lit looks <sup>b</sup>Lit healed 49 <sup>c</sup>Lit scarlet color 50 <sup>d</sup>Lit living]

54 This is the law for any mark of leprosy—even for a scale, <sup>55</sup>and for the leprous garment or house, <sup>56</sup>and for a swelling, and for a scab, and for a bright spot— <sup>57</sup>to teach <sup>a</sup>when they are unclean and <sup>b</sup>when they are clean. ### Law of Atonement

1 Now the LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they had approached the presence of the LORD and died. 2The LORD said to Moses:

“Tell your brother Aaron that he shall not enter at any time into the holy place inside the veil, before the <sup>a</sup>mercy seat which is on the ark, or he will die; for I will appear in the cloud over the <sup>a</sup>mercy seat. 3Aaron shall enter the holy place with this: with a <sup>b</sup>bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering. 4He shall put on the holy linen tunic, and the linen undergarments shall be next to his <sup>c</sup>body, and he shall be girded with the linen sash and attired with the linen turban (these are holy garments). Then he shall bathe his <sup>c</sup>body in water and put them on. 5He shall take from the congregation of the sons of Israel two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering. 6Then Aaron shall offer the bull for the sin offering which is for himself, that he may make atonement for himself and for his household. 7He shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting. 8Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other lot for the <sup>d</sup>scapegoat. 9Then Aaron shall offer the goat on which the lot for the LORD fell, and make it a sin offering. 10But the goat on which the lot for the <sup>d</sup>scapegoat fell shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make atonement upon it, to send it into the wilderness as the <sup>d</sup>scapegoat. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit propitiatory 3 <sup>b</sup>Or bull of the herd 4 <sup>c</sup>Lit flesh 8 <sup>d</sup>Lit goat of removal, or else a name: Azazel]

<sup>15</sup> “Then he shall slaughter the goat of the sin offering which is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the <sup>a</sup>mercy seat and in front of the <sup>a</sup>mercy seat. <sup>16</sup>He shall make atonement for the holy place, because of the impurities of the sons of Israel and because of their transgressions in regard to all their sins; and thus he shall do for the tent of meeting which abides with them in the midst of their impurities. <sup>17</sup>When he goes in to make atonement in the holy place, no one shall be in the tent of meeting until he comes out, that he may make atonement for himself and for his household and for all the assembly of Israel. <sup>18</sup>Then he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and of the blood of the goat and put it on the horns of the altar on all sides. <sup>19</sup>With his finger he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it seven times and cleanse it, and from the impurities of the sons of Israel consecrate it. [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit propitiatory]

<sup>23</sup> “Then Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting and take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there. <sup>24</sup>He shall bathe his <sup>a</sup>body with water in a holy place and put on his clothes, and come forth and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people and make atonement for himself and for the people. <sup>25</sup>Then he shall offer up in smoke the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

<sup>29</sup> “This shall be a permanent statute for you: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall humble your souls and not do any work, whether the native, or the alien who sojourns among you; <sup>30</sup>for it is on this day that <sup>a</sup>atonement shall be made for you to cleanse you; you will be clean from all your sins before the LORD. <sup>31</sup>It is to be a sabbath of solemn rest for you, that you may humble your souls; it is a permanent statute. <sup>32</sup>So the priest who is anointed and <sup>b</sup>ordained to serve as priest in his father’s place shall make atonement: he shall thus put on the linen garments, the holy garments, <sup>33</sup>and make atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar. He shall also make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly. <sup>34</sup>Now you shall have this as a permanent statute, to make atonement for the sons of Israel for all their sins once every year.” And just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so he did. ### Blood for Atonement

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘This is what the LORD has commanded, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Any man from the house of Israel who slaughters an ox or a lamb or a goat in the camp, or who slaughters it outside the camp, <sup>4</sup>and has not brought it to the doorway of the tent of meeting to present it as an offering to the LORD before the <sup>a</sup>tabernacle of the LORD, bloodguiltiness is to be reckoned to that man. He has shed blood and that man shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>5b</sup>The reason is so that the sons of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they were sacrificing in the open field, that they may bring them in to the LORD, at the doorway of the tent of meeting to the priest, and sacrifice them as sacrifices of peace offerings to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>The priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting, and offer up the fat in smoke as a soothing aroma to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>They shall no longer sacrifice their sacrifices to the <sup>c</sup>goat demons with which they play the harlot. 9 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter the land which I am going to give to you and reap its harvest, then you shall bring in the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest. <sup>11</sup>He shall wave the sheaf before the LORD for you to be accepted; on the day after the sabbath the priest shall wave it. <sup>12</sup>Now on the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb one year old without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Its grain offering shall then be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering by fire to the LORD for a soothing aroma, with its drink offering, a fourth of a <sup>a</sup>hin of wine. <sup>14</sup>Until this same day, until you have brought in the offering of your God, you shall eat neither bread nor roasted grain nor new growth. It is to be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling

15 ‘You shall also count for yourselves from the day after the sabbath, from the day when you brought in the sheaf of the wave offering; there shall be seven complete sabbaths. <sup>16</sup>You shall count fifty days to the day after the seventh sabbath; then you shall present a new grain offering to the LORD. <sup>17</sup>You shall bring in from your dwelling places two loaves of bread for a wave offering, made of two-tenths of an <sup>a</sup>ephah; they shall be of a fine flour, baked with leaven as first fruits to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Along with the bread you shall present seven one year old male lambs without defect, and a bull of the herd and two rams; they are to be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD. <sup>19</sup>You shall also offer one male goat for a sin offering and two male lambs one year old for a sacrifice of peace offerings. <sup>20</sup>The priest shall then wave them with the bread of the first fruits for a wave offering with two lambs before the LORD; they are to be holy to the LORD for the priest. <sup>21</sup>On this same day you shall make a proclamation as well; you are to have a holy convocation. You shall do no laborious work. It is to be a perpetual statute in all your dwelling places throughout your generations. [17 <sup>a</sup>I.e. Approx one bu]

22 ‘When you reap the harvest of your land, moreover, you shall not reap to the very corners of your field nor gather the gleaning of your harvest; you are to leave them for the needy and the alien. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

23 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>24</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘In the seventh month on the first of the month you shall have a <sup>a</sup>rest, a reminder by blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation. <sup>25</sup>You shall not do any laborious work, but you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD.’ ” [24 <sup>a</sup>Lit sabbath rest]

The Day of Atonement

26 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>27</sup>“On exactly the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall humble your souls and present an offering by fire to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>You shall not do any work on this same day, for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement on your behalf before the LORD your God. <sup>29</sup>If there is any <sup>a</sup>person who will not humble himself on this same day, he shall be cut off from his people. <sup>30</sup>As for any person who does any work on this same day, that person I will destroy from among his people. <sup>31</sup>You shall do no work at all. It is to be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places. <sup>32</sup>It is to be a sabbath of complete rest to you, and you shall humble your souls; on the ninth of the month at evening, from evening until evening you shall keep your sabbath.” [29 <sup>a</sup>Lit soul]

33 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>34</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘On the fifteenth of this seventh month is the Feast of Booths for seven days to the LORD. <sup>35</sup>On the first day is a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work of any kind. <sup>36</sup>For seven days you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD. 5 “Then you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it; two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each cake. <sup>6</sup>You shall set them in two rows, six to a row, on the pure gold table before the LORD. <sup>7</sup>You shall put pure frankincense on each row that it may be a memorial portion for the bread, even an offering by fire to the LORD. <sup>8</sup>Every sabbath day he shall set it in order before the LORD continually; it is an everlasting covenant <sup>a</sup>for the sons of Israel. <sup>9</sup>It shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it is most holy to him from the LORD’S offerings by fire, his portion forever.” [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit from]

10 Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the sons of Israel; and the Israelite woman’s son and a man of Israel struggled with each other in the camp. <sup>11</sup>The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name and cursed. So they brought him to Moses. (Now his mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) <sup>12</sup>They put him in <sup>a</sup>custody <sup>b</sup>so that the command of the LORD might be made clear to them. 13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>14</sup>“Bring the one who has cursed outside the camp, and let all who heard him lay their hands on his head; then let all the congregation stone him. <sup>15</sup>You shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If anyone curses his God, then he will bear his sin.

<sup>16</sup>Moreover, the one who blasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall certainly stone him. The alien as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.

The Sabbatic Year and Year of Jubilee 1 The LORD then spoke to Moses <sup>a</sup>at Mount Sinai, saying, 2“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you come into the land which I shall give you, then the land shall have a sabbath to the LORD. 3Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard and gather in its crop, 4but during the seventh year the land shall have a sabbath rest, a sabbath to the LORD; you shall not sow your field nor prune your vineyard. 5Your harvest’s <sup>b</sup>aftergrowth you shall not reap, and your grapes of untrimmed vines you shall not gather; the land shall have a sabbatical year. 6All of you shall have the sabbath products of the land for food; yourself, and your male and female slaves, and your hired man and your foreign resident, those who live as aliens with you. 7Even your cattle and the animals that are in your land shall have all its crops to eat. 8 ‘You are also to count off seven sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years, so that you have the time of the seven sabbaths of years, namely, forty-nine years. 9You shall then sound a ram’s horn abroad on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the day of atonement you shall sound a horn all through your land. 10You shall thus consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim <sup>a</sup>a release through the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you, <sup>b</sup>and each of you shall return to his own property, <sup>b</sup>and each of you shall return to his family. 11You shall have the fiftieth year as a jubilee; you shall not sow, nor reap its aftergrowth, nor gather in from its untrimmed vines. 12For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. The Law of Redemption 23 'The land, moreover, shall not be sold permanently, for the land is Mine; for you are but aliens and sojourners with Me. <sup>24</sup>Thus for every <sup>a</sup>piece of your property, you are to provide for the redemption of the land. [24 <sup>a</sup>Lit land]

29 'Likewise, if a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then his

<sup>39</sup> ‘If a <sup>a</sup>countryman of yours becomes so poor with regard to you that he sells himself to you, you shall not subject him to a slave’s service. <sup>40</sup>He shall be with you as a hired man, as if he were a sojourner; he shall serve with you until the year of jubilee. <sup>41</sup>He shall then go out from you, he and his sons with him, and shall go back to his family, that he may return to the property of his forefathers. <sup>42</sup>For they are My servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt; they are not to be sold in a slave sale. <sup>43</sup>You shall not rule over him with severity, but are to revere your God. <sup>44</sup>As for your

male and female slaves whom you may have—you may acquire male and female slaves from the pagan nations that are around you. <sup>45</sup>Then, too, it is out of the sons of the sojourners who live as aliens among you that you may gain acquisition, and out of their families who are with you, whom they will have <sup>b</sup>produced in your land; they also may become your possession. <sup>46</sup>You may even bequeath them to your sons after you, to receive as a possession; you can use them as permanent slaves. Of Redeeming a Poor Man <sup>47</sup> ‘Now if the <sup>a</sup>means of a stranger or of a sojourner with you becomes sufficient, and a <sup>b</sup>countryman of yours becomes so poor with regard to him as to sell himself to a stranger who is sojourning with you, or to the descendants of a stranger’s family, <sup>48</sup>then he shall have redemption right after he has been sold. One of his brothers may redeem him, <sup>49</sup>or his uncle, or his uncle’s son, may redeem him, or one of his blood relatives from his family may redeem him; or <sup>s</sup>if he prospers, he may redeem himself. <sup>50</sup>He then with his purchaser shall calculate from the year when he sold himself to him up to the year of jubilee; and the price of his sale shall correspond to the number of years. It is like the days of a hired man that he shall be with him. <sup>51</sup>If there are still many years, he shall refund part of his purchase price in proportion to them for his own redemption; <sup>52</sup>and if few years remain until the year of jubilee, he shall so calculate with him. In proportion to his years he is to refund the amount for his redemption. <sup>53</sup>Like a man hired year by year he shall be with him; he shall not rule over him with severity in your sight. <sup>54</sup>Even if he is not redeemed by <sup>d</sup>these means, he shall still go out in the year of jubilee, he and his sons with him. <sup>55</sup>For the sons of Israel are My servants; they are My servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt. that will waste away the eyes and cause the soul to pine away; also, you will sow your seed uselessly, for your enemies will eat it up. <sup>17</sup>I will set My face against you so that you will be struck down before your enemies; and those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you. <sup>18</sup>If also after these things you do not obey Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. <sup>19</sup>I will also break down your pride of power; I will also make your sky like iron and your earth like bronze. <sup>20</sup>Your strength will be spent uselessly, for your land will not yield its produce and the trees of the land will not yield their fruit.

21 ‘If then, you <sup>a</sup>act with hostility against Me and are unwilling to obey Me, I will increase the plague on you seven times according to your sins. <sup>22</sup>I will let loose among you the beasts of the field, which will bereave you of your children and destroy your cattle and reduce your number so that your roads lie deserted. 23 ‘And if by these things you are not turned to Me, but act with hostility against Me, <sup>24</sup>then I will act with hostility against you; and I, even I, will strike you seven times for your sins. <sup>25</sup>I will also bring upon you a sword which will execute vengeance for the covenant; and when you gather together into your cities, I will send pestilence among you, so that you shall be delivered into enemy hands. <sup>26</sup>When I break your staff of bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven, and they will bring back your bread <sup>a</sup>in rationed amounts, so that you will eat and not be satisfied. <sup>34</sup> ‘Then the land will <sup>a</sup>enjoy its sabbaths all the days of the desolation, while you are in your enemies’ land; then the land will rest and <sup>a</sup>enjoy its sabbaths. <sup>35</sup>All the days of its desolation it will observe the rest which it did not observe on your sabbaths, while you were living on it. <sup>36</sup>As for those of you who may be left, I will also bring weakness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies. And the sound of a driven leaf will chase them, and even when no one is pursuing they will flee <sup>b</sup>as though from the sword, and they will fall. <sup>37</sup>They will therefore stumble over each other as if running from the sword, although no one is pursuing; and you will have no strength <sup>c</sup>to stand up before your enemies. <sup>38</sup>But you will perish among the nations, and your enemies’ land will consume you. <sup>39</sup>So those of you who may be left will rot away because of their iniquity in the lands of your enemies; and also because of the iniquities of their forefathers they will rot away with them. <sup>40</sup> ‘If they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their forefathers, in their unfaithfulness which they committed against Me, and also in their acting with hostility against Me— <sup>41</sup>I also was acting with hostility against them, to bring them into the land of their enemies—or if their uncircumcised heart becomes humbled so that they then make amends for their iniquity, <sup>42</sup>then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and I will remember also My covenant with Isaac, and My covenant with Abraham as well, and I will remember the land. <sup>43</sup>For the land will be abandoned by them, and will make up for its sabbaths while it is made desolate without them. They, meanwhile, will be making amends for their iniquity, <sup>a</sup>because they rejected My ordinances and their soul abhorred My statutes. <sup>44</sup>Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, nor will I so abhor them as to destroy them, breaking My covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God. <sup>45</sup>But I will remember for them the covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. ### Rules concerning Valuations

1 Again, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When a man makes a difficult vow, he shall be valued according to your valuation of persons belonging to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>If your valuation is of the male from twenty years even to sixty years old, then your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>4</sup>Or if it is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels. <sup>5</sup>If it be from five years even to twenty years old then your valuation for the male shall be twenty shekels and for the female ten shekels. <sup>6</sup>But if they are from a month even up to five years old, then your valuation shall be five shekels of silver for the male, and for the female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver. <sup>7</sup>If they are from sixty years old and upward, if it is a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels. <sup>8</sup>But if he is poorer than your valuation, then he shall be placed before the priest and the priest shall value him; according to <sup>a</sup>the means of the one who vowed, the priest shall value him. [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit what the hand reaches]

9 ‘Now if it is an animal of the kind which <sup>a</sup>men can present as an offering to the LORD, any such that one gives to the LORD shall be holy. <sup>10</sup>He shall not replace it or exchange it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; or if he does exchange animal for animal, then both it and its substitute shall become holy. <sup>11</sup>If, however, it is any unclean animal of the kind which <sup>a</sup>men do not present as an offering to the LORD, then he shall place the animal before the priest. <sup>12</sup>The priest shall value it <sup>b</sup>as either good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be. <sup>13</sup>But if he should ever wish to redeem it, then he shall add one-fifth of it to your valuation. [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit they 12 <sup>b</sup>Lit between]

14 ‘Now if a man consecrates his house as holy to the LORD, then the priest shall value it <sup>a</sup>as either good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand. <sup>15</sup>Yet if the one who consecrates it should wish to redeem his house, then he shall add one-fifth of your valuation price to it, so that it may be his. [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit between good]

16 ‘Again, if a man consecrates to the LORD part of the fields of his own property, then your valuation shall be <sup>a</sup>proportionate to the seed needed for it: a homer of barley seed at fifty shekels of silver. <sup>17</sup>If he consecrates his field as of the year of jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand. <sup>18</sup>If he consecrates his field after the jubilee, however, then the priest shall calculate the price for <sup>b</sup>him <sup>c</sup>proportionate to the years that are left until the year of jubilee; and it shall be deducted from your valuation. <sup>19</sup>If the one who consecrates it should ever wish to redeem the field, then he shall add one-fifth of your valuation price to it, so that it may pass to him. <sup>20</sup>Yet if he will not redeem the field, <sup>d</sup>but has sold the field to another man, it may no longer be redeemed; <sup>21</sup>and when it <sup>e</sup>reverts in the jubilee, the field shall be holy to the LORD, like a field <sup>f</sup>set apart; it shall be for the priest as his <sup>g</sup>property. <sup>22</sup>Or if he consecrates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not a part of the field of his own <sup>h</sup>property, <sup>23</sup>then the priest shall calculate for <sup>b</sup>him the amount of your valuation up to the year of jubilee; and he shall on that day give your valuation as holy to the LORD. <sup>24</sup>In the year of jubilee the field shall return to the one from whom he bought it, to whom the possession of the land belongs. <sup>25</sup>Every valuation of yours, moreover, shall be after the shekel of the sanctuary. The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit according to its seed 18 <sup>b</sup>Or it <sup>c</sup>Lit according to the years 20 <sup>d</sup>Or if he 21 <sup>e</sup>Lit goes out <sup>f</sup>Or devoted, banned <sup>g</sup>Lit possession 22 <sup>h</sup>Lit possession]

26 ‘However, a firstborn among animals, which as a firstborn belongs to the LORD, no man may consecrate it; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD’S. <sup>27</sup>But if it is among the unclean animals, then he shall <sup>a</sup>redeem it according to your valuation and add to it one-fifth of it; and if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation. [27 <sup>a</sup>Or ransom]

28 ‘Nevertheless, anything which a man <sup>a</sup>sets apart to the LORD out of all that he has, of man or animal or of the fields of his own property, shall not be sold or redeemed. Anything <sup>b</sup>devoted to destruction is most holy to the LORD. <sup>29</sup>No <sup>c</sup>one who may have been <sup>d</sup>set apart among men shall be ransomed; he shall surely be put to death. 30 'Thus all the tithe of the land, of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD'S; it is holy to the LORD. <sup>31</sup>If, therefore, a man wishes to redeem part of his tithe, he shall add to it one-fifth of it. <sup>32</sup>For every tenth part of herd or flock, whatever passes under the rod, the tenth one shall be holy to the LORD. <sup>33</sup>He is not to be concerned whether it is good or bad, nor shall he exchange it; or if he does exchange it, then both it and its substitute shall become holy. It shall not be redeemed.' "

NUMBERS 1 [\[Books\]](#)

The Census of Israel's Warriors <sup>1</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Take a <sup>a</sup>census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, every male, head by head <sup>3</sup>from twenty years old and upward, whoever is able to go out to war in Israel, you and Aaron shall <sup>b</sup>number them by their armies. <sup>4</sup>With you, moreover, there shall be a man of each tribe, each one head of his father's household. <sup>5</sup>These then are the names of the men who shall stand with you: of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur; <sup>6</sup>of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai; <sup>7</sup>of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab; <sup>8</sup>of Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar; <sup>9</sup>of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon; <sup>10</sup>of the sons of Joseph: of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur; <sup>11</sup>of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideon; <sup>12</sup>of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai; <sup>13</sup>of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ocran; <sup>14</sup>of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel; <sup>15</sup>of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan. <sup>16</sup>These are they who were called of the congregation, the leaders of their fathers' tribes; they were the heads of <sup>c</sup>divisions of Israel.” [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit sum 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit muster, and so throughout the ch 16 <sup>c</sup>Lit thousands; or clans] and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, <sup>21</sup>their numbered men of the tribe of Reuben were 46,500.

24 Of the sons of Gad, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, <sup>25</sup>their numbered men of the tribe of Gad were 45,650.

26 Of the sons of Judah, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, <sup>27</sup>their numbered men of the tribe of Judah were 74,600.

28 Of the sons of Issachar, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, <sup>29</sup>their numbered men of the tribe of Issachar were 54,400.

30 Of the sons of Zebulun, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, <sup>31</sup>their numbered men of the tribe of Zebulun were 57,400.

32 Of the sons of Joseph, namely, of the sons of Ephraim, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, <sup>33</sup>their numbered men of the tribe of Ephraim were 40,500.

34 Of the sons of Manasseh, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, <sup>35</sup>their numbered men of the tribe of Manasseh were 32,200.

Levites Exempted <sup>47</sup> The Levites, however, were not numbered among them by their fathers' tribe. <sup>48</sup>For the LORD had spoken to Moses, saying, <sup>49</sup>“Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, nor shall you take their <sup>a</sup>census among the sons of Israel. <sup>50</sup>But you shall appoint the Levites over the <sup>b</sup>tabernacle of the testimony, and over all its furnishings and over all that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings, and they shall take care of it; they shall also camp around the <sup>b</sup>tabernacle. <sup>51</sup>So when the tabernacle is to set out, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle encamps, the Levites shall set it up. But the <sup>c</sup>layman who comes near shall be put to death. <sup>52</sup>The sons of Israel shall camp, each man by his own camp, and each man by his own standard, according to their armies. <sup>53</sup>But the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the testimony, so that there will be no wrath on the congregation of the sons of Israel. So the Levites shall keep charge of the tabernacle of the testimony.” <sup>54</sup>Thus the sons of Israel did; according to all which the LORD had commanded Moses, so they did. They shall set out last by their standards.”

Levites to Be Priesthood

1 Now these are the records of the generations of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai. 2 These then are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. 3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he <sup>a</sup>ordained to serve as priests. 4 But Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they offered strange fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai; and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests <sup>b</sup>in the lifetime of their father Aaron. [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit filled their hand 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit before the face]

5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 6 “Bring the tribe of Levi near and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him. 7 They shall perform the duties for <sup>a</sup>him and for the whole congregation before the tent of meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle. 8 They shall also keep all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, along with the duties of the sons of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle. 9 You shall thus give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons; they are wholly given to him from among the sons of Israel. 10 So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons that they may keep their priesthood, but the <sup>b</sup>layman who comes near shall be put to death.” [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit him and the duties of the whole congregation 10 <sup>b</sup>Lit stranger]

11 Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 12 “Now, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the sons of Israel instead of every firstborn, the first issue of the womb among the sons of Israel. So the Levites shall be Mine. 13 For all the firstborn are Mine; on the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, from man to beast. They shall be Mine; I am the LORD.”

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 “<sup>a</sup>Number the sons of Levi by their fathers’ households, by their families; every male from a month old and upward you shall number.” 16 So Moses numbered them according to the <sup>b</sup>word of the LORD, just as he had been commanded. <sup>17</sup>These then are the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon and Kohath and Merari. <sup>18</sup>These are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei; <sup>19</sup>and the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram and Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel; <sup>20</sup>and the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households. [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit muster, and so throughout the ch 16 <sup>b</sup>Lit mouth]

<sup>21</sup> Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites; these were the families of the Gershonites. <sup>22</sup>Their numbered men, in the numbering of every male from a month old and upward, even their numbered men were 7,500. <sup>23</sup>The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the <sup>a</sup>tabernacle westward, <sup>24</sup>and the leader of the fathers' households of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael. [23 <sup>a</sup>Lit dwelling place, and so throughout the ch]

Duties of the Priests

<sup>25</sup>Now the duties of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting involved the tabernacle and the tent, its covering, and the screen for the doorway of the tent of meeting, <sup>26</sup>and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the doorway of the court which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its cords, according to all the service <sup>a</sup>concerning them. [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit of it]

<sup>27</sup> Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites and the family of the Izharites and the family of the Hebronites and the family of the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites. <sup>28</sup>In the numbering of every male from a month old and upward, there were 8,600, performing the duties of the sanctuary. <sup>29</sup>The families of the sons of Kohath were to camp on the southward side of the tabernacle, <sup>30</sup>and the leader of the fathers' households of the Kohathite families was <sup>a</sup>Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. <sup>31</sup>Now their duties involved the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, and the utensils of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the screen, and all the service <sup>b</sup>concerning them; <sup>32</sup>and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was the chief of the leaders of Levi, and had the oversight of those who perform the duties of the sanctuary. [30 <sup>a</sup>In Ex 6:22, Elzaphan 31 <sup>b</sup>Lit of it]

33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these were the families of Merari. <sup>34</sup>Their numbered men in the numbering of every male from a month old and upward, were 6,200. <sup>35</sup>The leader of the fathers' households of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They were to camp on the northward side of the tabernacle. <sup>36</sup>Now the appointed duties of the sons of Merari involved the frames of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, all its equipment, and the service concerning them, <sup>37</sup>and the pillars around the court with their sockets and their pegs and their cords.

38 Now those who were to camp before the tabernacle eastward, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, are Moses and Aaron and his sons, performing the duties of the sanctuary for the obligation of the sons of Israel; but the <sup>a</sup>layman coming near was to be put to death. <sup>39</sup>All the numbered men of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the <sup>b</sup>command of the LORD by their families, every male from a month old and upward, were 22,000. [38 <sup>a</sup>Lit stranger 39 <sup>b</sup>Lit word]

Firstborn Redeemed

40 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Number every firstborn male of the sons of Israel from a month old and upward, and <sup>a</sup>make a list of their names. <sup>41</sup>You shall take the Levites for Me, I am the LORD, instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the cattle of the sons of Israel.” <sup>42</sup>So Moses numbered all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded him; <sup>43</sup>and all the firstborn males by the number of names from a month old and upward, for their numbered men were 22,273. [40 <sup>a</sup>Lit take the number]

44 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>45</sup>“Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel and the cattle of the Levites. And the Levites shall be Mine; I am the LORD. <sup>46</sup>For the ransom of the 273 of the firstborn of the sons of Israel who are in excess beyond the Levites, <sup>47</sup>you shall take five shekels apiece, per head; you shall take them in terms of the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty <sup>a</sup>gerahs), <sup>48</sup>and give the money, the ransom of those who are in excess among them, to Aaron and to his sons.” <sup>49</sup>So Moses took the ransom money from those who were in excess, beyond those ransomed by the Levites; <sup>50</sup>from the firstborn of the sons of Israel he took the money in terms of the shekel of the sanctuary, 1,365. <sup>51</sup>Then Moses gave the ransom money to Aaron and to his sons, at the <sup>b</sup>command of the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. 17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>18</sup>“Do not let the tribe of the families of the Kohathites be cut off from among the Levites. <sup>19</sup>But do this to them that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy objects: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each of them to his work and to his load; <sup>20</sup>but they shall not go in to see the holy objects even for a moment, or they will die.”

Duties of the Gershonites 21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>22</sup>“Take <sup>a</sup>a census of the sons of Gershon <sup>b</sup>also, by their fathers’ households, by their families; <sup>23</sup>from thirty years and upward to fifty years old, you shall <sup>c</sup>number them; all who enter to perform the service to do the work in the tent of meeting. <sup>24</sup>This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in carrying: <sup>25</sup>they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle and the tent of meeting with its covering and the covering of porpoise skin that is on top of it, and the screen for the doorway of the tent of meeting, <sup>26</sup>and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the doorway of the gate of the court which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords and all the equipment for their service; and all that is to be done, <sup>d</sup>they shall perform. <sup>27</sup>All the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their loads and in all their work, shall be performed at the <sup>e</sup>command of Aaron and his sons; and you shall assign to them as a duty all their loads. <sup>28</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the tent of meeting, and their

On Defilement

1 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Command the sons of Israel that they send away from the camp every leper and everyone having a discharge and everyone who is unclean because of a dead person. <sup>3</sup>You shall send away both male and female; you shall send them outside the camp so that they will not defile their camp where I dwell in their midst.” <sup>4</sup>The sons of Israel did so and sent them outside the camp; just as the LORD had spoken to Moses, thus the sons of Israel did.

5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>6</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, ‘When a man or woman commits any of the sins of mankind, acting unfaithfully against the LORD, and that person is guilty, <sup>7</sup>then <sup>a</sup>he shall confess <sup>b</sup>his sins which <sup>c</sup>he has committed, and he shall make restitution in full for his wrong and add to it one-fifth of it, and give it to him whom he has wronged. <sup>8</sup>But if the man has no <sup>d</sup>relative to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution which is made for the wrong must go to the LORD for the priest, besides the ram of atonement, by which atonement is made for him. <sup>9</sup>Also every <sup>e</sup>contribution pertaining to all the holy gifts of the sons of Israel, which they offer to the priest, shall be his. <sup>10</sup>So every man’s holy gifts shall be his; whatever any man gives to the priest, it becomes his.’ ” [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit they <sup>b</sup>Lit their <sup>c</sup>Lit they have 8 <sup>d</sup>Lit redeemer 9 <sup>e</sup>Lit heave offering]

Offerings of the Leaders 1 Now on the day that Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and consecrated it with all its furnishings and the altar and all its utensils; he anointed them and consecrated them also. 2 Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' households, made an offering (they were the leaders of the tribes; they were the ones who <sup>a</sup>were over the <sup>b</sup>numbered men). 3 When they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for every two of the leaders and an ox for each one, then they presented them before the tabernacle. 4 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 5 "Accept these things from them, that they may be <sup>c</sup>used in the service of the tent of meeting, and you shall give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service." 6 So Moses took the carts and the oxen and gave them to the Levites. 7 Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service, 8 and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the <sup>d</sup>direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. 9 But he did not give any to the sons of Kohath because theirs was the service of the holy objects, which they carried on the shoulder. 14 “Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the sons of Israel, and the Levites shall be Mine. 15Then after that the Levites may go in to serve the tent of meeting. But you shall cleanse them and present them as a wave offering; 16for they are wholly given to Me from among the sons of Israel. I have taken them for Myself instead of every first issue of the womb, the firstborn of all the sons of Israel. 17For every firstborn among the sons of Israel is Mine, among the men and among the animals; on the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for Myself. 18But I have taken the Levites instead of every firstborn among the sons of Israel. 19I have given the Levites as <sup>a</sup>a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the sons of Israel, to perform the service of the sons of Israel at the tent of meeting and to make atonement on behalf of the sons of Israel, so that there will be no plague among the sons of Israel by <sup>b</sup>their coming near to the sanctuary.” [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit given ones <sup>b</sup>Lit the sons of Israel’s]

20 Thus did Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the sons of Israel to the Levites; according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the sons of Israel did to them. 21The Levites, too, purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes; and Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the LORD. Aaron also made atonement for them to cleanse them. 22Then after that the Levites went in to perform their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and before his sons; just as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

The Passover

1 Thus the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 2“Now, let the sons of Israel observe the Passover at its appointed time. 3On the fourteenth day of this month, <sup>a</sup>at twilight, you shall observe it at its appointed time; you shall observe it according to all its statutes and according to all its ordinances.” 4So Moses <sup>b</sup>told the sons of Israel to observe the Passover. 5They observed the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did. 6But there were some men who were unclean because of the <sup>c</sup>dead person, so that they could not observe Passover on that day; so they came before Moses and Aaron on that day. 7Those men said to him, “Though we are unclean because of the <sup>c</sup>dead person, why are we restrained from presenting the offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the sons of Israel?” 8Moses therefore said to them, “<sup>d</sup>Wait, and I will listen to what the LORD will command concerning you.” [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit between the two evenings, and so throughout the ch 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit spoke to 6 <sup>c</sup>Lit soul of man 8 <sup>d</sup>Lit Stand]

The Cloud on the Tabernacle

15 Now on the day that the tabernacle was erected the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony, and in the evening it was like the appearance of fire over the tabernacle, until morning. <sup>16</sup>So it was continuously; the cloud would cover it by day, and the appearance of fire by night. <sup>17</sup>Whenever the cloud was lifted from over the tent, afterward the sons of Israel would then set out; and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the sons of Israel would camp. <sup>18</sup>At the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD the sons of Israel would set out, and at the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD they would camp; as long as the cloud settled over the tabernacle, they remained camped. <sup>19</sup>Even when the cloud lingered over the tabernacle for many days, <sup>b</sup>the sons of Israel would keep the LORD’s charge and not set out. <sup>20</sup>If <sup>c</sup>sometimes the cloud remained a few days over the tabernacle, according to the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD they remained camped. Then according to the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD they set out. <sup>21</sup>If <sup>c</sup>sometimes the cloud <sup>d</sup>remained from evening until morning, when the cloud was lifted in the morning, they would move out; or if it remained in the daytime and at night, whenever the cloud was lifted, they would set out. <sup>22</sup>Whether it was two days or a month or a year that the cloud lingered over the tabernacle, staying above it, the sons of Israel remained camped and did not set out; but when it was lifted, they did set out. <sup>23</sup>At the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD they camped, and at the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD they set out; they kept the LORD’s charge, according to the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD through Moses. ### The Silver Trumpets

<sup>11</sup> Now in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth of the month, the cloud was lifted from over the <sup>a</sup>tabernacle of the testimony; <sup>12</sup>and the sons of Israel set out on their journeys from the wilderness of Sinai. Then the cloud settled down in the wilderness of Paran. <sup>13</sup>So they moved out for the first time according to the <sup>b</sup>commandment of the LORD through Moses. <sup>14</sup>The standard of the camp of the sons of Judah, according to their

17 Then the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who were carrying the tabernacle, set out.<sup>18</sup> Next the standard of the camp of Reuben, according to their armies, set out with Elizur the son of Shedeur, over its army,<sup>19</sup> and Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai over the tribal army of the sons of Simeon,<sup>20</sup> and Eliasaph the son of Deuel was over the tribal army of the sons of Gad.

21 Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy objects; and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival.<sup>22</sup> Next the standard of the camp of the sons of Ephraim, according to their armies, was set out, with Elishama the son of Ammihud over its army,<sup>23</sup> and Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur over the tribal army of the sons of Manasseh;<sup>24</sup> and Abidan the son of Gideoni over the tribal army of the sons of Benjamin.

25 Then the standard of the camp of the sons of Dan, according to their armies, which formed the rear guard for all the camps, set out, with Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai over its army,<sup>26</sup> and Pagiël the son of Ochran over the tribal army of the sons of Asher;<sup>27</sup> and Ahira the son of Enan over the tribal army of the sons of Naphtali.<sup>28a</sup> This was the order of march of the sons of Israel by their armies as they set out. [28<sup>a</sup>Lit These are the settings out of the sons]

29 Then Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out to the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you'; come with us and we will do you good, for the LORD has<sup>a</sup> promised good concerning Israel."<sup>30</sup> But he said to him, "I will not come, but rather will go to my own land and relatives."<sup>31</sup> Then he said, "Please do not leave us, inasmuch as you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you will be as eyes for us."<sup>32</sup> So it will be, if you go with us, that<sup>b</sup> whatever good the LORD<sup>c</sup> does for us, we will<sup>d</sup> do for you." ### The People Complain

1 Now the people became like those who complain of adversity in the hearing of the LORD; and when the LORD heard it, His anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp. <sup>2</sup>The people therefore cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to the LORD and the fire <sup>a</sup>died out. <sup>3</sup>So the name of that place was called <sup>b</sup>Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned among them. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit sank down 3 <sup>b</sup>I.e. burning]

4 The rabble who were among them <sup>a</sup>had greedy desires; and also the sons of Israel wept again and said, “Who will give us <sup>b</sup>meat to eat? <sup>5</sup>We remember the fish which we used to eat free in Egypt, the cucumbers and the melons and the leeks and the onions and the garlic, <sup>6</sup>but now our <sup>c</sup>appetite is gone. 7 Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like that of bdellium. <sup>8</sup>The people would go about and gather it and grind it <sup>a</sup>between two millstones or beat it in the mortar, and boil it in the pot and make cakes with it; and its taste was as the taste of <sup>b</sup>cakes baked with oil. <sup>9</sup>When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna would fall <sup>c</sup>with it. ### The Complaint of Moses

10 Now Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, each man at the doorway of his tent; and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly, and <sup>a</sup>Moses was displeased. <sup>11</sup>So Moses said to the LORD, “Why have You <sup>b</sup>been so hard on Your servant? For they weep before me, saying, ‘Give us meat that we may eat!’ <sup>14</sup>I alone am not able to carry all this people, because it is too <sup>d</sup>burdensome for me. <sup>15</sup>So if You are going to deal thus with me, please kill me at once, if I have found favor in Your sight, and do not let me see my wretchedness.” [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit it was evil in Moses’ sight 11 <sup>b</sup>Lit dealt ill with 12 <sup>c</sup>Or foster-father 14 <sup>d</sup>Lit heavy]

Seventy Elders to Assist

<sup>16</sup>The LORD therefore said to Moses, “Gather for Me seventy men from the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and their officers and bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them take their stand there with you. <sup>17</sup>Then I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take of the Spirit who is upon you, and will put Him upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you will not bear it all alone. <sup>18</sup>Say to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, “Oh that someone would give us meat to eat! For we were well-off in Egypt.” Therefore the LORD will give you meat and you shall eat. <sup>19</sup>You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days, <sup>20a</sup>but a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you; because you have rejected the LORD who is among you and have wept before Him, saying, “Why did we ever leave Egypt?” ’” <sup>21</sup>But Moses said, “The people, among whom I am, are 600,000 on foot; yet You have said, ‘I will give them meat, so that they may eat for a whole month.’ <sup>22</sup>Should flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Or should all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be sufficient for them?” <sup>23</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Is the LORD’s <sup>b</sup>power limited? Now you shall see whether My word will <sup>c</sup>come true for you or not.” [20 <sup>a</sup>Lit until 23 <sup>b</sup>Lit hand short <sup>c</sup>Lit befall you]

24 So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD. Also, he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and stationed them around the tent. <sup>25</sup>Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him; and He took of the Spirit who was upon him and placed Him upon the seventy elders. And when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do it again.

26 But two men had remained in the camp; the name of one was Eldad and the name of the <sup>a</sup>other Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them (now they were among those who had been registered, but had not gone out to the tent), and they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup>So a young man ran and told Moses and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.” <sup>28</sup>Then Joshua the son of Nun, the attendant of Moses from his youth, said, “Moses, my lord, restrain them.” <sup>29</sup>But Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD’s people were prophets, that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!” <sup>30</sup>Then Moses <sup>b</sup>returned to the camp, both he and the elders of Israel. ### The Quail and the Plague

31 Now there went forth a wind from the LORD and it brought quail from the sea, and let them fall beside the camp, about a day’s journey on this side and a day’s journey on the other side, all around the camp and <sup>a</sup>about two <sup>b</sup>cubits deep on the surface of the ground. <sup>32</sup>The people <sup>c</sup>spent all day and all night and all the next day, and gathered the quail (he who gathered least gathered ten <sup>d</sup>homers) and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp. <sup>33</sup>While the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very severe plague. <sup>34</sup>So the name of that place was called <sup>e</sup>Kibroth-hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had been greedy. <sup>35</sup>From Kibroth-hattaavah the people set out for Hazeroth, and they <sup>f</sup>remained at Hazeroth. ### The Murmuring of Miriam and Aaron

<sup>1</sup> Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had married a Cushite woman); <sup>2</sup>and they said, “Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us as well?” And the LORD heard it. <sup>3</sup>(Now the man Moses was very humble, more than any man who was on the face of the earth.) <sup>4</sup>Suddenly the LORD said to Moses and Aaron and to Miriam, “You three come out to the tent of meeting.” So the three of them came out. <sup>5</sup>Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the doorway of the tent, and He called <sup>a</sup>Aaron and Miriam. When they had both come forward, <sup>6</sup>He said,

“Hear now My words:
If there is a prophet among you,
I, the LORD, shall make Myself known to him in a vision.
I shall speak with him in a dream. [<sup>5</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or “Aaron and Miriam!”]

<sup>7</sup>“Not so, with My servant Moses,
He is faithful in all My household;

<sup>8</sup>With him I speak mouth to mouth,
Even openly, and not in dark sayings,
And he beholds the form of the LORD.
Why then were you not afraid
To speak against My servant, against Moses?”

<sup>9</sup> So the anger of the LORD burned against them and He departed. <sup>10</sup>But when the cloud had withdrawn from over the tent, behold, Miriam was

leprous, as white as snow. As Aaron turned toward Miriam, behold, she was leprous. <sup>11</sup>Then Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord, I beg you, do not account this sin to us, in which we have acted foolishly and in which we have sinned. <sup>12</sup>Oh, do not let her be like one dead, whose flesh is half eaten away when he comes from his mother’s womb!” <sup>13</sup>Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, “O God, heal her, I pray!” <sup>14</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had but spit in her face, would she not bear her shame for seven days? Let her be shut up for seven days outside the camp, and afterward she may be received again.” <sup>15</sup>So Miriam was shut up outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until Miriam was received again.

16 Afterward, however, the people moved out from Hazeroth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Spies View the Land <sup>1</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses saying, <sup>2</sup>“Send out for yourself men so that they may spy out the land of Canaan, which I am going to give to the sons of Israel; you shall send a man from each of their fathers’ tribes, every one a leader among them.” <sup>3</sup>So Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran at the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD, all of them men who were heads of the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup>These then were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur; <sup>5</sup>from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori; <sup>6</sup>from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; <sup>7</sup>from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph; <sup>8</sup>from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun; <sup>9</sup>from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu; <sup>10</sup>from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi; <sup>11</sup>from the tribe of Joseph, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi; <sup>12</sup>from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli; <sup>13</sup>from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael; <sup>14</sup>from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi; <sup>15</sup>from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi. <sup>16</sup>These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land; but Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun, Joshua. [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit mouth]

23 Then they came to the <sup>a</sup>valley of <sup>b</sup>Eshcol and from there cut down a branch with a single cluster of grapes; and they carried it on a pole between two men, with some of the pomegranates and the figs. <sup>24</sup>That place was called the valley of <sup>b</sup>Eshcol, because of the cluster which the sons of Israel cut down from there. The Spies' Reports 25 When they returned from spying out the land, at the end of forty days, <sup>26</sup>they proceeded to come to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel <sup>a</sup>in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; and they brought back word to them and to all the congregation and showed them the fruit of the land. <sup>27</sup>Thus they told him, and said, "We went in to the land where you sent us; and it certainly does flow with milk and honey, and this is its fruit. <sup>28</sup>Nevertheless, the people who live in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large; and moreover, we saw the <sup>b</sup>descendants of Anak there. <sup>29</sup>Amalek is living in the land of the Negev and the Hittites and the Jebusites and the Amorites are living in the hill country, and the Canaanites are living by the sea and by the side of the Jordan." ### The People Rebel

1 Then all the congregation <sup>a</sup>lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept <sup>b</sup>that night. <sup>2</sup>All the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron; and the whole congregation said to them, “Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness! <sup>3</sup>Why is the LORD bringing us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder; would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?” <sup>4</sup>So they said to one another, “Let us appoint a leader and return to Egypt.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit lifted and gave their voice <sup>b</sup>Lit in that]

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces in the presence of all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel. <sup>6</sup>Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes; <sup>7</sup>and they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, “The land which we passed through to spy out is an exceedingly good land. <sup>8</sup>If the LORD is pleased with us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us—a land which flows with milk and honey. <sup>9</sup>Only do not rebel against the LORD; and do not fear the people of the land, for they will be our <sup>a</sup>prey. Their <sup>b</sup>protection has been removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them.” <sup>10</sup>But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Then the glory of the LORD appeared in the tent of meeting to all the sons of Israel. [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit food <sup>b</sup>Lit shadow]

Moses Pleads for the People

11 The LORD said to Moses, “How long will this people spurn Me? And how long will they not believe in Me, despite all the signs which I have performed in their midst? <sup>12</sup>I will smite them with <sup>a</sup>pestilence and dispossess them, and I will make you into a nation greater and mightier than they.” [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit the pestilence]

13 But Moses said to the LORD, “Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for by Your strength You brought up this people from their midst, <sup>14</sup>and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, O LORD, are in the midst of this people, for You, O LORD, are seen eye to eye, while Your cloud stands over them; and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup>Now if You slay this people as one man, then the nations who have heard of Your fame will <sup>a</sup>say, <sup>16</sup>‘Because the LORD could not bring this people into the land which He promised them by oath, therefore He slaughtered them in the wilderness.’ <sup>17</sup>But now, I pray, let the power of the Lord be great, just as You have <sup>b</sup>declared, <sup>18</sup>‘The LORD is slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children <sup>c</sup>to the third and the fourth generations.’ <sup>19</sup>Pardon, I pray, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of Your lovingkindness, just as You also have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.” [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit speak, saying 17 <sup>b</sup>Lit spoken, saying 18 <sup>c</sup>Lit on]

The LORD Pardons and Rebukes

20 So the LORD said, “I have pardoned them according to your word; <sup>21</sup>but indeed, as I live, <sup>a</sup>all the earth will be filled with the glory of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>Surely all the men who have seen My glory and My signs which I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have put Me to the test these ten times and have not listened to My voice, <sup>23</sup>shall by no means see the land which I swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those who spurned Me see it. <sup>24</sup>But My servant Caleb, because he has had a different spirit and has followed Me fully, <sup>b</sup>I will bring into the land <sup>c</sup>which he entered, and his <sup>d</sup>descendants shall take possession of it. <sup>25</sup>Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites live in the valleys; turn tomorrow and set out to the wilderness by the way of the <sup>e</sup>Red Sea.” [21 <sup>a</sup>Lit and all 24 <sup>b</sup>Lit him I <sup>c</sup>Lit where <sup>d</sup>Lit seed 25 <sup>e</sup>Lit Sea of Reeds]

26 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>27</sup>“How long shall I bear with this evil congregation who are grumbling against Me? I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel, which they are <sup>a</sup>making against Me. <sup>28</sup>Say to them, ‘As I live,’ says the LORD, ‘just as you have spoken in My hearing, so I will surely do to you; <sup>29</sup>your corpses will fall in this wilderness, even all your <sup>b</sup>numbered men, according to your complete number from twenty years old and upward, who have grumbled against Me. <sup>30</sup>Surely you shall not come into the land in which I <sup>c</sup>swore to settle you, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>31</sup>Your children, however, whom you said would become a prey—I will bring them in, and they will know the land which you have rejected. <sup>32</sup>But as for you, your corpses will fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup>Your sons shall be shepherds for forty years in the wilderness, and they will <sup>d</sup>suffer for your <sup>e</sup>unfaithfulness, until your corpses <sup>f</sup>lie in the wilderness. <sup>34</sup>According to the number of days which you spied out the land, forty days, for every day you shall bear your <sup>g</sup>guilt a year, even forty years, and you will know My opposition. <sup>35</sup>I, the LORD, have spoken, surely this I will do to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. <sup>36</sup> As for the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land and who returned and made all the congregation grumble against him by bringing out a bad report concerning the land, <sup>37</sup>even those men who brought out the very bad report of the land died by a plague before the LORD. <sup>38</sup>But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive out of those men who went to spy out the land.

Israel Repulsed

<sup>39</sup> When Moses spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, the people mourned greatly. <sup>40</sup>In the morning, however, they rose up early and went up to the <sup>a</sup>ridge of the hill country, saying, “Here we are; <sup>b</sup>we have indeed sinned, but we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised.” <sup>41</sup>But Moses said, “Why then are you transgressing the <sup>c</sup>commandment of the LORD, when it will not succeed? <sup>42</sup>Do not go up, or you will be struck down before your enemies, for the LORD is not among you. <sup>43</sup>For the Amalekites and the Canaanites will be there in front of you, and you will fall by the sword, inasmuch as you have turned back from following the LORD. And the LORD will not be with you.”<sup>44</sup>But they went up heedlessly to the <sup>a</sup>ridge of the hill country; neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses left the camp. <sup>45</sup>Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down, and struck them and beat them down as far as Hormah. ### Law of the Sojourner <sup>14</sup>If an alien sojourns with you, or one who may be among you throughout your generations, and he wishes to make an offering by fire, as a soothing aroma to the LORD, just as you do so he shall do. <sup>15</sup>As for the assembly, there shall be one statute for you and for the alien who sojourns with you, a perpetual statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the alien be before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>There is to be one law and one ordinance for you and for the alien who sojourns with you.’ ”

17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>18</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, ‘When you enter the land where I bring you, <sup>19</sup>then it shall be, that when you eat of the <sup>a</sup>food of the land, you shall lift up <sup>b</sup>an offering to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Of the first of your <sup>c</sup>dough you shall lift up a cake as an <sup>d</sup>offering; as the <sup>d</sup>offering of the threshing floor, so you shall lift it up. <sup>21</sup>From the first of your <sup>c</sup>dough you shall give to the LORD an <sup>e</sup>offering throughout your generations. <sup>15</sup> Then Moses became very angry and said to the LORD, “Do not regard their offering! And the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation. [17 <sup>a</sup>Lit them]

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, <sup>21</sup>“Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them instantly.” <sup>22</sup>But they fell on their faces and said, “O God, God of the spirits of all flesh, when one man sins, will You be angry with the entire congregation?”

<sup>25</sup> Then Moses arose and went to Dathan and Abiram, with the elders of Israel following him, <sup>26</sup>and he spoke to the congregation, saying, “Depart now from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing that belongs to them, or you will be swept away in all their sin.” <sup>27</sup>So they got back from around the dwellings of Korah, Dathan and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the doorway of their tents, along with their wives and their sons and their little ones. <sup>28</sup>Moses said, “By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these deeds; for this is not <sup>a</sup>my doing. <sup>29</sup>If these men die <sup>b</sup>the death of all men or <sup>c</sup>if they suffer the fate of all men, then the LORD has not sent me. <sup>30</sup>But if the LORD <sup>d</sup>brings about an entirely new thing and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that is theirs, and they descend alive into <sup>e</sup>Sheol, then you will understand that these men have spurned the LORD.” [28 <sup>a</sup>Lit from my heart 29 <sup>b</sup>Lit like the death <sup>c</sup>Lit the visitation of all men be visited upon them 30 <sup>d</sup>Lit creates a new creation <sup>e</sup>I.e. the nether world]

<sup>41</sup> But on the next day all the congregation of the sons of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron, saying, “You are the ones who have caused the death of the LORD’s people.” <sup>42</sup>It came about, however, when the congregation had assembled against Moses and Aaron, that they turned toward the tent of meeting, and behold, the cloud covered it and the glory of the LORD appeared. <sup>43</sup>Then Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting, <sup>44</sup>and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>45</sup>“<sup>a</sup>Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them instantly.” Then they fell on their faces. <sup>46</sup>Moses said to Aaron, “Take your censer and put in it fire from the altar, and lay incense on it; then bring it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them, for wrath has gone forth from the LORD, the plague has begun!” <sup>47</sup>Then Aaron took it as Moses had spoken, and ran into the midst of the assembly, for behold, the plague had begun among the people. So he put on the incense and made atonement for the people. <sup>48</sup>He took his stand between the dead and the living, so that the plague was checked. <sup>49</sup>But those who died by the plague were 14,700, besides those who died on account of Korah. <sup>50</sup>Then Aaron returned to Moses at the doorway of the tent of meeting, for the plague had been checked. ### Aaron's Rod Buds

1 <sup>a</sup>Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and get from them a rod for each father’s household: twelve rods, from all their leaders according to their fathers’ households. You shall write each name on his rod, <sup>3</sup>and write Aaron’s name on the rod of Levi; for there is one rod for the head of each of their fathers’ households. <sup>4</sup>You shall then deposit them in the tent of meeting in front of the testimony, where I meet with you. <sup>5</sup>It will come about that the rod of the man whom I choose will sprout. Thus I will lessen from upon Myself the grumblings of the sons of Israel, who are grumbling against you.” <sup>6</sup>Moses therefore spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their leaders gave him a rod apiece, for each leader according to their fathers’ households, twelve rods, with the rod of Aaron among their rods. <sup>7</sup>So Moses deposited the rods before the LORD in the tent of the testimony. [1 <sup>a</sup>Ch 17:16 in Heb]

8 Now on the next day Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted and put forth buds and produced blossoms, and it bore ripe almonds. <sup>9</sup>Moses then brought out all the rods from the presence of the LORD to all the sons of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his rod. <sup>10</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, “Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony <sup>a</sup>to be kept as a sign against the <sup>b</sup>rebels, that you may put an end to their grumblings against Me, so that they will not die.” <sup>11</sup>Thus Moses did; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did. ### Duties of Levites

1 So the LORD said to Aaron, “You and your sons and your father’s household with you shall bear the guilt <sup>a</sup>in connection with the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you shall bear the guilt <sup>b</sup>in connection with your priesthood. <sup>2</sup>But bring with you also your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may be joined with you and serve you, while you and your sons with you are before the tent of the testimony. <sup>3</sup>And they shall thus attend to your obligation and the obligation of all the tent, but they shall not come near to the furnishings of the sanctuary and the altar, or both they and you will die. <sup>4</sup>They shall be joined with you and attend to the obligations of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; but an <sup>c</sup>outsider may not come near you. <sup>5</sup>So you shall attend to the obligations of the sanctuary and the obligations of the altar, so that there will no longer be wrath on the sons of Israel. <sup>6</sup>Behold, I Myself have taken your <sup>d</sup>fellow Levites from among the sons of Israel; they are a gift to you, <sup>e</sup>dedicated to the LORD, to perform the service for the tent of meeting. <sup>7</sup>But you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything concerning the altar and inside the veil, and you are to perform service. 8 Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, “Now behold, I Myself have given you charge of My <sup>a</sup>offerings, even all the holy gifts of the sons of Israel I have given them to you as a portion and to your sons as a perpetual allotment. <sup>9</sup>This shall be yours from the most holy gifts reserved from the fire; every offering of theirs, even every grain offering and every sin offering and every guilt offering, which they shall render to Me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons. <sup>10</sup>As the most holy gifts you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you. <sup>11</sup>This also is yours, the offering of their gift, even all the wave offerings of the sons of Israel; I have given them to you and to your sons and daughters with you as a perpetual allotment. Everyone of your household who is clean may eat it. <sup>12</sup>All the <sup>b</sup>best of the fresh oil and all the <sup>b</sup>best of the fresh wine and of the grain, the first fruits of those which they give to the LORD, I give them to you. <sup>13</sup>The first ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; everyone of your household who is clean may eat it. <sup>14</sup>Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours. <sup>15</sup><sup>c</sup>Every first issue of the womb of all flesh, whether man or animal, which they offer to the LORD, shall be yours; nevertheless the firstborn of man you shall surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem. <sup>16</sup>As to their redemption price, from a month old you shall redeem them, by your valuation, five <sup>d</sup>shekels in silver, according to the <sup>d</sup>shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs. <sup>17</sup>But the firstborn of an ox or the firstborn of a sheep or the firstborn of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar and shall offer up their fat in smoke as an offering by fire, for a soothing aroma to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Their <sup>e</sup>meat shall be yours; it shall be yours like the breast of a wave offering and like the right thigh. <sup>19</sup>All the offerings of the holy gifts, which the sons of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given to you and your sons and your daughters with you, as a perpetual allotment. It is an everlasting covenant of salt before the LORD to you and your <sup>f</sup>descendants with you.” <sup>20</sup>Then the LORD said to Aaron, “You shall have no inheritance in their land nor own any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the sons of Israel. ### Death of Miriam

<sup>1</sup> Then the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, came to the wilderness of Zin in the first month; and the people stayed at Kadesh. Now Miriam died there and was buried there.

<sup>2</sup> There was no water for the congregation, and they assembled themselves against Moses and Aaron. <sup>3</sup>The people thus contended with Moses and spoke, saying, “If only we had perished when our brothers perished before the LORD! <sup>4</sup>Why then have you brought the LORD’s assembly into this wilderness, for us and our beasts to die <sup>a</sup>here? <sup>5</sup>Why have you made us come up from Egypt, to bring us in to this wretched place? It is not a place of <sup>b</sup>grain or figs or vines or pomegranates, nor is there water to drink.” <sup>6</sup>Then Moses and Aaron came in from the presence of the assembly to the doorway of the tent of meeting and fell on their faces. ### The Water of Meribah

<sup>8</sup>“Take the rod; and you and your brother Aaron assemble the congregation and speak to the rock before their eyes, that it may yield its water. You shall thus bring forth water for them out of the rock and let the congregation and their beasts drink.”

<sup>9</sup> So Moses took the rod from before the LORD, just as He had commanded him; <sup>10</sup>and Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly before the rock. And he said to them, “Listen now, you rebels; shall we bring forth water for you out of this rock?” <sup>11</sup>Then Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation and their beasts drank. <sup>12</sup>But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you have not believed Me, to treat Me as holy in the sight of the sons of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.” <sup>13</sup>Those were the waters of <sup>a</sup>Meribah, <sup>b</sup>because the sons of Israel contended with the LORD, and He proved Himself holy among them. <sup>14</sup> From Kadesh Moses then sent messengers to the king of Edom: “Thus your brother Israel has said, ‘You know all the hardship that has befallen us; <sup>15</sup>that our fathers went down to Egypt, and we stayed in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians treated us and our fathers badly. <sup>16</sup>But when we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent an angel and brought us out from Egypt; now behold, we are at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory. <sup>17</sup>Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or through vineyard; we will not even drink water from a well. We will go along the king’s highway, not turning to the right or left, until we pass through your territory.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> Edom, however, said to him, “You shall not pass through <sup>a</sup>us, or I will come out with the sword against you.” <sup>19</sup>Again, the sons of Israel said to him, “We will go up by the highway, and if I and my livestock do drink any of your water, then I will <sup>b</sup>pay its price. ### The Bronze Serpent

<sup>6</sup>The LORD sent fiery serpents among the people and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died. <sup>7</sup>So the people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD and you; intercede with the LORD, that He may remove the serpents from us.” And Moses interceded for the people. <sup>8</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, “<sup>a</sup>Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a standard; and it shall come about, that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, he will live.” <sup>9</sup>And Moses made a bronze serpent and set it on the standard; and it came about, that if a serpent bit any man, when he looked to the bronze serpent, he lived. [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit Make for yourself]

“Waheb in Suphah,

17 Then Israel sang this song:

“Spring up, O well! Sing to it!

<sup>18</sup>“The well, which the leaders sank,
Which the nobles of the people dug,
With the scepter and with their staffs.”

Two Victories

21 Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying, 22“Let me pass through your land. We will not turn off into field or vineyard; we will not drink water from wells. We will go by the king’s highway until we have passed through your border.” 23But Sihon would not permit Israel to pass through his border. So Sihon gathered all his people and went out against Israel in the wilderness, and came to Jahaz and fought against Israel. 24Then Israel <sup>a</sup>struck him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the sons of Ammon; for the border of the sons of Ammon was <sup>b</sup>Jazer. 25Israel took all these cities and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all her <sup>c</sup>villages. 26For Heshbon was the city of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken all his land out of his hand, as far as the Arnon. 27Therefore those who use proverbs say,

“Come to Heshbon! Let it be built!

<sup>29</sup>“Woe to you, O Moab!
You are ruined, O people of Chemosh!

<sup>30</sup>“But we have cast them down,
Heshbon is ruined as far as Dibon,
Then we have laid waste even to Nophah,
Which reaches to Medeba.”

<sup>31</sup> Thus Israel lived in the land of the Amorites. <sup>32</sup>Moses sent to spy out Jazer, and they captured its villages and dispossessed the Amorites who were there.

<sup>33</sup> Then they turned and went up by the way of Bashan, and Og the king of Bashan went out <sup>a</sup>with all his people, for battle at Edrei. <sup>34</sup>But the LORD said to Moses, “Do not fear him, for I have given him into your hand, and all his people and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.” <sup>35</sup>So they <sup>b</sup>killed him and his sons and all his people, until there was no remnant left him; and they possessed his land.

Balak Sends for Balaam

1 Then the sons of Israel journeyed, and camped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan opposite Jericho.

2 Now Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. <sup>3</sup>So Moab was in great fear because of the people, for they were numerous; and Moab was in dread of the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup>Moab said to the elders of Midian, “Now this <sup>a</sup>horde will lick up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field.” And Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. <sup>5</sup>So he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, at Pethor, which is near the <sup>b</sup>River, in the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying, “Behold, a people came out of Egypt; behold, they cover the surface of the land, and they are living opposite me. <sup>6</sup>Now, therefore, please come, curse this people for me since they are too <sup>c</sup>mighty for me; perhaps I may be able to <sup>d</sup>defeat them and drive them out of the land. For I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed.” [4 <sup>a</sup>Lit assembly 5 <sup>b</sup>I.e. Euphrates 6 <sup>c</sup>Or numerous <sup>d</sup>Lit smite]

7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the fees for divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam and <sup>a</sup>repeated Balak’s words to him. <sup>8</sup>He said to them, “Spend the night here, and I will bring word back to you as the LORD may speak to me.” And the leaders of Moab stayed with Balaam. <sup>9</sup>Then God came to Balaam and said, “Who are these men with you?” <sup>10</sup>Balaam said to God, “Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent word to me, <sup>11</sup>‘Behold, there is a people who came out of Egypt and they cover the surface of the land; now come, curse them for me; perhaps I may be able to fight against them and drive them out.’” <sup>12</sup>God said to Balaam, “Do not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed.” <sup>13</sup>So Balaam arose in the morning and said to Balak’s leaders, “Go back to your land, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you.” <sup>14</sup>The leaders of Moab arose and went to Balak and said, “Balaam refused to come with us.” [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit spoke]

15 Then Balak again sent leaders, more numerous and more distinguished than <sup>a</sup>the former. <sup>16</sup>They came to Balaam and said to him, “Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, ‘Let nothing, I beg you, hinder you from coming to me; <sup>17</sup>for I will indeed honor you richly, and I will do whatever you say to me. Please come then, curse this people for me.’ ” <sup>18</sup>Balaam replied to the servants of Balak, “Though Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything, either small or great, contrary to the <sup>b</sup>command of the LORD my God. <sup>19</sup>Now please, you also stay here tonight, and I will find out what else the LORD will speak to me.” <sup>20</sup>God came to Balaam at night and said to him, “If the men have come to call you, rise up and go with them; but only the word which I speak to you shall you do.” [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit these 18 <sup>b</sup>Lit mouth]

21 So Balaam arose in the morning, and saddled his donkey and went with the leaders of Moab.

The Angel and Balaam

<sup>22</sup>But God was angry because he was going, and the angel of the LORD took his stand in the way as an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey and his two servants were with him. <sup>23</sup>When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way with his drawn sword in his hand, the donkey turned off from the way and went into the field; but Balaam struck the donkey to turn her back into the way. <sup>24</sup>Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path of the vineyards, with a wall on this side and a wall on that side. <sup>25</sup>When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed herself to the wall and pressed Balaam’s foot against the wall, so he struck her again. <sup>26</sup>The angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn to the right hand or the left. <sup>27</sup>When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam; so Balaam was angry and struck the donkey with his stick. <sup>28</sup>And the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, “What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?” <sup>29</sup>Then Balaam said to the donkey, “Because you have made a mockery of me! If there had been a sword in my hand, I would have killed you by now.” <sup>30</sup>The donkey said to Balaam, “Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden all your life to this day? Have I ever been accustomed to do so to you?” And he said, “No.”

<sup>4</sup> Now God met Balaam, and he said to Him, “I have set up the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.” <sup>5</sup> Then the LORD put a word in Balaam’s mouth and said, “Return to Balak, and you shall speak thus.” <sup>6</sup> So he returned to him, and behold, he was standing beside his burnt offering, he and all the leaders of Moab. <sup>7</sup> He took up his <sup>a</sup>discourse and said,

“From Aram Balak has brought me,
Moab’s king from the mountains of the East,
‘Come curse Jacob for me,
And come, denounce Israel!’ [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit parable]

<sup>8</sup>“How shall I curse whom God has not cursed?
And how can I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced?

<sup>9</sup>“As I see him from the top of the rocks,

Behold, a people who dwells apart,
And will not be reckoned among the nations.

Or number the fourth part of Israel?
Let <sup>a</sup>me die the death of the upright,
And let my end be like his!” [<sup>a</sup>Lit my soul]

<sup>11</sup> Then Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, but behold, you have actually blessed them!” <sup>12</sup> He replied, “Must I not be careful to speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?”

13 Then Balak said to him, “Please come with me to another place from where you may see them, although you will only see the extreme end of them and will not see all of them; and curse them for me from there.”<sup>14</sup> So he took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.<sup>15</sup> And he said to Balak, “Stand here beside your burnt offering while I myself meet the LORD over there.”<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD met Balaam and put a word in his mouth and said, “Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak.”<sup>17</sup> He came to him, and behold, he was standing beside his burnt offering, and the leaders of Moab with him. And Balak said to him, “What has the LORD spoken?”<sup>18</sup> Then he took up his <sup>a</sup>discourse and said,

“Arise, O Balak, and hear;

<sup>19</sup>“God is not a man, that He should lie,

Nor a son of man, that He should repent;

Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?

<sup>20</sup>“Behold, I have received a command to bless;

When He has blessed, then I cannot revoke it.

Nor has He seen trouble in Israel;

The LORD his God is with him,

And the shout of a king is among them. [<sup>a</sup>Or iniquity]

<sup>22</sup>“God brings them out of Egypt,

<sup>23</sup>“For there is no omen against Jacob,

Nor is there any divination against Israel;

And to Israel, what God has done!

And as a lion it lifts itself;

It will not lie down until it devours the prey,

And drinks the blood of the slain.”

25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Do not curse them at all nor bless them at all!” <sup>26</sup>But Balaam replied to Balak, “Did I not tell you, ‘<sup>a</sup>Whatever the LORD speaks, that I must do’?” [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit saying, Whatever]

27 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Please come, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will be <sup>a</sup>agreeable with God that you curse them for me from there.” <sup>28</sup>So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor which overlooks the <sup>b</sup>wasteland. <sup>29</sup>Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars for me here and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here.” <sup>30</sup>Balak did just as Balaam had said, and offered up a bull and a ram on each altar. The Sin of Peor 1 While Israel remained at Shittim, the people began to play the harlot with the daughters of Moab. 2For they invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods. 3So Israel joined themselves to <sup>a</sup>Baal of Peor, and the LORD was angry against Israel. 4The LORD said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of the people and execute them <sup>b</sup>in broad daylight before the LORD, so that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel.”

A Law of Inheritance

1 Then the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph, came near; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah and Hoglah and Milcah and Tirzah. 2 They stood before Moses and before Eleazar the priest and before the leaders and all the congregation, at the doorway of the tent of meeting, saying, 3 “Our father died in the wilderness, yet he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah; but he died in his own sin, and he had no sons. 4 Why should the name of our father be withdrawn from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among our father’s brothers.” 5 So Moses brought their case before the LORD.

6 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 7 “The daughters of Zelophehad are right in their statements. You shall surely give them a hereditary possession among their father’s brothers, and you shall transfer the inheritance of their father to them. 8 Further, you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If a man dies and has no son, then you shall transfer his inheritance to his daughter. 9 If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers. 10 If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father’s brothers. 11 If his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his nearest relative in his own family, and he shall possess it; and it shall be a statutory ordinance to the sons of Israel, just as the LORD commanded Moses.’ ”

12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go up to this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the sons of Israel. 13 When you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother <sup>a</sup>was; 14 for in the wilderness of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, you rebelled against My <sup>b</sup>command <sup>c</sup>to treat Me as holy before their eyes at the water.”

15 Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying, <sup>16</sup>“May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation, <sup>17</sup>who will go out <sup>a</sup>and come in before them, and who will lead them out and <sup>b</sup>bring them in, so that the congregation of the LORD will not be like sheep which have no shepherd.” <sup>18</sup>So the LORD said to Moses, “<sup>c</sup>Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him; <sup>19</sup>and have him stand before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation, and commission him in their sight. <sup>20</sup>You shall put some of your <sup>d</sup>authority on him, in order that all the congregation of the sons of Israel may obey him. <sup>21</sup>Moreover, he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before the LORD. ### The Slaughter of Midian

man <sup>e</sup>intimately. <sup>18</sup>But all the <sup>f</sup>girls who have not known man <sup>e</sup>intimately, <sup>g</sup>spare for yourselves. <sup>19</sup>And you, camp outside the camp seven days; whoever has killed any person and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves, you and your captives, on the third day and on the seventh day. <sup>20</sup>You shall purify for yourselves every garment and every article of <sup>h</sup>leather and all the work of goats' hair, and all articles of wood." <sup>21</sup> Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to battle, "This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded Moses: <sup>22</sup>only the gold and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin and the lead, <sup>23</sup>everything that can stand the fire, you shall pass through the fire, and it shall be clean, but it shall be purified with water for impurity. But whatever cannot stand the fire you shall pass through the water. <sup>24</sup>And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may enter the camp."

Division of the Booty

plundered was 675,000 sheep, <sup>33</sup>and 72,000 cattle, <sup>34</sup>and 61,000 donkeys, <sup>35</sup>and of human beings, of the women who had not known man <sup>b</sup>intimately, all the persons were 32,000. [32 <sup>a</sup>Lit people 35 <sup>b</sup>Lit by lying with a man]

48 Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, approached Moses, <sup>49</sup>and they said to Moses, “Your servants have taken a census of men of war who are in our charge, and no man of us is missing. <sup>50</sup>So we have brought as an offering to the LORD what each man found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD.” <sup>51</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all kinds of wrought articles. <sup>52</sup>All the gold of the offering which they offered up to the LORD, from the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, was 16,750 shekels. <sup>53</sup>The men of war had taken booty, every man for himself. <sup>54</sup>So Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it to the tent of meeting as a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD.

Reuben and Gad Settle in Gilead

1 Now the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had an exceedingly large number of livestock. So when they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, that <sup>a</sup>it was indeed a place suitable for livestock, <sup>2</sup>the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came and spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to the leaders of the congregation, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon, <sup>4</sup>the land which the LORD <sup>b</sup>conquered before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock.” <sup>5</sup>They said, “If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession; do not take us across the Jordan.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit behold, the place, a place for 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit smote]

6 But Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, “Shall your brothers go to war while you yourselves sit here? <sup>7</sup>Now why are you <sup>a</sup>discouraging the sons of Israel from crossing over into the land which the LORD has given them? <sup>8</sup><sup>b</sup>This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land. <sup>9</sup>For when they went up to the <sup>c</sup>valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they <sup>d</sup>discouraged the sons of Israel so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them. <sup>10</sup>So the LORD’S anger burned in that day, and He swore, saying, <sup>11</sup>‘None of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob; for they did not follow Me fully, <sup>12</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have followed the LORD fully.’ <sup>13</sup>So the LORD’S anger burned against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until the entire generation of those who had done evil in the sight of the LORD was destroyed. <sup>14</sup>Now behold, you have risen up in your fathers’ place, a brood of sinful men, to add still more to the burning anger of the LORD against Israel. <sup>15</sup>For if you turn away from following Him, He will once more abandon them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all these people.” [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit restraining the hearts of 8 <sup>b</sup>Lit Thus your fathers 9 <sup>c</sup>Or wadi <sup>d</sup>Lit restrained the hearts of]

16 Then they came near to him and said, “We will build here sheepfolds for our livestock and cities for our little ones; <sup>17</sup>but we ourselves will be armed ready to go before the sons of Israel, until we have brought them to their place, while our little ones live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. <sup>18</sup>We will not return to our homes until every one of the sons of Israel has possessed his inheritance. <sup>19</sup>For we will not have an inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has fallen to us on this side of the Jordan toward the east.”

20 So Moses said to them, “If you will do <sup>a</sup>this, if you will arm yourselves before the LORD for the war, <sup>21</sup>and all of you armed men cross over the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven His enemies out from before Him, <sup>22</sup>and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterward you shall return and be free of obligation toward the LORD and toward Israel, and this land shall be yours for a possession before the LORD. <sup>23</sup>But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD, and be sure your sin will find you out. <sup>24</sup>Build yourselves cities for your little ones, and sheepfolds for your sheep, and do <sup>b</sup>what you have promised.” [20 <sup>a</sup>Lit this thing 24 <sup>b</sup>Lit that which has come out of your mouth]

25 The sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, “Your servants will do just as my lord commands. <sup>26</sup>Our little ones, our wives, our livestock and all our cattle shall <sup>a</sup>remain there in the cities of Gilead; <sup>27</sup>while your servants, everyone who is armed for war, will cross over in the presence of the LORD to battle, just as my lord says.” [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit be]

28 So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers’ households of the tribes of the sons of Israel. <sup>29</sup>Moses said to them, “If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben, everyone who is armed for battle, will cross with you over the Jordan in the presence of the LORD, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession; <sup>30</sup>but if they will not cross over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.” <sup>31</sup>The sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, saying, “As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do. <sup>32</sup>We ourselves will cross over armed in the presence of the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us across

33 So Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben and to the half-tribe of Joseph’s son Manasseh, the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan, the land with its cities with their <sup>a</sup>territories, the cities of the surrounding land. <sup>34</sup>The sons of Gad built Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer, <sup>35</sup>and Atroth-shophan and Jazer and Jogbehah, <sup>36</sup>and Beth-nimrah and Beth-haran as fortified cities, and sheepfolds for sheep. <sup>37</sup>The sons of Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kiriathaim, <sup>38</sup>and Nebo and Baal-meon—their names being changed—and Sibmah, and they gave other names to the cities which they built. <sup>39</sup>The sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it. <sup>40</sup>So Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he lived in it. <sup>41</sup>Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its <sup>b</sup>towns, and called them <sup>c</sup>Havvoth-jair. <sup>42</sup>Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and called it Nobah after his own name. 1 And the heads of the fathers' households of the family of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the heads of the fathers' households of the sons of Israel, <sup>2</sup>and they said, "The LORD commanded my lord to give the land by lot to the sons of Israel as an inheritance, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters. <sup>3</sup>But if they <sup>a</sup>marry one of the sons of the other tribes of the sons of Israel, their inheritance will be withdrawn from the inheritance of our fathers and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; thus it will be withdrawn from our allotted inheritance. <sup>4</sup>When the jubilee of the sons of Israel <sup>b</sup>comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; so their inheritance will be withdrawn from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers." ### Israel's History after the Exodus

1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel across the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite <sup>a</sup>Suph, between Paran and Tophel and Laban and Hazeroth and Dizahab. <sup>2</sup>It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea. <sup>3</sup>In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the children of Israel, according to all that the LORD had commanded him to give to them, <sup>4</sup>after he had <sup>b</sup>defeated Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth <sup>c</sup>and Edrei. <sup>5</sup>Across the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to expound this law, saying, [1 <sup>a</sup>Perhaps Red Sea 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit smitten <sup>c</sup>So with ancient versions; M.T. omits and]

6 “The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, ‘You have <sup>a</sup>stayed long enough at this mountain. <sup>7</sup>Turn and set your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all their neighbors in the Arabah, in the hill country and in the lowland and in the <sup>b</sup>Negev and by the seacoast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates. <sup>8</sup>See, I have placed the land before you; go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to them and their <sup>c</sup>descendants after them.’ [6 <sup>a</sup>Lit dwelt 7 <sup>b</sup>I.e. 9 “I spoke to you at that time, saying, ‘I am not able to bear the burden of you alone. <sup>10</sup>The LORD your God has multiplied you, and behold, you are this day like the stars of heaven in number. <sup>11</sup>May the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase you a thousand-fold more than you are and bless you, just as He has <sup>a</sup>promised you! <sup>12</sup>How can I alone bear the load and burden of you and your strife? <sup>13</sup><sup>b</sup>Choose wise and discerning and experienced men from your tribes, and I will appoint them as your heads.’ <sup>14</sup>You answered me and said, ‘The thing which you have said to do is good.’ <sup>15</sup>So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and experienced men, and <sup>c</sup>appointed them heads over you, leaders of thousands and <sup>d</sup>of hundreds, <sup>d</sup>of fifties and <sup>d</sup>of tens, and officers for your tribes. 16 “Then I charged your judges at that time, saying, ‘Hear the cases between your <sup>a</sup>fellow countrymen, and judge righteously between a man and his <sup>b</sup>fellow countryman, or the alien who is with him. <sup>17</sup>You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike. You shall not fear <sup>c</sup>man, for the judgment is God’s. 19 “Then we set out from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, just as the LORD our God had commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea. <sup>20</sup>I said to you, ‘You have come to the hill country of the Amorites which the LORD our God is about to give us. <sup>21</sup>See, the LORD your God has placed the land before you; go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you. Do not fear or be dismayed.’

22 “Then all of you approached me and said, ‘Let us send men before us, that they may search out the land for us, and bring back to us word of the way by which we should go up and the cities which we shall enter.’ <sup>23</sup>The thing pleased me and I took twelve of your men, one man for each tribe. <sup>24</sup>They turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the valley of Eshcol and spied it out. <sup>25</sup>Then they took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us; and they brought us back a report and said, ‘It is a good land which the LORD our God is about to give us.’

26 “Yet you were not willing to go up, but rebelled against the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD your God; <sup>27</sup>and you grumbled in your tents and said, ‘Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us. <sup>28</sup>Where can we go up? Our brethren have made our hearts melt, saying, “The people are bigger and taller than we; the cities are large and fortified to heaven. And besides, we saw the sons of the Anakim there.” ’ <sup>29</sup>Then I said to you, ‘Do not be shocked, nor fear them. <sup>30</sup>The LORD your God who goes before you will Himself fight on your behalf, <sup>b</sup>just as He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, <sup>31</sup>and in the wilderness where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, just as a man carries his son, in all the way which you have walked until you came to this place.’ <sup>32</sup>But <sup>c</sup>for all this, you did not trust the LORD your God, <sup>33</sup>who goes before you on your way, to seek out a place for you to encamp, in fire by night and cloud by day, to show you the way in which you should go. <sup>34</sup> “Then the LORD heard the sound of your words, and He was angry and took an oath, saying, <sup>35</sup>‘Not one of these men, this evil generation, shall see the good land which I swore to give your fathers, <sup>36</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and to his sons I will give the land on which he has set foot, because he has followed the LORD fully.’ <sup>37</sup>The LORD was angry with me also on your account, saying, ‘Not even you shall enter there. <sup>38</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall enter there; encourage him, for he will cause Israel to inherit it. <sup>39</sup>Moreover, your little ones who you said would become a prey, and your sons, who this day have no knowledge of good or evil, shall enter there, and I will give it to them and they shall possess it. <sup>40</sup>But as for you, turn around and set out for the wilderness by the way to the <sup>a</sup>Red Sea.’ [40 <sup>a</sup>Lit Sea of Reeds]

<sup>41</sup> “Then you said to me, ‘We have sinned against the LORD; we will indeed go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.’ And every man of you girded on his weapons of war, and regarded it as easy to go up into the hill country. <sup>42</sup>And the LORD said to me, ‘Say to them, “Do not go up nor fight, for I am not among you; otherwise you will be <sup>a</sup>defeated before your enemies.” ’ <sup>43</sup>So I spoke to you, but you would not listen. Instead you rebelled against the <sup>b</sup>command of the LORD, and acted presumptuously and went up into the hill country. <sup>44</sup>The Amorites who <sup>c</sup>lived in that hill country came out against you and chased you as bees do, and crushed you from Seir to Hormah. <sup>45</sup>Then you returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD did not listen to your voice nor give ear to you. <sup>46</sup>So you remained in Kadesh many days, <sup>d</sup>the days that you spent there. 1 “Then we turned and set out for the wilderness by the way to the <sup>a</sup>Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me, and circled Mount Seir for many days. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD spoke to me, saying, <sup>3</sup>‘You have circled this mountain long enough. 8 “So we passed beyond our brothers the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, away from the Arabah road, away from Elath and from Ezion-geber. And we turned and passed through by the way of the wilderness of Moab. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to me, ‘Do not harass Moab, nor provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of <sup>a</sup>their land as a possession, because I have given Ar to the sons of Lot as a possession.’ <sup>10</sup>(The Emim lived there formerly, a people as great, numerous, and tall as the Anakim. <sup>11</sup>Like the Anakim, they are also regarded as Rephaim, but the Moabites call them Emim. <sup>12</sup>The Horites formerly lived in Seir, but the sons of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them and settled in their place, just as Israel did to the land of <sup>a</sup>their possession which the LORD gave to them.) <sup>13</sup>‘Now arise and cross over the <sup>b</sup>brook Zered yourselves.’ So we crossed over the <sup>b</sup>brook Zered. <sup>14</sup>Now the <sup>c</sup>time that it took for us to come from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed over the <sup>b</sup>brook Zered was thirty-eight years, until all the

12 “So we took possession of this land at that time. Argob (concerning all Bashan, it is called the land of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup>Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called <sup>b</sup>it, that is, Bashan, after his own name, <sup>c</sup>Havvoth-jair, as it is to this day.) <sup>15</sup>To Machir I gave Gilead. <sup>16</sup>To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even as far as the <sup>a</sup>valley of Arnon, the middle of the <sup>a</sup>valley <sup>d</sup>as a border and as far as the <sup>a</sup>river Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon; <sup>17</sup>the Arabah also, with the Jordan <sup>d</sup>as a border, from <sup>e</sup>Chinnereth even as far as the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, <sup>f</sup>at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah on the east. 18 “Then I commanded you at that time, saying, ‘The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it; all you valiant men shall cross over armed before your brothers, the sons of Israel. <sup>19</sup>But your wives and your little ones and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall remain in your cities which I have given you, <sup>20</sup>until the LORD gives rest to your fellow countrymen as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God will give them beyond the Jordan. Then you may return every man to his possession which I have given you.’ <sup>21</sup>I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, ‘Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so the LORD shall do to all the kingdoms into which you are about to cross. <sup>22</sup>Do not fear them, for the LORD your God is the one fighting for you.’

23 “I also pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying, <sup>24</sup>‘O Lord <sup>a</sup>GOD, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your strong hand; for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do such works and mighty acts as Yours? <sup>25</sup>Let me, I pray, cross over and see the fair land that is beyond the Jordan, <sup>b</sup>that good hill country and Lebanon.’ <sup>26</sup>But the LORD was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me; and the LORD said to me, <sup>c</sup>‘Enough! Speak to Me no more of this matter. <sup>27</sup>Go up to the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes to the west and north and south and east, and see it with your eyes, for you shall not cross over this Jordan. <sup>28</sup>But charge Joshua and encourage him and strengthen him, for he shall go across <sup>d</sup>at the head of this people, and he will give them as an inheritance the land which you will see.’ <sup>29</sup>So we remained in the valley opposite Beth-peor. ### Israel Urged to Obey God's Law

1 “Now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and the judgments which I am teaching you to perform, so that you may live and go in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. <sup>2</sup>You shall not add to the word which I am commanding you, nor take away from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. <sup>3</sup>Your eyes have seen what the LORD has done in the case of Baal-peor, for all the men who followed Baal-peor, the LORD your God has destroyed <sup>a</sup>them from among you. <sup>4</sup>But you who held fast to the LORD your God are alive today, every one of you. [<sup>3</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit him]

5 “See, I have taught you statutes and judgments just as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should do thus in the land where you are entering to possess it. <sup>6</sup>So keep and do them, for that is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes and say, ‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.’ <sup>7</sup>For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as is the LORD our God whenever we call on Him? <sup>8</sup>Or what great nation is there that has statutes and judgments as righteous as this whole law which I am setting before you today?

9 “Only give heed to yourself and keep your soul diligently, so that you do not forget the things which your eyes have seen and they do not depart from your heart all the days of your life; but make them known to your sons and your grandsons. <sup>10</sup>Remember the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when the LORD said to me, ‘Assemble the people to Me, that I may let them hear My words so they may learn to <sup>a</sup>fear Me all the days they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.’ <sup>11</sup>You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the very heart of the heavens: darkness, cloud and thick gloom. <sup>12</sup>Then the LORD spoke to you from the midst of the fire; you heard the sound of words, but you saw no form—only a voice. <sup>13</sup>So He declared to you His covenant which He commanded you to perform, that is, the Ten <sup>b</sup>Commandments; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone. <sup>14</sup>The LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might perform them in the land where you are going over to possess it. [<sup>10</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or reverence <sup>13</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit Words]

<sup>15</sup> “So watch yourselves carefully, since you did not see any form on the day the LORD spoke to you at Horeb from the midst of the fire, <sup>16</sup>so that you do not act corruptly and make a graven image for yourselves in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female, <sup>17</sup>the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky, <sup>18</sup>the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water below the earth. <sup>19</sup>And beware not to lift up your eyes to heaven and see the sun and the moon and the stars, all the host of heaven, and be drawn away and worship them and serve them, those which the LORD your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole heaven. <sup>20</sup>But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, from Egypt, to be a people for His own possession, as today.

<sup>21</sup> “Now the LORD was angry with me on your account, and swore that I would not cross the Jordan, and that I would not enter the good land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance. <sup>22</sup>For I will die in this land, I shall not cross the Jordan, but you shall cross and take possession of this good land. <sup>23</sup>So watch yourselves, that you do not forget the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, and make for yourselves a graven image in the form of anything against which the LORD your God has commanded you. <sup>24</sup>For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD drives you. <sup>28</sup>There you will serve gods, the work of man's hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell. <sup>29</sup>But from there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find Him if you search for Him with all your heart and all your soul. <sup>30</sup>When you are in distress and all these things have come upon you, in the latter days you will return to the LORD your God and listen to His voice. <sup>31</sup>For the LORD your God is a compassionate God; He will not fail you nor destroy you nor forget the covenant with your fathers which He swore to them. [25 <sup>a</sup>Lit beget <sup>b</sup>Or a graven image 26 <sup>c</sup>Lit prolong your days]

32 “Indeed, ask now concerning the former days which were before you, since the day that God created <sup>a</sup>man on the earth, and inquire from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything been done like this great thing, or has anything been heard like it? <sup>33</sup>Has any people heard the voice of God speaking from the midst of the fire, as you have heard it, and survived? <sup>34</sup>Or has a god tried to go to take for himself a nation from within another nation by trials, by signs and wonders and by war and by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm and by great terrors, <sup>b</sup>as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? <sup>35</sup>To you it was shown that you might know that the LORD, He is God; there is no other besides Him. <sup>36</sup>Out of the heavens He let you hear His voice to discipline you; and on earth He let you see His great fire, and you heard His words from the midst of the fire. <sup>37c</sup>Because He loved your fathers, therefore He chose <sup>d</sup>their descendants after them. And He <sup>e</sup>personally brought you from Egypt by His great power, <sup>38</sup>driving out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in and to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is today. <sup>39</sup>Know therefore today, and take it to your heart, that the LORD, He is God in heaven above and on the earth below; there is no other. <sup>40</sup>So you shall keep His statutes and His commandments which I am <sup>f</sup>giving you today, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may <sup>g</sup>live long on the land which the LORD your God is giving you for all time.” [32 <sup>a</sup>Or Adam 34 <sup>b</sup>Lit according to all that 37 <sup>c</sup>Lit And instead, because <sup>d</sup>Lit his seed <sup>e</sup>Lit with His presence 40 <sup>f</sup>Lit commanding <sup>g</sup>Lit prolong your days]

having enmity toward him in time past; and by fleeing to one of these cities he might live: <sup>43</sup>Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau for the Reubenites, and Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites. [41 <sup>a</sup>Lit sunrise]

44 Now this is the law which Moses set before the sons of Israel; <sup>45</sup>these are the testimonies and the statutes and the ordinances which Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, when they came out from Egypt, <sup>46</sup>across the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the sons of Israel <sup>a</sup>defeated when they came out from Egypt. <sup>47</sup>They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who were across the Jordan to the <sup>b</sup>east, <sup>48</sup>from Aroer, which is on the edge of the <sup>c</sup>valley of Arnon, even as far as Mount Sion (that is, Hermon), <sup>49</sup>with all the Arabah across the Jordan to the east, even as far as the sea of the Arabah, <sup>d</sup>at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah. ### Moses Interceded

22 “These words the LORD spoke to all your assembly at the mountain from the midst of the fire, of the cloud and of the thick gloom, with a great voice, and He added no more. He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me. <sup>23</sup>And when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders. <sup>24</sup>You said, ‘Behold, the LORD our God has shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire; we have seen today that God speaks with man, yet he lives. <sup>25</sup>Now then why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer, then we will die. <sup>26</sup>For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? <sup>27a</sup>Go near and hear all that the LORD our God says; then speak to us all that the LORD our God speaks to you, and we will hear and do it.' [27 <sup>a</sup>Lit Go yourself]

Warnings

1 “When the LORD your God brings you into the land where you are entering to possess it, and clears away many nations before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and stronger than you, <sup>2</sup>and when the LORD your God delivers them before you and you <sup>a</sup>defeat them, then you shall <sup>b</sup>utterly destroy them. 12 “Then it shall come about, because you listen to these judgments and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you <sup>a</sup>His covenant and <sup>a</sup>His lovingkindness which He swore to your forefathers. <sup>13</sup>He will love you and bless you and multiply you; He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your herd and the young of your flock, <sup>b</sup>in the land which He swore to your forefathers to give you. <sup>14</sup>You shall be blessed above all peoples; there will be no male or female barren among you or among your cattle. <sup>15</sup>The LORD will remove from you all sickness; and He will not put on you any of the harmful diseases of Egypt which you have known, but He will lay them on all who hate you. <sup>16</sup>You shall consume all the peoples whom the LORD your God will deliver to you; your eye shall not pity them, nor shall you serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you. 17 “If you should say in your heart, ‘These nations are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?’ <sup>18</sup>you shall not be afraid of them; you shall well remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt: <sup>19</sup>the great trials which your eyes saw and the signs and the wonders and the mighty hand and the outstretched arm by which the LORD your God brought you out. So shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. <sup>20</sup>Moreover, the LORD your God will send the hornet against them, until those who are left and hide themselves from you perish. <sup>21</sup>You shall not dread <sup>a</sup>them, for the LORD your God is in your midst, a great and awesome God. <sup>22</sup>The LORD your God will clear away these nations before you little by little; you will not be able to put an end to them quickly, for the <sup>b</sup>wild beasts would grow too numerous for you. <sup>23</sup>But the LORD your God will deliver them before you, and will <sup>c</sup>throw them into great confusion until they are destroyed. <sup>24</sup>He will deliver their kings into your hand so that you will make their name perish from under heaven; no man will be able to stand before you until you have destroyed them. <sup>25</sup>The graven images of their gods you are to burn with fire; you shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves, or you will be snared by it, for it is an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>26</sup>You shall not bring an abomination into your house, and like it come under the ban; you shall utterly detest it and you shall utterly abhor it, for it is something banned. ### God's Gracious Dealings

1 “All the commandments that I am commanding you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to give to your forefathers. 2You shall remember all the way which the LORD your God has led you in the wilderness these forty years, that He might humble you, testing you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not. 3He humbled you and let you be hungry, and fed you with manna which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that He might make you <sup>a</sup>understand that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD. 4Your clothing did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years. 5Thus you are to know in your heart that the LORD your God was disciplining you just as a man disciplines his son. 6Therefore, you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to <sup>b</sup>fear Him. 7For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing forth in valleys and hills; 8a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey; 9a land where you will eat food without scarcity, in which you will not lack anything; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper. 10When you have eaten and are satisfied, you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you. ### Israel Provoked God

1 “Hear, O Israel! You are crossing over the Jordan today to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than you, great cities <sup>a</sup>fortified to heaven, <sup>2</sup>a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know and of whom you have heard it said, ‘Who can stand before the sons of Anak?’ <sup>3</sup>Know therefore today that it is the LORD your God who is crossing over before you as a consuming fire. He will destroy them and He will subdue them before you, so that you may drive them out and destroy them quickly, just as the LORD has spoken to you. [<sup>1</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit and fortified]

4 “Do not say in your heart when the LORD your God has driven them out before <sup>a</sup>you, ‘Because of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land,’ but it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is dispossessing them before you. <sup>5</sup>It is not for your righteousness or for the uprightness of your heart that you are going to possess their land, but it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD your God is driving them out before you, in order to confirm the <sup>b</sup>oath which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. [<sup>4</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit you saying <sup>5</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit word]

6 “Know, then, it is not because of your righteousness that the LORD your God is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a <sup>a</sup>stubborn people. <sup>7</sup>Remember, do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness; from the day that you left the land of Egypt until you arrived at this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. <sup>8</sup>Even at Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was so angry with you that He would have destroyed you. <sup>9</sup>When I went up to the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD had made with you, then I remained on the mountain forty days and nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water. <sup>10</sup>The LORD gave me the two tablets of stone written by the finger of God; and on them were all the words which the LORD had spoken with you at the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly. <sup>11</sup>It came about at the end of forty days and nights that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant. <sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, go down from here quickly, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly. They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made a molten image for themselves.’ <sup>13</sup>The LORD spoke further to me, saying, ‘I have seen this people, and indeed, it is a <sup>a</sup>stubborn people. <sup>14</sup>Let Me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.’ [6 <sup>a</sup>Or stiff-necked]

<sup>15</sup> “So I turned and came down from the mountain while the mountain was burning with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup>And I saw that you had indeed sinned against the LORD your God. You had made for yourselves a molten calf; you had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you. <sup>17</sup>I took hold of the two tablets and threw them from my hands and smashed them before your eyes. <sup>18</sup>I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin which you had committed in doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke Him to anger. <sup>19</sup>For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was wrathful against you in order to destroy you, but the LORD listened to me that time also. <sup>20</sup>The LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him; so I also prayed for Aaron at the same time. <sup>21</sup>I took your <sup>a</sup>sinful thing, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it, grinding it very small until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that came down from the mountain. [21 <sup>a</sup>Lit sin]

because the LORD had said He would destroy you. <sup>26</sup>I prayed to the LORD and said, ‘O Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people, even Your inheritance, whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>27</sup>Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look at the stubbornness of this people or at their wickedness or their sin. <sup>28</sup>Otherwise the land from which You brought us may say, “Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which He had <sup>b</sup>promised them and because He hated them He has brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.” <sup>29</sup>Yet they are Your people, even Your inheritance, whom You have brought out by Your great power and Your outstretched arm.’ [25 <sup>a</sup>Lit fell down 28 <sup>b</sup>Lit spoken to]

The Tablets Rewritten

1 “At that time the LORD said to me, ‘Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone like the former ones, and come up to Me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood for yourself. <sup>2</sup>I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets which you shattered, and you shall put them in the ark.’ <sup>3</sup>So I made an ark of acacia wood and cut out two tablets of stone like the former ones, and went up on the mountain with the two tablets in my hand. <sup>4</sup>He wrote on the tablets, like the former writing, the Ten <sup>a</sup>Commandments which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me. <sup>5</sup>Then I turned and came down from the mountain and put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they are, as the LORD commanded me.”

6 (Now the sons of Israel set out from <sup>a</sup>Beeroth Bene-jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died and there he was buried and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his place. <sup>7</sup>From there they set out to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water. <sup>8</sup>At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to serve Him and to bless in His name until this day. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, Levi does not have a portion or inheritance with his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, just as the LORD your God spoke to him.) [6 <sup>a</sup>Or the wells of the sons of Jaakan]

10 “I, moreover, stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights like the first time, and the LORD listened to me that time also; the LORD was not willing to destroy you. <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to me, ‘Arise, proceed on your journey ahead of the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.’

12 “Now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require from you, but to <sup>a</sup>fear

the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>13</sup>and to keep the LORD's commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today for your good? <sup>14</sup>Behold, to the LORD your God belong heaven and the <sup>b</sup>highest heavens, the earth and all that is in it. <sup>15</sup>Yet on your fathers did the LORD set His affection to love them, and He chose their <sup>c</sup>descendants after them, even you above all peoples, as it is this day. <sup>16</sup>So circumcise <sup>d</sup>your heart, and stiffen your neck no longer. <sup>17</sup>For the LORD your God is the God of gods and the Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God who does not show partiality nor take a bribe. <sup>18</sup>He executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and shows His love for the alien by giving him food and clothing. <sup>19</sup>So show your love for the alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve Him and cling to Him, and you shall swear by His name. <sup>21</sup>He is your praise and He is your God, who has done these great and awesome things for you which your eyes have seen. <sup>22</sup>Your fathers went down to Egypt seventy persons in all, and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars of heaven. 14 “You shall not move your neighbor’s boundary mark, which the ancestors have set, in your inheritance which you will inherit in the land that the LORD your God gives you to <sup>a</sup>possess. [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit possess it]

15 “A single witness shall not rise up against a man on account of any iniquity or any sin <sup>a</sup>which he has committed; on the <sup>b</sup>evidence of two or three witnesses a matter shall be confirmed. <sup>16</sup>If a malicious witness rises up against a man to <sup>c</sup>accuse him of <sup>d</sup>wrongdoing, <sup>17</sup>then both the men who have the dispute shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who will be in office in those days. <sup>18</sup>The judges shall investigate thoroughly, and if the witness is a false witness and he has <sup>e</sup>accused his brother falsely, <sup>19</sup>then you shall do to him just as he had intended to do to his brother. Thus you shall purge the evil from among you. <sup>20</sup>The rest will hear and be afraid, and will never again do such an evil thing among you. <sup>21</sup>Thus <sup>f</sup>you shall not show pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot. ### Laws of Warfare

1 “When you go out to battle against your enemies and see horses and chariots and people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt, is with you. 2When you are approaching the battle, the priest shall come near and speak to the people. 3He shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel, you are approaching the battle against your enemies today. Do not be fainthearted. Do not be afraid, or panic, or tremble before them, 4for the LORD your God is the one who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.’ 5The officers also shall speak to the people, saying, ‘Who is the man that has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him depart and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would dedicate it. 6Who is the man that has planted a vineyard and has not <sup>a</sup>begun to use its fruit? Let him depart and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man <sup>a</sup>would begin to use its fruit. 7And who is the man that is engaged to a woman and has not <sup>b</sup>married her? Let him depart and return to his house, otherwise he might die in the battle and another man <sup>c</sup>would marry her.’ 8Then the officers shall speak further to the people and say, ‘Who is the man that is afraid and fainthearted? Let him depart and return to his house, so that <sup>d</sup>he might not make his brothers’ hearts melt like his heart.’ 9When the officers have finished speaking to the people, they shall appoint commanders of armies at the head of the people. [6 <sup>a</sup>Lit treat(ed) it as common 7 <sup>b</sup>Lit taken <sup>c</sup>Lit take 8 <sup>d</sup>So with Gr and other ancient versions]

10 “When you approach a city to fight against it, you shall <sup>a</sup>offer it terms of peace. 11If it <sup>b</sup>agrees to make peace with you and opens to you, then all the people who are found in it shall become your forced labor and shall serve you. 12However, if it does not make peace with you, but makes war against you, then you shall besiege it. 13When the LORD your God gives it into your hand, you shall strike all the <sup>c</sup>men in it with the edge of the sword. 14Only

the women and the children and the animals and all that is in the city, all its spoil, you shall take as booty for yourself; and you shall <sup>d</sup>use the spoil of your enemies which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>15</sup>Thus you shall do to all the cities that are very far from you, which are not of the cities of these nations <sup>e</sup>nearby. <sup>16</sup>Only in the cities of these peoples that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, you shall not leave alive anything that breathes. <sup>17</sup>But you shall <sup>f</sup>utterly destroy them, the Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite and the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, as the LORD your God has commanded you, <sup>18</sup>so that they may not teach you to do according to all their detestable things which they have done for their gods, so that you would sin against the LORD your God. 19 “When you besiege a city a long time, to make war against it in order to capture it, you shall not destroy its trees by swinging an axe against them; for you may eat from them, and you shall not cut them down. <sup>a</sup>For is the tree of the field a man, that it should <sup>b</sup>be besieged by you? <sup>20</sup>Only the trees which you know <sup>c</sup>are not fruit trees you shall destroy and cut down, that you may construct siegeworks against the city that is making war with you until it falls. [19 <sup>a</sup>Read as interrogative with ancient versions <sup>b</sup>Lit come before you in the siege 20 <sup>c</sup>Lit they are not trees for food]

Expiation of a Crime

1 “If a slain person is found lying in the open country in the land which the LORD your God gives you to <sup>a</sup>possess, and it is not known who has struck him, <sup>2</sup>then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure the distance to the cities which are around the slain one. <sup>3</sup>It shall be that the city which is nearest to the slain man, that is, the elders of that city, shall take a heifer of the herd, which has not been worked and which has not pulled in a yoke; <sup>4</sup>and the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with running water, which has not been plowed or sown, and shall break the heifer’s neck there in the valley. <sup>5</sup>Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for the LORD your God has chosen them to serve Him and to bless in the name of the LORD; and every dispute and every <sup>b</sup>assault <sup>c</sup>shall be settled by them. <sup>6</sup>All the elders of that city <sup>d</sup>which is nearest to the slain man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley; <sup>7</sup>and they shall answer and say, ‘Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it. <sup>8e</sup>Forgive Your people Israel whom You have redeemed, O LORD, and do not place the guilt of innocent blood in the midst of Your people Israel.’ And the bloodguiltiness shall be <sup>f</sup>forgiven them. <sup>9</sup>So you shall remove the guilt of innocent blood from your midst, when you do what is right in the eyes of the LORD. ### Domestic Relations

10 “When you go out to battle against your enemies, and the LORD your God delivers them into your hands and you take them away captive, <sup>11</sup>and see among the captives a beautiful woman, and have a desire for her and would take her as a wife for yourself, <sup>12</sup>then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head and <sup>a</sup>trim her nails. <sup>13</sup>She shall also

<sup>b</sup>remove the clothes of her captivity and shall remain in your house, and mourn her father and mother a full month; and after that you may go in to her and be her husband and she shall be your wife. <sup>14</sup>It shall be, if you are not pleased with her, then you shall let her go <sup>c</sup>wherever she wishes; but you shall certainly not sell her for money, you shall not <sup>d</sup>mistreat her, because you have humbled her. [<sup>12</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit do <sup>13</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit remove from her <sup>14</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit according to her soul <sup>d</sup>Or enslave]

15 “If a man has two wives, the one loved and the other <sup>a</sup>unloved, and both the loved and the <sup>a</sup>unloved have borne him sons, if the firstborn son belongs to the <sup>a</sup>unloved, <sup>16</sup>then it shall be in the day he <sup>b</sup>wills what he has to his sons, he cannot make the son of the loved the firstborn before the son of the <sup>a</sup>unloved, who is the firstborn. <sup>17</sup>But he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the <sup>a</sup>unloved, by giving him a double portion of all that <sup>c</sup>he has, for he is the beginning of his strength; to him belongs the right of the firstborn. [<sup>15</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit hated <sup>16</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit makes to inherit <sup>17</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit is found with him]

18 “If any man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey his father or his mother, and when they chastise him, he will not even listen to them, <sup>19</sup>then his father and mother shall seize him, and bring him out to the elders of his city <sup>a</sup>at the gateway of his hometown. <sup>20</sup>They shall say to the elders of his city, ‘This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey us, he is a glutton and a drunkard.’ <sup>21</sup>Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death; so you shall remove the evil from your midst, and all Israel will hear of it and fear. [<sup>19</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit and to the gate of his place]

22 “If a man has committed a sin worthy of death and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree, <sup>23</sup>his corpse shall not hang all night on the tree, but you shall surely bury him on the same day (for he who is hanged is <sup>a</sup>accursed of God), so that you do not defile your land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance. [<sup>23</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit the curse of God]

Sundry Laws 1 “You shall not see your <sup>a</sup>countryman’s ox or his sheep straying away, and <sup>b</sup>pay no attention to them; you shall certainly bring them back to your countryman. 2If your countryman is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall remain with you until your countryman looks for it; then you shall restore it to him. 3Thus you shall do with his donkey, and you shall do the same with his garment, and you shall do likewise with anything lost by your countryman, which he has lost and you have found. You are not allowed to <sup>c</sup>neglect them. 4You shall not see your countryman’s donkey or his ox fallen down on the way, and <sup>b</sup>pay no attention to them; you shall certainly help him to raise them up. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit brother, and so through v 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit hide yourself from them 3 <sup>c</sup>Lit hide yourself]

5 “A woman shall not wear man’s clothing, nor shall a man put on a woman’s clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD your God.

6 “If you happen to come upon a bird’s nest along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young; <sup>7</sup>you shall certainly let the mother go, but the young you may take for yourself, in order that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your days.

8 “When you build a new house, you shall make a parapet for your roof, so that you will not bring bloodguilt on your house if anyone falls from it.

9 “You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, or <sup>a</sup>all the produce of the seed which you have sown and the increase of the vineyard will become defiled. [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit the fullness]

10 “You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.

11 “You shall not wear a material mixed of wool and linen together.

Laws on Morality 13 “If any man takes a wife and goes in to her and then <sup>a</sup>turns against her, <sup>14</sup>and charges her with shameful deeds and <sup>b</sup>publicly defames her, and says, ‘I took this woman, but when I came near her, I did not find her a virgin,’ <sup>15</sup>then the girl’s father and her mother shall take and bring out the evidence of the girl’s virginity to the elders of the city at the gate. <sup>16</sup>The girl’s father shall say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man for a wife, but he <sup>c</sup>turned against her; <sup>17</sup>and behold, he has charged her with shameful deeds, saying, “I did not find your daughter a virgin.” But <sup>d</sup>this is the evidence of my daughter’s virginity.’ And they shall spread the garment before the elders of the city. <sup>18</sup>So the elders of that city shall take the man and chastise him, <sup>19</sup>and they shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver and give it to the girl’s father, because he <sup>e</sup>publicly defamed a virgin of Israel. And she shall remain his wife; he cannot <sup>f</sup>divorce her all his days. [<sup>13</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit hates her <sup>14</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit causes an evil name to go out against her <sup>16</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit hated her <sup>17</sup> <sup>d</sup>Lit these are <sup>19</sup> <sup>e</sup>Lit caused an evil name to go out against a virgin <sup>f</sup>Lit send her away]

20 “But if this <sup>a</sup>charge is true, that the girl was not found a virgin, <sup>21</sup>then they shall bring out the girl to the doorway of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her <sup>b</sup>to death because she has committed an act of folly in Israel by playing the harlot in her father’s house; thus you shall purge the evil from among you. [<sup>20</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit matter <sup>21</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit with stones so that she dies]

22 “If a man is found lying with a married woman, then both of them shall die, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman; thus you shall purge the evil from Israel.

23 “If there is a girl who is a virgin engaged to a man, and another man finds her in the city and lies with her, <sup>24</sup>then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city and you shall stone them <sup>a</sup>to death; the girl, because she did not cry out in the city, and the man, because he has violated his neighbor’s wife. Thus you shall purge the evil from among you. [24 <sup>a</sup>Lit with stones so that they die]

25 “But if in the field the man finds the girl who is engaged, and the man forces her and lies with her, then only the man who lies with her shall die. <sup>26</sup>But you shall do nothing to the girl; there is no sin in the girl worthy of death, for just as a man rises against his neighbor and murders him, so is this case. <sup>27</sup>When he found her in the field, the engaged girl cried out, but there was no one to save her.

28 “If a man finds a girl who is a virgin, who is not engaged, and seizes her and lies with her and they are discovered, <sup>29</sup>then the man who lay with her shall give to the girl’s father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall become his wife because he has violated her; he cannot divorce her all his days.

30 “<sup>a</sup>A man shall not take his father’s wife so that he will not uncover his father’s skirt. [30 <sup>a</sup>Ch 23:1 in Heb]

Persons Excluded from the Assembly

1 “No one who is <sup>a</sup>emasculated or has his male organ cut off shall enter the assembly of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>No one of illegitimate birth shall enter the assembly of the LORD; none of his descendants, even to the tenth generation, shall enter the assembly of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>No Ammonite or Moabite shall enter the assembly of the LORD; none of their descendants, even to the tenth generation, shall ever enter the assembly of the LORD, <sup>4</sup>because they did not meet you with <sup>b</sup>food and water on the way when you came out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of <sup>c</sup>Mesopotamia, to curse you. <sup>5</sup>Nevertheless, the LORD your God was not willing to listen to Balaam, but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you because the LORD your God loves you. <sup>6</sup>You shall never seek their peace or their prosperity all your days. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit wounded by crushing of testicles 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit bread <sup>c</sup>Heb Aram-naharaim]

7 “You shall not detest an Edomite, for he is your brother; you shall not detest an Egyptian, because you were an alien in his land. <sup>8</sup>The sons of the third generation who are born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

9 “When you go out as <sup>a</sup>an army against your enemies, you shall keep yourself from every evil thing. [9 <sup>a</sup>Or a camp]

10 “If there is among you any man who is unclean because of a nocturnal emission, then he must go outside the camp; he may not <sup>a</sup>reenter the camp. <sup>11</sup>But it shall be when evening approaches, he shall bathe himself with water, and at sundown he may <sup>a</sup>reenter the camp. [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit come to the midst of]

12 “You shall also have a place outside the camp and go out there, <sup>13</sup>and you shall have a <sup>a</sup>spade among your tools, and it shall be when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and shall turn <sup>b</sup>to cover up your excrement.

<sup>14</sup>Since the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp to deliver you and to <sup>c</sup>defeat your enemies before you, therefore your camp must be holy; and He must not see <sup>d</sup>anything indecent among you <sup>b</sup>or He will turn away from you. 15 “You shall not hand over to his master a slave who has <sup>a</sup>escaped from his master to you. <sup>16</sup>He shall live with you in your midst, in the place which he shall choose in one of your <sup>b</sup>towns where it pleases him; you shall not mistreat him. [<sup>15</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit delivered himself <sup>16</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit gates]

17 “None of the daughters of Israel shall be a cult prostitute, nor shall any of the sons of Israel be a cult prostitute. <sup>18</sup>You shall not bring the hire of a harlot or the wages of a <sup>a</sup>dog into the house of the LORD your God for any votive offering, for both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God. [<sup>18</sup> <sup>a</sup>I.e. male prostitute, sodomite]

19 “You shall not charge interest to your <sup>a</sup>countrymen: interest on money, food, or anything that may be loaned at interest. <sup>20</sup>You may charge interest to a foreigner, but to your <sup>a</sup>countrymen you shall not charge interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all <sup>b</sup>that you undertake in the land which you are about to enter to <sup>c</sup>possess. [<sup>19</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit brother <sup>20</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit the putting forth of your hand <sup>c</sup>Lit possess it]

21 “When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not delay to pay it, for it would be sin in you, <sup>a</sup>and the LORD your God will surely require it of you. <sup>22</sup>However, if you refrain from vowing, it would not be sin in you. <sup>23</sup>You shall be careful to perform what goes out from your lips, just as you have voluntarily vowed to the LORD your God, what you have <sup>b</sup>promised. [<sup>21</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit for <sup>23</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit spoken with your mouth]

24 “When you enter your neighbor’s vineyard, then you may eat grapes <sup>a</sup>until you are fully satisfied, but you shall not put any in your <sup>b</sup>basket. [<sup>24</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit according to your satisfaction of your soul <sup>b</sup>Or vessel]

25 “When you enter your neighbor’s standing grain, then you may pluck the heads with your hand, but you shall not wield a sickle in your neighbor’s standing grain.

Law of Divorce 1 “When a man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens <sup>a</sup>that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some indecency in her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her out from his house, <sup>2</sup>and she leaves his house and goes and becomes another man’s wife, <sup>3</sup>and if the latter husband <sup>b</sup>turns against her and writes her a certificate of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies who took her to be his wife, <sup>4</sup>then her former husband who sent her away is not allowed to take her again to be his wife, since she has been defiled; for that is an abomination before the LORD, and you shall not bring sin on the land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit if 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit hates her]

5 “When a man takes a new wife, he shall not go out with the army nor be charged with any duty; he shall be free at home one year and shall give happiness to his wife whom he has taken.

Sundry Laws 6 “No one shall take a handmill or an upper millstone in pledge, for he would be taking a life in pledge.

7 “If a man is <sup>a</sup>caught kidnapping any of his <sup>b</sup>countrymen of the sons of Israel, and he deals with him violently or sells him, then that thief shall die; so you shall purge the evil from among you. [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit found stealing <sup>b</sup>Lit brothers]

8 “Be careful against <sup>a</sup>an infection of leprosy, that you diligently observe and do according to all that the Levitical priests teach you; as I have commanded them, so you shall be careful to do. <sup>9</sup>Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on the way as you came out of Egypt. [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit a mark or stroke]

10 “When you make your neighbor a loan of any sort, you shall not enter his house to take his pledge. <sup>11</sup>You shall remain outside, and the man to whom you make the loan shall bring the pledge out to you. <sup>12</sup>If he is a poor man, you shall not sleep with his pledge. <sup>13</sup>When the sun goes down you shall surely return the pledge to him, that he may sleep in his cloak and bless you; and it will be righteousness for you before the LORD your God.

17 “You shall not pervert the justice <sup>a</sup>due an alien or <sup>b</sup>an orphan, nor take a widow’s garment in pledge. <sup>18</sup>But you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and that the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing. [17 <sup>a</sup>Lit of <sup>b</sup>Or the fatherless]

19 “When you reap your harvest in your field and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it; it shall be for the alien, for the <sup>a</sup>orphan, and for the widow, in order that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. <sup>20</sup>When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs <sup>b</sup>again; it shall be for the alien, for the <sup>a</sup>orphan, and for the widow. [19 <sup>a</sup>Or fatherless 20 <sup>b</sup>Lit after yourself]

21 “When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not <sup>a</sup>go over it again; it shall be for the alien, for the <sup>b</sup>orphan, and for the widow. <sup>22</sup>You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt;

Offering First Fruits

1 “Then it shall be, when you enter the land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, and you possess it and live in it, <sup>2</sup>that you shall take some of the first of all the produce of the ground which you bring in from your land that the LORD your God gives you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to establish His name. <sup>3</sup>You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time and say to him, ‘I declare this day to the LORD <sup>a</sup>my God that I have entered the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.’ <sup>4</sup>Then the priest shall take the basket from your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>You shall answer and say before the LORD your God, ‘My father was a <sup>b</sup>wandering Aramean, and he went down to Egypt and <sup>c</sup>sojourned there, few in number; but there he became a great, mighty and populous nation. <sup>6</sup>And the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, and imposed hard labor on us. <sup>7</sup>Then we cried to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction and our toil and our oppression; <sup>8</sup>and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with great terror and with signs and wonders; <sup>9</sup>and He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup>Now behold, I have brought the first of the produce of the ground which You, O LORD have given me.’ And you shall set it down before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God; <sup>11</sup>and you and the Levite and the alien who is among you shall rejoice in all the good which the LORD your God has given you and your household. [3 <sup>a</sup>So with Gr; Heb your <sup>5</sup> <sup>b</sup>Or perishing <sup>c</sup>Or lived as an alien]

12 “When you have finished <sup>a</sup>paying all the tithe of your increase in the third year, the year of tithing, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the stranger, to the <sup>b</sup>orphan and to the widow, that they may eat in your <sup>c</sup>towns and be satisfied. <sup>13</sup>You shall say before the LORD your God, ‘I have removed the sacred portion from my house, and also have given it to the Levite and the alien, the <sup>b</sup>orphan and the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me; I have not transgressed or forgotten any of Your commandments. <sup>14</sup>I have not eaten of it <sup>d</sup>while mourning, nor have I removed any of it while I was unclean, nor offered any of it to the dead. I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God; I have done according to all that You have commanded me. <sup>15</sup>Look down from Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel, and the ground which You have given us, a land flowing with milk and honey, as You swore to our fathers.’ [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit tithing <sup>b</sup>Or fatherless <sup>c</sup>Lit gates 14 <sup>d</sup>Lit while in my]

16 “This day the LORD your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances. You shall therefore be careful to do them with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>17</sup>You have today declared the LORD to be your God, and <sup>a</sup>that you would walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments and His ordinances, and listen to His voice. <sup>18</sup>The LORD has today declared you to be His people, a treasured possession, as He promised you, and <sup>b</sup>that you should keep all His commandments; <sup>19</sup>and <sup>c</sup>that He will set you high above all nations which He has made, for praise, fame, and honor; and that you shall be a consecrated people to the LORD your God, as He has spoken.” [17 <sup>a</sup>Lit to walk in 18 <sup>b</sup>Lit to keep all 19 <sup>c</sup>Lit to set you]

The Curses of Mount Ebal 1 Then Moses and the elders of Israel charged the people, saying, “Keep all the commandments which I command you today. 2So it shall be on the day when you cross the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God gives you, that you shall set up for yourself large stones and coat them with lime 3and write on them all the words of this law, when you cross over, so that you may enter the land which the LORD your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, <sup>a</sup>promised you. 4So it shall be when you cross the Jordan, you shall set up on Mount Ebal, these stones, <sup>b</sup>as I am commanding you today, and you shall coat them with lime. 5Moreover, you shall build there an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones; you shall not <sup>c</sup>wield an iron tool on them. 6You shall build the altar of the LORD your God of <sup>d</sup>uncut stones, and you shall offer on it burnt offerings to the LORD your God; 7and you shall sacrifice peace offerings and eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God. 8You shall write on the <sup>e</sup>stones all the words of this law very distinctly.” [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit spoke to 4 <sup>b</sup>Lit which 5 <sup>c</sup>Lit lift up 6 <sup>d</sup>Lit whole 8 <sup>e</sup>I.e. stones coated with lime, cf v 4]

9 Then Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, saying, “Be silent and listen, O Israel! This day you have become a people for the LORD your God. 10You shall therefore <sup>a</sup>obey the LORD your God, and do His commandments and His statutes which I command you today.” [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit listen to the voice of]

11 Moses also charged the people on that day, saying, <sup>12</sup>“When you cross the Jordan, these shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. <sup>13</sup>For the curse, these shall stand on Mount Ebal: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup>The Levites shall then answer and say to all the men of Israel with a loud voice,

15 'Cursed is the man who makes <sup>a</sup>an idol or a molten image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets it up in secret.' And all the people shall answer and say, 'Amen.' [15

16 'Cursed is he who dishonors his father or mother.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

17 'Cursed is he who moves his neighbor's boundary mark.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

18 'Cursed is he who misleads a blind person on the road.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

19 'Cursed is he who distorts the justice due an alien, <sup>a</sup>orphan, and widow.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.' [19 <sup>a</sup>Or fatherless]

20 'Cursed is he who lies with his father's wife, because he has uncovered his father's skirt.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

21 'Cursed is he who lies with any animal.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

22 'Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or of his mother.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

23 'Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

24 'Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor in secret.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

25 'Cursed is he who accepts a bribe to strike down an innocent person.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

26 'Cursed is he who does not confirm the words of this law by doing them.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.'

Blessings at Gerizim

1 “Now it shall be, if you diligently <sup>a</sup>obey the LORD your God, being careful to do all His commandments which I command you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. <sup>2</sup>All these blessings will come upon you and overtake you if you <sup>a</sup>obey the LORD your God: [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit listen to the voice of]

5 “Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.

6 “Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.

7 “The LORD shall cause your enemies who rise up against you to be <sup>a</sup>defeated before you; they will come out against you one way and will flee before you seven ways. <sup>8</sup>The LORD will command the blessing upon you in your barns and in all that you put your hand to, and He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>9</sup>The LORD will establish you as a holy people to Himself, as He swore to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways. <sup>10</sup>So all the peoples of the earth will see that <sup>b</sup>you are called by the name of the LORD, and they will be afraid of you. <sup>11</sup>The LORD will make you abound in prosperity, in the <sup>c</sup>offspring of your <sup>d</sup>body and in the <sup>c</sup>offspring of your beast and in the <sup>c</sup>produce of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will open for you His good storehouse, the heavens, to give rain to your land in its season and to bless all the work of your hand; and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. <sup>13</sup>The LORD will make you the head and not the tail, and you only will be above, and you will not be underneath, if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I charge you today, to <sup>e</sup>observe them carefully, <sup>14</sup>and do not turn aside from any of the words which I command you today, to the right or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them. ### Consequences of Disobedience

15 “But it shall come about, if you do not <sup>a</sup>obey the LORD your God, to observe to do all His commandments and His statutes with which I charge you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you: [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit listen to the voice of]

19 “Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

20 “The LORD will send upon you curses, confusion, and rebuke, in all <sup>a</sup>you undertake to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, on account of the evil of your deeds, because you have forsaken Me. <sup>21</sup>The LORD will make the pestilence cling to you until He has consumed you from the land where you are entering to possess it. <sup>22</sup>The LORD will smite you with consumption and with fever and with inflammation and with fiery heat and with <sup>b</sup>the sword and with blight and with mildew, and they will pursue you until you perish. <sup>23c</sup>The heaven which is over your head shall be bronze, and the earth which is under you, iron. <sup>24</sup>The LORD will make the rain of your land powder and dust; from heaven it shall come down on you until you are destroyed. [20 <sup>a</sup>Lit the putting forth of your hand which you do 22 <sup>b</sup>Another reading is drought 23 <sup>c</sup>Lit Your]

25 “The LORD shall cause you to be <sup>a</sup>defeated before your enemies; you will go out one way against them, but you will flee seven ways before them, and you will be an example of terror to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>26</sup>Your carcasses will be food to all birds of the sky and to the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away. [25 <sup>a</sup>Lit smitten]

27 “The LORD will smite you with the boils of Egypt and with tumors and with the scab and with the itch, from which you cannot be healed. <sup>28</sup>The LORD will smite you with madness and with blindness and with bewilderment of heart; <sup>29</sup>and you will <sup>a</sup>grope at noon, as the blind man gropes in darkness, and you will not prosper in your ways; but you shall only be oppressed and robbed continually, with none to save you. <sup>30</sup>You shall betroth a wife, but another man will violate her; you shall build a house, but you will not live in it; you shall plant a vineyard, but you will not <sup>b</sup>use its fruit. <sup>31</sup>Your ox shall be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will not eat of it; your donkey shall be torn away from you, and will not be restored to you; your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you will have none to save you. <sup>32</sup>Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people, while your eyes look on and yearn for them continually; but there will be nothing <sup>c</sup>you can do. <sup>33</sup>A people whom you do not know shall eat up the produce of your ground and all your labors, and you will never be anything but oppressed and crushed continually. <sup>34</sup>You shall be driven mad by the sight of <sup>d</sup>what you see. <sup>35</sup>The LORD will strike you on the knees and legs with sore boils, from which you cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head. <sup>36</sup>The LORD will bring you and your king, whom you set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone. <sup>37</sup>You shall become a horror, a proverb, and a taunt among all the people where the LORD drives you. [29 <sup>a</sup>Lit be groping 30 <sup>b</sup>Lit begin it 32 <sup>c</sup>Lit in the power of your hand 34 <sup>d</sup>Lit your eyes which you]

38 “You shall bring out much seed to the field but you will gather in little, for the locust will consume it. 39You shall plant and cultivate vineyards, but you will neither drink of the wine nor gather the grapes, for the worm will devour them. 40You shall have olive trees throughout your territory but you will not anoint yourself with the oil, for your olives will drop off. 41You shall <sup>a</sup>have sons and daughters but they will not be yours, for they will go into captivity. 42The cricket shall possess all your trees and the produce of your ground. 43The alien who is among you shall rise above you higher and higher, but you will go down lower and lower. 44He shall lend to you, but you will not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you will be the tail. [41 <sup>a</sup>Lit beget]

45 “So all these curses shall come on you and pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you would not <sup>a</sup>obey the LORD your God by keeping His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you. 46They shall become a sign and a wonder on you and your <sup>b</sup>descendants forever. 47 “Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joy and a glad heart, for the abundance of all things; 48therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in the lack of all things; and He will put an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you.

49 “The LORD will bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as the eagle swoops down, a nation whose language you shall not understand, 50a nation of fierce countenance who will have no respect for the old, nor show favor to the young. 51Moreover, it shall eat the <sup>a</sup>offspring of your herd and the produce of your ground until you are destroyed, who also leaves you no grain, new wine, or oil, nor the increase of your herd or the young of your flock until they have caused you to perish. 52It shall besiege you in all your <sup>b</sup>towns until your high and fortified walls in which you trusted come down throughout your land, and it shall besiege you in all your <sup>b</sup>towns throughout your land which the LORD your God has given you. 53Then you shall eat the <sup>a</sup>offspring of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters whom the LORD your God has given you, during the siege and the distress by which your enemy will <sup>c</sup>oppress you. <sup>54</sup>The man who is <sup>d</sup>refined and very delicate among you <sup>e</sup>shall be hostile toward his brother and toward the wife <sup>f</sup>he cherishes and toward the rest of his children who remain, <sup>55</sup>so that he will not give even one of them any of the flesh of his children which he will eat, since he has nothing else left, during the siege and the distress by which your enemy will <sup>c</sup>oppress you in all your <sup>b</sup>towns. <sup>56</sup>The <sup>d</sup>refined and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and <sup>g</sup>refinement, <sup>h</sup>shall be hostile toward the husband <sup>i</sup>she cherishes and toward her son and daughter, <sup>57</sup>and toward her afterbirth which issues from between her <sup>j</sup>legs and toward her children whom she bears; for she will eat them secretly for lack of anything else, during the siege and the distress by which your enemy will <sup>c</sup>oppress you in your <sup>b</sup>towns. <sup>58</sup> “If you are not careful to observe all the words of this law which are written in this book, to <sup>a</sup>fear this honored and awesome name, <sup>b</sup>the LORD your God, <sup>59</sup>then the LORD will bring extraordinary plagues on you and <sup>c</sup>your descendants, even <sup>d</sup>severe and lasting plagues, and miserable and chronic sicknesses. <sup>60</sup>He will bring back on you all the diseases of Egypt of which you were afraid, and they will cling to you. <sup>61</sup>Also every sickness and every plague which, not written in the book of this law, the LORD will bring on you until you are destroyed. <sup>62</sup>Then you shall be left few in number, whereas you were as numerous as the stars of heaven, because you did not <sup>e</sup>obey the LORD your God. <sup>63</sup>It shall come about that as the LORD delighted over you to prosper you, and multiply you, so the LORD will delight over you to make you perish and destroy you; and you will be torn from the land where you are entering to possess it. <sup>64</sup>Moreover, the LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth; and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone, which you or your fathers have not known. <sup>65</sup>Among those nations you shall find no rest, and there will be no resting place for the sole of your foot; but there the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing of eyes, and despair of soul. <sup>66</sup>So your life shall <sup>f</sup>hang in doubt before you; and you will be in dread night and day, and shall have no assurance of your life. <sup>67</sup>In the morning you shall say,

The Covenant in Moab

1 <sup>a</sup>These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He had made with them at Horeb. [1 <sup>a</sup>Ch 28:69 in Heb]

2 <sup>a</sup>And Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, “You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh and all his servants and all his land; <sup>3</sup>the great trials which your eyes have seen, those great signs and wonders. <sup>4</sup>Yet to this day the LORD has not given you a heart to know, nor eyes to see, nor ears to hear. <sup>5</sup>I have led you forty years in the wilderness; your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandal has not worn out on your foot. <sup>6</sup>You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or strong drink, in order that you might know that I am the LORD your God. <sup>7</sup>When you <sup>b</sup>reached this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon and Og the king of Bashan came out to meet us for battle, but we <sup>c</sup>defeated them; <sup>8</sup>and we took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites. <sup>9</sup>So keep the words of this covenant to do them, that you may prosper in all that you do. [2 <sup>a</sup>Ch 29:1 in Heb 7 <sup>b</sup>Lit came to <sup>c</sup>Lit smote]

10 “You stand today, all of you, before the LORD your God: your chiefs, your tribes, your elders and your officers, even all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup>your little ones, your wives, and the alien who is within your camps, from the one who chops your wood to the one who draws your water, <sup>12</sup>that you may enter into the covenant with the LORD your God, and into His oath which the LORD your God is making with you today, <sup>13</sup>in order that He may establish you today as His people and that He may be your God, just as He spoke to you and as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

14 “Now not with you alone am I making this covenant and this oath, <sup>15</sup>but both with those who stand here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God and with those who are not with us here today <sup>16</sup>(for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed; <sup>17</sup>moreover, you have seen their abominations and their idols of wood, stone, silver, and gold, which they had with them); <sup>18</sup>so that there will not be among you a man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of those nations; that there will not be among you a root bearing poisonous fruit and wormwood. <sup>19</sup>It shall be when he hears the words of this curse, that he will <sup>a</sup>boast, saying, ‘I have peace though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart in order <sup>b</sup>to destroy the watered land with the dry.’ <sup>20</sup>The LORD shall never be willing to forgive him, but rather the anger of the LORD and His jealousy will <sup>c</sup>burn against that man, and every curse which is written in this book will <sup>d</sup>rest on him, and the LORD will blot out his name from under heaven. <sup>21</sup>Then the LORD will single him out for <sup>e</sup>adversity from all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant which are written in this book of the law. [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit bless himself in his heart <sup>b</sup>I.e. to destroy everything 20 <sup>c</sup>Lit smoke <sup>d</sup>Lit lie down 21 <sup>e</sup>Lit evil]

22 “Now the generation to come, your sons who rise up after you and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, when they see the plagues of the land and the diseases with which the LORD has <sup>a</sup>afflicted it, will say, <sup>23</sup>‘All its land is brimstone and salt, a burning waste, <sup>b</sup>unsown and unproductive, and no grass grows in it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and in His wrath.’ <sup>24</sup>All the nations will say, ‘Why has the LORD done thus to this land? Why this great <sup>c</sup>outburst of anger?’ <sup>25</sup>Then men will say, ‘Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>They went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods whom they have not known and whom He had not <sup>d</sup>allotted to them. <sup>27</sup>Therefore, the anger of the LORD burned against that land, to bring upon it every curse which is written in this book; <sup>28</sup>and the LORD uprooted them from their land in anger and in fury and in great wrath, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.’ [22 <sup>a</sup>Lit made it sick 23 <sup>b</sup>Lit it is not sown and does not cause to sprout 24 <sup>c</sup>Lit heat 26 <sup>d</sup>Lit portioned]

29 “The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our sons forever, that we may observe all the words of this law.

Restoration Promised

1 “So it shall be when all of these things have come upon you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and you <sup>a</sup>call them to mind in all nations where the LORD your God has banished you, <sup>2</sup>and you return to the LORD your God and <sup>b</sup>obey Him with all your heart and soul according to all that I command you today, you and your sons, <sup>3</sup>then the LORD your God will restore <sup>c</sup>you from captivity, and have compassion on you, and will gather you again from all the peoples where the LORD your God has scattered you. <sup>4</sup>If your outcasts are at the ends of the <sup>d</sup>earth, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there He will <sup>e</sup>bring you back. <sup>5</sup>The LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it; and He will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers. 6 “Moreover the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your <sup>a</sup>descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live. <sup>7</sup>The LORD your God will <sup>b</sup>inflict all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you. <sup>8</sup>And you shall again <sup>c</sup>obey the LORD, and observe all His commandments which I command you today. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD your God will <sup>d</sup>prosper you abundantly in all the work of your hand, in the <sup>e</sup>offspring of your <sup>f</sup>body and in the <sup>e</sup>offspring of your cattle and in the <sup>e</sup>produce of your ground, for the LORD will again rejoice over you for good, just as He rejoiced over your fathers; <sup>10g</sup>if you <sup>c</sup>obey the LORD your God to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this book of the law, <sup>b</sup>if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and soul. 11 “For this commandment which I command you today is not too difficult for you, nor is it <sup>a</sup>out of reach. <sup>12</sup>It is not in heaven, <sup>b</sup>that you should say, ‘Who will go up to heaven for us to get it for us and make us hear it, that we may observe it?’ <sup>13</sup>Nor is it beyond the sea, <sup>b</sup>that you should say, ‘Who will cross the sea for us to get it for us and make us hear it, that we may observe it?’ <sup>14</sup>But the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may observe it. [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit far off 12 <sup>b</sup>Lit to say]

Choose Life

<sup>15</sup> “See, I have set before you today life and <sup>a</sup>prosperity, and death and <sup>b</sup>adversity; <sup>16</sup>in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, that you may live and multiply, and that the LORD your God may bless you in the land where you are entering to possess it. <sup>17</sup>But if your heart turns away and you will not obey, but are drawn away and worship other gods and serve them, <sup>18</sup>I declare to you today that you shall surely perish. You will not prolong your days in the land where you are crossing the Jordan to enter <sup>c</sup>and possess it. <sup>19</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. So choose life in order that you may live, you and your <sup>d</sup>descendants, <sup>20</sup>by loving the LORD your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding fast to Him; for <sup>e</sup>this is your life and the length of your days, <sup>f</sup>that you may live in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.” [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit good <sup>b</sup>Lit evil 18 <sup>c</sup>Lit to 19 <sup>d</sup>Lit seed 20 <sup>e</sup>Lit that <sup>f</sup>Lit to dwell]

Moses' Last Counsel

<sup>1</sup> So Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, “I am a hundred and twenty years old today; I am no longer able to come and go, and the LORD has said to me, ‘You shall not cross this Jordan.’ <sup>3</sup>It is the LORD your God who will cross ahead of you; He will destroy these nations before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua is the one who will cross ahead of you, just as the LORD has spoken. <sup>4</sup>The LORD will do to them just as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when He destroyed them. <sup>5</sup>The LORD will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandments which I have commanded you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid or tremble at them, for the LORD your God is the one who goes with you. He will not fail you or forsake you.”

<sup>7</sup> Then Moses called to Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you shall go with this people into the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall give it to them as an inheritance. <sup>8</sup>The LORD is the one who goes ahead of you; He will be with you. He will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed.”

<sup>9</sup> So Moses wrote this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Then Moses commanded them, saying, “At the end of every seven years, at the time of the year of remission of debts, at the Feast of Booths, <sup>11</sup>when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place which He will choose, you shall read this law in front of all Israel in their hearing. <sup>12</sup>Assemble the people, the men and the women and children and <sup>a</sup>the alien who is in your <sup>b</sup>town, so that they may hear and learn and fear the LORD your God, and be careful to observe all the words of this law. <sup>13</sup>Their children, who have not known, will hear and learn to fear the LORD your

Israel Will Fall Away

14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, <sup>a</sup>the time for you to die is near; call Joshua, and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, that I may commission him.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting. <sup>15</sup>The LORD appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood at the doorway of the tent. <sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Behold, you are about to lie down with your fathers; and this people will arise and play the harlot with the strange gods of the land, into the midst of which they are going, and will forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them. <sup>17</sup>Then My anger will be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them and hide My face from them, and they will be consumed, and many evils and troubles will come upon them; so that they will say in that day, ‘Is it not because our God is not among us that these evils have come upon us?’ <sup>18</sup>But I will surely hide My face in that day because of all the evil which they will do, for they will turn to other gods. [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit your days to die are]

19 “Now therefore, write this song for yourselves, and teach it to the sons of Israel; put it <sup>a</sup>on their lips, so that this song may be a witness for Me against the sons of Israel. <sup>20</sup>For when I bring them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I swore to their fathers, and they have eaten and are satisfied and become <sup>b</sup>prosperous, then they will turn to other gods and serve them, and spurn Me and break My covenant. <sup>21</sup>Then it shall come about, when many evils and troubles have come upon them, that this song will testify before them as a witness (for it shall not be forgotten from the <sup>c</sup>lips of their descendants); for I know their intent which they are <sup>d</sup>developing today, before I have brought them into the land which I swore.” <sup>22</sup>So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the sons of Israel. ## Joshua Is Commissioned

23 Then He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun, and said, “Be strong and courageous, for you shall bring the sons of Israel into the land which I swore to them, and I will be with you.”

24 It came about, when Moses finished writing the words of this law in a book until they were complete, <sup>25</sup>that Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, <sup>26</sup>“Take this book of the law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may <sup>a</sup>remain there as a witness against you. <sup>27</sup>For I know your rebellion and your <sup>b</sup>stubbornness; behold, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against the LORD; how much more, then, after my death? <sup>28</sup>Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call the heavens and the earth to witness against them. <sup>29</sup>For I know that after my death you will act corruptly and turn from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days, for you will do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of your hands.” [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit be 27 <sup>b</sup>Lit stiff neck]

30 Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were complete:

The Song of Moses

1 “Give ear, O heavens, and let me speak;
And let the earth hear the words of my mouth.
2“Let my teaching drop as the rain,
My speech distill as the dew,
As the droplets on the fresh grass
And as the showers on the herb.
3“For I proclaim the name of the LORD;
Ascribe greatness to our God!
4“The Rock! His work is perfect,
For all His ways are <sup>a</sup>just;
A God of faithfulness and without injustice,
Righteous and upright is He. [<sup>a</sup>Or judgment]
5“<sup>a</sup>They have acted corruptly toward Him,
They are not His children, because of their defect;
But are a perverse and crooked generation. [<sup>a</sup>Lit It has]
6“Do you thus repay the LORD,
O foolish and unwise people?
Is not He your Father who has bought you?
He has made you and established you.
7“Remember the days of old,
Consider the years of all generations.
Ask your father, and he will inform you,
Your elders, and they will tell you.
8“<sup>a</sup>When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance,
When He separated the sons of <sup>a</sup>man,
He set the boundaries of the peoples
According to the number of the sons of Israel. [<sup>a</sup>Or Adam] 9“For the LORD’S portion is His people;
Jacob is the allotment of His inheritance.
10“He found him in a desert land,
And in the howling waste of a wilderness;
He encircled him, He cared for him,

He guarded him as the pupil of His eye.

<sup>11</sup>“Like an eagle that stirs up its nest,

That hovers over its young,

He spread His wings and caught them,

He carried them on His pinions.

<sup>12</sup>“The LORD alone guided him,

And there was no foreign god with him.

<sup>13</sup>“He made him ride on the high places of the earth,

And he ate the produce of the field;

And He made him suck honey from the rock,

And oil from the flinty rock,

<sup>14</sup>Curds of cows, and milk of the flock,

With fat of lambs,

And rams, the breed of Bashan, and goats,

With the finest of the wheat—

You are grown fat, thick, and sleek—

Then he forsook God who made him,

<sup>16</sup>“They made Him jealous with strange gods;

With abominations they provoked Him to anger.

<sup>17</sup>“They sacrificed to demons who were not God,

To gods whom they have not known,

New gods who came lately,

Whom your fathers did not dread.

<sup>18</sup>“You neglected the Rock who begot you,

Because of the provocation of His sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup>“Then He said, ‘I will hide My face from them,

I will see what their end shall be;

For they are a perverse generation,

Sons in whom is no faithfulness.

<sup>21</sup>“They have made Me jealous with what is not God;

44 Then Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he, with <sup>a</sup>Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>45</sup>When Moses had finished speaking all these words to all Israel, <sup>46</sup>he said to them, “Take to your heart all the words with which I am warning you today, which you shall command your sons to observe <sup>b</sup>carefully, even all the words of this law. <sup>47</sup>For it is not an idle word for you; indeed it is your life. 48 The LORD spoke to Moses that very same day, saying, <sup>49</sup>“Go up to this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab <sup>a</sup>opposite Jericho, and look at the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel for a possession. <sup>50</sup>Then die on the mountain where you ascend, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people, <sup>51</sup>because you broke faith with Me in the midst of the sons of Israel at the waters of Meribah-kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin, because you did not treat Me as holy in the midst of the sons of Israel. <sup>52</sup>For you shall see the land at a distance, but you shall not go there, into the land which I am giving the sons of Israel.” [49 <sup>a</sup>Lit which is opposite]

The Blessing of Moses 1 Now this is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the sons of Israel before his death. 2He said, “The LORD came from Sinai, And <sup>a</sup>dawned on them from Seir; He shone forth from Mount Paran, And He came from the <sup>b</sup>midst of ten thousand holy ones; At His right hand there was <sup>c</sup>flashing lightning for them. With his hands he contended for <sup>a</sup>them, And may You be a help against his adversaries.” [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit him]

8 Of Levi he said, “Let Your Thummim and Your Urim belong to <sup>a</sup>Your godly man, Whom You proved at Massah, With whom You contended at the waters of Meribah; [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit him]

11“O LORD, bless his substance, And accept the work of his hands; Shatter the loins of those who rise up against him, And those who hate him, so that they will not rise again.”

12 Of Benjamin he said, “May the beloved of the LORD dwell in security by Him, Who shields him all the day, And he dwells between His shoulders.”

13 Of Joseph he said, “Blessed of the LORD be his land, With the choice things of heaven, with the dew, And from the deep lying beneath, <sup>14</sup>And with the choice yield of the sun, And with the choice produce of the months.

18 Of Zebulun he said, “Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going forth, And, Issachar, in your tents.

20 Of Gad he said, “Blessed is the one who enlarges Gad; He lies down as a <sup>a</sup>lion, And tears the arm, also the crown of the head. [<sup>20</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or lioness]

22 Of Dan he said, “Dan is a lion’s whelp, That leaps forth from Bashan.”

23 Of Naphtali he said, “O Naphtali, satisfied with favor, And full of the blessing of the LORD, Take possession of the sea and the south.”

24 Of Asher he said, “More blessed than sons is Asher; May he be favored by his brothers, And may he dip his foot in oil.

25“Your locks will be iron and bronze, And according to your days, so will your leisurely walk be.

27“The eternal God is a <sup>a</sup>dwelling place, And underneath are the everlasting arms; And He drove out the enemy from before you, And said, ‘Destroy!’ [<sup>a</sup>Or refuge]

28“So Israel dwells in security, The fountain of Jacob secluded, In a land of grain and new wine; His heavens also drop down dew.

29“Blessed are you, O Israel; Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, Who is the shield of your help And the sword of your majesty!

So your enemies will cringe before you, And you will tread upon their high places.”

The Death of Moses

1 Now Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land, Gilead as far as Dan, <sup>2</sup>and all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah as far as the <sup>a</sup>western sea, <sup>3</sup>and the <sup>b</sup>Negev and the plain in the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar. <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to him, “This is the land which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your <sup>c</sup>descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there.” <sup>5</sup>So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the <sup>d</sup>word of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>And He buried him in the valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor; but no man knows his burial place to this day. <sup>7</sup>Although Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died, his eye was not dim, nor his vigor abated. <sup>8</sup>So the sons of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses came to an end. 9 Now Joshua the son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him; and the sons of Israel listened to him and did as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>10</sup>Since that time no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, <sup>11</sup>for all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt against Pharaoh, all his servants, and all his land, <sup>12</sup>and for all the mighty <sup>a</sup>power and for all the great terror which Moses performed in the sight of all Israel. ### God's Charge to Joshua

1 Now it came about after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' <sup>a</sup>servant, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Moses My servant is dead; now therefore arise, cross this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Every place on which the sole of your foot treads, I have given it to you, just as I spoke to Moses. <sup>4</sup>From the wilderness and this Lebanon, even as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and as far as the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun will be your territory. <sup>5</sup>No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and courageous, for you shall give this people possession of the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. <sup>7</sup>Only be strong and very courageous; <sup>b</sup>be careful to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may <sup>c</sup>have success wherever you go. <sup>8</sup>This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may <sup>b</sup>be careful to do according to all that is written in it; for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will <sup>c</sup>have success. <sup>9</sup>Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not tremble or be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Or minister 7 <sup>b</sup>Lit observe <sup>c</sup>Or act wisely]

Joshua Assumes Command

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, <sup>11</sup>“Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you are to cross this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, to possess it.’ ”

12 To the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua <sup>a</sup>said, <sup>13</sup>“Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God gives you rest and will give you this land.’ <sup>14</sup>Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan, but you shall cross before your brothers in battle array, all your valiant warriors, and shall help them, <sup>15</sup>until the LORD gives your brothers rest, as He gives you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to <sup>b</sup>your own land, and possess <sup>c</sup>that which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.” [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit said, saying 15 <sup>b</sup>Lit the land of your possession <sup>c</sup>Lit it]

16 They answered Joshua, saying, “All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. <sup>17</sup>Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you; only may the LORD your God be with you as He was with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Anyone who rebels against your <sup>a</sup>command and does not obey your words in all that you command him, shall be put to death; only be strong and courageous.” [18 <sup>a</sup>Lit mouth]

Rahab Shelters Spies

1 Then Joshua the son of Nun sent two men as spies secretly from Shittim, saying, “Go, view the land, especially Jericho.” So they went and came into the house of a harlot whose name was Rahab, and <sup>a</sup>lodged there. <sup>2</sup>It was told the king of Jericho, saying, “Behold, men from the sons of Israel have come here tonight to search out the land.” <sup>3</sup>And the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the land.” <sup>4</sup>But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them, and she said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from. <sup>5</sup>It came about when it was time to shut the gate at dark, that the men went out; I do not know where the men went. Pursue them quickly, for you will overtake them.” <sup>6</sup>But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them in the stalks of flax which she had laid in order on the roof. <sup>7</sup>So the men pursued them on the road to the Jordan to the fords; and as soon as those who were pursuing them had gone out, they shut the gate. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit lay down]

8 Now before they lay down, <sup>a</sup>she came up to them on the roof, <sup>9</sup>and said to the men, “I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the terror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have <sup>b</sup>melted away before you. <sup>10</sup>For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the <sup>c</sup>Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you <sup>d</sup>utterly destroyed. <sup>11</sup>When we heard it, our hearts melted and no <sup>e</sup>courage remained in any man any longer because of you; for the LORD your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, please swear to me by the LORD, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father’s household, and give me a pledge of <sup>f</sup>truth, <sup>13</sup>and <sup>g</sup>spare my father and my mother and my brothers and my sisters, with all who belong to them, and deliver our <sup>h</sup>lives from death.” <sup>14</sup>So the men said to her, “Our <sup>i</sup>life <sup>j</sup>for yours if you do not tell this business of ours; and it shall come about when the LORD gives us the land that we will deal kindly and <sup>k</sup>faithfully with you.” [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit then she 9 <sup>b</sup>Or become demoralized 10 <sup>c</sup>Lit Sea of Reeds <sup>d</sup>Or put under the ban 11 <sup>e</sup>Lit spirit arose 12 <sup>f</sup>Or faithfulness 13 <sup>g</sup>Lit let live <sup>h</sup>Lit souls 14 <sup>i</sup>Lit soul <sup>j</sup>Lit instead of you to die <sup>k</sup>Or truly]

The Promise to Rahab

15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the city wall, so that she was living on the wall. 16 She said to them, “Go to the hill country, so that the pursuers will not happen upon you, and hide yourselves there for three days until the pursuers return. Then afterward you may go on your way.” 17 The men said to her, “We shall be free from this oath <sup>a</sup>to you which you have made us swear, <sup>18b</sup>unless, when we come into the land, you tie this cord of scarlet thread in the window through which you let us down, and gather to yourself into the house your father and your mother and your brothers and all your father’s household. 19 It shall come about that anyone who goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be on his own head, and we shall be free; but anyone who is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head if a hand is laid on him. 20 But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be free from the oath which you have made us swear.” 21 She said, “According to your words, so be it.” So she sent them away, and they departed; and she tied the scarlet cord in the window. 22 They departed and came to the hill country, and remained there for three days until the pursuers returned. ### Israel Crosses the Jordan

1 Then Joshua rose early in the morning; and he and all the sons of Israel set out from Shittim and came to the Jordan, and they lodged there before they crossed. <sup>2</sup>At the end of three days the officers went through the midst of the camp; <sup>3</sup>and they commanded the people, saying, “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God with the Levitical priests carrying it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it. <sup>4</sup>However, there shall be between you and it a distance of about 2,000 <sup>a</sup>cubits by measure. Do not come near it, that you may know the way by which you shall go, for you have not passed this way before.” [4 <sup>a</sup>I.e. One cubit equals approx 18 in.]

5 Then Joshua said to the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you.” <sup>6</sup>And Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, “Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over ahead of the people.” So they took up the ark of the covenant and went ahead of the people.

7 Now the LORD said to Joshua, “This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you. <sup>8</sup>You shall, moreover, command the priests who are carrying the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.’ ” <sup>9</sup>Then Joshua said to the sons of Israel, “Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God.” <sup>10</sup>Joshua said, “By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will assuredly dispossess from before you the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Hivite, the Perizzite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, and the Jebusite. <sup>11</sup>Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is crossing over ahead of you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup>Now then, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe. <sup>13</sup>It shall come about when the soles of the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, and the waters which are <sup>a</sup>flowing down from above <sup>b</sup>will stand in one heap.” [13 <sup>a</sup>Lit going <sup>b</sup>Lit and they will]

14 So when the people set out from their tents to cross the Jordan with the priests carrying the ark of the covenant before the people, <sup>15</sup>and when those who carried the ark came into the Jordan, and the feet of the priests carrying the ark were dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the days of harvest), <sup>16</sup>the waters which were <sup>a</sup>flowing down from above stood and rose up in one heap, a great distance away at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those which were <sup>a</sup>flowing down toward the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. So the people crossed opposite Jericho. <sup>17</sup>And the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan while all Israel crossed on dry ground, until all the nation had finished crossing the Jordan. ### Memorial Stones from Jordan

1 Now when all the nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe, <sup>3</sup>and command them, saying, ‘Take up for yourselves twelve stones from here out of the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests’ feet are standing firm, and carry them over with you and lay them down in the lodging place where you will lodge tonight.’ ” <sup>4</sup>So Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man from each tribe; <sup>5</sup>and Joshua said to them, “<sup>a</sup>Cross again to the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel. <sup>6b</sup>Let this be a sign among you, so that when your children ask <sup>c</sup>later, saying, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’ <sup>7</sup>then you shall say to them, ‘Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off.’ So these stones shall become a memorial to the sons of Israel forever.” [5 <sup>a</sup>Lit Cross before the ark 6 <sup>b</sup>Lit That this may be <sup>c</sup>Lit tomorrow]

8 Thus the sons of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as the LORD spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel; and they carried them over with them to the lodging place and put them down there. <sup>9</sup>Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan at the place where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant were standing, and they are there to this day. <sup>10</sup>For the priests who carried the ark were standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was completed that the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and crossed; <sup>11</sup>and when all the people had finished crossing, the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed before the people. <sup>12</sup>The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over in battle array before the sons of Israel, just as Moses had spoken to them; <sup>13</sup>about 40,000 equipped for war, crossed for battle before the LORD to the desert plains of Jericho.

15 Now the LORD said to <sup>a</sup>Joshua, <sup>16</sup>“Command the priests who carry the ark of the testimony that they come up from the Jordan.” <sup>17</sup>So Joshua commanded the priests, saying, “Come up from the Jordan.” <sup>18</sup>It came about when the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come up from the middle of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests’ feet were <sup>b</sup>lifted up to the dry ground, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and went over all its banks as before. 19 Now the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth of the first month and camped at Gilgal on the eastern edge of Jericho. <sup>20a</sup>Those twelve stones which they had taken from the Jordan, Joshua set up at Gilgal. <sup>21</sup>He said to the sons of <sup>b</sup>Israel, “When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, ‘What are these stones?’ <sup>22</sup>then you shall inform your children, saying, ‘Israel crossed this Jordan on dry ground.’ <sup>23</sup>For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed, just as the LORD your God had done to the <sup>c</sup>Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed; <sup>24</sup>that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty, so that you may <sup>d</sup>fear the LORD your God <sup>e</sup>forever.” [20 <sup>a</sup>Lit these 21 <sup>b</sup>Lit Israel, saying, 23 <sup>c</sup>Lit Sea of Reeds 24 <sup>d</sup>Or reverence <sup>e</sup>Lit all the days]

Israel Is Circumcised

1 Now it came about when all the kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea, heard how the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the sons of Israel until <sup>a</sup>they had crossed, that their hearts melted, and there was no spirit in them any longer because of the sons of Israel. [1 <sup>a</sup>Other mss read we]

2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make for yourself flint knives and circumcise again the sons of Israel the second time.” <sup>3</sup>So Joshua made himself flint knives and circumcised the sons of Israel at <sup>a</sup>Gibeath-haaraloth. <sup>4</sup>This is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the people who came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, died in the wilderness along the way after they came out of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>For all the people who came out were circumcised, but all the people who were born in the wilderness along the way as they came out of Egypt had not been circumcised. <sup>6</sup>For the sons of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, that is, the men of war who came out of Egypt, <sup>b</sup>perished because they did not listen to the voice of the LORD, to whom the LORD had sworn that He would not let them see the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>7</sup>Their children whom He raised up in their place, Joshua <sup>c</sup>circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them along the way. [3 <sup>a</sup>I.e. the hill of the foreskins 6 <sup>b</sup>Lit were finished 7 <sup>c</sup>Lit circumcised them]

8 Now when they had finished circumcising all the nation, they remained in their places in the camp until they were <sup>a</sup>healed. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.” So the name of that place is called <sup>b</sup>Gilgal to this day. [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit revived 9 <sup>b</sup>I.e. rolling]

10 While the sons of Israel camped at Gilgal they observed the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month on the desert plains of Jericho. <sup>11</sup>On the <sup>a</sup>day after the Passover, on <sup>b</sup>that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain. <sup>12</sup>The manna ceased on the <sup>a</sup>day after they had eaten some of the produce of the land, so that the sons of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate some of the yield of the land of Canaan during that year. [<sup>11</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit morrow <sup>b</sup>Lit this]

13 Now it came about when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was standing opposite him with his sword drawn in his hand, and Joshua went to him and said to him, “Are you for us or for our adversaries?” <sup>14</sup>He said, “No; rather I indeed come now as captain of the host of the LORD.” And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and bowed down, and said to him, “What has my lord to say to his servant?” <sup>15</sup>The captain of the LORD’s host said to Joshua, “Remove your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy.” And Joshua did so.

The Conquest of Jericho

1 Now Jericho was tightly shut because of the sons of Israel; no one went out and no one came in. <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, “See, I have given Jericho into your hand, with its king and the valiant warriors. <sup>3</sup>You shall march around the city, all the men of war circling the city once. You shall do so for six days. <sup>4</sup>Also seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark; then on the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. <sup>5</sup>It shall be that when they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down <sup>a</sup>flat, and the people will go up every man <sup>b</sup>straight ahead.” [5 <sup>a</sup>Lit in its place <sup>b</sup>Lit before himself]

6 So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD.” <sup>7</sup>Then <sup>a</sup>he said to the people, “Go forward, and march around the city, and let the armed men go on before the ark of the LORD.” <sup>8</sup>And it was so, that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the LORD went forward and blew the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. <sup>9</sup>The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while they continued to blow the trumpets. <sup>10</sup>But Joshua commanded the people, saying, “You shall not shout nor let your voice be heard nor let a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I tell you, ‘Shout!’ Then you shall shout!” <sup>11</sup>So he had the ark of the LORD <sup>b</sup>taken around the city, circling it once; then they came into the camp and spent the night in the camp. [7 <sup>a</sup>Or they 11 <sup>b</sup>Lit to go around]

before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew the trumpets; and the armed men went before them and the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while they continued to blow the trumpets. <sup>14</sup>Thus the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp; they did so for six days.

<sup>15</sup> Then on the seventh day they rose early at the dawning of the day and marched around the city in the same manner seven times; only on that day they marched around the city seven times. <sup>16</sup>At the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, “Shout! For the LORD has given you the city. <sup>17</sup>The city shall be under the ban, it and all that is in it belongs to the LORD; only Rahab the harlot <sup>a</sup>and all who are with her in the house shall live, because she hid the messengers whom we sent. <sup>18</sup>But as for you, only keep yourselves from the things under the ban, so that you do not <sup>b</sup>covet them and take some of the things under the ban, and make the camp of Israel accursed and bring trouble on it. <sup>19</sup>But all the silver and gold and articles of bronze and iron are holy to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD.” <sup>20</sup>So the people shouted, and <sup>c</sup>priests blew the trumpets; and when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people shouted with a great shout and the wall fell down <sup>d</sup>flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight <sup>e</sup>ahead, and they took the city. <sup>21</sup>They <sup>f</sup>utterly destroyed everything in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword. <sup>22</sup> Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, “Go into the harlot’s house and bring the woman and all she has out of there, as you have sworn to her.” <sup>23</sup>So the young men who were spies went in and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all she had; they also brought out all her relatives and placed them outside the camp of Israel. <sup>24</sup>They burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only the silver and gold, and articles of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the <sup>a</sup>house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup>However, Rahab the harlot and her father’s household and all she had, Joshua <sup>b</sup>spared; and she has lived in the midst of Israel to this day, for she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. [24 <sup>a</sup>I.e. tabernacle 25 <sup>b</sup>Lit let live]

26 Then Joshua made them take an oath at that time, saying, “Cursed before the LORD is the man who rises up and builds this city Jericho; with the loss of his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and with the loss of his youngest son he shall set up its gates.” 27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame was in all the land.

Israel Is Defeated at Ai

1 But the sons of Israel acted unfaithfully in regard to the things under the ban, for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, took some of the things under the ban, therefore the anger of the LORD burned against the sons of Israel.

2 Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and said to them, “<sup>a</sup>Go up and spy out the land.” So the men went up and spied out Ai. <sup>3</sup>They returned to Joshua and said to him, “Do not let all the people go up; only about two or three thousand men need go up <sup>b</sup>to Ai; do not make all the people toil up there, for they are few.” <sup>4</sup>So about three thousand men from the people went up there, but they fled <sup>c</sup>from the men of Ai. <sup>5</sup>The men of Ai struck down about thirty-six of their men, and pursued them <sup>d</sup>from the gate as far as Shebarim and struck them down on the descent, so the hearts of the people melted and became as water. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit saying, Go 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit and smite 4 <sup>c</sup>Lit before 5 <sup>d</sup>Or before]

6 Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, both he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads. <sup>7</sup>Joshua said, “Alas, O Lord <sup>a</sup>GOD, why did You ever bring this people over the Jordan, only to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? If only we had been willing <sup>b</sup>to dwell beyond the Jordan! <sup>8</sup>O Lord, what can I say since Israel has turned their <sup>c</sup>back before their enemies? <sup>9</sup>For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and they will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. And what will You do for Your great name?” [7 <sup>a</sup>Heb YHWH, usually rendered LORD <sup>b</sup>Lit and had dwelt 8 <sup>c</sup>Lit neck]

10 So the LORD said to Joshua, “Rise up! Why is it that you have fallen on your face? <sup>11</sup>Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. And they have even taken some of the things under the ban and have both stolen and deceived. Moreover, they have also put them among their own things. <sup>12</sup>Therefore the sons of Israel cannot stand before their enemies; they turn their <sup>a</sup>backs before their enemies, for they have become accursed. I will not be with you anymore unless you destroy the things under the ban from your midst. <sup>13</sup>Rise up! Consecrate the people and say, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, for thus the LORD, the God of Israel, has said, “There are things under the ban in your midst, O Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you have removed the things under the ban from your midst.” <sup>14</sup>In the morning then you shall come near by your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which the LORD takes by lot shall come near by families, and the family which the LORD takes shall come near by households, and the household which the LORD takes shall come near man by man. <sup>15</sup>It shall be that the one who is taken with the things under the ban shall be burned with fire, he and all that belongs to him, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has committed a disgraceful thing in Israel.’ ” [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit necks]

The Sin of Achan

<sup>16</sup> So Joshua arose early in the morning and brought Israel near by <sup>a</sup>tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken. <sup>17</sup>He brought the family of Judah near, and he took the family of the Zerahites; and he brought the family of the Zerahites near man by man, and Zabdi was taken. <sup>18</sup>He brought his household near man by man; and Achan, son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, was taken. <sup>19</sup>Then Joshua said to Achan, “My son, I implore you, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give praise to Him; and tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me.” <sup>20</sup>So Achan answered Joshua and said, “Truly, I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel, and <sup>b</sup>this is what I did: <sup>21</sup>when I saw among the spoil a beautiful mantle from Shinar and two hundred shekels of silver and a bar of gold fifty shekels in weight, then I coveted them and took them; and behold, they are concealed in the earth inside my tent with the silver underneath it.” [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit its tribes 20 <sup>b</sup>Lit thus and thus I did]

concealed in his tent with the silver underneath it. <sup>23</sup>They took them from inside the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the sons of Israel, and they poured them out before the LORD. <sup>24</sup>Then Joshua and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the mantle, the bar of gold, his sons, his daughters, his <sup>a</sup>oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent and all that belonged to him; and they brought them up to the valley of <sup>b</sup>Achor. <sup>25</sup>Joshua said, “Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day.” And all Israel stoned <sup>c</sup>them with stones; and they burned them with fire <sup>d</sup>after they had stoned them with stones. <sup>26</sup>They raised over him a great heap of stones that stands to this day, and the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. ### The Conquest of Ai

1 Now the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear or be dismayed. Take all the people of war with you and arise, go up to Ai; see, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land. <sup>2</sup>You shall do to Ai and its king just as you did to Jericho and its king; you shall take only its spoil and its cattle as plunder for yourselves. <sup>a</sup>Set an ambush for the city behind it.” [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit Set for yourself]

3 So Joshua rose with all the people of war to go up to Ai; and Joshua chose 30,000 men, valiant warriors, and sent them out at night. <sup>4</sup>He commanded them, saying, “See, you are going to ambush the city from behind <sup>a</sup>it. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready. <sup>5</sup>Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. And when they come out to meet us as at the first, we will flee before them. <sup>6</sup>They will come out after us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, ‘They are fleeing before us as at the first.’ So we will flee before them. <sup>7</sup>And you shall rise from your ambush and take possession of the city, for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. <sup>8</sup>Then it will be when you have seized the city, that you shall set the city on fire. You shall do it according to the word of the LORD. See, I have commanded you.” <sup>9</sup>So Joshua sent them away, and they went to the place of ambush and remained between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua spent that night among the people. [4 <sup>a</sup>Lit the city]

10 Now Joshua rose early in the morning and mustered the people, and he went up with the elders of Israel before the people to Ai. <sup>11</sup>Then all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near and arrived in front of the city, and camped on the north side of Ai. Now there was a valley between him and Ai. <sup>12</sup>And he took about 5,000 men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the <sup>a</sup>city. <sup>13</sup>So they stationed the people, all the army that was on the north side of the city, and its rear guard on the west side of the city, and Joshua spent that night in the midst of the valley. <sup>14</sup>It came about when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hurried and rose up early and went out to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people at the appointed place before the desert plain. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city. <sup>15</sup>Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. <sup>16</sup>And all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup>So not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who had not gone out after Israel, and they left the city <sup>b</sup>unguarded and pursued Israel. [<sup>12</sup> <sup>a</sup>I.e. Ai <sup>17</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit open]

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand.” So Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup>The men in ambush rose quickly from their place, and when he had stretched out his hand, they ran and entered the city and captured it, and they quickly set the city on fire. <sup>20</sup>When the men of Ai turned <sup>a</sup>back and looked, behold, the smoke of the city ascended to the sky, and they had no place to flee this way or that, for the people who had been fleeing to the wilderness turned against the pursuers. <sup>21</sup>When Joshua and all Israel saw that the men in ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and <sup>b</sup>slew the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup><sup>c</sup>The others came out from the city to encounter them, so that they were trapped in the midst of Israel, <sup>d</sup>some on this side and some on that side; and they <sup>b</sup>slew them until no one was left <sup>e</sup>of those who survived or escaped. <sup>23</sup>But they took alive the king of Ai and brought him to Joshua. <sup>24</sup> Now when Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field in the wilderness where they pursued them, and all of them were fallen by the edge of the sword until they were destroyed, then all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. <sup>25</sup>All who fell that day, both men and women, were 12,000—all the <sup>a</sup>people of Ai. <sup>26</sup>For Joshua did not withdraw his hand with which he stretched out the javelin until he had <sup>b</sup>utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. <sup>27</sup>Israel took only the cattle and the spoil of that city as plunder for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua. <sup>28</sup>So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever, a desolation until this day. <sup>29</sup>He hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening; and at sunset Joshua gave command and they took his body down from the tree and threw it at the entrance of the city gate, and raised over it a great heap of stones that stands to this day. 30 Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, in Mount Ebal, <sup>31</sup>just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones on which no man had wielded an iron tool; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings. <sup>32</sup>He wrote there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which <sup>a</sup>he had written, in the presence of the sons of Israel. <sup>33</sup>All Israel with their elders and officers and their judges were standing on both sides of the ark before the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the stranger as well as the native. 1 Now it came about when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill country and in the lowland and on all the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, the Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, heard of it, <sup>2</sup>that they gathered themselves together with <sup>a</sup>one accord to fight with Joshua and with Israel. [<sup>2</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit one mouth]

3 When the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, <sup>4</sup>they also acted craftily and <sup>a</sup>set out as envoys, and took worn-out sacks on their donkeys, and wineskins worn-out and torn and <sup>b</sup>mended, <sup>5</sup>and worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes on themselves; and all the bread of their provision was dry and had become crumbled. <sup>6</sup>They went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal and said to him and to the men of Israel, “We have come from a far country; now therefore, make a covenant with us.” <sup>7</sup>The men of Israel said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you are living <sup>c</sup>within our land; how then shall we make a covenant with you?” <sup>8</sup>But they said to Joshua, “We are your servants.” Then Joshua said to them, “Who are you and where do you come from?” <sup>9</sup>They said to him, “Your servants have come from a very far country because of the <sup>d</sup>fame of the LORD your God; for we have heard the report of Him and all that He did in Egypt, <sup>10</sup>and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan who was at Ashtaroth. <sup>11</sup>So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, ‘Take provisions in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them and say to them, “We are your servants; now then, make a covenant with us.”’ <sup>12</sup>This our bread was warm when we took it for our provisions out of our houses on the day that we left to come to you; but now behold, it is dry and has become crumbled. <sup>13</sup>These wineskins which we filled were new, and behold, they are torn; and these our clothes and our sandals are worn out because of the very long journey.” <sup>14</sup>So the men of Israel took some of their provisions, and did not ask for the <sup>e</sup>counsel of the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them, to let them live; and the leaders of the congregation swore an oath to them. 16 It came about at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were neighbors and that they were living <sup>a</sup>within their land. <sup>17</sup>Then the sons of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon and Chephirah and Beeroth and Kiriath-jearim. <sup>18</sup>The sons of Israel did not strike them because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD the God of Israel. And the whole congregation grumbled against the leaders. <sup>19</sup>But all the leaders said to the whole congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we cannot touch them. <sup>20</sup>This we will do to them, even let them live, so that wrath will not be upon us for the oath which we swore to them.” <sup>21</sup>The leaders said to them, “Let them live.” So they became hewers of wood and drawers of water for the whole congregation, just as the leaders had spoken to them. [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit among them]

22 Then Joshua called for them and spoke to them, saying, “Why have you deceived us, saying, ‘We are very far from you,’ when you are living <sup>a</sup>within our land? <sup>23</sup>Now therefore, you are cursed, and <sup>b</sup>you shall never cease being slaves, both hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.” <sup>24</sup>So they answered Joshua and said, “Because it was certainly told your servants that the LORD your God had commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you; therefore we feared greatly for our lives because of you, and have done this thing. <sup>25</sup>Now behold, we are in your hands; do as it seems good and right in your sight to do to us.” <sup>26</sup>Thus he did to them, and delivered them from the hands of the sons of Israel, and they did not kill them. <sup>27</sup>But Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place which He would choose. Five Kings Attack Gibeon 1 Now it came about when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai, and had <sup>a</sup>utterly destroyed it (just as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king), and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were <sup>b</sup>within their land, <sup>2</sup>that <sup>c</sup>he feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. <sup>3</sup>Therefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent word to Hoham king of Hebron and to Piram king of Jarmuth and to Japhia king of Lachish and to Debir king of Eglon, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Come up to me and help me, and let us <sup>d</sup>attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons of Israel.” <sup>5</sup>So the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they with all their armies, and camped by Gibeon and fought against it. <sup>6</sup> Then the men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, saying, “Do not <sup>a</sup>abandon your servants; come up to us quickly and save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites that live in the hill country have assembled against us.” <sup>7</sup>So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him and all the valiant warriors. <sup>8</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands; not <sup>b</sup>one of them shall stand before you.” <sup>9</sup>So Joshua came upon them suddenly <sup>c</sup>by marching all night from Gilgal. <sup>10</sup>And the LORD confounded them before Israel, and He <sup>d</sup>slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and pursued them by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon and struck them as far as Azekah and Makkedah. <sup>11</sup>As they fled from before Israel, while they were at the descent of Beth-horon, the LORD threw large stones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died; there were more who died <sup>e</sup>from the hailstones than those whom the sons of Israel killed with the sword. 12 Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the sons of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, “O sun, stand still at Gibeon, And O moon in the valley of Aijalon.”

<sup>13</sup>So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, Until the nation avenged themselves of their enemies.

Is it not written in the book of Jashar? And the sun stopped in the middle of the sky and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day. <sup>14</sup>There was no day like that before it or after it, when the LORD listened to the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

15 Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp to Gilgal.

Victory at Makkedah 16 Now these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in the cave at Makkedah. <sup>17</sup>It was told Joshua, saying, “The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah.” <sup>18</sup>Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and assign men by it to guard them, <sup>19</sup>but do not stay there yourselves; pursue your enemies and <sup>a</sup>attack them in the rear. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand.” <sup>20</sup>It came about when Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished <sup>b</sup>slaying them with a very great slaughter, until they were destroyed, and the survivors who remained of them <sup>c</sup>had entered the fortified cities, <sup>21</sup>that all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. 22 Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave and bring these five kings out to me from the cave.” <sup>23</sup>They did so, and brought these five kings out to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. <sup>24</sup>When they brought these kings out to Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who had gone with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So they came near and put their feet on their necks. <sup>25</sup>Joshua then said to them, “Do not fear or be dismayed! Be strong and courageous, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies with whom you fight.” <sup>26</sup>So afterward Joshua struck them and put them to death, and he hanged them on five trees; and they hung on the trees until evening. <sup>27</sup>It came about at <sup>a</sup>sunset that Joshua gave a command, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, and put large stones over the mouth of the cave, to this very day. ### Northern Palestine Taken

1 Then it came about, when Jabin king of Hazor heard of it, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon and to the king of Shimron and to the king of Achshaph, <sup>2</sup>and to the kings who were of the north in the hill country, and in the Arabah—south of <sup>a</sup>Chinneroth and in the lowland and on the <sup>b</sup>heights of Dor on the west— <sup>3</sup>to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite <sup>c</sup>at the foot of Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. <sup>4</sup>They came out, they and all their armies with them, as many people as the sand that is on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots. <sup>5</sup>So all of these kings having agreed to meet, came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel. [2 <sup>a</sup>I.e. Sea of Galilee <sup>b</sup>Or Naphoth-dor 3 <sup>c</sup>Lit under]

6 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow at this time I will deliver all of them slain before Israel; you shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.” <sup>7</sup>So Joshua and all the people of war with him came upon them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and attacked them. <sup>8</sup>The LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, so that they <sup>a</sup>defeated them, and pursued them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephoth-maim and the valley of Mizpeh to the east; and they struck them until no survivor was left to them. <sup>9</sup>Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire. [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit smote]

10 Then Joshua turned back at that time, and captured Hazor and struck its king with the sword; for Hazor formerly was the head of all these kingdoms. <sup>11</sup>They struck every person who was in it with the edge of the sword, <sup>a</sup>utterly destroying them; there was no one left who breathed. And he burned Hazor with fire. <sup>12</sup>Joshua captured all the cities of these kings, and all their kings, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them; just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

1 Now these are the territories which the sons of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the <sup>a</sup>households of the tribes of the sons of Israel apportioned to them for an inheritance, <sup>2</sup>by the lot of their inheritance, as the LORD commanded <sup>b</sup>through Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe. <sup>3</sup>For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but he did not give an inheritance to the Levites among them. <sup>4</sup>For the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, and they did not give a portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to live in, with their pasture lands for their livestock and for their property. <sup>5</sup>Thus the sons of Israel did just as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they divided the land. 6 Then the sons of Judah drew near to Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, “You know the word which the LORD spoke to Moses the man of God concerning <sup>a</sup>you and me in Kadesh-barnea. <sup>7</sup>I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought word back to him as it was in my heart. <sup>8</sup>Nevertheless my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people <sup>b</sup>melt with fear; but I followed the LORD my God fully. <sup>9</sup>So Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘Surely the land on which your foot has trodden will be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have followed the LORD my God fully.’ <sup>10</sup>Now behold, the LORD has let me live, just as He spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, when Israel walked in the wilderness; and now behold, I am eighty-five years old today. <sup>11</sup>I am still as strong today as I was in the day Moses sent me; as my strength was then, so my strength is now, for war and for going out and coming in. <sup>12</sup>Now then, give me this hill country about which the LORD spoke on that day, for you heard on that day that Anakim were there, with great fortified cities;

Territory of Judah 1 Now the lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah according to their families <sup>a</sup>reached the border of Edom, southward to the wilderness of Zin at the extreme south. 2 Their south border was from the lower end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that turns to the south. 3 Then it proceeded southward to the ascent of Akrabbim and continued to Zin, then went up by the south of Kadesh-barnea and continued to Hezron, and went up to Addar and turned about to Karka. 4 It continued to Azmon and proceeded to the <sup>b</sup>brook of Egypt, and the <sup>c</sup>border ended at the sea. This shall be your south border. 5 The east border was the Salt Sea, as far as the <sup>d</sup>mouth of the Jordan. And the border of the north side was from the bay of the sea at the <sup>d</sup>mouth of the Jordan. 6 Then the border went up to Beth-hoglah, and continued on the north of Beth-arabah, and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. 7 The border went up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and turned northward toward Gilgal which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south of the valley; and the border continued to the waters of En-shemesh and <sup>e</sup>it ended at En-rogel. 8 Then the border went up the valley of Ben-hinnom to the slope of the Jebusite on the south (that is, Jerusalem); and the border went up to the top of the mountain which is before the valley of Hinnom to the west, which is at the end of the valley of Rephaim toward the north. 9 From the top of the mountain the border curved to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah and proceeded to the cities of Mount Ephron, then the border curved to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim). 10 The border turned about from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and continued to the slope of Mount Jearim on the north (that is, Chesalon), and went down to Beth-shemesh and continued through Timnah. 11 The border proceeded to the side of Ekron northward. Territory of Ephraim <sup>1</sup> Then the lot for the sons of Joseph went from the Jordan at Jericho to the waters of Jericho on the east into the wilderness, going up from Jericho through the hill country to Bethel. <sup>2</sup>It went from Bethel to Luz, and continued to the border of the Archites at Ataroth. <sup>3</sup>It went down westward to the territory of the Japhletites, as far as the territory of lower Beth-horon even to Gezer, and <sup>a</sup>it ended at the sea. <sup>4</sup> The sons of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, received their inheritance. <sup>5</sup>Now this was the territory of the sons of Ephraim according to their families: the border of their inheritance eastward was Ataroth-addar, as far as upper Beth-horon. <sup>6</sup>Then the border went westward at Michmethath on the north, and the border turned about eastward to Taanath-shiloh and continued beyond it to the east of Janoah. <sup>7</sup>It went down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, then reached Jericho and came out at the Jordan. <sup>8</sup>From Tappuah the border continued westward to the <sup>a</sup>brook of Kanah, and <sup>b</sup>it ended at the sea. Territory of Manasseh 1 Now this was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, <sup>a</sup>were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a man of war. 2 So the lot was made for the rest of the sons of Manasseh according to their families: for the sons of Abiezer and for the sons of Helek and for the sons of Asriel and for the sons of Shechem and for the sons of Hopher and for the sons of Shemida; these were the male <sup>b</sup>descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit and there was to him 2 <sup>b</sup>Lit sons]

3 However, Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. 4 They came near before Eleazar the priest and before Joshua the son of Nun and before the leaders, saying, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” So according to the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among their father’s brothers. 5 Thus there fell ten portions to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan, <sup>6</sup>because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons. And the land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh. [4 <sup>a</sup>Lit mouth]

7 The border of Manasseh <sup>a</sup>ran from Asher to Michmethath which was east of Shechem; then the border went <sup>b</sup>southward to the inhabitants of En-tappuah. 8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the sons of Ephraim. 9 The border went down to the <sup>c</sup>brook of Kanah, southward of the <sup>c</sup>brook (these cities belonged to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh), and the border of Manasseh was on the north side of the <sup>c</sup>brook and <sup>d</sup>it ended at the sea. 10 The south side belonged to Ephraim and the north side to Manasseh, and the sea was <sup>e</sup>their border; and they reached to

Asher on the north and to Issachar on the east. <sup>11</sup>In Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean and its towns and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns, the third is Napheth.

<sup>16</sup>The sons of Joseph said, “The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who live in the valley land have chariots of iron, both those who are in Beth-shean and its towns and those who are in the valley of Jezreel.” <sup>17</sup> Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, saying, “You are a numerous people and have great power; you shall not have one lot only, <sup>18</sup>but the hill country shall be yours. For though it is a forest, you shall <sup>c</sup>clear it, and to its <sup>d</sup>farthest borders it shall be yours; for you shall <sup>e</sup>drive out the Canaanites, even though they have chariots of iron and though they are strong.” [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit up for yourself <sup>b</sup>Lit cut down 18 <sup>c</sup>Lit cut it down <sup>d</sup>Lit goings out <sup>e</sup>Or dispossess]

Rest of the Land Divided <sup>1</sup> Then the whole congregation of the sons of Israel assembled themselves at Shiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there; and the land was subdued before them.

<sup>2</sup> There remained among the sons of Israel seven tribes who had not divided their inheritance. <sup>3</sup> So Joshua said to the sons of Israel, “How long will you put off entering to take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you? <sup>4</sup> Provide for yourselves three men from <sup>a</sup>each tribe that I may send them, and that they may arise and walk through the land and write a description of it according to their inheritance; then they shall <sup>b</sup>return to me. <sup>5</sup> They shall divide it into seven portions; Judah shall stay in its territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay in their territory on the north. <sup>6</sup> You shall describe the land in seven divisions, and bring the description here to me. I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. <sup>7</sup> For the Levites have no portion among you, because the priesthood of the LORD is <sup>c</sup>their inheritance. The Territory of Benjamin 11 Now the lot of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin came up according to their families, and the territory of their lot <sup>a</sup>lay between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph. 12 Their border on the north side was from the Jordan, then the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward, and <sup>b</sup>it ended at the wilderness of Beth-aven. 13 From there the border continued to Luz, to the side of Luz (that is, Bethel) southward; and the border went down to Ataroth-addar, near the hill which lies on the south of lower Beth-horon. 14 The border extended from there and turned round on the west side southward, from the hill which lies before Beth-horon southward; and <sup>b</sup>it ended at Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a city of the sons of Judah. This was the west side. 15 Then the south side was from the edge of Kiriath-jearim, and the border went westward and went to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah. 16 The border went down to the edge of the hill which is in the valley of Ben-hinnom, which is in the valley of Rephaim northward; and it went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the slope of the Jebusite southward, and went down to En-rogel. 17 It extended northward and went to En-shemesh and went to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, and it went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. 18 It continued to the side in front of the Arabah northward and went down to the Arabah. 19 The border continued to the side of Beth-hoglah northward; and the <sup>c</sup>border ended at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. 9 They gave these cities which are here mentioned by name from the tribe of the sons of Judah and from the tribe of the sons of Simeon; <sup>10</sup>and they were for the sons of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, of the sons of Levi, for the lot was theirs first. <sup>11</sup>Thus they gave them Kiriath-arba, Arba being the father of Anak (that is, Hebron), in the hill country of Judah, with its surrounding pasture lands. <sup>12</sup>But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.

<sup>43</sup>So the LORD gave Israel all the land which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they possessed it and lived in it. <sup>44</sup>And the LORD gave them rest on every side, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers, and no one of all their enemies stood before them; the LORD gave all their enemies into their hand. <sup>45</sup>Not <sup>a</sup>one of the good promises which the LORD had <sup>b</sup>made to the house of Israel failed; all came to pass. ### Tribes beyond Jordan Return

1 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, <sup>2</sup>and said to them, “You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you. <sup>3</sup>You have not forsaken your brothers these many days to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God. <sup>4</sup>And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brothers, as He spoke to them; therefore turn now and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan. <sup>5</sup>Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God and walk in all His ways and keep His commandments and hold fast to Him and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.” <sup>6</sup>So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

7 Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but to the other half Joshua gave a possession among their brothers westward beyond the Jordan. So when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, <sup>8</sup>and said to <sup>a</sup>them, “Return to your tents with great riches and with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, iron, and with very many clothes; divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers.” <sup>9</sup>The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home and departed from the sons of Israel at Shiloh which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession which they had possessed, according to the <sup>b</sup>command of the LORD <sup>c</sup>through Moses. ### The Offensive Altar

10 When they came to the region of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan, a large altar in appearance.
11 And the sons of Israel heard it <sup>a</sup>said, “Behold, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar at the <sup>b</sup>frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan, on the side belonging to the sons of Israel.” 12 When the sons of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the sons of Israel gathered themselves at Shiloh to go up against them in war. [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit saying <sup>b</sup>Lit front]

13 Then the sons of Israel sent to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, 14 and with him ten chiefs, one chief for each father’s household from each of the tribes of Israel; and each one of them was the head of his father’s household among the <sup>a</sup>thousands of Israel. 15 They came to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them saying, 16 “Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, ‘What is this unfaithful act which you have committed against the God of Israel, turning away from following the LORD this day, by building yourselves an altar, to rebel against the LORD this day? 17 Is not the iniquity of Peor <sup>b</sup>enough for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although a plague came on the congregation of the LORD, 18 that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? If you rebel against the LORD today, He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel tomorrow. 19 If, however, the land of your possession is unclean, then <sup>c</sup>cross into the land of the possession of the LORD, where the LORD’s tabernacle <sup>d</sup>stands, and take possession among us. Only do not rebel against the LORD, or rebel against us by building an altar for yourselves, besides the altar of the LORD our God. 20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah act unfaithfully in the things under the ban, and wrath fall on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.’ ” [14 <sup>a</sup>Or families 17 <sup>b</sup>Lit little for us 19 <sup>c</sup>Lit cross for yourselves <sup>d</sup>Lit abides]

21 Then the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered and spoke to the heads of the <sup>a</sup>families of Israel. 22 “The Mighty One, God, the LORD, the Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows, and may Israel itself know. If it was in rebellion, or if in an unfaithful act against the LORD do not save us this day! <sup>23</sup>If we have built us an altar to turn away from following the LORD, or if to offer a burnt offering or grain offering on it, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings on it, may the LORD Himself require it. <sup>24</sup>But truly we have done this out of concern, <sup>b</sup>for a reason, saying, ‘In time to come your sons may say to our <sup>c</sup>sons, “What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel? <sup>25</sup>For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you sons of Reuben and sons of Gad; you have no portion in the LORD.” So your sons may make our sons stop fearing the LORD.’ [21 <sup>a</sup>Lit thousands 24 <sup>b</sup>Lit from <sup>c</sup>Lit sons, saying]

<sup>26</sup> “Therefore we said, ‘Let us <sup>a</sup>build an altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice; <sup>27</sup>rather it shall be a witness between us and you and between our generations after us, that we are to perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings, so that your sons will not say to our sons in time to come, “You have no portion in the LORD.” ’ <sup>28</sup>Therefore we said, ‘It shall also come about if they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, then we shall say, “See the copy of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice; rather it is a witness between us and you.” ’ <sup>29</sup>Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD and turn away from following the LORD this day, by building an altar for burnt offering, for grain offering or for sacrifice, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His <sup>b</sup>tabernacle.” [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit prepare to build for ourselves 29 <sup>b</sup>Lit dwelling place]

<sup>30</sup> So when Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the congregation, even the heads of the <sup>a</sup>families of Israel who were with him, heard the words which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them. <sup>31</sup>And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Manasseh, “Today we know that the LORD is in our midst, because you have not committed this unfaithful act against the LORD; now you have delivered the sons of Israel from the hand of the LORD.” [30 <sup>a</sup>Lit thousands]

<sup>32</sup> Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the sons of Reuben and from the sons of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and brought back word to them. <sup>33</sup>The word pleased the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel blessed God; and they did not speak of going up against them in war to destroy the land in which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad were living. <sup>34</sup>The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad called the altar Witness; “For,” they said, “it is a witness between us that the LORD is God.”

Joshua's Farewell Address

1 Now it came about after many days, when the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies <sup>a</sup>on every side, and Joshua was old, advanced in years, <sup>2</sup>that Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and their heads and their judges and their officers, and said to them, “I am old, advanced in years. <sup>3</sup>And you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for the LORD your God is He who has been fighting for you. <sup>4</sup>See, I have apportioned to you these nations which remain as an inheritance for your tribes, with all the nations which I have cut off, from the Jordan even to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun. <sup>5</sup>The LORD your God, He will thrust them out from before you and <sup>b</sup>drive them from before you; and you will possess their land, just as the LORD your God <sup>c</sup>promised you. <sup>6</sup>Be very firm, then, to keep and do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, so that you may not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left, <sup>7</sup>so that you will not <sup>d</sup>associate with these nations, these which remain among you, or mention the name of their gods, or make anyone swear by them, or serve them, or bow down to them. <sup>8</sup>But you are to cling to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day. <sup>9</sup>For the LORD has <sup>e</sup>driven out great and strong nations from before you; and as for you, no man has stood before you to this day. <sup>10</sup>One of your men puts to flight a thousand, for the LORD your God is He who fights for you, just as He <sup>c</sup>promised you. <sup>11</sup>So take diligent heed to yourselves to love the LORD your God. <sup>12</sup>For if you ever go back and cling to the rest of these nations, these which remain among you, and intermarry with them, so that you <sup>d</sup>associate with them and they with you, <sup>13</sup>know with certainty that the LORD your God will not continue to <sup>b</sup>drive these nations out from before you; but they will be a snare and a trap to you, and a whip on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you. ### Joshua Reviews Israel's History

1 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel and for their heads and their judges and their officers; and they presented themselves before God. 2 Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'From ancient times your fathers lived beyond the <sup>a</sup>River, namely, Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, and they served other gods. 3 Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the <sup>a</sup>River, and led him through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his <sup>b</sup>descendants and gave him Isaac. 4 To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau, and to Esau I gave Mount Seir to possess it; but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt. 5 Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt <sup>c</sup>by what I did in its midst; and afterward I brought you out. 6 I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and Egypt pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the <sup>d</sup>Red Sea. 7 But when they cried out to the LORD, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them and covered them; and your own eyes saw what I did in Egypt. And you lived in the wilderness for a long time. 8 Then I brought you into the land of the Amorites who lived beyond the Jordan, and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand, and you took possession of their land when I destroyed them before you. 9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel, and he sent and summoned Balaam the son of Beor to curse you. 10 But I was not willing to listen to Balaam. So he had to bless you, and I delivered you from his hand. 11 You crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho; and the citizens of Jericho fought against you, and the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Gergashite, the Hivite and the Jebusite. Thus I gave them into your hand. 12 Then I sent the hornet before you and it <sup>e</sup>drove out the two kings of the Amorites from before you, but not by your sword or your bow. 13 I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and cities which you had not built, and you have lived in them; you are eating of

“We Will Serve the LORD”

14 “Now, therefore, <sup>a</sup>fear the LORD and serve Him in sincerity and <sup>b</sup>truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the <sup>c</sup>River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. <sup>15</sup>If it is disagreeable in your sight to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve: whether the gods which your fathers served which were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.” [14 <sup>a</sup>Or reverence <sup>b</sup>Or faithfulness <sup>c</sup>I.e. Euphrates]

16 The people answered and said, “Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; <sup>17</sup>for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of <sup>a</sup>bondage, and who did these great signs in our sight and preserved us through all the way in which we went and among all the peoples through whose midst we passed. <sup>18</sup>The LORD drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God.” [17 <sup>a</sup>Lit bondmen]

19 Then Joshua said to the people, “You will not be able to serve the LORD, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God; He will not forgive your transgression or your sins. <sup>20</sup>If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and consume you after He has done good to you.” <sup>21</sup>The people said to Joshua, “No, but we will serve the LORD.” <sup>22</sup>Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen for yourselves the LORD, to serve Him.” And they said, “We are witnesses.” <sup>23</sup>“Now therefore, put away the foreign gods which are in your midst, and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel.” <sup>24</sup>The people said to Joshua, “We will serve the LORD our God and we will <sup>a</sup>obey His voice.” <sup>25</sup>So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. <sup>26</sup>And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD. <sup>27</sup>Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone shall be for a witness against us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke <sup>b</sup>to us; thus it shall be for a witness against you, so that you do not deny your God.” <sup>28</sup>Then Joshua dismissed the people, each to his inheritance. ### Joshua’s Death and Burial

<sup>29</sup> It came about after these things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred and ten years old. <sup>30</sup>And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of Mount Gaash.

Jerusalem Is Captured 1 Now it came about after the death of Joshua that the sons of Israel inquired of the LORD, saying, “Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?” 2The LORD said, “Judah shall go up; behold, I have given the land into his hand.” 3Then Judah said to Simeon his brother, “Come up with me into <sup>a</sup>the territory allotted me, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and <sup>b</sup>I in turn will go with you into <sup>c</sup>the territory allotted you.” So Simeon went with him. 4Judah went up, and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they <sup>d</sup>defeated ten thousand men at Bezek. 5They found Adoni-bezek in Bezek and fought against him, and they <sup>e</sup>defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites. 6But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his <sup>f</sup>thumbs and big toes. 7Adoni-bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off used to gather up scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has repaid me.” So they brought him to Jerusalem and he died there. 8 Then the sons of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it and struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire. 9Afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country and in the <sup>a</sup>Negev and in the lowland. 10So Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (now the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath-arba); and they struck Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai. [9 <sup>a</sup>I.e. South country]

Capture of Other Cities 11 Then from there he went against the inhabitants of Debir (now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher). 12And Caleb said, “The one who attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it, I will even give him my daughter Achsah for a wife.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites living in Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called Hormah. <sup>18</sup>And Judah took Gaza with its territory and Ashkelon with its territory and Ekron with its territory. <sup>19</sup>Now the LORD was with Judah, and they took possession of the hill country; but they could not <sup>b</sup>drive out the inhabitants of the valley because they had iron chariots. <sup>20</sup>Then they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had <sup>c</sup>promised; and he drove out from there the three sons of Anak. <sup>21</sup>But the sons of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have lived with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day. <sup>22</sup> Likewise the house of Joseph went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. <sup>23</sup>The house of Joseph spied out Bethel (now the name of the city was formerly Luz). <sup>24</sup>The spies saw a man coming out of the city and they said to him, "Please show us the entrance to the city and we will treat you kindly." <sup>25</sup>So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his family go free. <sup>26</sup>The man went into the land of the Hittites and built a city and named it Luz <sup>a</sup>which is its name to this day.

Places Not Conquered 27 But Manasseh did not take possession of Bethshean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; so the Canaanites persisted in living in that land. <sup>28</sup>It came about when Israel became strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not drive them out completely.

29 Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer; so the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them.

30 Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of <sup>a</sup>Nahalol; so the Canaanites lived among them and became subject to forced labor. [30 <sup>a</sup>Perhaps same as Nahalal]

31 Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob. <sup>32</sup>So the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

33 Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Bethshemesh, or the inhabitants of Bethanath, but lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; and the inhabitants of Bethshemesh and Bethanath became forced labor for them.

34 Then the Amorites <sup>a</sup>forced the sons of Dan into the hill country, for they did not allow them to come down to the valley; <sup>35</sup>yet the Amorites persisted in <sup>b</sup>living in Mount Heres, in Aijalon and in Shaalbim; but when the <sup>c</sup>power of the house of Joseph <sup>d</sup>grew strong, they became forced labor. <sup>36</sup>The border of the Amorites ran from the ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela and upward. ### Israel Serves Baals

11 Then the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD and <sup>a</sup>served the Baals, <sup>12</sup>and they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods from among the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them; thus they provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>13</sup>So they forsook the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtaroth. <sup>14</sup>The anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hands of plunderers who plundered them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies around them, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies. <sup>15</sup>Wherever they went, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had spoken and as the LORD had sworn to them, so that they were severely distressed. [11 <sup>a</sup>Or worshipped]

16 Then the LORD raised up judges <sup>a</sup>who delivered them from the hands of those who plundered them. <sup>17</sup>Yet they did not listen to their judges, for they played the harlot after other gods and bowed themselves down to them. They turned aside quickly from the way in which their fathers had walked in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do as their fathers. <sup>18</sup>When the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and delivered them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed and afflicted them. <sup>19</sup>But it came about when the judge died, that they would turn back and act more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them and bow down to them; they did not abandon their practices or their stubborn ways. <sup>20</sup>So the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He said, “Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers and has not listened to My voice, <sup>21</sup>I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died, <sup>22</sup>in order to test Israel by them, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk in it as their fathers <sup>b</sup>did, or not.” <sup>23</sup>So the LORD allowed those nations to remain, not driving them out quickly; and He did not give them into the hand of Joshua. ### The First Judge Delivers Israel

<sup>9</sup>When the sons of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the sons of Israel to deliver them, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. <sup>10</sup>The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. When he went out to war, the LORD gave Cushan-rishathaim king of <sup>a</sup>Mesopotamia into his hand, so that <sup>b</sup>he prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim.

Ehud Delivers from Moab

<sup>15</sup>But when the sons of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for them, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a left-handed man. And the sons of Israel sent tribute by <sup>a</sup>him to Eglon the king of Moab. <sup>16</sup>Ehud made himself a sword which had two edges, a cubit in length, and he bound it on his right thigh under his cloak. <sup>17</sup>He presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man. <sup>18</sup>It came about when he had finished presenting the tribute, that he sent away the people who had carried the tribute. <sup>19</sup>But he himself turned back from the idols which were at Gilgal, and said, “I have a secret message for you, O king.” And he said, “Keep silence.” And all who attended him left him. <sup>20</sup>Ehud came to him while he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber. And Ehud said, “I have a message from God for you.” And he arose from his seat. <sup>21</sup>Ehud stretched out his left hand, took the sword from his right thigh and thrust it into his belly. <sup>22</sup>The handle also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly; and the refuse came out. <sup>23</sup>Then Ehud went out into the vestibule and shut the doors of the roof chamber behind him, and locked them. <sup>24</sup>When he had gone out, his servants came and looked, and behold, the doors of the roof chamber were locked; and they said, “He is only <sup>a</sup>relieving himself in the cool room.” <sup>25</sup>They waited until they <sup>b</sup>became anxious; but behold, he did not open the doors of the roof chamber. 26 Now Ehud escaped while they were delaying, and he passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah. <sup>27</sup>It came about when he had arrived, that he blew the trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he was in front of them. <sup>28</sup>He said to them, “Pursue them, for the LORD has given your enemies the Moabites into your hands.” So they went down after him and seized the fords of the Jordan opposite Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross. <sup>29</sup>They struck down at that time about ten thousand Moabites, all robust and valiant men; and no one escaped. <sup>30</sup>So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land was undisturbed for eighty years.

Deborah and Barak Deliver from Canaanites

1 Then the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; and the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-hagoyim. <sup>3</sup>The sons of Israel cried to the LORD; for he had nine hundred iron chariots, and he oppressed the sons of Israel severely for twenty years.

4 Now Deborah, a <sup>a</sup>prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup>She used to <sup>b</sup>sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel came up to her for judgment. <sup>6</sup>Now she sent and summoned Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh-naphtali, and said to him, “<sup>c</sup>Behold, the LORD, the God of Israel, has commanded, ‘Go and march to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men from the sons of Naphtali and from the sons of Zebulun. <sup>7</sup>I will draw out to you Sisera, the commander of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his <sup>d</sup>many troops to the river Kishon, and I will give him into your hand.’ ” <sup>8</sup>Then Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go.” <sup>9</sup>She said, “I will surely go with you; nevertheless, the honor shall not be yours on the journey that you are about to take, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hands of a woman.” Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh. <sup>10</sup>Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh, and ten thousand men went up <sup>e</sup>with him; Deborah also went up with him. 11 Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, from the sons of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far away as the <sup>a</sup>oak in Zaanannim, which is near Kedesh. [11 <sup>a</sup>Or terebinth]

chariots, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth-hagoyim to the river Kishon. <sup>14</sup>Deborah said to Barak, “Arise! For this is the day in which the LORD has given Sisera into your hands; <sup>a</sup>behold, the LORD has gone out before you.” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him. <sup>15</sup>The LORD <sup>b</sup>routed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled away on foot. <sup>16</sup>But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth-hagoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not even one was left. [<sup>14</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or has not the LORD gone...? <sup>15</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit confused]

<sup>17</sup> Now Sisera fled away on foot to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite, for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. <sup>18</sup>Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my master, turn aside to me! So he died. <sup>22</sup>And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said to him, “Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking.” And he entered <sup>d</sup>with her, and behold Sisera was lying dead with the tent peg in his temple. ### Israel Oppressed by Midian

1 Then the sons of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD gave them into the hands of Midian seven years. 2The <sup>a</sup>power of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of Midian the sons of Israel made for themselves the dens which were in the mountains and the caves and the strongholds. 3For it was when Israel had sown, that the Midianites would come up with the Amalekites and the sons of the east and <sup>b</sup>go against them. 4So they would camp against them and destroy the produce of the earth <sup>c</sup>as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel as well as no sheep, ox, or donkey. 5For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, they would come in like locusts for number, both they and their camels were innumerable; and they came into the land to devastate it. 6So Israel was brought very low because of Midian, and the sons of Israel cried to the LORD. ### Gideon Is Visited

11 Then the angel of the LORD came and sat under the <sup>a</sup>oak that was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite as his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press in order to save it from the Midianites.

<sup>12</sup>The angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, “The LORD is with you, O valiant warrior.” <sup>13</sup>Then Gideon said to him, “O my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, ‘Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has abandoned us and given us into the hand of Midian.” <sup>14</sup>The LORD <sup>b</sup>looked at him and said, “Go in this your strength and deliver Israel from the hand of Midian. Have I not sent you?” <sup>15</sup>He said to Him, “O Lord, <sup>c</sup>how shall I deliver Israel? Behold, my family is the least in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my father’s house.” <sup>16</sup>But the LORD said to him, “Surely I will be with you, and you shall <sup>d</sup>defeat Midian as one man.” <sup>17</sup>So <sup>e</sup>Gideon said to Him, “If now I have found favor in Your sight, then show me a sign that it is You who speak with me. <sup>18</sup>Please do not depart from here, until I come back to You, and bring out my offering and lay it before You.” And He said, “I will remain until you return.” [11 <sup>a</sup>Or terebinth 14 <sup>b</sup>Or turned toward 15 <sup>c</sup>Lit with what 16 <sup>d</sup>Lit smite 17 <sup>e</sup>Lit he]

Then the angel of the LORD <sup>d</sup>vanished from his sight. <sup>22</sup>When Gideon saw that he was the angel of the LORD, <sup>e</sup>he said, “Alas, O Lord <sup>f</sup>GOD! For now I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face.” <sup>23</sup>The LORD said to him, “Peace to you, do not fear; you shall not die.” <sup>24</sup>Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD and named it <sup>g</sup>The LORD is Peace. 28 When the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was torn down, and the Asherah which was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered on the altar which had been built.<sup>29</sup> They said to one another, “Who did this thing?” And when they searched about and inquired, they said, “Gideon the son of Joash did this thing.”<sup>30</sup> Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, that he may die, for he has torn down the altar of Baal, and indeed, he has cut down the Asherah which was beside it.”<sup>31</sup> But Joash said to all who stood against him, “Will you contend for Baal, or will you deliver him? Whoever will <sup>a</sup>plead for him shall be put to death by morning. 9 Now the same night it came about that the LORD said to him, “Arise, go down against the camp, for I have given it into your hands. <sup>10</sup>But if you are afraid to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp, <sup>11</sup>and you will hear what they say; and afterward your hands will be strengthened that you may go down against the camp.” So he went with Purah his servant down to the <sup>a</sup>outposts of the army that was in the camp. <sup>12</sup>Now the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the sons of the east were lying in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, as numerous as the sand on the seashore. <sup>13</sup>When Gideon came, behold, a man was relating a dream to his friend. And he said, “Behold, I <sup>b</sup>had a dream; <sup>c</sup>a loaf of barley bread was tumbling into the camp of Midian, and it came to the tent and struck it so that it fell, and turned it <sup>d</sup>upside down so that the tent lay flat.” <sup>14</sup>His friend replied, “This is nothing less than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has given Midian and all the camp into his hand.” [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit extremity of the battle array 13 <sup>b</sup>Lit dreamed <sup>c</sup>Lit and behold, a loaf <sup>d</sup>Lit upwards]

<sup>29</sup> Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house. <sup>30</sup>Now Gideon had seventy sons who <sup>a</sup>were his direct descendants, for he had many wives. <sup>31</sup>His concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he <sup>b</sup>named him Abimelech. <sup>32</sup>And Gideon the son of Joash died at a ripe old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. <sup>33</sup> Then it came about, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the sons of Israel again played the harlot with the Baals, and made Baal-berith their god. <sup>34</sup>Thus the sons of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side; <sup>35</sup>nor did they show kindness to the household of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) in accord with all the good that he had done to Israel.

Jephthah's Tragic Vow

29 Now the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, so that he passed through Gilead and Manasseh; then he passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he went on to the sons of Ammon. <sup>30</sup>Jephthah made a vow to the LORD and said, “If You will indeed give the sons of Ammon into my hand, <sup>31</sup>then it shall be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, it shall be the LORD’S, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering.” <sup>32</sup>So Jephthah crossed over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD gave them into his hand. <sup>33</sup>He struck them with a very great slaughter from Aroer <sup>a</sup>to the entrance of Minnith, twenty cities, and as far as Abel-keramim. So the sons of Ammon were subdued before the sons of Israel. [<sup>33</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit even until you are coming to]

34 When Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, behold, his daughter was coming out to meet him with tambourines and with dancing. Now she was his one and only child; besides her he had no son or daughter. <sup>35</sup>When he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, “Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are among those who trouble me; for I have <sup>a</sup>given my word to the LORD, and I cannot take it back.” <sup>36</sup>So she said to him, “My father, you have <sup>b</sup>given your word to the LORD; do to me <sup>c</sup>as you have said, since the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the sons of Ammon.” <sup>37</sup>She said to her father, “Let this thing be done for me; let me alone two months, that I may <sup>d</sup>go to the mountains and weep because of my virginity, I and my companions.” <sup>38</sup>Then he said, “Go.” So he sent her away for two months; and she left with her companions, and wept on the mountains because of her virginity. <sup>39</sup>At the end of two months she returned to her father, who did to her according to the vow which he had made; and she <sup>e</sup>had no relations with a man. Jephthah and His Successors 1 Then the men of Ephraim were summoned, and they crossed <sup>a</sup>to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, “Why did you cross over to fight against the sons of Ammon without calling us to go with you? Why then have you come up to me this day to fight against me?” 4 Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought Ephraim; and the men of Gilead <sup>c</sup>defeated Ephraim, because they said, “You are fugitives of Ephraim, O Gileadites, in the midst of Ephraim and in the midst of Manasseh.” 5 The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan opposite Ephraim. ### Philistines Oppress Again

1 Now the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, so that the LORD gave them into the hands of the Philistines forty years.

2 There was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had borne no children.

3 Then the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Behold now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you shall conceive and give birth to a son. 4 Now therefore, be careful not to drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing. 5 For behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son, and no razor shall come upon his head, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel from the hands of the Philistines.” 6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, “A man of God came to me and his appearance was like the appearance of the angel of God, very awesome. And I did not ask him where he came from, nor did he tell me his name. 7 But he said to me, ‘Behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son, and now you shall not drink wine or strong drink nor eat any unclean thing, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.’ ”

8 Then Manoah entreated the LORD and said, “O Lord, please let the man of God whom You have sent come to us again that he may teach us what to do for the boy who is to be born.” 9 God listened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again to the woman as she was sitting in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her. 10 So the woman ran quickly and told her <sup>a</sup>husband, “Behold, the man who <sup>b</sup>came the other day has appeared to me.” 11 Then Manoah arose and followed his wife, and when he came to the man he said to him, “Are you the man who spoke to the woman?” And he said, “I am.” 12 Manoah said, “Now when your words come to pass, what shall be the boy’s mode of life and his vocation?” 13 So the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Let the woman pay attention <sup>c</sup>to all that I said. 14 She should not eat anything that comes from the vine nor drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing; let her observe all that I commanded.” [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit husband, and said to him <sup>b</sup>Lit came to me 13 <sup>c</sup>Lit from]

15 Then Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “Please let us detain you so that we may prepare a young goat for you.” 16The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Though you detain me, I will not eat your <sup>a</sup>food, but if you prepare a burnt offering, then offer it to the LORD.” For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD. 17Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “What is your name, so that when your words come to pass, we may honor you?” 18But the angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask my name, seeing it is <sup>b</sup>wonderful?” 19So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering and offered it on the rock to the LORD, and He performed wonders while Manoah and his wife looked on. 20For it came about when the flame went up from the altar toward heaven, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they fell on their faces to the ground. [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit bread 18 <sup>b</sup>I.e. incomprehensible]

21 Now the angel of the LORD did not appear to Manoah or his wife again. 24 Then the woman gave birth to a son and named him Samson; and the child grew up and the LORD blessed him. 25And the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him in <sup>a</sup>Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol. [25 <sup>a</sup>I.e. the camp of Dan]

And they said to him, "Propound your riddle, that we may hear it." <sup>14</sup>So he said to them, "Out of the eater came something to eat, And out of the strong came something sweet."

But they could not tell the riddle in three days.

<sup>15</sup> Then it came about on the <sup>a</sup>fourth day that they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband, so that he will tell us the riddle, or we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us to impoverish us? Is this not so?" <sup>16</sup>Samson's wife wept before him and said, "You only hate me, and you do not love me; you have propounded a riddle to the sons of my people, and have not told it to me." And he said to her, "Behold, I have not told it to my father or mother; so should I tell you?" <sup>17</sup>However she wept before him seven days while their feast lasted. And on the seventh day he told her because she pressed him so hard. She then told the riddle to the sons of her people. <sup>18</sup>So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey?

And what is stronger than a lion?"

And he said to them,

"If you had not plowed with my heifer, You would not have found out my riddle."

<sup>19</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD <sup>b</sup>came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of them and took their spoil and gave the changes of clothes to those who told the riddle. 1 But after a while, in the time of wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a young goat, and said, "I will go in to my wife in her room." ### Samson's Weakness

1 Now Samson went to Gaza and saw a harlot there, and went in to her. <sup>2</sup>When it was told to the Gazites, saying, "Samson has come here," they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. And they kept silent all night, saying, "Let us wait until the morning light, then we will kill him." <sup>3</sup>Now Samson lay until midnight, and at midnight he arose and took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two posts and pulled them up along with the bars; then he put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of the mountain which is opposite Hebron.

4 After this it came about that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. <sup>5</sup>The lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, "Entice him, and see where his great strength lies and <sup>a</sup>how we may overpower him that we may bind him to afflict him. Then we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver." <sup>6</sup>So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength is and <sup>a</sup>how you may be bound to afflict you." <sup>7</sup>Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh cords that have not been dried, then I will become weak and be like any other man." <sup>8</sup>Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh cords that had not been dried, and she bound him with them. <sup>9</sup>Now she had men lying in wait in an inner room. Delilah Extracts His Secret 15 Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have deceived me these three times and have not told me where your great strength is.” <sup>16</sup>It came about when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, that his soul was <sup>a</sup>annoyed to death. <sup>17</sup>So he told her all that was in his heart and said to her, “A razor has never come on my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will leave me and I will become weak and be like any other man.” [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit impatient to the point of]

18 When Delilah saw that he had told her all that was in his heart, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, “Come up once more, for he has told me all that is in his heart.” Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hands. <sup>19</sup>She made him sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his <sup>a</sup>hair. Then she began to afflict him, and his strength left him. <sup>20</sup>She said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” And he awoke from his sleep and said, “I will go out as at other times and shake myself free.” But he did not know that the LORD had departed from him. <sup>21</sup>Then the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze chains, and he was a grinder in the prison. <sup>22</sup>However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it was shaved off. [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit head]

23 Now the lords of the Philistines assembled to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice, for they said, “Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hands.”

Who has slain many of us.”

<sup>25</sup>It so happened when <sup>a</sup>they were in high spirits, that they said, “Call for Samson, that he may amuse us.” So they called for Samson from the prison, and he <sup>b</sup>entertained them. And they made him stand between the pillars.

<sup>26</sup>Then Samson said to the boy who was holding his hand, “Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean against them.” <sup>27</sup>Now the house was full of men and women, and all the lords of the Philistines were there. 28 Then Samson called to the LORD and said, “O Lord <sup>a</sup>GOD, please remember me and please strengthen me just this time, O God, that I may at once be avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.” <sup>29</sup>Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and braced himself against them, the one with his right hand and the other with his left. <sup>30</sup>And Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” And he bent with <sup>b</sup>all his might so that the house fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead whom he killed at his death were more than those whom he killed in his life. <sup>31</sup>Then his brothers and all his father’s household came down, took him, brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. 11 Then from the family of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, six hundred men armed with weapons of war set out. <sup>12</sup>They went up and camped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. Now therefore, consider what you should do." <sup>15</sup>They turned aside there and came to the house of the young man, the Levite, to the house of Micah, and asked him of his welfare. <sup>16</sup>The six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the sons of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. <sup>17</sup>Now the five men who went to spy out the land went up and entered there, and took the graven image and the ephod and <sup>a</sup>household idols and the molten image, while the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war. <sup>18</sup>When these went into Micah's house and took the graven image, the ephod and <sup>a</sup>household idols and the molten image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?" <sup>19</sup>They said to him, "Be silent, put your hand over your mouth and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest. <sup>21</sup> Then they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the livestock and the valuables in front of them. <sup>22</sup>When they had gone some distance from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house assembled and overtook the sons of Dan. <sup>23</sup>They cried to the sons of Dan, who turned <sup>a</sup>around and said to Micah, "What is the matter with you, that you have assembled together?" <sup>24</sup>He said, "You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and have gone away, and what do I have besides? <sup>27</sup> Then they took what Micah had made and the priest who had belonged to him, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and secure, and struck them with the edge of the sword; and they burned the city with fire. <sup>28</sup>And there was no one to deliver them, because it was far from Sidon and they had no dealings with anyone, and it was in the valley which is near Beth-rehob. And they rebuilt the city and lived in it. <sup>29</sup>They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father who was born in Israel; however, the name of the city formerly was Laish. <sup>30</sup>The sons of Dan set up for themselves the graven image; and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of <sup>a</sup>Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land. <sup>31</sup>So they set up for themselves Micah’s graven image which he had made, all the time that the house of God was at Shiloh. A Levite's Concubine Degraded 1 Now it came about in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite <sup>a</sup>staying in the remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, who took a concubine for himself from Bethlehem in Judah. <sup>2</sup>But his concubine played the harlot against him, and she went away from him to her father's house in Bethlehem in Judah, and was there for a period of four months. <sup>3</sup>Then her husband arose and went after her to speak <sup>b</sup>tenderly to her in order to bring her back, <sup>c</sup>taking with him his servant and a pair of donkeys. So she brought him into her father's house, and when the girl's father saw him, he was glad to meet him. <sup>4</sup>His father-in-law, the girl's father, detained him; and he remained with him three days. So they ate and drank and lodged there. <sup>5</sup>Now on the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and he <sup>d</sup>prepared to go; and the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Sustain <sup>e</sup>yourself with a piece of bread, and afterward you may go." <sup>6</sup>So both of them sat down and ate and drank together; and the girl's father said to the man, "Please be willing to spend the night, and let your heart be merry." <sup>7</sup>Then the man arose to go, but his father-in-law urged him so that he spent the night there again. <sup>8</sup>On the fifth day he arose to go early in the morning, and the girl's father said, "Please sustain <sup>e</sup>yourself, and wait until <sup>f</sup>afternoon"; so both of them ate. <sup>9</sup>When the man arose to go along with his concubine and servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Behold now, the day has drawn <sup>g</sup>to a close; please spend the night. 10 But the man was not willing to spend the night, so he arose and departed and came to a place opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). And there were with him a pair of saddled donkeys; his concubine also was with him. <sup>11</sup>When they were near Jebus, the day was almost gone; and the servant said to his master, “Please come, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it.” <sup>12</sup>However, his master said to him, “We will not turn aside into the city of foreigners who are not of the sons of Israel; but we will go on as far as Gibeah.” <sup>13</sup>He said to his servant, “Come and let us approach one of these places; and we will spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah.” <sup>14</sup>So they passed along and went their way, and the sun set on them near Gibeah which belongs to Benjamin. <sup>15</sup>They turned aside there in order to enter and lodge in Gibeah. When <sup>a</sup>they entered, <sup>a</sup>they sat down in the open square of the city, for no one took them into his house to spend the night. [15 <sup>a</sup>So with Gr; M.T. he]

<sup>16</sup> Then behold, an old man was coming out of the field from his work at evening. Now the man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was <sup>a</sup>staying in Gibeah, but the men of the place were Benjamites.

<sup>17</sup>And he lifted up his eyes and saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, “Where are you going, and where do you come from?” <sup>18</sup>He said to him, “We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, for I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem in Judah. But I am now going to <sup>b</sup>my house, and no man will take me into his house. <sup>19</sup>Yet there is both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and also bread and wine for me, <sup>c</sup>your maidservant, and the young man who is with your servants; there is no lack of anything.” <sup>20</sup>The old man said, “Peace to you. Only let me take care of all your needs; however, do not spend the night in the open square.” <sup>21</sup>So he took him into his house and gave the donkeys fodder, and they washed their feet and ate and drank. [16 <sup>a</sup>Or sojourning 18 <sup>b</sup>Heb the house of the LORD, cf v 29 19 <sup>c</sup>I.e. my concubine] daughter and his concubine. Please let me bring them out that you may ravish them and do to them <sup>d</sup>whatever you wish. But do not commit such an act of folly against this man.” <sup>25</sup>But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and brought her out to them; and they raped her and abused her all night until morning, then let her go at the approach of dawn. <sup>26e</sup>As the day began to dawn, the woman came and fell down at the doorway of the man’s house where her master was, until full daylight. Then he placed her on the donkey; and the man arose and went to his <sup>a</sup>home.

<sup>23</sup>Then the man, the owner of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my fellows, please do not act so wickedly; since this man has come into my house, do not commit this act of folly. <sup>24</sup>Here is my virgin

<sup>29</sup>When he entered his house, he took a knife and laid hold of his concubine and cut her in twelve pieces, limb by limb, and sent her throughout the territory of Israel. <sup>30</sup>All who saw it said, “Nothing like this has ever happened or been seen from the day when the sons of Israel came up from the land of Egypt to this day. Resolve to Punish the Guilty <sup>1</sup> Then all the sons of Israel from Dan to Beersheba, including the land of Gilead, came out, and the congregation assembled as one man to the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>2</sup>The <sup>a</sup>chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, took their stand in the assembly of the people of God, 400,000 foot <sup>b</sup>soldiers who drew the sword. <sup>3</sup>(Now the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the sons of Israel said, “Tell us, how did this wickedness take place?” <sup>4</sup>So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, “I came with my concubine to spend the night at Gibeah which belongs to Benjamin. <sup>5</sup>But the men of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me; instead, they ravished my concubine so that she died. <sup>6</sup>And I took hold of my concubine and cut her in pieces and sent her throughout the land of Israel’s inheritance; for they have committed a lewd and disgraceful act in Israel. <sup>7</sup>Behold, all you sons of Israel, give your advice and counsel here.” [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit cornerstones <sup>b</sup>Lit men]

<sup>8</sup> Then all the people arose as one man, saying, “Not one of us will go to his tent, nor will any of us return to his house. <sup>9</sup>But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up against it by lot. <sup>10</sup>And we will take 10 men out of 100 throughout the tribes of Israel, and 100 out of 1,000, and 1,000 out of 10,000 to <sup>a</sup>supply food for the people, that when they come to <sup>b</sup>Gibeah of Benjamin, they may <sup>c</sup>punish them for all the disgraceful acts that they have committed in Israel.” <sup>11</sup>Thus all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united as one man. <sup>12</sup> Then the tribes of Israel sent men through the entire <sup>a</sup>tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What is this wickedness that has taken place among you? <sup>13</sup>Now then, deliver up the men, the <sup>b</sup>worthless fellows in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and remove this wickedness from

Civil War, Benjamin Defeated <sup>18</sup> Now the sons of Israel arose, went up to Bethel, and inquired of God and said, “Who shall go up first for us to battle against the sons of Benjamin?” Then the LORD said, “Judah shall go up first.”

offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. <sup>27</sup>The sons of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, <sup>28</sup>and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, Aaron's son, stood before it to minister in those days), saying, "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the sons of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?" [<sup>24</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit approached <sup>25</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit to meet <sup>c</sup>Lit destroyed]

from the city in a column of smoke, Benjamin looked behind them; and behold, the whole city was going up in smoke to heaven. <sup>41</sup>Then the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified; for they saw that <sup>d</sup>disaster was <sup>e</sup>close to them. <sup>42</sup>Therefore, they turned their backs before the men of Israel toward the direction of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them while those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of them. <sup>43</sup>They surrounded Benjamin, pursued them without rest and trod them down opposite Gibeah toward the <sup>f</sup>east.

1 Now it came about in the days when the judges <sup>a</sup>governed, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to sojourn in the land of Moab <sup>b</sup>with his wife and his two sons. <sup>2</sup>The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi; and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem in Judah. Now they entered the land of Moab and remained there. <sup>3</sup>Then Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left with her two sons. <sup>4</sup>They took for themselves Moabite women as wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. And they lived there about ten years. <sup>5</sup>Then <sup>c</sup>both Mahlon and Chilion also died, and the woman was bereft of her two children and her husband. [1 <sup>a</sup>Or judged <sup>b</sup>Lit he, and 5 <sup>c</sup>Lit both of them]

6 Then she arose with her daughters-in-law that she might return from the land of Moab, for she had heard in the land of Moab that the LORD had visited His people in giving them food. <sup>7</sup>So she departed from the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. <sup>8</sup>And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to her mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you as you have dealt with the dead and with me. <sup>9</sup>May the LORD grant that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband." Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept. <sup>10</sup>And they said to her, "No, but we will surely return with you to your people." <sup>11</sup>But Naomi said, "Return, my daughters. Why should you go with me? Have I yet sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? <sup>12</sup>Return, my daughters! Go, for I am too old to have a husband. If I said I have hope, if I should even have a husband tonight and also bear sons, <sup>13</sup>would you therefore wait until they were grown? Would you therefore refrain from marrying? No, my daughters; for it is <sup>a</sup>harder for me than for you, for the hand of the LORD has gone forth against me." [13 <sup>a</sup>Lit more bitter]

Ruth's Loyalty

<sup>14</sup>And they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

<sup>15</sup> Then she said, “Behold, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and her gods; return after your sister-in-law.” <sup>16</sup>But Ruth said, “Do not urge me to leave you or turn back from following you; for where you go, I will go, and where you lodge, I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God, my God. <sup>17</sup>Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. Thus may the LORD do to me, and worse, if anything but death parts you and me.” <sup>18</sup>When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she <sup>a</sup>said no more to her. <sup>19</sup> So they both went until they came to Bethlehem. 8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "<sup>a</sup>Listen carefully, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field; furthermore, do not go on from this one, but stay here with my maids. 9Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Indeed, I have commanded the servants not to touch you. When you are thirsty, go to the <sup>b</sup>water jars and drink from what the servants draw." 10Then she fell on her face, bowing to the ground and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your sight that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?" 11Boaz replied to her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law after the death of your husband has been fully reported to me, and how you left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and came to a people that you did not previously know. 12May the LORD reward your work, and your wages be full from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to seek refuge.” <sup>13</sup>Then she said, “I have found favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me and indeed have spoken <sup>c</sup>kindly to your maidservant, though I am not like one of your maidservants.” [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit Have you not heard 9 <sup>b</sup>Lit vessels 13 <sup>c</sup>Lit to the heart of your]

14 At mealtime Boaz said to her, “<sup>a</sup>Come here, that you may eat of the bread and dip your piece of bread in the vinegar.” So she sat beside the reapers; and he <sup>b</sup>served her roasted grain, and she ate and was satisfied and had some left. <sup>15</sup>When she rose to glean, Boaz commanded his servants, saying, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not insult her. <sup>16</sup>Also you shall purposely pull out for her some grain from the bundles and leave it that she may glean, and do not rebuke her.” [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit Draw near <sup>b</sup>Lit held out to]

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening. She also took it out and gave <sup>a</sup>Naomi what she had left after <sup>b</sup>she was satisfied. <sup>19</sup>Her mother-in-law then said to her, “Where did you glean today and where did you work? May he who took notice of you be blessed.” So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked and said, “The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz.” <sup>20</sup>Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed of the LORD who has not withdrawn his kindness to the living and to the dead.” Again Naomi said to her, “The man is <sup>c</sup>our relative, he is one of our <sup>d</sup>closest relatives.” <sup>21</sup>Then Ruth the Moabitess said, “<sup>e</sup>Furthermore, he said to me, ‘You should stay close to my servants until they have finished all my harvest.’ ” <sup>22</sup>Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maids, so that others do not fall upon you in another field.” <sup>23</sup>So she stayed close by the maids of Boaz in order to glean until the end of the barley harvest and the wheat harvest. Boaz Will Redeem Ruth 1 Then Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, shall I not seek <sup>a</sup>security for you, that it may be well with you? 2 Now is not Boaz our <sup>b</sup>kinsman, with whose maids you were?

Behold, he winnows barley at the threshing floor tonight. 3 Wash yourself therefore, and anoint yourself and put on your best clothes, and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. 4 It shall be when he lies down, that you shall <sup>c</sup>notice the place where he lies, and you shall go and uncover his feet and lie down; then he will tell you what you shall do.” 5 She said to her, “All that you say I will do.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit rest 2 <sup>b</sup>Or acquaintance 4 <sup>c</sup>Lit know]

6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law had commanded her. 7 When Boaz had eaten and drunk and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came secretly, and uncovered his feet and lay down. 8 It happened in the middle of the night that the man was startled and <sup>a</sup>bent forward; and behold, a woman was lying at his feet. 9 He said, “Who are you?” And she answered, “I am Ruth your maid. So spread your covering over your maid, for you are a <sup>b</sup>close relative.” 10 Then he said, “May you be blessed of the LORD, my daughter. You have shown your last kindness to be better than the first by not going after young men, whether poor or rich. 11 Now, my daughter, do not fear. The Marriage of Ruth <sup>1</sup> Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there, and behold, the <sup>a</sup>close relative of whom Boaz spoke was passing by, so he said, “Turn aside, <sup>b</sup>friend, sit down here.” And he turned aside and sat down. <sup>2</sup>He took ten men of the elders of the city and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down. <sup>3</sup>Then he said to the <sup>c</sup>closest relative, “Naomi, who has come back from the land of Moab, has to sell the piece of land which belonged to our brother Elimelech. <sup>4</sup>So I thought to <sup>d</sup>inform you, saying, ‘Buy it before those who are sitting here, and before the elders of my people. ### Elkanah and His Wives

1 Now there was a certain man from Ramathaim-zophim from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. <sup>2</sup>He had two wives: the name of one was Hannah and the name of the other Peninnah; and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 Now this man would go up from his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests to the LORD there. <sup>4</sup>When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters; <sup>5</sup>but to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved Hannah, but the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>6</sup>Her rival, however, would provoke her bitterly to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>7</sup>It happened year after year, as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she would provoke her; so she wept and would not eat. <sup>8</sup>Then Elkanah her husband said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep and why do you not eat and why is your heart sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

9 Then Hannah rose after eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the temple of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>She, <sup>a</sup>greatly distressed, prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly. <sup>11</sup>She made a vow and said, “O LORD of hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your maidservant and remember me, and not forget Your maidservant, but will give Your maidservant a <sup>b</sup>son, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and a razor shall never come on his head.” [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit bitter of soul

only her lips were moving, but her voice was not heard. So Eli thought she was drunk. <sup>14</sup>Then Eli said to her, “How long will you make yourself drunk? Put away your wine from you.” <sup>15</sup>But Hannah replied, “No, my lord, I am a woman <sup>b</sup>oppressed in spirit; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have poured out my soul before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Do not <sup>c</sup>consider your maidservant as a worthless woman, for I have spoken until now out of my great concern and <sup>d</sup>provocation.” <sup>17</sup>Then Eli answered and said, “Go in peace; and may the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of Him.” <sup>18</sup>She said, “Let your maidservant find favor in your sight.” So the woman went her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad. ### Samuel Is Born to Hannah

<sup>19</sup> Then they arose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD, and returned again to their house in Ramah. And Elkanah <sup>a</sup>had relations with Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her. <sup>20</sup>It came about <sup>b</sup>in due time, after Hannah had conceived, that she gave birth to a son; and she named him Samuel, saying, “Because I have asked him of the LORD.” [<sup>19</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit knew <sup>20</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit at the circuit of the days]

<sup>21</sup> Then the man Elkanah went up with all his household to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and pay his vow. <sup>22</sup>But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, “I will not go up until the child is weaned; then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD and stay there forever.” <sup>23</sup>Elkanah her husband said to her, “Do what seems best <sup>a</sup>to you. Remain until you have weaned him; only may the LORD confirm His word.” So the woman remained and nursed her son until she weaned him. <sup>24</sup>Now when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with a three-year-old bull and one ephah of flour and a jug of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD in Shiloh, although the child was young. <sup>25</sup>Then they slaughtered the bull, and brought the boy to Eli. <sup>26</sup>She said, “Oh, my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you, praying to the LORD. <sup>27</sup>For this boy I prayed, and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of Him. <sup>28</sup>So I have also <sup>b</sup>dedicated him to the LORD; as long as he lives he is <sup>b</sup>dedicated to the LORD.” And he worshiped the LORD there.

Hannah's Song of Thanksgiving

1 Then Hannah prayed and said,

Nor is there any rock like our God.

But she who has many children languishes.

He brings low, He also exalts.

<sup>8</sup>“He raises the poor from the dust,
He lifts the needy from the ash heap
To make them sit with nobles,
And inherit a seat of honor;
For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's,
And He set the world on them.

<sup>9</sup>“He keeps the feet of His godly ones,
But the wicked ones are silenced in darkness;
For not by might shall a man prevail.

<sup>10</sup>“Those who contend with the LORD will be shattered;
Against them He will thunder in the heavens,
The LORD will judge the ends of the earth;
And He will give strength to His king,
And will exalt the <sup>a</sup>horn of His anointed.” [<sup>a</sup>I.e. strength]

The Sin of Eli's Sons

21 The LORD visited Hannah; and she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew before the LORD.

Eli Rebukes His Sons

22 Now Eli was very old; and he heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who served at the doorway of the tent of meeting. <sup>23</sup>He said to them, “Why do you do such things, the evil things that I hear from all these people? <sup>24</sup>No, my sons; for the report is not good which I hear <sup>a</sup>the LORD’s people circulating. <sup>25</sup>If one man sins against another, God will mediate for him; but if a man sins against the LORD, who can intercede for him?” But they would not listen to the voice of their father, for the LORD desired to put them to death. [24 <sup>a</sup>Or making the LORD’S people transgress]

26 Now the boy Samuel <sup>a</sup>was growing in stature and in favor both with the LORD and with men. [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit was going on both great and good]

27 Then a man of God came to Eli and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Did I not indeed reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt in bondage to Pharaoh’s house? <sup>28</sup>Did I not choose them from all the tribes of Israel to be My priests, to go up to My altar, to burn incense, to carry an ephod before Me; and did I not give to the house of your father all the fire offerings of the sons of Israel? <sup>29</sup>Why do you kick at My sacrifice and at My offering which I have commanded in My dwelling, and honor your sons above Me, by making yourselves fat with the <sup>a</sup>choicest of every offering of My people Israel?’ <sup>30</sup>Therefore the LORD God of Israel declares, ‘I did indeed say that your house and the house of your father should walk before Me forever’; but now the LORD declares, ‘Far be it from Me—for those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me will be lightly esteemed. <sup>31</sup>Behold, the days are coming when I will break your <sup>b</sup>strength and the <sup>b</sup>strength of your father’s house so that there will not be an old man in your house. <sup>32</sup>You will see the distress of My dwelling, in spite of all the

<sup>33</sup>Yet I will not cut off every man of yours from My altar <sup>d</sup>so that your eyes will fail from weeping and your soul grieve, and all the increase of your house will die <sup>e</sup>in the prime of life. <sup>34</sup>This will be the sign to you which will come concerning your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: on the same day both of them will die. <sup>35</sup>But I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest who will do according to what is in My heart and in My soul; and I will build him an enduring house, and he will walk before My anointed always.

1 Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD before Eli. And word from the LORD was rare in those days, <sup>a</sup>visions were infrequent. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit no vision spread abroad]

2 It happened at that time as Eli was lying down in his place (now his eyesight had begun to grow dim and he could not see well), <sup>3</sup>and the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD where the ark of God was, <sup>4</sup>that the LORD called Samuel; and he said, “Here I am.” <sup>5</sup>Then he ran to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call, lie down again.” So he went and lay down. <sup>6</sup>The LORD called yet again, “Samuel!” So Samuel arose and went to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he <sup>a</sup>answered, “I did not call, my son, lie down again.” <sup>7</sup>Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, nor had the word of the LORD yet been revealed to him. <sup>8</sup>So the LORD called Samuel again for the third time. And he arose and went to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Then Eli discerned that the LORD was calling the boy. <sup>9</sup>And Eli said to Samuel, “Go lie down, and it shall be if He calls you, that you shall say, ‘Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place. [6 <sup>a</sup>Lit said]

10 Then the LORD came and stood and called as at other times, “Samuel! Samuel!” And Samuel said, “Speak, for Your servant is listening.” <sup>11</sup>The LORD said to Samuel, “Behold, I am about to do a thing in Israel at which both ears of everyone who hears it will tingle. <sup>12</sup>In that day I will carry out against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. <sup>13</sup>For I have told him that I am about to judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons brought a curse on themselves and he did not rebuke them. <sup>14</sup>Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever.”

15 So Samuel lay down until morning. Then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. But Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. <sup>16</sup>Then Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son.” And he said, “Here I am.” <sup>17</sup>He said, “What is the word that He spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. May God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the words that He spoke to you.” <sup>18</sup>So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. And he said, “It is the LORD; let Him do what seems good to Him.”

19 Thus Samuel grew and the LORD was with him and let none of his words <sup>a</sup>fail. <sup>20</sup>All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD appeared again at Shiloh, because the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD. Philistines Take the Ark in Victory <sup>1</sup> Thus the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out to meet the Philistines in battle and camped beside Ebenezer while the Philistines camped in Aphek. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines drew up in battle array to meet Israel. When the battle spread, Israel was <sup>a</sup>defeated before the Philistines who killed about four thousand men on the battlefield. <sup>3</sup> When the people came into the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us take to ourselves from Shiloh the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that <sup>b</sup>it may come among us and deliver us from the power of our enemies.” <sup>4</sup> So the people sent to Shiloh, and from there they carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts who sits above the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. [<sup>2</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit smitten <sup>3</sup> <sup>b</sup>Or he]

<sup>5</sup> As the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth resounded. <sup>6</sup> When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, “What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?” Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. <sup>7</sup> The Philistines were afraid, for they said, “God has come into the camp.” And they said, “Woe to us! For nothing like this has happened before. <sup>8</sup> Woe to us! Who shall deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who smote the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup> Take courage and be men, O Philistines, or you will become slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been slaves to you; therefore, be men and fight.”

1 Now the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. 2 Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it to the house of Dagon and set it by Dagon. 3 When the Ashdodites arose early the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and set him in his place again. 4 But when they arose early the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. And the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off on the threshold; <sup>a</sup>only the trunk of Dagon was left to him. 5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor all who enter Dagon's house tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day. [4 <sup>a</sup>So with ancient versions; Heb only Dagon]

6 Now the hand of the LORD was heavy on the Ashdodites, and He ravaged them and smote them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territories. 7 When the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, for His hand is severe on us and on Dagon our god." 8 So they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" And they said, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath." And they brought the ark of the God of Israel around. 9 After they had brought it around, the hand of the LORD was against the city with very great confusion; and He smote the men of the city, both young and old, so that tumors broke out on them. 10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And as the ark of God came to Ekron the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought the ark of the God of Israel around to <sup>a</sup>us, to kill <sup>a</sup>us and <sup>b</sup>our people." 11 They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its own place, so that it will not kill <sup>a</sup>us and <sup>b</sup>our people." For there was a deadly confusion throughout the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. 12 And the men who did not die were smitten with tumors and the cry of the city went up to heaven. [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit me <sup>b</sup>Lit my]

The Ark Returned to Israel

1 Now the ark of the LORD had been in the <sup>a</sup>country of the Philistines seven months. <sup>2</sup>And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, “What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us <sup>b</sup>how we shall send it to its place.” <sup>3</sup>They said, “If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty; but you shall surely return to Him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from you.” <sup>4</sup>Then they said, “What shall be the guilt offering which we shall return to Him?” And they said, “Five golden tumors and five golden mice according to the number of the lords of the Philistines, for one plague was on all of <sup>c</sup>you and on your lords. <sup>5</sup>So you shall make likenesses of your tumors and likenesses of your mice that ravage the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will ease His hand from you, your gods, and your land. <sup>6</sup>Why then do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He had severely dealt with them, did they not allow <sup>c</sup>the people to go, and they departed? <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, take and prepare a new cart and two milch cows on which there has never been a yoke; and hitch the cows to the cart and take their calves home, away from them. <sup>8</sup>Take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart; and put the articles of gold which you return to Him as a guilt offering in a box by its side. Then send it away that it may go. <sup>9</sup>Watch, if it goes up by the way of its own territory to Beth-shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we will know that it was not His hand that struck us; it happened to us by chance.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit field 2 <sup>b</sup>Or with what 4 <sup>c</sup>Lit them]

10 Then the men did so, and took two milch cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. <sup>11</sup>They put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the box with the golden mice and the likenesses of their tumors. <sup>12</sup>And the cows took the straight way in the <sup>a</sup>direction of Beth-shemesh; they went along the highway, lowing as they went, and did not turn aside to the right or to the left. And the lords of the Philistines followed them to the border of Beth-shemesh. [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit way]

13 Now the people of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley, and they raised their eyes and saw the ark and were glad to see it.

<sup>14</sup>The cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite and stood there where there was a large stone; and they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box that was with it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone; and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices that day to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>When the five lords of the Philistines saw it, they returned to Ekron that day.

17 These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron; <sup>18</sup>and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fortified cities and of country villages. The large <sup>a</sup>stone on which they set the ark of the LORD is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite. [18

19 He struck down some of the men of Beth-shemesh because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He struck down of all the people, 50,070 men, and the people mourned because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter. <sup>20</sup>The men of Beth-shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom shall He go up from us?”

<sup>21</sup>So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim, saying, “The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down and take it up to you.”

1 SAMUEL 7 [\[Books\]](#)

Deliverance from the Philistines

1 And the men of Kiriath-jearim came and took the ark of the LORD and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>From the day that the ark remained at Kiriath-jearim, the time was long, for it was twenty years; and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

3 Then Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, “If you return to the LORD with all your heart, remove the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you and direct your hearts to the LORD and serve Him alone; and He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines.” <sup>4</sup>So the sons of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth and served the LORD alone.

5 Then Samuel said, “Gather all Israel to Mizpah and I will pray to the LORD for you.” <sup>6</sup>They gathered to Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day and said there, “We have sinned against the LORD.” And Samuel judged the sons of Israel at Mizpah.

7 Now when the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered to Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the sons of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup>Then the sons of Israel said to Samuel, “Do not cease to cry to the LORD our God for us, that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines.” <sup>9</sup>Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it for a whole burnt offering to the LORD; and Samuel cried to the LORD for Israel and the LORD answered him. <sup>10</sup>Now Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, and the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But the LORD thundered with a great <sup>a</sup>thunder on that day against the Philistines and confused them, so that they were <sup>b</sup>routed before Israel. <sup>11</sup>The men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and struck them down as far as below Beth-car. [<sup>10</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit voice <sup>b</sup>Lit smitten]

12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and named it <sup>a</sup>Ebenezer, saying, “Thus far the LORD has helped us.” <sup>13</sup>So the Philistines were subdued and they did not come anymore within the border of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. <sup>14</sup>The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and Israel delivered their territory from the hand of the Philistines. So there was peace between Israel and the Amorites. [<sup>12</sup> <sup>a</sup>I.e. The stone of help]

Samuel's Ministry

15 Now Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. <sup>16</sup>He used to go annually on circuit to Bethel and Gilgal and Mizpah, and he judged Israel in all these places. <sup>17</sup>Then his return was to Ramah, for his house was there, and there he judged Israel; and he built there an altar to the LORD.

Israel Demands a King

1 And it came about when Samuel was old that he appointed his sons judges over Israel. <sup>2</sup>Now the name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judging in Beersheba. <sup>3</sup>His sons, however, did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after dishonest gain and took bribes and perverted justice.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah; <sup>5</sup>and they said to him, “Behold, you have grown old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now appoint a king for us to judge us like all the nations.” <sup>6</sup>But the thing was <sup>a</sup>displeasing in the sight of Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.” And Samuel prayed to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people in regard to all that they say to you, for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from being king over them. <sup>8</sup>Like all the deeds which they have done since the day that I brought them up from Egypt even to this day—in that they have forsaken Me and served other gods—so they are doing to you also. <sup>9</sup>Now then, listen to their voice; however, you shall solemnly <sup>b</sup>warn them and tell them of the <sup>c</sup>procedure of the king who will reign over them.” [<sup>6</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or evil <sup>9</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit testify to <sup>c</sup>Lit custom]

Warning concerning a King

10 So Samuel spoke all the words of the LORD to the people who had asked of him a king. <sup>11</sup>He said, “This will be the <sup>a</sup>procedure of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and place them for himself in his chariots and among his horsemen and they will run before his chariots. <sup>12</sup>He will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and of fifties, and some to <sup>b</sup>do his plowing and to reap his harvest and to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. <sup>13</sup>He will also take your daughters for perfumers and cooks and bakers. <sup>14</sup>He will take the best of your fields and your vineyards and your olive groves and give them to his servants. <sup>15</sup>He will take a tenth of your seed and of your vineyards and give to his officers and to his servants. <sup>16</sup>He will also take your male servants and your female servants and your best young men and your donkeys and <sup>c</sup>use them for his work. <sup>17</sup>He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his servants. <sup>18</sup>Then you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD will not answer you in that day.” [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit custom 12 <sup>b</sup>Lit plow his plowing 16 <sup>c</sup>Lit make]

<sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel, and they said, “No, but there shall be a king over us, <sup>20</sup>that we also may be like all the nations, that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.” <sup>21</sup>Now after Samuel had heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the LORD’S hearing. <sup>22</sup>The LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to their voice and <sup>a</sup>appoint them a king.” So Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Go every man to his city.” [22 <sup>a</sup>Lit cause a king to reign for them]

Saul's Search <sup>1</sup> Now there was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of <sup>a</sup>valor. <sup>2</sup> He had a son whose name was Saul, a choice and handsome man, and there was not a more handsome person than he among the sons of Israel; from his shoulders and up he was taller than any of the people. [<sup>1</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or wealth or influence]

<sup>3</sup> Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take now with you one of the servants, and arise, go search for the donkeys." <sup>4</sup> He passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.

<sup>5</sup> When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, and let us return, or else my father will cease to be concerned about the donkeys and will become anxious for us." <sup>6</sup> He said to him, "Behold now, there is a man of God in this city, and the man is held in honor; all that he says surely comes true. Now let us go there, perhaps he can tell us about our journey on which we have set out." <sup>7</sup> Then Saul said to his servant, "But behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread is gone from our sack and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?" <sup>8</sup> The servant answered Saul again and said, "Behold, I have in my hand a fourth of a shekel of silver; I will give it to the man of God and he will tell us our way." <sup>9</sup> (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he used to say, "Come, and let us go to the seer"; for he who is called a prophet now was formerly called a seer.) <sup>10</sup> Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

11 As they went up the slope to the city, they found young women going out to draw water and said to them, “Is the seer here?” <sup>12</sup>They answered them and said, “He is; <sup>a</sup>see, he is ahead of you. Hurry now, for he has come into the city today, for the people have a sacrifice on the high place today. <sup>13</sup>As soon as you enter the city you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat, for the people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. Now therefore, go up for you will find him at once.” <sup>14</sup>So they went up to the city. As they came into the city, behold, Samuel was coming out toward them to go up to the high place. [<sup>12</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or behold]

God's Choice for King <sup>15</sup> Now a day before Saul's coming, the LORD had <sup>a</sup>revealed this to Samuel saying, <sup>16</sup>“About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over My people Israel; and he will deliver My people from the hand of the Philistines. For I have regarded My people, because their cry has come to Me.” <sup>17</sup>When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD <sup>b</sup>said to him, “Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you! This one shall rule over My people.” <sup>18</sup>Then Saul approached Samuel in the gate and said, “Please tell me where the seer's house is.” <sup>19</sup>Samuel answered Saul and said, “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and in the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is on your mind. <sup>20</sup>As for your donkeys which were lost three days ago, do not set your mind on them, for they have been found. And for whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you and for all your father's household?” <sup>21</sup>Saul replied, “Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my family the least of all the families of the <sup>c</sup>tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak to me in this way?” [<sup>15</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit uncovered the ear <sup>17</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit answered <sup>21</sup> <sup>c</sup>So some ancient versions; Heb tribes]

<sup>22</sup> Then Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall and gave them a place at the head of those who were invited, who were about thirty men. <sup>23</sup>Samuel said to the cook, “<sup>a</sup>Bring the portion that I gave you, concerning which I said to you, ‘Set it <sup>b</sup>aside.’” <sup>24</sup>Then the cook took up the leg with what was on it and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, “Here is what has been reserved! Set it before you and eat, because it has been kept for you until the appointed time, <sup>c</sup>since I said I have invited the people.” So Saul ate with Samuel that day. [<sup>23</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit Give <sup>b</sup>Lit with you <sup>24</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit saying]

<sup>25</sup> When they came down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul on the <sup>a</sup>roof. <sup>26</sup>And they arose early; and at daybreak Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, “Get up, that I may send you away.” So Saul arose, and both he and Samuel went out into the street. <sup>27</sup>As they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuel said to Saul, “Say to the servant that he might go ahead of us and pass on, but you remain standing now, that I may proclaim the word of God to you.” [<sup>25</sup> <sup>a</sup>Gr adds and they spread a bed for Saul on the roof and he slept]

Saul among Prophets

1 Then Samuel took the flask of oil, poured it on his head, kissed him and said, “Has not the LORD anointed you a ruler over His inheritance? 2When you go from me today, then you will find two men close to Rachel’s tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to you, ‘The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. Now behold, your father has <sup>a</sup>ceased to be concerned about the donkeys and is anxious for you, saying, “What shall I do about my son?” ’ 3Then you will go on further from there, and you will come as far as the <sup>b</sup>oak of Tabor, and there three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a jug of wine; 4and they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from their hand. 5Afterward you will come to <sup>c</sup>the hill of God where the Philistine garrison is; and it shall be as soon as you have come there to the city, that you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place with harp, tambourine, flute, and a lyre before them, and they will be prophesying. 6Then the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you mightily, and you shall prophesy with them and be changed into another man. 7It shall be when these signs come to you, do for yourself what <sup>d</sup>the occasion requires, for God is with you. 8And you shall go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and sacrifice peace offerings. You shall wait seven days until I come to you and show you what you should do.” [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit abandoned the matter of 3 <sup>b</sup>Or terebinth 5 <sup>c</sup>Or Gibeath-haelohim 7 <sup>d</sup>Lit your hand finds]

9 Then it happened when he turned his back to leave Samuel, God changed <sup>a</sup>his heart; and all those signs came about on that day. 10When they came to <sup>b</sup>the hill there, behold, a group of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him mightily, so that he prophesied among them. 11It came about, when all who knew him previously saw that he prophesied now with the prophets, that the people said to one another, “What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?” <sup>12</sup>A man there said, “Now, who is their father?” Therefore it became a proverb: “Is Saul also among the prophets?” <sup>13</sup>When he had finished prophesying, he came to the high place. [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit for him another heart 10 <sup>b</sup>Or Gibeath]

<sup>14</sup> Now Saul’s uncle said to him and his servant, “Where did you go?” And he said, “To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they could not be found, we went to Samuel.” <sup>15</sup>Saul’s uncle said, “Please tell me what Samuel said to you.” <sup>16</sup>So Saul said to his uncle, “He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found.” But he did not tell him about the matter of the kingdom which Samuel had mentioned.

Saul Publicly Chosen King

<sup>17</sup> Thereafter Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah; <sup>18</sup>and he said to the sons of Israel, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘I brought Israel up from Egypt, and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the <sup>a</sup>power of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.’ <sup>19</sup>But you have today rejected your God, who delivers you from all your calamities and your distresses; yet you have <sup>b</sup>said, ‘No, but set a king over us!’ Now therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans.” [18 <sup>a</sup>Lit hand 19 <sup>b</sup>So with several mss and versions; M.T. said to Him]

<sup>20</sup> Thus Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken by lot. <sup>21</sup>Then he brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the Matrite family was taken. And Saul the son of Kish was taken; but when they looked for him, he could not be found. <sup>22</sup>Therefore they inquired further of the LORD, “Has the man come here yet?” So the LORD said, “Behold, he is hiding himself by the baggage.” <sup>23</sup>So they ran and took him from there, and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward. <sup>24</sup>Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen? Surely there is no one like him among all the people.” So all the people shouted and said, “<sup>a</sup>Long live the king!” [24 <sup>a</sup>Lit May the king live]

25 Then Samuel told the people the ordinances of the kingdom, and wrote them in the book and placed it before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, each one to his house. <sup>26</sup>Saul also went to his house at Gibeah; and the valiant men whose hearts God had touched went with him. <sup>27</sup>But certain <sup>a</sup>worthless men said, “How can this one deliver us?” And they despised him and did not bring him any present. Saul Defeats the Ammonites 1 Now Nahash the Ammonite came up and <sup>a</sup>besieged Jabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a covenant with us and we will serve you.” 2But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, “I will make it with you on this condition, that I will gouge out the right eye of every one of you, thus I will make it a reproach on all Israel.” 3The elders of Jabesh said to him, “Let us alone for seven days, that we may send messengers throughout the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to deliver us, we will come out to you.” 4Then the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and spoke these words in the hearing of the people, and all the people lifted up their voices and wept. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit camped against]

5 Now behold, Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen, and <sup>a</sup>he said, “What is the matter with the people that they weep?” So they related to him the words of the men of Jabesh. 6Then the Spirit of God came upon Saul mightily when he heard these words, and <sup>b</sup>he became very angry. 7He took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, “Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen.” Then the dread of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out as one man. 8He <sup>c</sup>numbered them in Bezek; and the sons of Israel were 300,000, and the men of Judah 30,000. 9They said to the messengers who had come, “Thus you shall say to the men of Jabesh-gilead, ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will have deliverance.’” So the messengers went and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. 10Then the men of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good <sup>d</sup>to you.” 11The next morning Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp at the morning watch and struck down the Ammonites until the heat of the day. Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed, or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? 6 Then Samuel said to the people, “It is the LORD who <sup>a</sup>appointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>So now, take your stand, that I may plead with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did for you and your fathers. <sup>8</sup>When Jacob went into Egypt and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron <sup>b</sup>who brought your fathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place. <sup>9</sup>But they forgot the LORD their God, so He sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them. <sup>10</sup>They cried out to the LORD and said, ‘We have sinned because we have forsaken the LORD and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth; but now deliver us from the hands of our enemies, and we will serve You.’ <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD sent Jerubbaal and <sup>c</sup>Bedan and Jephthah and Samuel, and delivered you from the hands of your enemies all around, so that you lived in security. ## The King Confirmed

<sup>12</sup>When you saw that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon came against you, you said to me, ‘No, but a king shall reign over us,’ although the LORD your God was your king. <sup>13</sup>Now therefore, here is the king whom you have chosen, whom you have asked for, and behold, the LORD has set a king over you. <sup>14</sup>If you will fear the LORD and serve Him, and listen to His voice and not rebel against the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD, then both you and also the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God. <sup>15</sup>If you will not listen to the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you, as it was against your fathers. <sup>16</sup>Even now, take your stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes. <sup>17</sup>Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call to the LORD, that He may send <sup>b</sup>thunder and rain. Then you will know and see that your wickedness is great which you have done in the sight of the LORD by asking for yourselves a king.” <sup>18</sup>So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent <sup>b</sup>thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel. [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit mouth 17 <sup>b</sup>Lit sounds]

<sup>19</sup> Then all the people said to Samuel, “Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, so that we may not die, for we have added to all our sins this evil by asking for ourselves a king.” <sup>20</sup>Samuel said to the people, “Do not fear. You have committed all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart. <sup>21</sup>You must not turn aside, for then you would go after futile things which can not profit or deliver, because they are futile. <sup>22</sup>For the LORD will not abandon His people on account of His great name, because the LORD has been pleased to make you a people for Himself. <sup>23</sup>Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; but I will instruct you in the good and right way. <sup>24</sup>Only <sup>a</sup>fear the LORD and serve Him in truth with all your heart; for consider what great things He has done for you. <sup>25</sup>But if you still do wickedly, both you and your king will be swept away.” [24 <sup>a</sup>Or reverence]

War with the Philistines 1 Saul was <sup>a</sup>thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned <sup>b</sup>forty two years over Israel. [1 <sup>a</sup>As in some mss of the LXX; Heb omits thirty <sup>b</sup>See Acts 13:21; Heb omits forty]

2 Now Saul chose for himself 3,000 men of Israel, of which 2,000 were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, while 1,000 were with Jonathan at Gibeah of Benjamin. But he sent away the rest of the people, each to his tent. <sup>3</sup>Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear.”

5 Now the Philistines assembled to fight with Israel, 30,000 chariots and 6,000 horsemen, and people like the sand which is on the seashore in abundance; and they came up and camped in Michmash, east of Bethaven. <sup>6</sup>When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were hard-pressed), then the people hid themselves in caves, in thickets, in cliffs, in cellars, and in pits. <sup>7</sup>Also some of the Hebrews crossed the Jordan into the land of Gad and Gilead. But as for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

8 Now he waited seven days, according to the appointed time set by Samuel, but Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattering from him. <sup>9</sup>So Saul said, “Bring to me the burnt offering and the peace offerings.” And he offered the burnt offering. <sup>10</sup>As soon as he finished offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him and to <sup>a</sup>greet him. <sup>11</sup>But Samuel said, “What have you done?” And Saul said, “Because I saw that the people were scattering from me, and that you did not come within the appointed days, and that the Philistines were assembling at Michmash, <sup>12</sup>therefore I said, ‘Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and I have not asked the favor of the LORD.’ So I forced myself and offered the burnt offering.” <sup>13</sup>Samuel said to Saul, “You have acted foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, for now the LORD would have established your kingdom <sup>b</sup>over Israel forever. <sup>14</sup>But now your kingdom shall not endure. The LORD has sought out for Himself a man after His own heart, and the LORD has appointed him as ruler over His people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you.” [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit bless 13 <sup>b</sup>Lit to]

1 Now the day came that Jonathan, the son of Saul, said to the young man who was carrying his armor, "Come and let us cross over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side." But he did not tell his father. <sup>2</sup>Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron. And the people who were with him were about six hundred men, <sup>3</sup>and Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD at Shiloh, was <sup>a</sup>wearing an ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had gone. <sup>4</sup>Between the passes by which Jonathan sought to cross over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp crag on the one side and a sharp crag on the other side, and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. <sup>5</sup>The one crag rose on the north opposite Michmash, and the other on the south opposite Geba. [<sup>3</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit carrying]

<sup>6</sup> Then Jonathan said to the young man who was carrying his armor, "Come and let us cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; perhaps the LORD will work for us, for the LORD is not restrained to save by many or by few." <sup>7</sup>His armor bearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart; turn yourself, and here I am with you according to your <sup>a</sup>desire." <sup>8</sup>Then Jonathan said, "Behold, we will cross over to the men and reveal ourselves to them. <sup>9</sup>If they <sup>b</sup>say to us, 'Wait until we come to you'; then we will stand in our place and not go up to them. <sup>10</sup>But if they <sup>b</sup>say, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up, for the LORD has given them into our hands; and this shall be the sign to us." <sup>11</sup>When both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines, the Philistines said, "Behold, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden themselves." <sup>12</sup>So the men of the garrison <sup>c</sup>hailed Jonathan and his armor bearer and said, "Come up to us and we will tell you something." And Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come up after me, for the LORD has given them into the hands of Israel." <sup>13</sup>Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, with his armor bearer behind him; and they fell before Jonathan, and his armor bearer put some to death after him. <sup>14</sup>That first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor bearer made was about twenty men within about half a furrow in an acre of land. <sup>15</sup>And there was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. Even the garrison and the raiders trembled, and the earth quaked so that it became a <sup>d</sup>great trembling. <sup>16</sup> Now Saul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude melted away; and they went here and there. <sup>17</sup> Saul said to the people who were with him, "<sup>a</sup>Number now and see who has gone from us." And when they had <sup>a</sup>numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there. <sup>18</sup> Then Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here." For the ark of God was at that time with the sons of Israel. <sup>19</sup> While Saul talked to the priest, the commotion in the camp of the Philistines continued and increased; so Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand." <sup>20</sup> Then Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and came to the battle; and behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was very great confusion. <sup>21</sup> Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines previously, who went up with them all around in the camp, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup> When all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, even they also pursued them closely in the battle. <sup>23</sup> So the LORD delivered Israel that day, and the battle <sup>b</sup>spread beyond Beth-aven. ### Saul's Foolish Order people under oath; therefore, he put out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened. <sup>28</sup>Then one of the people said, “Your father strictly put the people under oath, saying, ‘Cursed be the man who eats food today.’ ” And the people were weary. <sup>29</sup>Then Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land. See now, how my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey. <sup>30</sup>How much more, if only the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great.” [24 <sup>a</sup>Lit until]

<sup>31</sup> They struck among the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. And the people were very weary. <sup>32</sup>The people <sup>a</sup>rushed greedily upon the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and slew them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood. <sup>33</sup>Then they told Saul, saying, “Behold, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood.” And he said, “You have acted treacherously; roll a great stone to me today.” <sup>34</sup>Saul said, “Disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, ‘Each one of you bring me his ox or his sheep, and slaughter it here and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.’ ” So all the people that night brought each one his ox <sup>b</sup>with him and slaughtered it there. <sup>35</sup>And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD. [32 <sup>a</sup>Lit did with regard to the spoil 34 <sup>b</sup>Lit in his hand]

<sup>36</sup> Then Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night and take spoil among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them.” And they said, “Do whatever seems good <sup>a</sup>to you.” So the priest said, “Let us draw near to God here.” <sup>37</sup>Saul inquired of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You give them into the hand of Israel?” But He did not answer him on that day. <sup>38</sup>Saul said, “Draw near here, all you <sup>b</sup>chiefs of the people, and investigate and see how this sin has happened today. <sup>39</sup>For as the LORD lives, who delivers Israel, though it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die.” But not one of all the people answered him. <sup>40</sup>Then he said to all Israel, “You shall be on one side and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side.” And the people said to Saul, “Do what seems good <sup>a</sup>to you.” <sup>41</sup>Therefore, Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, “Give a perfect lot.” And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped. <sup>42</sup>Saul said, “Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son.” And Jonathan was taken. [36 <sup>a</sup>Lit in your eyes 38 <sup>b</sup>Lit corners]

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” So Jonathan told him and said, “I indeed tasted a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am, I must die!” <sup>44</sup>Saul said, “May God do <sup>a</sup>this to me and more also, for you shall surely die, Jonathan.” <sup>45</sup>But the people said to Saul, “Must Jonathan die, who has <sup>b</sup>brought about this great deliverance in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day.” So the people <sup>c</sup>rescued Jonathan and he did not die. <sup>46</sup>Then Saul went up from <sup>d</sup>pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place. ### Constant Warfare

47 Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, the sons of Ammon, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines; and wherever he turned, he <sup>a</sup>inflicted punishment. <sup>48</sup>He acted valiantly and <sup>b</sup>defeated the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hands of <sup>c</sup>those who plundered them. ### Saul's Disobedience

1 Then Samuel said to Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you as king over His people, over Israel; now therefore, listen to the <sup>a</sup>words of the LORD.
2 Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘I will <sup>b</sup>punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, how he set himself against him on the way while he was coming up from Egypt. 3 Now go and strike Amalek and utterly destroy all that he has, and do not spare him; but put to death both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’ ” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit sound of the words 2 <sup>b</sup>Or visit]

4 Then Saul summoned the people and <sup>a</sup>numbered them in Telaim, 200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 men of Judah. 5 Saul came to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the valley. 6 Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, depart, go down from among the Amalekites, so that I do not destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the sons of Israel when they came up from Egypt.” So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. 7 So Saul <sup>b</sup>defeated the Amalekites, from Havilah as you go to Shur, which is <sup>c</sup>east of Egypt. 8 He captured Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. 9 But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fatlings, the lambs, and all that was good, and were not willing to destroy them utterly; but everything despised and worthless, that they utterly destroyed. ### Samuel Rebukes Saul

10 Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying, <sup>11</sup>“I regret that I have made Saul king, for he has turned back from <sup>a</sup>following Me and has not carried out My commands.” And Samuel was distressed and cried out to the LORD all night. <sup>12</sup>Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul; and it was told Samuel, saying, “Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a monument for himself, then turned and proceeded on <sup>b</sup>down to Gilgal.”

<sup>13</sup>Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, “Blessed are you of the LORD! I have carried out the command of the LORD.” <sup>14</sup>But Samuel said, “What then is this <sup>c</sup>bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the <sup>c</sup>lowing of the oxen which I hear?” <sup>15</sup>Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekites, for the people spared the best of the sheep and oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; but the rest we have utterly destroyed.” <sup>16</sup>Then Samuel said to Saul, “Wait, and let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night.” And he said to him, “Speak!” [<sup>11</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit after <sup>12</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit and went down <sup>14</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit sound]

<sup>17</sup> Samuel said, “Is it not true, though you were little in your own eyes, you were made the head of the tribes of Israel? And the LORD anointed you king over Israel, <sup>18</sup>and the LORD sent you on a <sup>a</sup>mission, and said, ‘Go and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are exterminated.’ <sup>19</sup>Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD, but rushed upon the spoil and did what was evil in the sight of the LORD?” [<sup>18</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit way]

<sup>20</sup> Then Saul said to Samuel, “I did obey the voice of the LORD, and went on the <sup>a</sup>mission on which the LORD sent me, and have brought back Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. <sup>21</sup>But the people took some of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the choicest of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to the LORD your God at Gilgal.” <sup>22</sup>Samuel said,

“Has the LORD as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices
As in obeying the voice of the LORD?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed than the fat of rams. [<sup>20</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit way]

And insubordination is as iniquity and idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,
He has also rejected you from being king.”

24 Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned; I have indeed transgressed the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and listened to their voice. <sup>25</sup>Now therefore, please pardon my sin and return with me, that I may worship the LORD.” <sup>26</sup>But Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.” <sup>27</sup>As Samuel turned to go, Saul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore. <sup>28</sup>So Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to your neighbor, who is better than you. <sup>29</sup>Also the <sup>b</sup>Glory of Israel will not lie or change His mind; for He is not a man that He should change His mind.” <sup>30</sup>Then he said, “I have sinned; but please honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and go back with me, that I may worship the LORD your God.” <sup>31</sup>So Samuel went back following Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD. [<sup>24</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit mouth <sup>29</sup> <sup>b</sup>Or Eminence]

32 Then Samuel said, “Bring me Agag, the king of the Amalekites.” And Agag came to him <sup>a</sup>cheerfully. And Agag said, “Surely the bitterness of death is past.” <sup>33</sup>But Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women.” And Samuel hewed Agag to pieces before the LORD at Gilgal. [<sup>32</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or in bonds]

34 Then Samuel went to Ramah, but Saul went up to his house at Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35</sup>Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death; for Samuel grieved over Saul. And the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

Samuel Goes to Bethlehem

1 Now the LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you grieve over Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have selected a king for Myself among his sons.”<sup>2</sup> But Samuel said, “How can I go? When Saul hears of it, he will kill me.” And the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’”<sup>3</sup> You shall invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for Me the one whom I <sup>a</sup>designate to you.”<sup>4</sup> So Samuel did what the LORD said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city came trembling to meet him and said, “Do you come in peace?”<sup>5</sup> He said, “In peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” He also consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit say to you]

6 When they entered, he looked at Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is before Him.”<sup>7</sup> But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not look at his appearance or at the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for <sup>a</sup>God sees not as man sees, for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”<sup>8</sup> Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.”<sup>9</sup> Next Jesse made <sup>b</sup>Shammah pass by. And he said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.”<sup>10</sup> Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen these.”<sup>11</sup> And Samuel said to Jesse, “Are these all the children?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, and behold, he is tending the sheep.” Then Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and <sup>c</sup>bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here.” [7 <sup>a</sup>So with Gr; Heb He does not see what man sees 9 <sup>b</sup>In 2 Sam 13:3, Shimeah; in 1 Chr 2:13, Shimea 11 <sup>c</sup>Lit take]

David Anointed

<sup>12</sup>So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. And the LORD said, “Arise, anoint him; for this is he.” <sup>13</sup>Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. And Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

<sup>14</sup> Now the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD terrorized him. <sup>15</sup>Saul’s servants then said to him, “Behold now, an evil spirit from God is terrorizing you. <sup>16</sup>Let our lord now command your servants who are before you. Let them seek a man who is a skillful player on the harp; and it shall come about when the evil spirit from God is on you, that he shall play the harp with his hand, and you will be well.” <sup>17</sup>So Saul said to his servants, “Provide for me now a man who can play well and bring him to me.” <sup>18</sup>Then one of the young men said, “Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is a skillful musician, a mighty man of valor, a warrior, one prudent in speech, and a handsome man; and the LORD is with him.” <sup>19</sup>So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, “Send me your son David who is with the flock.” <sup>20</sup>Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread and a jug of wine and a young goat, and sent them to Saul by David his son. <sup>21</sup>Then David came to Saul and <sup>a</sup>attended him; and <sup>b</sup>Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armor bearer. <sup>22</sup>Saul sent to Jesse, saying, “Let David now stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight.” <sup>23</sup>So it came about whenever the evil spirit from God came to Saul, David would take the harp and play it with his hand; and Saul would be refreshed and be well, and the evil spirit would depart from him. Goliath's Challenge <sup>1</sup> Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle; and they were gathered at Socoh which belongs to Judah, and they camped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim. <sup>2</sup> Saul and the men of Israel were gathered and camped in the valley of Elah, and drew up in battle array to encounter the Philistines. <sup>3</sup> The Philistines stood on the mountain on one side while Israel stood on the mountain on the other side, with the valley between them. <sup>4</sup> Then a champion came out from the armies of the Philistines named Goliath, from Gath, whose height was six <sup>a</sup> cubits and a span. <sup>5</sup> He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he was clothed with scale-armor <sup>b</sup> which weighed five thousand shekels of bronze. <sup>6</sup> He also had bronze <sup>c</sup> greaves on his legs and a bronze javelin slung between his shoulders. <sup>7</sup> The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and the head of his spear weighed six hundred shekels of iron; his shield-carrier also walked before him. <sup>8</sup> He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel and said to them, "Why do you come out to draw up in battle array? Am I not the Philistine and you servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves and let him come down to me. <sup>9</sup> If he is able to fight with me and <sup>d</sup> kill me, then we will become your servants; but if I prevail against him and <sup>d</sup> kill him, then you shall become our servants and serve us." <sup>10</sup> Again the Philistine said, "I defy the ranks of Israel this day; give me a man that we may fight together."

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesse said to David his son, "Take now for your brothers an ephah of this roasted grain and these ten loaves and run to the camp to your brothers. <sup>18</sup>Bring also these ten cuts of cheese to the commander of their thousand, and look into the welfare of your brothers, and bring back <sup>a</sup>news of them. <sup>19</sup>For Saul and they and all the men of Israel are in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines." [<sup>18</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit their pledge]

David Accepts the Challenge <sup>20</sup> So David arose early in the morning and left the flock with a keeper and took the supplies and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the circle of the camp while the army was going out in battle array shouting the war cry. <sup>21</sup>Israel and the Philistines drew up in battle array, army against army. <sup>22</sup>Then David left his baggage in the <sup>a</sup>care of the baggage keeper, and ran to the battle line and entered in order to greet his brothers. <sup>23</sup>As he was talking with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine from Gath named Goliath, was coming up from the army of the Philistines, and he spoke these same words; and David heard them. [<sup>22</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit hand]

<sup>24</sup> When all the men of Israel saw the man, they fled from him and were greatly afraid. <sup>25</sup>The men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who is coming up? Surely he is coming up to defy Israel. And it will be that the king will enrich the man who kills him with great riches and will give him his daughter and make his father's house <sup>a</sup>free in Israel." [<sup>25</sup> <sup>a</sup>I.e. free from taxes and public service]

<sup>26</sup> Then David spoke to the men who were standing by him, saying, "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should taunt the armies of the living God?" <sup>27</sup>The people <sup>a</sup>answered him in accord with this word, saying, "Thus it will be done for the man who kills him." [<sup>27</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit said to]

28 Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger burned against David and he said, "Why have you come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your insolence and the wickedness of your heart; for you have come down in order to see the battle." 29 But David said, "What have I done now? Was it not just a <sup>a</sup>question?" 30 Then he turned <sup>b</sup>away from him to another and said the same thing; and the people answered the same thing as <sup>c</sup>before. [29 <sup>a</sup>Lit word 30 <sup>b</sup>Lit from beside him <sup>c</sup>Lit the former word]

David Kills Goliath 31 When the words which David spoke were heard, they told them <sup>a</sup>to Saul, and he sent for him. 32 David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail on account of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." 33 Then Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are but a youth while he has been a warrior from his youth." 34 But David said to Saul, "Your servant was tending his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear came and took a lamb from the flock, <sup>35</sup>I went out after him and <sup>b</sup>attacked him, and rescued it from his mouth; and when he rose up against me, I seized him by his beard and <sup>b</sup>struck him and killed him. <sup>36</sup>Your servant has <sup>c</sup>killed both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, since he has taunted the armies of the living God." 37 And David said, "The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and may the LORD be with you." 38 Then Saul clothed David with his garments and put a bronze helmet on his head, and he clothed him with armor. 39 David girded his sword over his armor and tried to walk, for he had not tested them. So David said to Saul, "I cannot go with these, for I have not tested them." And David took them <sup>d</sup>off. 40 He took his stick in his hand and chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, even in his pouch, and his sling was in his hand; and he approached the Philistine. [31 <sup>a</sup>Lit before 35 <sup>b</sup>Lit smote 36 <sup>c</sup>Lit smitten 39 <sup>d</sup>Lit off from himself]

41 Then the Philistine came on and approached David, with the shield-bearer in front of him. 42When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ruddy, with a handsome appearance. 43The Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. 44The Philistine also said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky and the beasts of the field.” 45Then David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have taunted. 46This day the LORD will deliver you up into my hands, and I will strike you down and remove your head from you. And I will give the dead bodies of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky and the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, 47and that all this assembly may know that the LORD does not deliver by sword or by spear; for the battle is the LORD’S and He will give you into our hands.”

48 Then it happened when the Philistine rose and came and drew near to meet David, that David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine. 49And David put his hand into his bag and took from it a stone and slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead. And the stone sank into his forehead, so that he fell on his face to the ground.

50 Thus David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and he struck the Philistine and killed him; but there was no sword in David’s hand. 51Then David ran and stood over the Philistine and took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. 52The men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted and pursued the Philistines <sup>a</sup>as far as the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the slain Philistines <sup>b</sup>lay along the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath and Ekron. 53The sons of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines and plundered their camps. 54Then David took the Philistine’s head and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his weapons in his tent. [52 <sup>a</sup>Lit until your coming to <sup>b</sup>Lit fell]

55 Now when Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner the commander of the army, “Abner, whose son is this young man?” And Abner said, “By your life, O king, I do not know.” <sup>56</sup>The king said, “You inquire whose son the youth is.” <sup>57</sup>So when David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the Philistine’s head in his hand. <sup>58</sup>Saul said to him, “Whose son are you, young man?” And David answered, “I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.”

Jonathan and David

1 Now it came about when he had finished speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as himself.

<sup>8</sup>Then Saul became very angry, for this saying <sup>c</sup>displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, but to me they have ascribed thousands. Now what more can he have but the kingdom?" <sup>9</sup>Saul looked at David with suspicion from that day on. [<sup>6</sup> <sup>a</sup>I.e. triangles; or three-stringed instruments <sup>7</sup> <sup>b</sup>Or danced <sup>8</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit was evil in his eyes]

Saul Turns against David <sup>10</sup> Now it came about on the next day that an evil spirit from God came mightily upon Saul, and he raved in the midst of the house, while David was playing the harp with his hand, <sup>a</sup>as usual; and <sup>b</sup>a spear was in Saul's hand. <sup>11</sup>Saul hurled the spear for he thought, "I will <sup>c</sup>pin David to the wall." But David <sup>d</sup>escaped from his

17 Then Saul said to David, “Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife, only be a valiant man for me and fight the LORD’S battles.” For Saul thought, “My hand shall not be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him.” <sup>18</sup>But David said to Saul, “Who am I, and what is my life or my father’s family in Israel, that I should be the king’s son-in-law?” <sup>19</sup>So it came about at the time when Merab, Saul’s daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a wife.

David Marries Saul’s Daughter 20 Now Michal, Saul’s daughter, loved David. When they told Saul, the thing was agreeable <sup>a</sup>to him. <sup>21</sup>Saul thought, “I will give her to him that she may become a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” Therefore Saul said to David, “For a second time you may be my son-in-law today.” <sup>22</sup>Then Saul commanded his servants, “Speak to David secretly, saying, ‘Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you; now therefore, become the king’s son-in-law.’ ” <sup>23</sup>So Saul’s servants spoke these words <sup>b</sup>to David. But David said, “Is it trivial in your sight to become the king’s son-in-law, since I am a poor man and lightly esteemed?” <sup>24</sup>The servants of Saul reported to him <sup>c</sup>according to these words which David spoke. <sup>25</sup>Saul then said, “Thus you shall say to David, ‘The king does not desire any dowry except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king’s enemies.’ ” Now Saul planned to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. <sup>26</sup>When his servants told David these words, <sup>d</sup>it pleased David to become the king's son-in-law. <sup>e</sup>Before the days had expired <sup>27</sup>David rose up and went, he and his men, and struck down two hundred men among the Philistines. Then David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. So Saul gave him Michal his daughter for a wife. <sup>28</sup>When Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him, <sup>29</sup>then Saul was even more afraid of David. Thus Saul was David's enemy continually. <sup>30</sup> Then the commanders of the Philistines went out to battle, and it happened as often as they went out, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul. So his name was highly esteemed.

1 SAMUEL 19 [\[Books\]](#)

David Protected from Saul <sup>1</sup> Now Saul told Jonathan his son and all his servants to put David to death. But Jonathan, Saul's son, greatly delighted in David. <sup>2</sup> So Jonathan told David saying, "Saul my father is seeking to put you to death. Now therefore, please be on guard in the morning, and stay in a secret place and hide yourself. <sup>3</sup> I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you; if I <sup>a</sup>find out anything, then I will tell you." <sup>4</sup> Then Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father and said to him, "Do not let the king sin against his servant David, since he has not sinned against you, and since his deeds have been very <sup>b</sup>beneficial to you. <sup>5</sup> For he took his life in his hand and struck the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great deliverance for all Israel; you saw it and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood by putting David to death without a cause?" <sup>6</sup> Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan, and Saul vowed, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death." <sup>7</sup> Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these words. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as formerly. [<sup>3</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit see <sup>4</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit good]

<sup>8</sup> When there was war again, David went out and fought with the Philistines and <sup>a</sup>defeated them with great slaughter, so that they fled before him. <sup>9</sup> Now there was an evil spirit from the LORD on Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, and David was playing the harp with his hand. <sup>10</sup> Saul tried to <sup>b</sup>pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, so that he <sup>c</sup>stuck the spear into the wall. And David fled and escaped that night. [<sup>8</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit smote <sup>10</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit strike David and the wall <sup>c</sup>Lit struck]

<sup>11</sup> Then Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him, in order to put him to death in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be put to death." <sup>12</sup> So Michal let David down through a window, and he went out and fled and escaped. <sup>13</sup>Michal took the <sup>a</sup>household idol and laid it on the bed, and put a quilt of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with clothes. <sup>14</sup>When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick." <sup>15</sup>Then Saul sent messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me on <sup>b</sup>his bed, that I may put him to death." <sup>16</sup>When the messengers entered, behold, the <sup>a</sup>household idol was on the bed with the quilt of goats' hair at its head. <sup>17</sup>So Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" And Michal said to Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I put you to death?'" [13 <sup>a</sup>Heb teraphim 15 <sup>b</sup>Lit the]

<sup>18</sup> Now David fled and escaped and came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth. <sup>19</sup>It was told Saul, saying, "Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah." <sup>20</sup>Then Saul sent messengers to take David, but when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing and presiding over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul; and they also prophesied. <sup>21</sup>When it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. So Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied. <sup>22</sup>Then he himself went to Ramah and came as far as the large well that is in Secu; and he asked and said, "Where are Samuel and David?" And someone said, "Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah." <sup>23</sup>He <sup>a</sup>proceeded there to Naioth in Ramah; and the Spirit of God came upon him also, so that he went along prophesying continually until he came to Naioth in Ramah. <sup>24</sup>He also stripped off his clothes, and he too prophesied before Samuel and <sup>b</sup>lay down <sup>c</sup>naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?" [23 <sup>a</sup>Lit went 24 <sup>b</sup>Lit fell <sup>c</sup>I.e. without outward garments]

David and Jonathan Covenant

1 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said <sup>a</sup>to Jonathan, “What have I done? What is my iniquity? And what is my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life?” <sup>2</sup>He said to him, “Far from it, you shall not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or small <sup>b</sup>without disclosing it to me. So why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so!” <sup>3</sup>Yet David vowed again, <sup>c</sup>saying, “Your father knows well that I have found favor in your sight, and he has said, ‘Do not let Jonathan know this, or he will be grieved.’ But truly as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is <sup>d</sup>hardly a step between me and death.” <sup>4</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, “Whatever <sup>e</sup>you say, I will do for you.” <sup>5</sup>So David said to Jonathan, “Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I ought to sit down to eat with the king. But let me go, that I may hide myself in the field until the third evening. <sup>6</sup>If your father misses me at all, then say, ‘David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem his city, because it is the yearly sacrifice there for the whole family.’ <sup>7</sup>If he <sup>f</sup>says, ‘It is good,’ your servant will be safe; but if he is very angry, know that he has decided on evil. <sup>8</sup>Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. But if there is iniquity in me, put me to death yourself; for why then should you bring me to your father?” <sup>9</sup>Jonathan said, “Far be it from you! For if I should indeed learn that evil has been decided by my father to come upon you, then would I not tell you about it?” <sup>10</sup>Then David said to Jonathan, “Who will tell me <sup>g</sup>if your father answers you harshly?” <sup>11</sup>Jonathan said to David, “Come, and let us go out into the field.” So both of them went out to the field. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit before 2 <sup>b</sup>Lit and he does not uncover my ear 3 <sup>c</sup>Lit and said <sup>d</sup>Lit about 4 <sup>e</sup>Lit your soul says 7 <sup>f</sup>Lit says thus 10 <sup>g</sup>Lit or what]

12 Then Jonathan said to David, “The LORD, the God of Israel, be witness! When I have sounded out my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, behold, if there is good feeling toward David, shall I not then send to you and <sup>a</sup>make it known to you? <sup>13</sup>If it please my father to do you harm, may the LORD do so to Jonathan and more also, if I do not <sup>a</sup>make it known to you and send you away, that you may go in safety. And may the LORD be with you as He has been with my father. <sup>14</sup>If I am still alive, will you not show me the lovingkindness of the LORD, that I may not die? <sup>15</sup>You shall not cut off your lovingkindness from my house forever, not even when the LORD cuts off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth.” <sup>16</sup>So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, “May the LORD require it at the hands of David’s enemies.” <sup>17</sup>Jonathan made David vow again because of his love for him, because he loved him as he loved his own life. [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit uncover your ear]

18 Then Jonathan said to him, “Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed because your seat will be empty. <sup>19</sup>When you have stayed for three days, you shall go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself on that eventful day, and you shall remain by the stone Ezel. <sup>20</sup>I will shoot three arrows to the side, as though I shot at a target. <sup>21</sup>And behold, I will send the lad, saying, ‘Go, find the arrows.’ If I specifically say to the lad, ‘Behold, the arrows are on this side of you, get them,’ then come; for there is safety for you and <sup>a</sup>no harm, as the LORD lives. <sup>22</sup>But if I <sup>b</sup>say to the youth, ‘Behold, the arrows are beyond you,’ go, for the LORD has sent you away. <sup>23</sup>As for the <sup>c</sup>agreement of which you and I have spoken, behold, the LORD is between you and me forever.” [21 <sup>a</sup>Lit there is nothing 22 <sup>b</sup>Lit say thus 23 <sup>c</sup>Lit word]

24 So David hid in the field; and when the new moon came, the king sat down to eat food. <sup>25</sup>The king sat on his seat as usual, the seat by the wall; then Jonathan rose up and Abner sat down by Saul’s side, but David’s place was empty. <sup>26</sup>Nevertheless Saul did not speak anything that day, for he thought, “It is an accident, he is not clean, surely he is not clean.” <sup>27</sup>It came about the next day, the second day of the new moon, that David’s place was empty; so Saul said to Jonathan his son, “Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, either yesterday or today?” <sup>28</sup>Jonathan then answered Saul, “David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem, <sup>29</sup>for he said, ‘Please <sup>a</sup>let me go, since our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to attend. And now, if I have found favor in your sight, please let me get away that I may see my brothers.’ For this reason he has not come to the king’s table.” [29 <sup>a</sup>Lit send me away]

Saul Is Angry with Jonathan

30 Then Saul’s anger burned against Jonathan and he said to him, “You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother’s nakedness? <sup>31</sup>For <sup>a</sup>as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Therefore now, send and bring him to me, for he <sup>b</sup>must surely die.” <sup>32</sup>But Jonathan answered Saul his father and said to him, “Why should he be put to death? What has he done?” <sup>33</sup>Then Saul hurled his spear at him to strike him down; so Jonathan knew that his father had decided to put David to death. <sup>34</sup>Then Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did not eat food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved over David because his father had dishonored him. [31 <sup>a</sup>Lit all the days which <sup>b</sup>Lit is a son of death]

35 Now it came about in the morning that Jonathan went out into the field for the appointment with David, and a little lad was with him. <sup>36</sup>He said to his lad, “Run, find now the arrows which I am about to shoot.” As the lad was running, he shot <sup>a</sup>an arrow past him. <sup>37</sup>When the lad reached the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan called after the lad and said, “Is not the arrow beyond you?” <sup>38</sup>And Jonathan called after the lad, “Hurry, be quick, do not stay!” And Jonathan’s lad picked up the arrow and came to his master. <sup>39</sup>But the lad was not aware of anything; only Jonathan and David knew about the matter. <sup>40</sup>Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad and said to him, “Go, bring them to the city.” <sup>41</sup>When the lad was gone, David rose from the south side and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed three times. And they kissed each other and wept together, but David wept the more. <sup>42</sup>Jonathan said to David, “Go in safety, inasmuch as we have sworn to each other in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD will be between me and you, and between my <sup>b</sup>descendants and your <sup>b</sup>descendants forever.’ ” <sup>c</sup>Then he rose and departed, while Jonathan went into the city. ### David Takes Consecrated Bread

1 Then David came to Nob to Ahimelech the priest; and Ahimelech came trembling to meet David and said to him, “Why are you alone and no one with you?”<sup>2</sup> David said to Ahimelech the priest, “The king has commissioned me with a matter and has said to me, ‘Let no one know anything about the matter on which I am sending you and with which I have commissioned you; and I have directed the young men to a certain place.’<sup>3</sup> Now therefore, what <sup>a</sup>do you have on hand? Give <sup>b</sup>me five loaves of bread, or whatever can be found.”<sup>4</sup> The priest answered David and said, “There is no ordinary bread <sup>c</sup>on hand, but there is consecrated bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women.”<sup>5</sup> David answered the priest and said to him, “Surely women have been kept from us as previously when I set out and the vessels of the young men were holy, though it was an ordinary journey; how much more then today will <sup>d</sup>their vessels be holy?”<sup>6</sup> So the priest gave him consecrated bread; for there was no bread there but the bread of the Presence which was removed from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place when it was taken away. [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit is under your hand? <sup>b</sup>Lit in my hand 4 <sup>c</sup>Lit under my hand 5 <sup>d</sup>Lit it be holy in the vessel]

7 Now one of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul’s shepherds.

8 David said to Ahimelech, “Now is there not a spear or a sword <sup>a</sup>on hand? For I brought neither my sword nor my weapons <sup>b</sup>with me, because the king’s matter was urgent.”<sup>9</sup> Then the priest said, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you <sup>c</sup>killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you would take it for yourself, take it. 10 Then David arose and fled that day from Saul, and went to Achish king of Gath. <sup>11</sup>But the servants of Achish said to him, “Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of this one as they danced, saying,

‘Saul has slain his thousands,

<sup>14</sup>Then Achish said to his servants, “Behold, you see the man behaving as a madman. Why do you bring him to me? <sup>15</sup>Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this one to act the madman in my presence? Shall this one come into my house?” [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit in his]

The Priests Slain at Nob 1 So David departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam; and when his brothers and all his father's household heard of it, they went down there to him. 2 Everyone who was in distress, and everyone who <sup>a</sup>was in debt, and everyone who was <sup>b</sup>discontented gathered to him; and he became captain over them. Now there were about four hundred men with him. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit had a creditor <sup>b</sup>Lit bitter of soul]

3 And David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother come and stay with you until I know what God will do for me." 4 Then he left them with the king of Moab; and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold. 5 The prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go into the land of Judah." So David departed and went into the forest of Hereth.

6 Then Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the height with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him. 7 Saul said to his servants who stood around him, "Hear now, O Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse also give to all of you fields and vineyards? Will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds? 8 For all of you have conspired against me so that there is no one who <sup>a</sup>discloses to me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you who is sorry for me or <sup>a</sup>discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me to lie in ambush, as it is this day." 9 Then Doeg the Edomite, who was <sup>b</sup>standing by the servants of Saul, said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. 10 He inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine." [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit uncovers my ear 9 <sup>b</sup>Or set over]

11 Then the king sent someone to summon Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's household, the priests who were in Nob; and all of them came to the king. <sup>12</sup>Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub." And he <sup>a</sup>answered, "Here I am, my lord." <sup>13</sup>Saul then said to him, "Why have you and the son of Jesse conspired against me, in that you have given him bread and a sword and have inquired of God for him, so that he would rise up against me by lying in ambush as it is this day?" [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit said]

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king and said, "And who among all your servants is as faithful as David, even the king's son-in-law, who <sup>a</sup>is captain over your guard, and is honored in your house? <sup>15</sup>Did I just begin to inquire of God for him today? Far be it from me! Do not let the king impute anything to his servant or to any of the household of my father, for your servant knows nothing <sup>b</sup>at all of this whole affair." <sup>16</sup>But the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's household!" <sup>17</sup>And the king said to the <sup>c</sup>guards who were attending him, "Turn around and put the priests of the LORD to death, because their hand also is with David and because they knew that he was fleeing and did not <sup>d</sup>reveal it to me." But the servants of the king were not willing to put forth their hands to <sup>e</sup>attack the priests of the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Then the king said to Doeg, "You turn around and <sup>f</sup>attack the priests." And Doeg the Edomite turned around and <sup>g</sup>attacked the priests, and he killed that day eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod. <sup>19</sup>And he struck Nob the city of the priests with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and infants; also oxen, donkeys, and sheep he struck with the edge of the sword. 20 But one son of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David. <sup>21</sup>Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>Then David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. ### David Delivers Keilah

1 Then they told David, saying, “Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are plundering the threshing floors.” 2 So David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go and <sup>a</sup>attack these Philistines?” And the LORD said to David, “Go and <sup>a</sup>attack the Philistines and deliver Keilah.” 3 But David’s men said to him, “Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the ranks of the Philistines?” 4 Then David inquired of the LORD once more. And the LORD answered him and said, “Arise, go down to Keilah, for I will give the Philistines into your hand.” 5 So David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines; and he led away their livestock and struck them with a great slaughter. Thus David delivered the inhabitants of Keilah. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit smite]

6 Now it came about, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand. 7 When it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah, Saul said, “God has <sup>a</sup>delivered him into my hand, for he shut himself in by entering a city with double gates and bars.” 8 So Saul summoned all the people for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men. 9 Now David knew that Saul was plotting evil against him; so he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod here.” 10 Then David said, “O LORD God of Israel, Your servant has heard for certain that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah to destroy the city on my account. 11 Will the men of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down just as Your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant.” And the LORD said, “He will come down.” 12 Then David said, “Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?” And the LORD said, “They will surrender you.” 13 Then David and his men, about six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah, and they went wherever they could go. When it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, he <sup>b</sup>gave up the pursuit. 14 David stayed in the wilderness in the strongholds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. ### Saul Pursues David

15 Now David <sup>a</sup>became aware that Saul had come out to seek his life while David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horesh. <sup>16</sup>And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David at Horesh, and <sup>b</sup>encouraged him in God. <sup>17</sup>Thus he said to him, "Do not be afraid, because the hand of Saul my father will not find you, and you will be king over Israel and I will be next to you; and Saul my father knows that also." <sup>18</sup>So the two of them made a covenant before the LORD; and David stayed at Horesh while Jonathan went to his house. 19 Then Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding with us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is on the <sup>a</sup>south of <sup>b</sup>Jeshimon? <sup>20</sup>Now then, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to <sup>c</sup>do so; and our part shall be to surrender him into the king's hand." <sup>21</sup>Saul said, "May you be blessed of the LORD, for you have had compassion on me. <sup>22</sup>Go now, make more sure, and investigate and see his place where his <sup>d</sup>haunt is, and who has seen him there; for I am told that he is very cunning. <sup>23</sup>So look, and learn about all the hiding places where he hides himself and return to me with certainty, and I will go with you; and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah." 24 Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. ### David Spares Saul's Life

1 Now when Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, saying, "Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi." 2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and went to seek David and his men in front of the Rocks of the Wild Goats. 3 He came to the sheepfolds on the way, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to <sup>a</sup>relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the inner recesses of the cave. 4 The men of David said to him, "Behold, this is the day of which the LORD said to you, 'Behold; I am about to give your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it seems good <sup>b</sup>to you.'" Then David arose and cut off the edge of Saul's robe secretly. 5 It came about afterward that David's <sup>c</sup>conscience bothered him because he had cut off the edge of Saul's robe. 6 So he said to his men, "Far be it from me because of the LORD that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD'S anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, since he is the LORD'S anointed." 7 David <sup>d</sup>persuaded his men with these words and did not allow them to rise up against Saul. And Saul arose, <sup>e</sup>left the cave, and went on his way. 8 Now afterward David arose and went out of the cave and called after Saul, saying, "My lord the king!" And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and prostrated himself. 9 David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of men, saying, 'Behold, David seeks <sup>a</sup>to harm you'? 10 Behold, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD had given you today into my hand in the cave, and some said to kill you, but my eye had pity on you; and I said, 'I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD'S anointed.'" 11 Now, my father, see! Indeed, see the edge of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the edge of your robe and did not kill you, know and perceive that there is no evil or <sup>b</sup>rebellion in my hands, and I have not sinned against you, though you are lying in wait for my life to take it. 12 May the LORD judge between <sup>c</sup>you and me, and may the LORD avenge me on you; but my hand shall not be against you. <sup>13</sup>As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness’; but my hand shall not be against you. <sup>14</sup>After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom are you pursuing? <sup>16</sup> When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” Then Saul lifted up his voice and wept. <sup>17</sup>He said to David, “You are more righteous than I; for you have dealt well with me, while I have dealt wickedly with you. <sup>18</sup>You have declared today that you have done good to me, that the LORD delivered me into your hand and yet you did not kill me. <sup>19</sup>For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away <sup>a</sup>safely? May the LORD therefore reward you with good in return for what you have done to me this day. <sup>20</sup>Now, behold, I know that you will surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand. <sup>21</sup>So now swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my <sup>b</sup>descendants after me and that you will not destroy my name from my father’s household.” <sup>22</sup>David swore to Saul. And Saul went to his home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold. [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit on a good road 21 <sup>b</sup>Lit seed]

Samuel's Death 1 Then Samuel died; and all Israel gathered together and mourned for him, and buried him at his house in Ramah. And David arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

Nabal and Abigail 2 Now there was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel; and the man was very <sup>a</sup>rich, and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And it came about while he was shearing his sheep in Carmel <sup>3</sup>(now the man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail. And the woman was <sup>b</sup>intelligent and beautiful in appearance, but the man was harsh and evil in his dealings, and he was a Calebite), <sup>4</sup>that David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. <sup>5</sup>So David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, <sup>c</sup>visit Nabal and greet him in my name; <sup>6</sup>and thus you shall say, '<sup>d</sup>Have a long life, peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have. <sup>7</sup>Now I have heard that you have shearers; now your shepherds have been with us and we have not insulted them, nor have they missed anything all the days they were in Carmel. <sup>8</sup>Ask your young men and they will tell you. " [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit great 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit of good understanding 5 <sup>c</sup>Lit go into 6 <sup>d</sup>Lit To life 8 <sup>e</sup>Lit good] and they came and told him according to all these words. <sup>13</sup>David said to his men, “Each of you gird on his sword.” So each man girded on his sword. And David also girded on his sword, and about four hundred men went up behind David while two hundred stayed with the baggage.

<sup>9</sup> When David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in David's name; then they waited. <sup>10</sup>But Nabal answered David's servants and said, "Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants today who are each breaking away from his master. <sup>11</sup>Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men <sup>a</sup>whose origin I do not know?" <sup>12</sup>So David's young men retraced their way and went back;

Abigail Intercedes <sup>18</sup> Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread and two jugs of wine and five sheep already prepared and five measures of roasted grain and a hundred clusters of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys. <sup>19</sup> She said to her young men, “Go on before me; behold, I am coming after you.” But she did not tell her husband Nabal. <sup>20</sup> It came about as she was riding on her donkey and coming down by the hidden part of the mountain, that behold, David and his men were coming down toward her; so she met them. <sup>21</sup> Now David had said, “Surely in vain I have guarded all that this man has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; and he has returned me evil for good. <sup>22</sup> May God do so to the enemies of David, and more also, if by morning I leave as much as one <sup>a</sup>male of any who belong to him.” [<sup>22</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit who urinates against the wall]

And please let your maidservant speak <sup>b</sup>to you, and listen to the words of your maidservant. <sup>25</sup>Please do not let my lord <sup>c</sup>pay attention to this <sup>d</sup>worthless man, Nabal, for as his name is, so is he. <sup>e</sup>Nabal is his name and folly is with him; but I your maidservant did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent. ### David Again Spares Saul

1 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is not David hiding on the hill of Hachilah, which is before <sup>a</sup>Jeshimon?” <sup>2</sup>So Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having with him three thousand chosen men of Israel, to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph. <sup>3</sup>Saul camped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before <sup>a</sup>Jeshimon, beside the road, and David was staying in the wilderness. When he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness, <sup>4</sup>David sent out spies, and he knew that Saul was definitely coming. <sup>5</sup>David then arose and came to the place where Saul had camped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army; and Saul was lying in the circle of the camp, and the people were camped around him. [<sup>1</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or the desert]

<sup>6</sup> Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruah, Joab’s brother, saying, “Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?” And Abishai said, “I will go down with you.” <sup>7</sup>So David and Abishai came to the people by night, and behold, Saul lay sleeping inside the circle of the camp with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people were lying around him. <sup>8</sup>Then Abishai said to David, “Today God has delivered your enemy into your hand; now therefore, please let me strike him with the spear <sup>a</sup>to the ground with one stroke, and I will not <sup>b</sup>strike him the second time.” <sup>9</sup>But David said to Abishai, “Do not destroy him, for who can stretch out his hand against the LORD’s anointed and be without guilt?” <sup>10</sup>David also said, “As the LORD lives, surely the LORD will strike him, or his day will come that he dies, or he will go down into battle and perish. <sup>11</sup>The LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD’s anointed; but now please take the spear that is at his head and the jug of water, and let us go.” <sup>12</sup>So David took the spear and the jug of water from beside Saul’s head, and they went away, but no one saw or knew it, nor did any awake, for they were all asleep, because a sound sleep from the LORD had fallen on them. 13 Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on top of the mountain at a distance with a large area between them. <sup>14</sup>David called to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, “Will you not answer, Abner?” Then Abner replied, “Who are you who calls to the king?” <sup>15</sup>So David said to Abner, “Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came to destroy the king your lord. <sup>16</sup>This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, all of you <sup>a</sup>must surely die, because you did not guard your lord, the LORD’s anointed. And now, see where the king’s spear is and the jug of water that was at his head.” [<sup>16</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit are surely sons of death]

17 Then Saul recognized David’s voice and said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” And David said, “It is my voice, my lord the king.” <sup>18</sup>He also said, “Why then is my lord pursuing his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand? <sup>19</sup>Now therefore, please let my lord the king listen to the words of his servant. If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let Him <sup>a</sup>accept an offering; but if it is <sup>b</sup>men, cursed are they before the LORD, for they have driven me out today so that I would have no attachment with the inheritance of the LORD, saying, ‘Go, serve other gods.’ <sup>20</sup>Now then, do not let my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to search for a single flea, just as one hunts a partridge in the mountains.” [<sup>19</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit smell <sup>b</sup>Lit sons of men]

21 Then Saul said, “I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will not harm you again because my life was precious in your sight this day. Behold, I have played the fool and have committed a serious error.” <sup>22</sup>David replied, “Behold the spear of the king! Now let one of the young men come over and take it. <sup>23</sup>The LORD will repay each man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but I refused to stretch out my hand against the LORD’s anointed. <sup>24</sup>Now behold, as your life was highly valued in my sight this day, so may my life be highly valued in the sight of the LORD, and may He deliver me from all distress.” <sup>25</sup>Then Saul said to David, “Blessed are you, my son David; you will both accomplish much and surely prevail.” So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

David Flees to the Philistines <sup>1</sup> Then David said <sup>a</sup>to himself, “Now I will perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than <sup>b</sup>to escape into the land of the Philistines. Saul then will despair of searching for me anymore in all the territory of Israel, and I will escape from his hand.” <sup>2</sup> So David arose and crossed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath. <sup>3</sup> And David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, each with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal’s <sup>c</sup>widow. <sup>4</sup> Now it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath, so he no longer searched for him. <sup>5</sup> Then David said to Achish, “If now I have found favor in your sight, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may live there; for why should your servant live in the royal city with you?” <sup>6</sup> So Achish gave him Ziklag that day; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day. <sup>7</sup> The number of days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

<sup>8</sup> Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites and the Girzites and the Amalekites; for they were the inhabitants of the land from ancient times, as you come to Shur even as far as the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> David <sup>a</sup>attacked the land and did not leave a man or a woman alive, and he took away the sheep, the cattle, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing. Then he returned and came to Achish. <sup>10</sup> Now Achish said, “Where have you made a raid today?” And David said, “Against the <sup>b</sup>Negev of Judah and against the <sup>b</sup>Negev of the Jerahmeelites and against the <sup>b</sup>Negev of the Kenites.” <sup>11</sup> David did not leave a man or a woman alive to bring to Gath, saying, “Otherwise they will tell about us, saying, ‘So has David done and so has been his practice all the time he has lived in the country of the Philistines.’ ” <sup>12</sup> So Achish believed David, saying, “He has surely made himself odious among his people

Saul and the Spirit Medium

1 Now it came about in those days that the Philistines gathered their armed camps for war, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, “Know assuredly that you will go out with me in the camp, you and your men.”

2 David said to Achish, “Very well, you shall know what your servant can do.” So Achish said to David, “Very well, I will make you <sup>a</sup>my bodyguard for life.” [<sup>2</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit keeper of my head]

3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had removed from the land those who were mediums and spiritists. 4 So the Philistines gathered together and came and camped in Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel together and they camped in Gilboa. 5 When Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, he was afraid and his heart trembled greatly. 6 When Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams or by Urim or by prophets. 7 Then Saul said to his servants, “Seek for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her.” And his servants said to him, “Behold, there is a woman who is a medium at En-dor.”

8 Then Saul disguised himself by putting on other clothes, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night; and he said, “Conjure up for me, please, and bring up for me whom I shall <sup>a</sup>name to you.” 9 But the woman said to him, “Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those who are mediums and spiritists from the land. Why are you then laying a snare for my life to bring about my death?” 10 Saul vowed to her by the LORD, saying, “As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing.” 11 Then the woman said, “Whom shall I bring up for you?” And he said, “Bring up Samuel for me.” 12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, “Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul.” 13 The king said to her, “Do not be afraid; but what do you see?” And the woman said to Saul,

“I see a <sup>b</sup>divine being coming up out of the earth.” <sup>14</sup>He said to her, “What is his form?” And she said, “An old man is coming up, and he is wrapped with a robe.” And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and did homage. [<sup>8</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit say <sup>13</sup> <sup>b</sup>Or god]

<sup>15</sup> Then Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?” And Saul answered, “I am greatly distressed; for the Philistines are waging war against me, and God has departed from me and no longer answers me, either through prophets or by dreams; therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I should do.” <sup>16</sup>Samuel said, “Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has departed from you and has become your adversary? <sup>17</sup>The LORD has done <sup>a</sup>accordingly as He spoke through me; for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, to David. <sup>18</sup>As you did not <sup>b</sup>obey the LORD and did not execute His fierce wrath on Amalek, so the LORD has done this thing to you this day. <sup>19</sup>Moreover the LORD will also give over Israel along with you into the hands of the Philistines, therefore tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. Indeed the LORD will give over the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines!” [<sup>17</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit for himself <sup>18</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit listen to the voice of]

<sup>20</sup> Then Saul immediately fell full length upon the ground and was very afraid because of the words of Samuel; also there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no <sup>a</sup>food all day and all night. <sup>21</sup>The woman came to Saul and saw that he was terrified, and said to him, “Behold, your maidservant has <sup>b</sup>obeyed you, and I have <sup>c</sup>taken my life in my hand and have listened to your words which you spoke to me. <sup>22</sup>So now also, please listen to the voice of your maidservant, and let me set a piece of bread before you that you may eat and have strength when you go on your way.” <sup>23</sup>But he refused and said, “I will not eat.” However, his servants together with the woman urged him, and he listened to <sup>d</sup>them. So he arose from the ground and sat on the bed. <sup>24</sup>The woman had a fattened calf in the house, and she quickly slaughtered it; and she took flour, kneaded it and baked unleavened bread from it. <sup>25</sup>She brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. ### The Philistines Mistrust David

1 Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek, while the Israelites were camping by the spring which is in Jezreel. <sup>2</sup>And the lords of the Philistines were proceeding on by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were proceeding on in the rear with Achish. <sup>3</sup>Then the commanders of the Philistines said, “What are these Hebrews doing here?” And Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, “Is this not David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years, and I have found no fault in him from the day he <sup>a</sup>deserted to me to this day?” <sup>4</sup>But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him, and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, “Make the man go back, that he may return to his place where you have assigned him, and do not let him go down to battle with us, or in the battle he may become an adversary to us. For with what could this man make himself acceptable to his lord? Would it not be with the heads of <sup>b</sup>these men? <sup>5</sup>Is this not David, of whom they sing in the dances, saying,

<sup>6</sup> Then Achish called David and said to him, “As the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army are pleasing in my sight; for I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, you are not pleasing in the sight of the lords. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore return and go in peace, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines.” <sup>8</sup>David said to Achish, “But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day when I came before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?” <sup>9</sup>But Achish replied to David, “I know that you are pleasing in my sight, like an angel of God; nevertheless the commanders of the Philistines have said, ‘He must not go up with us to the battle.’” <sup>10</sup>Now then arise early in the morning with the servants of your lord who have come with you, and as soon as you have arisen early in the morning and have light, depart.” <sup>11</sup>So David arose early, he and his men, to depart in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David's Victory over the Amalekites 1 Then it happened when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid on the <sup>a</sup>Negev and on Ziklag, and had <sup>b</sup>overthrown Ziklag and burned it with fire; 2 and they took captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great, <sup>c</sup>without killing anyone, and carried them off and went their way. 3 When David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive. 4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted their voices and wept until there was no strength in them to weep. 5 Now David's two wives had been taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the <sup>d</sup>widow of Nabal the Carmelite. 6 Moreover David was greatly distressed because the people spoke of stoning him, for all the people were <sup>e</sup>embittered, each one because of his sons and his daughters. 7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Please bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David. 8 David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue this band? Shall I overtake them?" And He said to him, "Pursue, for you will surely overtake them, and you will surely rescue all." 9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those left behind remained. 10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men, for two hundred who were too exhausted to cross the brook Besor remained behind.

11 Now they found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David, and gave him bread and he ate, and they provided him water to drink. 12 They gave him a piece of fig cake and two clusters of raisins, and he ate; then his spirit <sup>a</sup>revived. For he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights. 13 David said to him, "To whom do you belong? And where are you from?” And he said, “I am a young man of Egypt, a servant of an Amalekite; and my master left me behind when I fell sick three days ago. <sup>14</sup>We made a raid on the <sup>b</sup>Negev of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the <sup>b</sup>Negev of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag with fire.” <sup>15</sup>Then David said to him, “Will you bring me down to this band?” And he said, “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this band.” [12 <sup>a</sup>Lit returned to him 14 <sup>b</sup>I.e. <sup>16</sup> When he had brought him down, behold, they were <sup>a</sup>spread over all the land, eating and drinking and <sup>b</sup>dancing because of all the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. <sup>17</sup>David <sup>c</sup>slaughtered them from the twilight <sup>d</sup>until the evening of <sup>e</sup>the next day; and not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled. <sup>18</sup>So David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and <sup>f</sup>rescued his two wives. <sup>19</sup>But nothing of theirs was missing, whether small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything that they had taken for themselves; David brought it all back. <sup>20</sup>So David had <sup>g</sup>captured all the sheep and the cattle which the people drove ahead of <sup>h</sup>the other livestock, and they said, “This is David’s spoil.” [16 <sup>a</sup>Lit left <sup>b</sup>Lit keeping a pilgrim-feast 17 <sup>c</sup>Lit smote <sup>d</sup>Lit even until <sup>e</sup>Lit their 18 <sup>f</sup>Lit David rescued 20 <sup>g</sup>Lit taken <sup>h</sup>Lit those livestock]

The Spoils Are Divided <sup>21</sup> When David came to the two hundred men who were too exhausted to follow David, who had also been left at the brook Besor, and they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him, then David approached the people and greeted them. <sup>22</sup>Then all the wicked and worthless men among those who went with David said, “Because they did not go with <sup>a</sup>us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away and depart.” <sup>23</sup>Then David said, “You must not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us, who has kept us and delivered into our hand the band that came against us. <sup>24</sup>And who will listen to you in this matter?

For as his share is who goes down to the battle, so shall his share be who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike.”<sup>25</sup> So it has been from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day. [22 <sup>a</sup>Lit me]

Saul and His Sons Slain <sup>1</sup> Now the Philistines were fighting against Israel, and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines <sup>a</sup>killed Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchi-shua the sons of Saul. <sup>3</sup>The battle went heavily against Saul, and the archers <sup>b</sup>hit him; and he was badly wounded by the archers. <sup>4</sup>Then Saul said to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword and pierce me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised will come and pierce me through and make sport of me.” But his armor bearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. So Saul took his sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup>When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died with him. <sup>6</sup>Thus Saul died with his three sons, his armor bearer, and all his men on that day together. David Learns of Saul's Death 1 Now it came about after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, that David remained two days in Ziklag. 2On the third day, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes torn and <sup>a</sup>dust on his head. And it came about when he came to David that he fell to the ground and prostrated himself. 3Then David said to him, "From where do you come?" And he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel." 4David said to him, "How did things go? Please tell me." And he said, "The people have fled from the battle, and also many of the people have fallen and are dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also." 5So David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?" 6The young man who told him said, "By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and behold, Saul was leaning on his spear. And behold, the chariots and the horsemen pursued him closely. 7When he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I said, 'Here I am.' 8He said to me, 'Who are you?' And I <sup>b</sup>answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.' 9Then he said to me, 'Please stand beside me and kill me, for agony has seized me because my <sup>c</sup>life still lingers in me.' 10So I stood beside him and killed him, because I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. And he <sup>a</sup>answered, "I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite." 14Then David said to him, "How is it you were not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy the LORD'S anointed?" 15And David called one of the young men and said, "Go, <sup>b</sup>cut him down." David Made King over Judah 1 Then it came about afterwards that David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up to one of the cities of Judah?” And the LORD said to him, “Go up.” So David said, “Where shall I go up?” And He said, “To Hebron.” 2 So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the <sup>a</sup>widow of Nabal the Carmelite. 3 And David brought up his men who were with him, each with his household; and they lived in the cities of Hebron. 4 Then the men of Judah came and there anointed David king over the house of Judah. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit wife]

And they told David, saying, “It was the men of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul.” 5 David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said to them, “May you be blessed of the LORD because you have <sup>a</sup>shown this kindness to Saul your lord, and have buried him. 6 Now may the LORD <sup>b</sup>show lovingkindness and truth to you; and I also will <sup>b</sup>show this goodness to you, because you have done this thing. 7 Now therefore, let your hands be strong and be <sup>c</sup>valiant; for Saul your lord is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.” [5 <sup>a</sup>Lit done 6 <sup>b</sup>Lit do 7 <sup>c</sup>Lit sons of valor]

Ish-bosheth Made King over Israel 8 But Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul’s army, had taken <sup>a</sup>Ish-bosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim. 9 He made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, even over all Israel. 10 Ish-bosheth, Saul’s son, was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he was king for two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David. 11 The <sup>b</sup>time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months. 18 Now the three sons of Zeruah were there, Joab and Abishai and Asahel; and Asahel was as <sup>a</sup>swift-footed as one of the gazelles which is in the field. <sup>19</sup>Asahel pursued Abner and did not <sup>b</sup>turn to the right or to the left from following Abner. <sup>20</sup>Then Abner looked behind him and said, “Is that you, Asahel?” And he answered, “It is I.” <sup>21</sup>So Abner said to him, “<sup>c</sup>Turn to your right or to your left, and take hold of one of the young men for yourself, and take for yourself his spoil.” But Asahel was not willing to turn aside from following him. <sup>22</sup>Abner repeated again to Asahel, “Turn <sup>d</sup>aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I lift up my face to your brother Joab?” <sup>23</sup>However, he refused to turn aside; therefore Abner struck him in the belly with the butt end of the spear, so that the spear came out at his back. 24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and when the sun was going down, they came to the hill of Ammah, which is in front of Giah by the

Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? How long will you <sup>a</sup>refrain from telling the people to turn back from following their brothers?” <sup>27</sup>Joab said, “As God lives, if you had not spoken, surely then the people would have gone away in the morning, each from following his brother.” <sup>28</sup>So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the people halted and pursued Israel no longer, nor did they continue to fight anymore. <sup>29</sup>Abner and his men then went through the Arabah all that night; so they crossed the Jordan, walked all morning, and came to Mahanaim. The House of David Strengthened <sup>1</sup> Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; and David grew steadily stronger, but the house of Saul grew weaker continually.

I will make a covenant with you, but I demand one thing of you, <sup>a</sup>namely, you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul’s daughter, when you come to see <sup>b</sup>me.” <sup>14</sup>So David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth, Saul’s son, saying, “Give me my wife Michal, to whom I was betrothed for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.” <sup>15</sup>Ish-bosheth sent and took her from her husband, from <sup>c</sup>Paltiel the son of Laish. <sup>16</sup>But her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her as far as Bahurim. 17 Now Abner had <sup>a</sup>consultation with the elders of Israel, saying, “In times past you were seeking for David to be king over you. <sup>18</sup>Now then, do it! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, ‘By the hand of My servant David <sup>b</sup>I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.’ ” <sup>19</sup>Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin; and in addition Abner went to speak in the hearing of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and to the whole house of Benjamin. 20 Then Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him. <sup>21</sup>Abner said to David, “Let me arise and go and gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may be king over all that your soul desires.” So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

22 And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much spoil with them; but Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace. <sup>23</sup>When Joab and all the army that was with him arrived, they told Joab, saying, “Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace.” <sup>24</sup>Then Joab came to the king and said, “What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you; why then have you sent him away and he is already gone? <sup>25</sup>You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you and to learn of your going out and coming in and to find out all that you are doing.”

Joab Murders Abner

26 When Joab came out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David did not know it.
27 So when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the middle of the gate to speak with him privately, and there he struck him in the belly so that he died on account of the blood of Asahel his brother. 28 Afterward when David heard it, he said, “I and my kingdom are innocent before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner. 29 May it <sup>a</sup>fall on the head of Joab and on all his father’s house; and may there not fail from the house of Joab one who has a discharge, or who is a leper, or who takes hold of a distaff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread.” 30 So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner because he had put their brother Asahel to death in the battle at Gibeon. ### David Mourns Abner

31 Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, “Tear your clothes and gird on sackcloth and lament before Abner.” And King David walked behind the bier. 32 Thus they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept. 33 The king chanted a lament for Abner and said, “Should Abner die as a fool dies?

34 “Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put in fetters; As one falls before the <sup>a</sup>wicked, you have fallen.”

And all the people wept again over him. 35 Then all the people came to <sup>b</sup>persuade David to eat bread while it was still day; but David vowed, saying, “May God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down.” 36 Now all the people took note of it, and it <sup>c</sup>pleased them, just as everything the king did <sup>d</sup>pleased all the people. 37 So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the will of the king to put Abner the son of Ner to death. <sup>38</sup>Then the king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel? <sup>39</sup>I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah are too difficult for me. Ish-bosheth Murdered 1 Now when <sup>a</sup>Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, heard that Abner had died in Hebron, <sup>b</sup>he lost courage, and all Israel was disturbed. 2Saul's son had two men who were commanders of bands: the name of the one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the sons of Benjamin (for Beeroth is also considered part of Benjamin, 3and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been aliens there until this day). [1 <sup>a</sup>So some ancient mss; M.T. he <sup>b</sup>Lit his hands dropped]

4 Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the report of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel, and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened that in her hurry to flee, he fell and became lame. And his name was <sup>a</sup>Mephibosheth. [4 <sup>a</sup>I.e. Merib-baal]

5 So the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, departed and came to the house of Ish-bosheth in the heat of the day while he was taking his midday rest. 6<sup>a</sup>They came to the middle of the house as <sup>b</sup>if to get wheat, and they struck him in the belly; and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. 7Now when they came into the house, as he was lying on his bed in his bedroom, they struck him and killed him and beheaded him. And they took his head and <sup>c</sup>traveled by way of the Arabah all night. 8Then they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron and said to the king, "Behold, the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; thus the LORD has given my lord the king vengeance this day on Saul and his <sup>d</sup>descendants." ### David King over All Israel

1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and <sup>a</sup>said, “Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup>Previously, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and in. And the LORD said to you, ‘You will shepherd My people Israel, and you will be a ruler over Israel.’ ” <sup>3</sup>So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them before the LORD at Hebron; then they anointed David king over Israel. <sup>4</sup>David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years. <sup>5</sup>At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit said, saying]

6 Now the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, and they said to <sup>a</sup>David, “You shall not come in here, but the blind and lame will turn you away”; <sup>b</sup>thinking, “David cannot enter here.” <sup>7</sup>Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Zion, that is the city of David. <sup>8</sup>David said on that day, “Whoever would strike the Jebusites, let him reach the lame and the blind, who are hated by David’s soul, through the water tunnel.” Therefore they say, “The blind or the lame shall not come into the house.” <sup>9</sup>So David lived in the stronghold and called it the city of David. And David built all around from the <sup>c</sup>Millo and inward. <sup>10</sup>David became greater and greater, for the LORD God of hosts was with him. [6 <sup>a</sup>Lit David, saying <sup>b</sup>Lit saying 9 <sup>c</sup>I.e. citadel]

11 Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar trees and carpenters and stonemasons; and they built a house for David. <sup>12</sup>And David realized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

13 Meanwhile David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron; and more sons and daughters were born to David.

War with the Philistines

<sup>17</sup> When the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek out David; and when David heard of it, he went down to the stronghold. <sup>18</sup>Now the Philistines came and spread themselves out in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>19</sup>Then David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them into my hand?” And the LORD said to David, “Go up, for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand.” <sup>20</sup>So David came to Baal-perazim and <sup>a</sup>defeated them there; and he said, “The LORD has broken through my enemies before me like the breakthrough of waters.” Therefore he named that place <sup>b</sup>Baal-perazim. <sup>21</sup>They abandoned their idols there, so David and his men carried them away. [<sup>20</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit David smote <sup>b</sup>I.e. the master of breakthrough]

1 Now David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.
2 And David arose and went with all the people who were with him to <sup>a</sup>Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God which is called by the Name, the very name of the LORD of hosts who is <sup>b</sup>enthroned above the cherubim. 3 They <sup>c</sup>placed the ark of God on a new cart that they might bring it from the house of Abinadab which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart. 4 So they brought it with the ark of God from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Ahio was walking ahead of the ark. 5 Meanwhile, David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before the LORD with all kinds of instruments made of <sup>d</sup>fir wood, and with lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets and cymbals. [2 <sup>a</sup>I.e. Kiriath-jearim <sup>b</sup>Lit sitting 3 <sup>c</sup>Lit caused to ride 5 <sup>d</sup>Or cypress]

6 But when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out toward the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen nearly upset it. 7 And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzzah, and God struck him down there for <sup>a</sup>his irreverence; and he died there by the ark of God. 8 David became angry because <sup>b</sup>of the LORD'S outburst against Uzzah, and that place is called <sup>c</sup>Perez-uzzah to this day. 9 So David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?" 10 And David was unwilling to move the ark of the LORD into the city of David with him; but David took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. 11 Thus the ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household. ### The Ark Is Brought to Jerusalem

12 Now it was told King David, saying, “The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, on account of the ark of God.” David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness. <sup>13</sup>And so it was, that when the bearers of the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. <sup>14</sup>And David was dancing before the LORD with all his might, and David was <sup>a</sup>wearing a linen ephod. <sup>15</sup>So David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark of the LORD with shouting and the sound of the trumpet. [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit girded with]

16 Then it happened as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 So they brought in the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent which David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. <sup>18</sup>When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offering, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. <sup>19</sup>Further, he distributed to all the people, to all the multitude of Israel, both to men and women, a cake of bread and one of dates and one of raisins to each one. Then all the people departed each to his house.

20 But when David returned to bless his household, Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, “How the king of Israel distinguished himself today! He uncovered himself today in the eyes of his servants’ maids as one of the foolish ones shamelessly uncovers himself!” <sup>21</sup>So David said to Michal, “It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel; therefore I will celebrate before the LORD. <sup>22</sup>I will be more lightly esteemed than this and will be humble in my own eyes, but with the maids of whom you have spoken, with them I will be distinguished.” <sup>23</sup>Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

David Plans to Build a Temple

<sup>1</sup> Now it came about when the king lived in his house, and the LORD had given him rest on every side from all his enemies, <sup>2</sup>that the king said to Nathan the prophet, “See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within tent curtains.” <sup>3</sup>Nathan said to the king, “Go, do all that is in your mind, for the LORD is with you.”

<sup>4</sup> But in the same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying, <sup>5</sup>“Go and say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Are you the one who should build Me a house to dwell in? <sup>6</sup>For I have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought up the sons of Israel from Egypt, even to this day; but I have been moving about in a tent, even in a <sup>a</sup>tabernacle. <sup>7</sup>Wherever I have gone with all the sons of Israel, did I speak a word with one of the tribes of Israel, which I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ” ’ [6 <sup>a</sup>Lit dwelling place]

God’s Covenant with David

<sup>8</sup>“Now therefore, thus you shall say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel. <sup>9</sup>I have been with you wherever you have gone and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a great name, like the names of the great men who are on the earth. <sup>10</sup>I will also appoint a place for My people Israel and will plant them, that they may live in their own place and not be disturbed again, nor will the <sup>a</sup>wicked afflict them any more as formerly, <sup>11</sup>even from the day that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. The LORD also declares to you that the LORD will make a house for you. <sup>12</sup>When your days are complete and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your <sup>b</sup>descendant after you, who will come forth from <sup>c</sup>you, and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>13</sup>He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. <sup>14</sup>I will be a father to him and he will be a son to Me; when he commits iniquity, I will correct him with the rod of men and the strokes of the sons of men, <sup>15</sup>but My lovingkindness shall not depart from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from before you. <sup>16</sup>Your house and your kingdom shall endure before <sup>d</sup>Me forever; your throne shall be established forever.” ’ ’ <sup>17</sup>In accordance with all these words and all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David. ### David's Prayer

<sup>18</sup> Then David the king went in and sat before the LORD, and he said, “Who am I, O Lord <sup>a</sup>GOD, and what is my house, that You have brought me this far? <sup>19</sup>And yet this was insignificant in Your eyes, O Lord GOD, for You have spoken also of the house of Your servant concerning the distant future. And this is the <sup>b</sup>custom of man, O Lord GOD. <sup>20</sup>Again what more can David say to You? For You know Your servant, O Lord GOD! <sup>21</sup>For the sake of Your word, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness to let Your servant know. <sup>22</sup>For this reason You are great, O Lord GOD; for there is none like You, and there is no God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>23</sup>And what one nation on the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people and to make a name for Himself, and to do a great thing for You and awesome things for Your land, before Your people whom You have redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, from nations and their gods? <sup>24</sup>For You have established for Yourself Your people Israel as Your own people forever, and You, O LORD, have become their God. <sup>25</sup>Now therefore, O LORD God, the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and his house, confirm it forever, and do as You have spoken, <sup>26</sup>that Your name may be magnified forever, by saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is God over Israel’; and may the house of Your servant David be established before You. <sup>27</sup>For You, O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have <sup>c</sup>made a revelation to Your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house’; therefore Your servant has found

<sup>d</sup>courage to pray this prayer to You. <sup>28</sup>Now, O Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are truth, and You have <sup>e</sup>promised this good thing to Your servant. <sup>29</sup>Now therefore, may it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You. David's Kindness to Mephibosheth <sup>1</sup> Then David said, "Is there yet <sup>a</sup>anyone left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?" <sup>2</sup> Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "I am your servant." <sup>3</sup> The king said, "Is there not yet anyone of the house of Saul to whom I may show the kindness of God?" And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan who is crippled in both feet." <sup>4</sup> So the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel in Lo-debar." <sup>5</sup> Then King David sent and brought him from the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar. <sup>6</sup> Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, came to David and fell on his face and prostrated himself. 6 Now when the sons of Ammon saw that they had become odious to David, the sons of Ammon sent and hired the Arameans of Beth-rehob and the Arameans of Zobah, 20,000 foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah with 1,000 men, and the men of Tob with 12,000 men. 7 When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men. 8 The sons of Ammon came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the <sup>a</sup>city, while the Arameans of Zobah and of Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the field. [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit gate]

9 Now when Joab saw that <sup>a</sup>the battle was set against him in front and in the rear, he selected from all the choice men of Israel, and arrayed them against the Arameans. 10 But the remainder of the people he placed in the hand of Abishai his brother, and he arrayed them against the sons of Ammon. 11 He said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me, but if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come to help you. 12 Be strong, and let us show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what is good in His sight.” <sup>13</sup>So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him. <sup>14</sup>When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans fled, they also fled before Abishai and entered the city. Then Joab returned from fighting against the sons of Ammon and came to Jerusalem. [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit the faces of the battle were against]

<sup>2</sup> Now when evening came David arose from his bed and walked around on the roof of the king's house, and from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful in appearance. <sup>3</sup> So David sent and inquired about the woman. And one said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?" <sup>4</sup> David sent messengers and took her, and when she came to him, he lay with her; and when she had purified herself from her uncleanness, she returned to her house. <sup>5</sup> The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, "I am pregnant."

<sup>6</sup> Then David sent to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup> When Uriah came to him, David asked concerning the welfare of Joab and <sup>a</sup>the people and the state of the war. <sup>8</sup> Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." And Uriah went out of the king's house, and a present from the king <sup>b</sup>was sent out after him. <sup>9</sup> But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. <sup>10</sup> Now when they told David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?" <sup>11</sup> Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in <sup>c</sup>temporary shelters, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field. Shall I then go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? By your life and the life of your soul, I will not do this thing." <sup>12</sup> Then David said to Uriah, "Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you go." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the <sup>d</sup>next. <sup>13</sup> Now

David called him, and he ate and drank before him, and he made him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his bed with his lord's servants, but he did not go down to his house. 14 Now in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah. <sup>15</sup>He had written in the letter, saying, “<sup>a</sup>Place Uriah in the front line of the <sup>b</sup>fiercest battle and withdraw from him, so that he may be struck down and die.” <sup>16</sup>So it was as Joab kept watch on the city, that he put Uriah at the place where he knew there were valiant men. <sup>17</sup>The men of the city went out and fought against Joab, and some of the people among David's servants fell; and Uriah the Hittite also died. <sup>18</sup>Then Joab sent and reported to David all the events of the war. <sup>19</sup>He charged the messenger, saying, “When you have finished telling all the events of the war to the king, <sup>20</sup>and if it happens that the king's wrath rises and he says to you, ‘Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall? <sup>21</sup>Who struck down Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? 22 So the messenger departed and came and reported to David all that Joab had sent him to tell. <sup>23</sup>The messenger said to David, “The men prevailed against us and came out against us in the field, but we <sup>a</sup>pressed them as far as the entrance of the gate. <sup>24</sup>Moreover, the archers shot at your servants from the wall; so some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.” <sup>25</sup>Then David said to the messenger, “Thus you shall say to Joab, ‘Do not let this thing <sup>b</sup>displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another; make your battle against the city stronger and overthrow it'; and so encourage him.” [23 <sup>a</sup>Lit were upon 25 <sup>b</sup>Lit be evil in your sight]

Nathan Rebukes David <sup>1</sup> Then the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him and <sup>a</sup>said, “There were two men in one city, the one rich and the other poor. [<sup>1</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit said to him]

<sup>4</sup>“Now a traveler came to the rich man, And he <sup>a</sup>was unwilling to take from his own flock or his own herd, To prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him; Rather he took the poor man’s ewe lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him.”

<sup>5</sup>Then David’s anger burned greatly against the man, and he said to Nathan, “As the LORD lives, surely the man who has done this <sup>b</sup>deserves to die. <sup>6</sup>He must make restitution for the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing and had no compassion.” [<sup>4</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit spared <sup>5</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit is a son of death]

<sup>7</sup> Nathan then said to David, “You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘It is I who anointed you king over Israel and it is I who delivered you from the hand of Saul. <sup>8</sup>I also gave you your master’s house and your master’s wives into your <sup>a</sup>care, and I gave you the house of Israel and Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added to you many more things like these! <sup>9</sup>Why have you despised the word of the LORD by doing evil in His sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword, have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the sons of Ammon. <sup>10</sup>Now therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.’ <sup>11</sup>Thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, I will raise up evil against you from your own household; I will even take your wives before your eyes and give them to your companion, and he will lie with your wives in <sup>b</sup>broad daylight. <sup>12</sup>Indeed you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and <sup>c</sup>under the sun.’ ” <sup>13</sup>Then David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.” And Nathan said to David, “The LORD also has <sup>d</sup>taken away your sin; you shall not die. <sup>14</sup>However, because by this deed you have given occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born to you shall surely die.” <sup>15</sup>So Nathan went to his house. Loss of a Child Then the LORD struck the child that Uriah’s <sup>a</sup>widow bore to David, so that he was very sick. <sup>16</sup>David therefore inquired of God for the child; and David fasted and went and lay all night on the ground. <sup>17</sup>The elders of his household stood beside him in order to raise him up from the ground, but he was unwilling and would not eat food with them. <sup>18</sup>Then it happened on the seventh day that the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, “Behold, while the child was still alive, we spoke to him and he did not listen to our voice. How then can we tell him that the child is dead, since he might do himself harm!” <sup>19</sup>But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; so David said to his servants, “Is the child dead?” And they said, “He is dead.” <sup>20</sup>So David arose from the ground, washed, anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he came into the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then he came to his own house, and when he requested, they set food before him and he ate. [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit wife]

21 Then his servants said to him, “What is this thing that you have done? <sup>a</sup>While the child was alive, you fasted and wept; but when the child died, you arose and ate food.” <sup>22</sup>He said, “While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, ‘Who knows, the LORD may be gracious to me, that the child may live.’ <sup>23</sup>But now he has died; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me.” [21 <sup>a</sup>Lit On account of]

<sup>26</sup> Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon and captured the royal city. <sup>27</sup>Joab sent messengers to David and said, “I have fought against Rabbah, I have even captured the city of waters. <sup>28</sup>Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together and camp against the city and capture it, or I will capture the city myself and it will be named after me.” <sup>29</sup>So David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah, fought against it and captured it. <sup>30</sup>Then he took the crown of <sup>a</sup>their king from his head; and its weight was a talent of gold, and in it <sup>b</sup>was a precious stone; and it was placed on David’s head. And he brought out the spoil of the city in great amounts. <sup>31</sup>He also brought out the people who were in it, and set them under saws, sharp iron instruments, and iron axes, and made them pass through the brickkiln. Amnon and Tamar <sup>1</sup> Now it was after this that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar, and Amnon the son of David loved her. <sup>2</sup> Amnon was so frustrated because of his sister Tamar that he made himself ill, for she was a virgin, and it seemed <sup>a</sup>hard to Amnon to do anything to her. <sup>3</sup> But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of <sup>b</sup>Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very shrewd man. <sup>4</sup> He said to him, "O son of the king, why are you so depressed morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Then Amnon said to him, "I am in love with Tamar, the sister of my brother Absalom." <sup>5</sup> Jonadab then said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill; when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me some food to eat, and let her prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat from her hand.' " <sup>6</sup> So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill; when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand." [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit hard in Amnon's eyes 3 <sup>b</sup>In 1 Sam 16:9, Shammah; in 1 Chr 2:13, Shimeah]

rid of my reproach? And as for you, you will be like one of the <sup>d</sup>fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you.” <sup>14</sup>However, he would not listen to <sup>e</sup>her; since he was stronger than she, he violated her and lay with her. <sup>15</sup> Then Amnon hated her with a very great hatred; for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, “Get up, go away!” <sup>16</sup>But she said to him, “No, because this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other that you have done to me!” Yet he would not listen to her. <sup>17</sup>Then he called his young man who attended him and said, “Now throw this woman out of my presence, and lock the door behind her.” <sup>18</sup>Now she had on a <sup>a</sup>long-sleeved garment; for in this manner the virgin daughters of the king dressed themselves in robes. Then his attendant took her out and locked the door behind her. <sup>19</sup>Tamar put <sup>b</sup>ashes on her head and tore her <sup>c</sup>long-sleeved garment which was on her; and she put her hand on her head and went away, crying aloud as she went. <sup>20</sup> Then Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now keep silent, my sister, he is your brother; do not take this matter to heart.” So Tamar remained and was desolate in her brother Absalom’s house. <sup>21</sup>Now when King David heard of all these matters, he was very angry. <sup>22</sup>But Absalom did not speak to Amnon either good or bad; for Absalom hated Amnon because he had violated his sister Tamar.

<sup>23</sup> Now it came about after two full years that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king’s sons.

Absalom Avenges Tamar <sup>24</sup>Absalom came to the king and said, “Behold now, your servant has sheepshearers; please let the king and his servants go with your servant.” <sup>25</sup>But the king said to Absalom, “No, my son, we should not all go, for we will be burdensome to you.”

Although he <sup>a</sup>urged him, he would not go, but blessed him. <sup>26</sup>Then Absalom said, “If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us.” And the king said to him, “Why should he go with you?” <sup>27</sup>But when Absalom <sup>a</sup>urged him, he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him.

<sup>28</sup> Absalom commanded his servants, saying, “See now, when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon,’ then put him to death. Do not fear; have not I myself commanded you? Be courageous and be <sup>a</sup>valiant.” <sup>29</sup>The servants of Absalom did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king’s sons arose and each mounted his mule and fled. [<sup>28</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit sons of valor]

<sup>34</sup> Now Absalom had fled. And the young man who was the watchman raised his eyes and looked, and behold, many people were coming from the road behind him by the side of the mountain. <sup>35</sup>Jonadab said to the king, “Behold, the king’s sons have come; according to your servant’s word, so it happened.” <sup>36</sup>As soon as he had finished speaking, behold, the king’s sons came and lifted their voices and wept; and also the king and all his servants wept <sup>a</sup>very bitterly. <sup>37</sup> Now Absalom fled and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day. <sup>38</sup>So Absalom had

2 SAMUEL 14 [Books]

The Woman of Tekoa 1 Now Joab the son of Zeruah perceived that the king's heart was inclined toward Absalom. 2 So Joab sent to Tekoa and <sup>a</sup>brought a wise woman from there and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning garments now, and do not anoint yourself with oil, but be like a woman who has been mourning for the dead many days; 3 then go to the king and speak to him in this manner."

So Joab put the words in her mouth. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit took]

4 Now when the woman of Tekoa <sup>a</sup>spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and prostrated herself and said, "Help, O king." 5 The king said to her, "What is your trouble?" And she <sup>b</sup>answered, "Truly I am a widow, for my husband is dead. 6 Your maidservant had two sons, but the two of them struggled together in the field, and there was no <sup>c</sup>one to separate them, so one struck the other and killed him. 7 Now behold, the whole family has risen against your maidservant, and they say, 'Hand over the one who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed, and destroy the heir also.' Thus they will extinguish my coal which is left, so as to <sup>d</sup>leave my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth." 8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you." 9 The woman of Tekoa said to the king, "O my lord, the king, the iniquity is on me and my father's house, but the king and his throne are guiltless." 10 So the king said, "Whoever speaks to you, bring him to me, and he will not touch you anymore." 11 Then she said, "Please let the king remember the LORD your God, so that the avenger of blood will not continue to destroy, otherwise they will destroy my son." And he said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

12 Then the woman said, "Please let your maidservant speak a word to my lord the king." And he said, "Speak." 13 The woman said, "Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring back his banished one. <sup>14</sup>For we will surely die and are like water spilled on the ground which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away life, but plans <sup>a</sup>ways so that the banished one will not be cast out from him. <sup>15</sup>Now <sup>b</sup>the reason I have come to speak this word to my lord the king is that the people have made me afraid; so your maidservant said, ‘Let me now speak to the king, perhaps the king will perform the <sup>c</sup>request of his maidservant. <sup>16</sup>For the king will hear <sup>d</sup>and deliver his maidservant from the <sup>e</sup>hand of the man who would destroy <sup>f</sup>both me and my son from the inheritance of God.’ <sup>17</sup>Then your maidservant said, ‘Please let the word of my lord the king be <sup>g</sup>comforting, for as the angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and evil. And may the LORD your God be with you.’ ” [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit devices 15 <sup>b</sup>Lit that <sup>c</sup>Lit word 16 <sup>d</sup>Lit to <sup>e</sup>Lit palm <sup>f</sup>Lit together 17 <sup>g</sup>Lit for rest]

<sup>18</sup> Then the king answered and said to the woman, “Please do not hide anything from me that I am about to ask you.” And the woman said, “Let my lord the king please speak.” <sup>19</sup>So the king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?” And the woman replied, “As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. Indeed, it was your servant Joab who commanded me, and it was he who put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant; <sup>20</sup>in order to change the appearance of things your servant Joab has done this thing. But my lord is wise, like the wisdom of the angel of God, to know all that is in the earth.”

Absalom Is Recalled <sup>21</sup> Then the king said to Joab, “Behold now, I will surely do this thing; go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom.” <sup>22</sup>Joab fell on his face to the ground, prostrated himself and blessed the king; then Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, O my lord, the king, in that the king has performed the <sup>a</sup>request of his servant.” <sup>23</sup>So Joab arose and went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>However the king said, “Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face.” So Absalom turned to his own house and did not see the king’s face. [22 <sup>a</sup>Lit word]

25 Now in all Israel was no one as handsome as Absalom, so highly praised; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no defect in him. <sup>26</sup>When he cut the hair of his head (and it was at the end of every year that he cut it, for it was heavy on him so he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head at 200 shekels by the king’s weight. <sup>27</sup>To Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar; she was a woman of beautiful appearance.

28 Now Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, and did not see the king’s face. <sup>29</sup>Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. So he sent again a second time, but he would not come. <sup>30</sup>Therefore he said to his servants, “See, Joab’s <sup>a</sup>field is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire.” So Absalom’s servants set the <sup>a</sup>field on fire. <sup>31</sup>Then Joab arose, came to Absalom at his house and said to him, “Why have your servants set my <sup>a</sup>field on fire?” <sup>32</sup>Absalom <sup>b</sup>answered Joab, “Behold, I sent for you, saying, ‘Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, “Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me still to be there.” ’ Now therefore, let me see the king’s face, and if there is iniquity in me, let him put me to death.” <sup>33</sup>So when Joab came to the king and told him, he called for Absalom. Thus he came to the king and prostrated himself on his face to the ground before the king, and the king kissed Absalom. [30 <sup>a</sup>Lit portion 32 <sup>b</sup>Lit said to]

2 SAMUEL 15 [\[Books\]](#)

Absalom's Conspiracy <sup>1</sup> Now it came about after this that Absalom provided for himself a chariot and horses and fifty men as runners before him. <sup>2</sup> Absalom used to rise early and stand beside the way to the gate; and when any man had a suit to come to the king for judgment, Absalom would call to him and say, "From what city are you?" And he would say, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel." <sup>3</sup> Then Absalom would say to him, "See, your <sup>a</sup>claims are good and right, but no man listens to you on the part of the king." <sup>4</sup> Moreover, Absalom would say, "Oh that one would appoint me judge in the land, then every man who has any suit or cause could come to me and I would give him justice." <sup>5</sup> And when a man came near to prostrate himself before him, he would put out his hand and take hold of him and kiss him. <sup>6</sup> In this manner Absalom dealt with all Israel who came to the king for judgment; so Absalom stole away the hearts of the men of Israel. [<sup>3</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit words]

<sup>7</sup> Now it came about at the end of <sup>a</sup>forty years that Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay my vow which I have vowed to the LORD, in Hebron. <sup>8</sup> For your servant vowed a vow while I was living at Geshur in Aram, saying, 'If the LORD shall indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.' " <sup>9</sup> The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose and went to Hebron. <sup>10</sup> But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron.' " <sup>11</sup> Then two hundred men went with Absalom from Jerusalem, who were invited and went <sup>b</sup>innocently, and they did not know anything. <sup>12</sup> And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong, for the people increased continually with Absalom. [<sup>7</sup> <sup>a</sup>Some ancient versions render four <sup>11</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit in their integrity]

David Flees Jerusalem 13 Then a messenger came to David, saying, “The hearts of the men of Israel are <sup>a</sup>with Absalom.” 14 David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, “Arise and let us flee, for otherwise none of us will escape from Absalom. Go in haste, or he will overtake us quickly and bring down calamity on us and strike the city with the edge of the sword.” 15 Then the king’s servants said to the king, “Behold, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king chooses.” 16 So the king went out and all his household <sup>b</sup>with him. But the king left ten concubines to keep the house. 17 The king went out and all the people <sup>b</sup>with him, and they stopped at the last house. 18 Now all his servants passed on beside him, all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had come <sup>b</sup>with him from Gath, passed on before the king. [13 <sup>a</sup>Lit after 16 <sup>b</sup>Lit at his feet]

19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why will you also go with us? Return and remain with the king, for you are a foreigner and also an exile; return to your own place. 20 You came only yesterday, and shall I today make you wander with us, while I go where I will? Return and take back your brothers; mercy and <sup>a</sup>truth be with you.” 21 But Ittai answered the king and said, “As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, there also your servant will be.” 22 Therefore David said to Ittai, “Go and pass over.” So Ittai the Gittite passed over with all his men and all the little ones who were with him. 23 While all the country was weeping with a loud voice, all the people passed over. The king also passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over toward the way of the wilderness. [20 <sup>a</sup>Or faithfulness]

24 Now behold, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him carrying the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar came up until all the people had finished passing from the city. 25 The king said to Zadok, “Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favor in the sight of the LORD, then He will bring me back again and show me both it and His habitation. 26 But if He should say thus, ‘I have no delight in you,’ behold, here I am, let Him do to me as seems good <sup>a</sup>to Him.” 27 The king said also to Zadok the priest, “Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace and your two sons with you, your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. <sup>28</sup>See, I am going to wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me.”

<sup>30</sup> And David went up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went, and his head was covered and he walked barefoot. Then all the people who were with him each covered his head and went up weeping as they went. <sup>31</sup>Now someone told David, saying, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” And David said, “O LORD, I pray, make the counsel of Ahithophel foolishness.”

<sup>32</sup> It happened as David was coming to the summit, where God was worshiped, that behold, Hushai the Archite met him with his <sup>a</sup>coat torn and <sup>b</sup>dust on his head. <sup>33</sup>David said to him, “If you pass over with me, then you will be a burden to me. <sup>34</sup>But if you return to the city, and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father’s servant in time past, so I will now be your servant,’ then you can thwart the counsel of Ahithophel for me. <sup>35</sup>Are not Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? So it shall be that whatever you hear from the king’s house, you shall report to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. <sup>36</sup>Behold their two sons are with them there, Ahimaaz, Zadok’s son and Jonathan, Abiathar’s son; and by them you shall send me everything that you hear.” <sup>37</sup>So Hushai, David’s friend, came into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem. Ziba, a False Servant <sup>1</sup> Now when David had passed a little beyond the summit, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them were two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred clusters of raisins, a hundred summer fruits, and a jug of wine. <sup>2</sup>The king said to Ziba, “Why do you have these?” And Ziba said, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride, and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine, for whoever is faint in the wilderness to drink.” <sup>3</sup>Then the king said, “And where is your master’s son?” And Ziba said to the king, “Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.’” <sup>4</sup>So the king said to Ziba, “Behold, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours.” And Ziba said, “I prostrate myself; let me find favor in your sight, O my lord, the king!”

David Is Cursed <sup>5</sup> When King David came to Bahurim, behold, there came out from there a man of the family of the house of Saul whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera; he came out cursing continually as he came. <sup>6</sup>He threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David; and all the people and all the mighty men were at his right hand and at his left. <sup>7</sup>Thus Shimei said when he cursed, “Get out, get out, you man of bloodshed, and worthless fellow! <sup>8</sup>The LORD has returned upon you all the bloodshed of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. And behold, you are taken in your own evil, for you are a man of bloodshed!”

<sup>9</sup> Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over now and <sup>a</sup>cut off his head.” <sup>10</sup>But the king said, “What have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah? If he curses, and if the LORD has told him, ‘Curse David,’ then who shall say, ‘Why have you done so?’ ” <sup>11</sup>Then David said to Abishai and to all his servants, “Behold, my son who came out from <sup>b</sup>me seeks my life; how much more now this Benjamite? Let him alone and let him curse, for the LORD has told him. <sup>12</sup>Perhaps the LORD will look on my affliction and <sup>c</sup>return good to me instead of his cursing this day.” <sup>13</sup>So David and his men went on the way; and Shimei went along on the hillside parallel with him and as he went he cursed and cast stones and threw dust at him. <sup>14</sup>The king and all the people who were with him arrived weary and he refreshed himself there. Absalom Enters Jerusalem <sup>15</sup> Then Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, entered Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. <sup>16</sup>Now it came about when Hushai the Archite, David’s friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, “Long live the king! Long live the king!” <sup>17</sup>Absalom said to Hushai, “Is this your <sup>a</sup>loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?” <sup>18</sup>Then Hushai said to Absalom, “No! For whom the LORD, this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his I will be, and with him I will remain. <sup>19</sup>Besides, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father’s presence, so I will be in your presence.” [17 <sup>a</sup>Or kindness]

<sup>20</sup> Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give your advice. What shall we do?” <sup>21</sup>Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Go in to your father’s concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father. The hands of all who are with you will also be strengthened.” <sup>22</sup>So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went in to his father’s concubines in the sight of all Israel. <sup>23</sup>The advice of Ahithophel, which he <sup>a</sup>gave in those days, was as if one inquired of the word of God; so was all the advice of Ahithophel regarded by both David and Absalom. Hushai's Counsel 1 Furthermore, Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Please let me choose 12,000 men that I may arise and pursue David tonight. 2I will come upon him while he is weary and <sup>a</sup>exhausted and terrify him, so that all the people who are with him will flee. Then I will strike down the king alone, 3and I will bring back all the people to you. <sup>b</sup>The return of everyone depends on the man you seek; then all the people will be at peace." 4So the <sup>c</sup>plan pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel. 5 Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what <sup>a</sup>he has to say." 6When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom said to <sup>b</sup>him, "Ahithophel has spoken <sup>c</sup>thus. Shall we <sup>d</sup>carry out his plan? If not, you speak." 7So Hushai said to Absalom, "This time the advice that Ahithophel has <sup>e</sup>given is not good." 8Moreover, Hushai said, "You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men and they are <sup>f</sup>fierce, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. And your father is an <sup>g</sup>expert in warfare, and will not spend the night with the people. 9Behold, he has now hidden himself in one of the <sup>h</sup>caves or in another place; and it will be <sup>i</sup>when he falls on them at the first attack, that whoever hears it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.' 10And even the one who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will completely <sup>j</sup>lose heart; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man and those who are with him are valiant men. 11But I counsel that all Israel be surely gathered to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea in abundance, and that <sup>k</sup>you personally go into battle. 12So we shall come to him in one of the places where he can be found, and we will <sup>l</sup>fall on him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and of all the men who are with him, not even one will be left. 13If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it into the <sup>m</sup>valley until not even a small stone is found there." 14Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel.” For the LORD had ordained to thwart the good counsel of Ahithophel, so that the LORD might bring calamity on Absalom. Hushai’s Warning Saves David 15 Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, “<sup>a</sup>This is what Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel, and <sup>a</sup>this is what I have counseled. 16 Now therefore, send quickly and tell David, saying, ‘Do not spend the night at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means cross over, or else the king and all the people who are with him will be <sup>b</sup>destroyed.’ ” 17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-rogel, and a maidservant would go and tell them, and they would go and tell King David, for they could not be seen entering the city. 18 But a lad did see them and told Absalom; so the two of them departed quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard, and they went down <sup>c</sup>into it. 19 And the woman <sup>d</sup>took a covering and spread it over the well’s mouth and scattered grain on it, so that nothing was known. 20 Then Absalom’s servants came to the woman at the house and said, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” And the woman said to them, “They have crossed the brook of water.” And when they searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. 21 It came about after they had departed that they came up out of the well and went and told King David; and they said to David, “Arise and cross over the water quickly for thus Ahithophel has counseled against you.” 22 Then David and all the people who were with him arose and crossed the Jordan; and by <sup>a</sup>dawn not even one remained who had not crossed the Jordan. 24 Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. <sup>25</sup>Absalom set Amasa over the army in place of Joab. 27 Now when David had come to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim, <sup>28</sup>brought beds, basins, pottery, wheat, barley, flour, parched grain, beans, lentils, parched seeds, <sup>29</sup>honey, curds, sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David and for the people who were with him, to eat; for they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

there to the ground? And I would have given you ten pieces of silver and a belt.” <sup>12</sup>The man said to Joab, “Even if I should receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I would not put out my hand against the king’s son; for in our hearing the king charged you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, <sup>b</sup>‘Protect for me the young man Absalom!’ <sup>13</sup>Otherwise, if I had dealt treacherously against his life (and there is nothing hidden from the king), then you yourself would have stood aloof.” <sup>14</sup>Then Joab said, “I will not <sup>c</sup>waste time here with you.” So he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom while he was yet alive in the <sup>d</sup>midst of the oak. <sup>15</sup>And ten young men who carried Joab’s armor gathered around and struck Absalom and killed him. <sup>16</sup> Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab restrained the people. <sup>17</sup>They took Absalom and cast him into <sup>a</sup>a deep pit in the forest and erected over him a very great heap of stones. And all Israel fled, each to his tent. <sup>18</sup>Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself a pillar which is in the King’s Valley, for he said, “I have no son <sup>b</sup>to preserve my name.” So he named the pillar after his own name, and it is called Absalom’s Monument to this day. David Is Grief-stricken <sup>19</sup> Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, “Please let me run and bring the king news that the LORD has <sup>a</sup>freed him from the hand of his enemies.” <sup>20</sup>But Joab said to him, “You are not the man to carry news this day, but you shall carry news another day; however, you shall carry no news today because the king’s son is dead.” <sup>21</sup>Then Joab said to the Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” So the Cushite bowed to Joab and ran. <sup>22</sup>Now Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said once more to Joab, “But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite.” And Joab said, “Why would you run, my son, since you will have no reward for going?” <sup>23</sup>“But whatever happens,” he said, “I will run.” So he said to him, “Run.” Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the 24 Now David was sitting between the two gates; and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate by the wall, and raised his eyes and looked, and behold, a man running by himself. <sup>25</sup>The watchman called and told the king. And the king said, “If he is by himself there is good news in his mouth.” And he came nearer and nearer. <sup>26</sup>Then the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, “Behold, another man running by himself.” And the king said, “This one also is bringing good news.” <sup>27</sup>The watchman said, “I <sup>a</sup>think the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok.” And the king said, “This is a good man and comes with good news.” [27 <sup>a</sup>Lit see]

28 Ahimaaz called and said to the king, “<sup>a</sup>All is well.” And he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground. And he said, “Blessed is the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted their hands against my lord the king.” <sup>29</sup>The king said, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” And Ahimaaz answered, “When Joab sent the king’s servant, and your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I did not know what it was.” <sup>30</sup>Then the king said, “Turn aside and stand here.” So he turned aside and stood still. 31 Behold, the Cushite arrived, and the Cushite said, “Let my lord the king receive good news, for the LORD has <sup>a</sup>freed you this day from the hand of all those who rose up against you.” <sup>32</sup>Then the king said to the Cushite, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” And the Cushite answered, “Let the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you for evil, be as that young man!” [31 <sup>a</sup>Lit vindicated]

33 <sup>a</sup>The king was deeply moved and went up to the chamber over the gate and wept. And thus he said as he walked, “O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!” [33 <sup>a</sup>Ch 19:1 in Heb]

Joab Reproves David's Lament <sup>1</sup> Then it was told Joab, "Behold, the king is weeping and mourns for Absalom." <sup>2</sup> The <sup>a</sup>victory that day was turned to mourning for all the people, for the people heard it said that day, "The king is grieved for his son." <sup>3</sup> So the people went by stealth into the city that day, as people who are humiliated steal away when they flee in battle. <sup>4</sup> The king covered his face and <sup>b</sup>cried out with a loud voice, "O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!" <sup>5</sup> Then Joab came into the house to the king and said, "Today you have covered with shame the faces of all your servants, who today have saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines, <sup>6</sup>by loving those who hate you, and by hating those who love you. David Restored as King <sup>8</sup> So the king arose and sat in the gate. When they told all the people, saying, "Behold, the king is sitting in the gate," then all the people came before the king.

Now Israel had fled, each to his tent. <sup>9</sup> All the people were quarreling throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us from the <sup>a</sup>hand of our enemies and saved us from the <sup>a</sup>hand of the Philistines, but now he has fled out of the land from Absalom. <sup>10</sup> However, Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now then, why are you silent about bringing the king back?” [9 <sup>a</sup>Lit palm]

11 Then King David sent to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, “Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, ‘Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the word of all Israel has come to the king, even to his house?’ <sup>12</sup>You are my brothers; you are my bone and my flesh. Why then should you be the last to bring back the king?’ <sup>13</sup>Say to Amasa, ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God do so to me, and more also, if you will not be commander of the army before me continually in place of Joab.’ ” <sup>14</sup>Thus he turned the hearts of all the men of Judah as one man, so that they sent word to the king, saying, “Return, you and all your servants.” <sup>15</sup>The king then returned and came as far as the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal in order to go to meet the king, to bring the king across the Jordan.

16 Then Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

<sup>17</sup>There were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, with Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they rushed to the Jordan before the king. <sup>18</sup>Then they kept crossing the ford to bring over the king’s household, and to do what was good in his sight. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king as he was about to cross the Jordan. <sup>19</sup>So he said to the king, “Let not my lord consider me guilty, nor remember what your servant did wrong on the day when my lord the king came out from Jerusalem, so that the king would <sup>a</sup>take it to heart. <sup>20</sup>For your servant knows that I have sinned; therefore behold, I have come today, the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.” <sup>21</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah said, “Should not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD’s anointed?” <sup>22</sup>David then said, “What have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be an adversary to me? Should any man be put to death in Israel today? For do I not know that I am king over Israel today?” <sup>23</sup>The king said to Shimei, “You shall not die.” Thus the king swore to him. 24 Then Mephibosheth the <sup>a</sup>son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither <sup>b</sup> cared for his feet, nor <sup>b</sup> trimmed his mustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace. <sup>25</sup>It was when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, “Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?” <sup>26</sup>So he answered, “O my lord, the king, my servant deceived me; for your servant said, ‘I will saddle a donkey for myself that I may ride on it and go with the king,’ because your servant is lame. <sup>27</sup>Moreover, he has slandered your servant to my lord the king; but my lord the king is like the angel of God, therefore do what is good in your sight. <sup>28</sup>For all my father’s household was nothing but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right do I have yet that I should <sup>c</sup> complain anymore to the king?” <sup>29</sup>So the king said to him, “Why do you still speak of your affairs? I have <sup>d</sup> decided, ‘You and Ziba shall divide the land.’” <sup>30</sup>Mephibosheth said to the king, “Let him even take it all, since my lord the king has come safely to his own house.” [24 <sup>a</sup>I.e. grandson

3 Then David came to his house at Jerusalem, and the king took the ten women, the concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and placed them under guard and provided them with sustenance, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living as widows.

4 Then the king said to Amasa, “Call out the men of Judah for me within three days, and be present here yourself.” <sup>5</sup>So Amasa went to call out the men of Judah, but he delayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him. <sup>6</sup>And David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom; take your lord’s servants and pursue him, so that he does not find for himself fortified cities and escape from our sight.” <sup>7</sup>So Joab’s men went out after him, along with the Cherethites and the Pelethites and all the mighty men; and they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>8</sup>When they were at the large stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came <sup>a</sup>to meet them. Now Joab was <sup>b</sup>dressed in his military attire, and over it was a belt with a sword in its sheath fastened at his waist; and as he went forward, it fell out. <sup>9</sup>Joab said to Amasa, “Is it well with you, my brother?” And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. [<sup>8</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit before <sup>b</sup>Lit girded with military garment as clothing]

Amasa Murdered <sup>10</sup>But Amasa was not on guard against the sword which was in Joab's hand so he struck him in the belly with it and poured out his inward parts on the ground, and did not strike him again, and he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>11</sup>Now there stood by him one of Joab's young men, and said, "Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab." <sup>12</sup>But Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he <sup>a</sup>removed Amasa from the highway into the field and threw a garment over him when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. [12

Revolt Put Down <sup>13</sup>As soon as he was removed from the highway, all the men passed on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

<sup>14</sup> Now he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, even Beth-maacah, and all the Berites; and they were gathered together and also went after him. <sup>15</sup>They came and besieged him in Abel Beth-maacah, and they <sup>a</sup>cast up a siege ramp against the city, and it stood by the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab were wreaking destruction in order to topple the wall. <sup>16</sup>Then a wise woman called from the city, "Hear, hear! Please tell Joab, 'Come here that I may speak with you.' " <sup>17</sup>So he approached her, and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" And he answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your maidservant." And he answered, "I am listening." <sup>18</sup>Then she spoke, saying, "Formerly they used to say, 'They will surely ask advice at Abel,' and thus they ended the dispute. <sup>19</sup>I am of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel. You are seeking to destroy a city, even a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?" <sup>20</sup>Joab replied, "Far be it, far be it from me that I should swallow up or destroy! <sup>21</sup>Such is not the case. But a man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against King David. Only hand him over, and I will depart from the city." And the woman said to Joab, "Behold, his head will be thrown to you over the wall." <sup>22</sup>Then the woman wisely came to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. So he blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, each to his tent. Joab also returned to the king at Jerusalem. [15

Gibeonite Revenge

1 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David sought the presence of the LORD. And the LORD said, “It is for Saul and his bloody house, because he put the Gibeonites to death.” <sup>2</sup>So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel but of the remnant of the Amorites, and the sons of Israel <sup>a</sup>made a covenant with them, but Saul had sought to <sup>b</sup>kill them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah). <sup>3</sup>Thus David said to the Gibeonites, “What should I do for you? And how can I make atonement that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?” <sup>4</sup>Then the Gibeonites said to him, “We have no concern of silver or gold with Saul or his house, nor is it for us to put any man to death in Israel.” And he said, “I will do for you whatever you say.” <sup>5</sup>So they said to the king, “The man who consumed us and who planned <sup>c</sup>to exterminate us from remaining within any border of Israel, <sup>6</sup>let seven men from his sons be given to us, and we will <sup>d</sup>hang them before the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the LORD.” And the king said, “I will give them.” [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit had sworn to <sup>b</sup>Lit smite 5 <sup>c</sup>Lit against us that we should be exterminated 6 <sup>d</sup>Lit expose them]

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the oath of the LORD which was between them, between David and Saul’s son Jonathan. <sup>8</sup>So the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, Armoni and Mephibosheth whom she had borne to Saul, and the five sons of <sup>a</sup>Merab the daughter of Saul, whom she had borne to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite. <sup>9</sup>Then he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they <sup>b</sup>hanged them in the mountain before the LORD, so that the seven of them fell together; and they were put to death in the first days of harvest at the beginning of barley harvest. [8 <sup>a</sup>So Gr and Heb mss 9 <sup>b</sup>Lit exposed them] on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until <sup>a</sup>it rained on them from the sky; and she <sup>b</sup>allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night. <sup>11</sup>When it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done, <sup>12</sup>then David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the open square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them on the day the Philistines struck down Saul in Gilboa. <sup>13</sup>He brought up the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from there, and they gathered the bones of those who had been <sup>c</sup>changed. <sup>14</sup>They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the grave of Kish his father; thus they did all that the king commanded, and after that God was moved by prayer for the land. <sup>15</sup> Now when the Philistines were at war again with Israel, David went down and his servants with him; and as they fought against the Philistines, David became weary. <sup>16</sup>Then Ishbi-benob, who was among the descendants of the <sup>a</sup>giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of bronze in weight, <sup>b</sup>was girded with a new sword, and he <sup>c</sup>intended to kill David. <sup>17</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and struck the Philistine and killed him. <sup>18</sup> Now it came about after this that there was war again with the Philistines at Gob; then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck down Saph, who was among the descendants of the <sup>a</sup>giant. <sup>19</sup>There was war with the Philistines again at Gob, and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite <sup>b</sup>killed <sup>c</sup>Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam. <sup>20</sup>There was war at Gath again, where there was a man of great stature who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also had been born to the <sup>a</sup>giant. <sup>21</sup>When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David’s brother, struck him down. <sup>22</sup>These four were born to the <sup>a</sup>giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants. ### David's Last Song* 1 Now these are the last words of David.

David the son of Jesse declares, The man who was raised on high declares, The anointed of the God of Jacob, And the sweet psalmist of Israel, <sup>2</sup>“The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me, And His word was on my tongue.

<sup>3</sup>“The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spoke to me, ‘He who rules over men righteously, Who rules in the fear of God, <sup>4</sup>Is as the light of the morning when the sun rises, A morning without clouds, When the tender grass springs out of the earth, Through sunshine after rain.’

<sup>5</sup>“Truly is not my house so with God?

For He has made an everlasting covenant with me, Ordered in all things, and secured; For all my salvation and all my desire, Will He not indeed make it grow?

<sup>6</sup>“But the worthless, every one of them will be thrust away like thorns, Because they cannot be taken in hand; <sup>7</sup>But the man who touches them Must be <sup>a</sup>armed with iron and the shaft of a spear, And they will be completely burned with fire in their <sup>b</sup>place.” [<sup>a</sup>Lit filled <sup>b</sup>Lit sitting]

His Mighty Men* 8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the <sup>a</sup>captains, he was called Adino the Eznite, because of eight hundred slain by him at one time; <sup>9</sup>and after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they <sup>b</sup>defied the Philistines who were gathered there to battle and the men of Israel had <sup>c</sup>withdrawn.

<sup>10</sup>He arose and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary and <sup>d</sup>clung to the sword, and the LORD brought about a great <sup>e</sup>victory that day; and the people returned after him only to strip the slain. 13 Then three of the thirty chief men went down and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam, while the troop of the Philistines was camping in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup>David was then in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. <sup>15</sup>David had a craving and said, “Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate!” <sup>16</sup>So the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD; <sup>17</sup>and he said, “Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?” Therefore he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

18 Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the <sup>a</sup>thirty. And he swung his spear against three hundred <sup>b</sup>and killed them, and had a name as well as the three. <sup>19</sup>He was most honored of the thirty, therefore he became their commander; however, he did not attain to the three. ### The Census Taken

1 Now again the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and it incited David against them to say, “Go, number Israel and Judah.” <sup>2</sup>The king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, “Go about now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and <sup>a</sup>register the people, that I may know the number of the people.” <sup>3</sup>But Joab said to the king, “Now may the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king still see; but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?” <sup>4</sup>Nevertheless, the king’s word prevailed against Joab and against the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the king to <sup>a</sup>register the people of Israel. <sup>5</sup>They crossed the Jordan and camped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad and toward Jazer. <sup>6</sup>Then they came to Gilead and to <sup>b</sup>the land of Tahtim-hodshi, and they came to Dan-jaan and around to Sidon, <sup>7</sup>and came to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites, and they went out to the south of Judah, to Beersheba. <sup>8</sup>So when they had gone about through the whole land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. <sup>9</sup>And Joab gave the number of the <sup>a</sup>registration of the people to the king; and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit muster 6 <sup>b</sup>Or Kadesh in the land of the Hittite]

10 Now David’s heart <sup>a</sup>troubled him after he had numbered the people. So David said to the LORD, “I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, O LORD, please <sup>b</sup>take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.” <sup>11</sup>When David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David’s seer, saying, <sup>12</sup>“Go and speak to David, ‘Thus the LORD says, “I am offering you three things; choose for yourself one of them, which I will do to you.” ’ ” <sup>13</sup>So Gad came to David and told him, and said to him, “Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? Now consider and see what answer I shall return to Him who sent me." <sup>14</sup>Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Let us now fall into the hand of the LORD for His mercies are great, but do not let me fall into the hand of man." [<sup>10</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit smote <sup>b</sup>Lit cause to pass away]

Pestilence Sent

<sup>15</sup> So the LORD <sup>a</sup>sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning until the appointed time, and seventy thousand men of the people from Dan to Beersheba died. <sup>16</sup>When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented from the calamity and said to the angel who destroyed the people, "It is enough! Now relax your hand!" And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. <sup>17</sup>Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking down the people, and said, "Behold, it is I who have sinned, and it is I who have done wrong; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand be against me and against my father's house." [<sup>15</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit gave]

David Builds an Altar

<sup>18</sup> So Gad came to David that day and said to him, "Go up, erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of <sup>a</sup>Araunah the Jebusite." <sup>19</sup>David went up according to the word of Gad, just as the LORD had commanded. <sup>20</sup>Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants crossing over toward him; and Araunah went out and bowed his face to the ground before the king. <sup>21</sup>Then Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" And David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you, in order to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be held back from the people." <sup>22</sup>Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what is good in his sight. Look, the oxen for the burnt offering, the threshing sledges and the yokes of the oxen for the wood. <sup>23</sup>Everything, O king, Araunah gives to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God accept you."

<sup>24</sup>However, the king said to Araunah, “No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price, for I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God <sup>b</sup>which cost me nothing.” So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. <sup>25</sup>David built there an altar to the LORD and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. Thus the LORD was moved by prayer for the land, and the plague was held back from Israel. [18 <sup>a</sup>In 2 Chr 3:1, Ornan 24 <sup>b</sup>Lit gratuitously]

David in Old Age <sup>1</sup> Now King David was old, advanced in age; and they covered him with clothes, but he could not keep warm. <sup>2</sup> So his servants said to him, “Let them seek a young virgin for my lord the king, and let her <sup>a</sup>attend the king and become his nurse; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may keep warm.” <sup>3</sup> So they searched for a beautiful girl throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup> The girl was very beautiful; and she became the king’s nurse and served him, but the king did not <sup>b</sup>cohabit with her. <sup>5</sup> Now Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, “I will be king.” So he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen with fifty men to run before him. <sup>6</sup> His father had never <sup>a</sup>crossed him at any time by asking, “Why have you done so?” And he was also a very handsome man, and <sup>b</sup>he was born after Absalom. <sup>7</sup> <sup>c</sup>He had conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest; and following Adonijah they helped him. <sup>8</sup> But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. <sup>9</sup> Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fatlings by the <sup>a</sup>stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel; and he invited all his brothers, the king’s sons, and all the men of Judah, the king’s servants. <sup>10</sup> But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, and Solomon his brother. Nathan and Bathsheba <sup>11</sup> Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, “Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king, and David our lord does not know it? <sup>12</sup> So now come, please let me give you counsel and save your life and the life of your son Solomon. <sup>13</sup>Go <sup>a</sup>at once to King David and say to him, ‘Have you not, my lord, O king, sworn to your maidservant, saying, “Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne”? <sup>15</sup> So Bathsheba went in to the king in the bedroom. 28 Then King David said, “Call Bathsheba to me.” And she came into the king’s presence and stood before the king. <sup>29</sup>The king vowed and said, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress, <sup>30</sup>surely as I vowed to you by the LORD the God of Israel, saying, ‘Your son Solomon shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place’; I will indeed do so this day.” <sup>31</sup>Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, and prostrated herself <sup>a</sup>before the king and said, “May my lord King David live forever.” [31 <sup>a</sup>Lit to]

32 Then King David said, “Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.” And they came into the king’s presence. <sup>33</sup>The king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, and have my son Solomon ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. <sup>34</sup>Let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there as king over Israel, and blow the trumpet and say, ‘Long live King Solomon!’ <sup>35</sup>Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne and be king in my place; for I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah.” <sup>36</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, “Amen! ## Death of David

10 Then David slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David.

11 The days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years he reigned in Hebron and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem. 12 And Solomon sat on the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was firmly established.

13 Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, “Do you come peacefully?” And he said, “Peacefully.” 14 Then he said, “I have something to say to you.” And she said, “Speak.” 15 So he said, “You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel <sup>a</sup>expected me to be king; however, the kingdom has turned about and become my brother’s, for it was his from the LORD. 16 Now I am making one request of you; do not <sup>b</sup>refuse me.” And she said to him, “Speak.” 17 Then he said, “Please speak to Solomon the king, for he will not <sup>c</sup>refuse you, that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife.” 18 Bathsheba said, “Very well; I will speak to the king for you.” [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit set their faces on me 16 <sup>b</sup>Lit turn away my face 17 <sup>c</sup>Lit turn away your face]

Adonijah Executed

19 So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king arose to meet her, bowed before her, and sat on his throne; then he had a throne set for the king’s mother, and she sat on his right. 20 Then she said, “I am making one small request of you; do not <sup>a</sup>refuse me.” And the king said to her, “Ask, my mother, for I will not <sup>b</sup>refuse you.” 21 So she said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as a wife.” 22 King Solomon answered and said to his mother, “And why are you asking Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him also the kingdom—for he is my older brother—even for him, for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah!” 23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, “May God do so to me and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own <sup>c</sup>life. 24 Now therefore, as the LORD lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father and who has made me a house as He promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death

<sup>26</sup> Then to Abiathar the priest the king said, “Go to Anathoth to your own field, for you <sup>a</sup>deserve to die; but I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the Lord <sup>b</sup>GOD before my father David, and because you were afflicted in everything with which my father was afflicted.” <sup>27</sup>So Solomon dismissed Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD, which He had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh. ### Joab Executed

<sup>28</sup> Now the news came to Joab, for Joab had followed Adonijah, although he had not followed Absalom. And Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar. <sup>29</sup>It was told King Solomon that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD, and behold, he is beside the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, “Go, fall upon him.” <sup>30</sup>So Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD and said to him, “Thus the king has said, ‘Come out.’ ” But he said, “No, for I will die here.” And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, “Thus spoke Joab, and thus he answered me.” <sup>31</sup>The king said to him, “Do as he has spoken and fall upon him and bury him, that you may remove from me and from my father’s house the blood which Joab shed without cause. <sup>32</sup>The LORD will return his blood on his own head, because he fell upon two men more righteous and better than he and killed them with the sword, while my father David did not know it: Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah. <sup>33</sup>So shall their blood return on the head of Joab and on the head of his <sup>a</sup>descendants forever; but to David and his <sup>a</sup>descendants and his house and his throne, may there be peace from the LORD forever.” <sup>34</sup>Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell upon him and put him to death, and he was buried at his own house in the wilderness. <sup>35</sup>The king appointed Benaiah the son of

Jehoiada over the army in his place, and the king appointed Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar. [33 <sup>a</sup>Lit seed]

Shimei Executed

36 Now the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, “Build for yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, and do not go out from there to any place. 37For on the day you go out and cross over the <sup>a</sup>brook Kidron, you will know for certain that you shall surely die; your blood shall be on your own head.” 38Shimei then said to the king, “The word is good. As my lord the king has said, so your servant will do.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days. [37 <sup>a</sup>Or wadi]

39 But it came about at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, “Behold, your servants are in Gath.” 40Then Shimei arose and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish to look for his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath. 41It was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had returned. 42So the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, “Did I not make you swear by the LORD and solemnly warn you, saying, ‘You will know for certain that on the day you depart and go anywhere, you shall surely die’? And you said to me, ‘The word which I have heard is good.’ 43Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD, and the command which I <sup>a</sup>have laid on you?” 44The king also said to Shimei, “You know all the evil which <sup>b</sup>you acknowledge in your heart, which you did to my father David; therefore the LORD shall return your evil on your own head. 45But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever.” 46So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and fell upon him so that he died. Solomon's Rule Consolidated 1 Then Solomon <sup>a</sup>formed a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her to the city of David until he had finished building his own house and the house of the LORD and the wall around Jerusalem. 2The people were still sacrificing on the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit made himself a son-in-law of Pharaoh]

3 Now Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David, except he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. 4The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place; Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. 5In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night; and God said, "Ask what you wish Me to give you."

Solomon's Prayer 6Then Solomon said, "You have shown great lovingkindness to Your servant David my father, according as he walked before You in <sup>a</sup>truth and righteousness and uprightness of heart toward You; and You have <sup>b</sup>reserved for him this great lovingkindness, that You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. 7Now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king in place of my father David, yet I am but a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. 8Your servant is in the midst of Your people which You have chosen, a great people who are too many to be numbered or counted. 9So give Your servant <sup>c</sup>an understanding heart to judge Your people to discern between good and evil. ## God's Answer

10 <sup>a</sup>It was pleasing in the sight of the Lord that Solomon had asked this thing. <sup>11</sup>God said to him, "Because you have asked this thing and have not asked for yourself <sup>b</sup>long life, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have you asked for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself <sup>c</sup>discernment to understand justice, <sup>12</sup>behold, I have done according to your words. Behold, I have given you a wise and discerning heart, so that there has been no one like you before you, nor shall one like you arise after you. <sup>13</sup>I have also given you what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there will not be any among the kings like you all your days. <sup>14</sup>If you walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and commandments, as your father David walked, then I will prolong your days." 21 <sup>a</sup>Now Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the <sup>b</sup>River to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt; they brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life. [21 <sup>a</sup>Ch 5:1 in Heb <sup>b</sup>I.e. Euphrates]

1 <sup>a</sup>Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, for Hiram had <sup>b</sup>always been a friend of David. <sup>2</sup>Then Solomon sent word to Hiram, saying, <sup>3</sup>“You know that David my father was unable to build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which surrounded him, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet. <sup>4</sup>But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor <sup>c</sup>misfortune. <sup>5</sup>Behold, I <sup>d</sup>intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, ‘Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he will build the house for My name.’ <sup>6</sup>Now therefore, command that they cut for me cedars from Lebanon, and my servants will be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to all that you say, for you know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Ch 5:15 in Heb <sup>b</sup>Lit all the day 4 <sup>c</sup>Lit evil occurrence 5 <sup>d</sup>Lit say]

7 When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly and said, “Blessed be the LORD today, who has given to David a wise son over this great people.” <sup>8</sup>So Hiram sent word to Solomon, saying, “I have heard the message which you have sent me; I will do <sup>a</sup>what you desire concerning the cedar and cypress timber. <sup>9</sup>My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place where you <sup>b</sup>direct me, and I will have them broken up there, and you shall carry them away. Then you shall accomplish my desire by giving food to my household.” <sup>10</sup>So <sup>c</sup>Hiram <sup>d</sup>gave Solomon <sup>e</sup>as much as he desired of the cedar and cypress timber. <sup>11</sup>Solomon then gave Hiram 20,000 <sup>f</sup>kors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty <sup>g</sup>kors of beaten oil; thus Solomon would give Hiram year by year. <sup>12</sup>The LORD gave wisdom to Solomon, just as He <sup>h</sup>promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a covenant. ### Conscription of Laborers

<sup>13</sup> Now King Solomon <sup>a</sup>levied forced laborers from all Israel; and the forced laborers <sup>b</sup>numbered 30,000 men. <sup>14</sup>He sent them to Lebanon, 10,000 a month in relays; they were in Lebanon a month and two months at home. And Adoniram was over the forced laborers. <sup>15</sup>Now Solomon had 70,000 <sup>c</sup>transporters, and 80,000 hewers of stone in the mountains, <sup>16</sup>besides Solomon's 3,300 chief deputies who were over the <sup>d</sup>project and who ruled over the people who were doing the work. <sup>17</sup>Then the king commanded, and they quarried great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with cut stones. <sup>18</sup>So Solomon's builders and <sup>e</sup>Hiram's builders and the Gebalites <sup>f</sup>cut them, and prepared the timbers and the stones to build the house. The Building of the Temple 1 Now it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv which is the second month, that he <sup>a</sup>began to build the house of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>As for the house which King Solomon built for the LORD, its length was sixty <sup>b</sup>cubits and its width twenty cubits and its height thirty cubits. <sup>3</sup>The porch in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits <sup>c</sup>in length, <sup>d</sup>corresponding to the width of the house, and its <sup>e</sup>depth along the front of the house was ten cubits. <sup>4</sup>Also for the house he made windows with artistic frames. <sup>5</sup>Against the wall of the house he built stories encompassing the walls of the house around both the nave and the inner sanctuary; thus he made side chambers all around. <sup>6</sup>The lowest story was five cubits wide, and the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for on the outside he <sup>f</sup>made offsets in the wall of the house all around in order that the beams would not <sup>g</sup>be inserted in the walls of the house. 7 The house, while it was being built, was built of stone <sup>a</sup>prepared at the quarry, and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any iron tool heard in the house while it was being built. [7 <sup>a</sup>Lit finished]

8 The doorway for the <sup>a</sup>lowest side chamber was on the right side of the house; and they would go up by winding stairs to the middle story, and from the middle to the third. <sup>9</sup>So he built the house and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and <sup>b</sup>planks of cedar. <sup>10</sup>He also built the stories against the whole house, each five <sup>c</sup>cubits high; and they <sup>d</sup>were fastened to the house with timbers of cedar. [8 <sup>a</sup>So with Gr and versions; M.T. middle 9 <sup>b</sup>Lit rows 10 <sup>c</sup>I.e. One cubit equals approx 18 in. <sup>d</sup>Lit took hold]

11 Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon saying, <sup>12</sup>“Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in My statutes and execute My ordinances and keep all My commandments by walking in them, then I will carry out My word with you which I spoke to David your father. <sup>13</sup>I will dwell among the sons of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel.”

14 So Solomon built the house and finished it. <sup>15</sup>Then he built the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the <sup>a</sup>ceiling he overlaid the walls on the inside with wood, and he overlaid the floor of the house with boards of cypress. <sup>16</sup>He built twenty cubits on the rear part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the <sup>b</sup>ceiling; he built them for it on the inside as an inner sanctuary, even as the most holy place. <sup>17</sup>The house, that is, the nave in front of the inner sanctuary, was forty <sup>c</sup>cubits long. <sup>18</sup>There was cedar on the house within, carved in the shape of gourds and open flowers; all was cedar, there was no stone seen. <sup>19</sup>Then he prepared an inner sanctuary within the house in order to place there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. <sup>20</sup><sup>d</sup>The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and twenty cubits in height, and he overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the altar with cedar. <sup>21</sup>So Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold. And he drew chains of gold across the front of the inner sanctuary, and he overlaid it with gold. <sup>22</sup>He overlaid the whole house with gold, until all the house was finished. Also the whole altar which was by the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold. [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit walls of ceiling 16 <sup>b</sup>Lit walls 17 <sup>c</sup>I.e. One cubit equals approx 18 in. 20 <sup>d</sup>Lit before]

23 Also in the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high. <sup>24</sup>Five cubits was the one wing of the cherub and five cubits the other wing of the cherub; from the end of one wing to the end of the other wing were ten cubits. <sup>25</sup>The other cherub was ten cubits; both the cherubim were of the same measure and the same form. <sup>26</sup>The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub. <sup>27</sup>He placed the cherubim in the midst of the inner house, and the wings of the cherubim were spread out, so that the wing of the one was touching the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub was touching the other wall. So their wings were touching each other in the center of the house. <sup>28</sup>He also overlaid the cherubim with gold.

<sup>29</sup> Then he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved engravings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, inner and outer sanctuaries. <sup>30</sup>He overlaid the floor of the house with gold, inner and outer sanctuaries.

<sup>31</sup> For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood, the lintel and five-sided doorposts. <sup>32</sup>So he made two doors of olive wood, and he carved on them carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.

<sup>33</sup> So also he made for the entrance of the nave four-sided doorposts of olive wood <sup>34</sup>and two doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door turned on pivots, and the two <sup>a</sup>leaves of the other door turned on pivots. <sup>35</sup>He carved on it cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold evenly applied on the engraved work. <sup>36</sup>He built the inner court with three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams. [<sup>34</sup> <sup>a</sup>So with Gr; M.T. curtains]

<sup>37</sup> In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv. <sup>38</sup>In the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished throughout all its parts and according to all its plans. So he was seven years in building it.

1 KINGS 7 [\[Books\]](#)

Solomon's Palace <sup>1</sup> Now Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house. <sup>2</sup>He built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was 100 <sup>a</sup>cubits and its width 50 cubits and its height 30 cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars with cedar beams on the pillars. <sup>3</sup>It was paneled with cedar above the side chambers which were on the 45 pillars, 15 in each row. <sup>4</sup>There were artistic window frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three ranks. <sup>5</sup>All the doorways and doorposts had squared artistic frames, and window was opposite window in three ranks. [<sup>2</sup> <sup>a</sup>I.e. One cubit equals approx 18 in.]

<sup>6</sup> Then he made the hall of pillars; its length was 50 cubits and its width 30 cubits, and a porch was in front of them and pillars and a threshold in front of them.

<sup>8</sup> His house where he was to live, the other court inward from the hall, was of the same workmanship. He also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon had married.

<sup>9</sup> All these were of costly stones, of stone cut according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside; even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court.

<sup>10</sup> The foundation was of costly stones, even large stones, stones of ten cubits and stones of eight cubits. <sup>11</sup>And above were costly stones, stone cut according to measure, and cedar. <sup>12</sup>So the great court all around had three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams even as the inner court of the house of the LORD, and the porch of the house.

Hiram's Work in the Temple 13 Now King Solomon sent and brought Hiram from Tyre. 14He was a widow's son from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill for doing any work in bronze. So he came to King Solomon and performed all his work.

15 He fashioned the two pillars of bronze; eighteen cubits was the height of one pillar, and a line of twelve cubits <sup>a</sup>measured the circumference of both. 16He also made two capitals of molten bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five <sup>b</sup>cubits and the height of the other capital was five cubits. 17*There were* nets of network and twisted threads of chainwork for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital and seven for the other capital. 18So he made the pillars, and two rows around on the one network to cover the capitals which were on the top of the pomegranates; and so he did for the other capital. 19The capitals which were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily design, four cubits. 20*There were* capitals on the two pillars, even above and close to the <sup>c</sup>rounded projection which was beside the network; and the pomegranates numbered two hundred in rows around <sup>d</sup>both capitals. 21Thus he set up the pillars at the porch of the nave; and he set up the right pillar and named it <sup>e</sup>Jachin, and he set up the left pillar and named it <sup>f</sup>Boaz. 22On the top of the pillars was lily design. So the work of the pillars was finished. [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit went around the other pillar 16 <sup>b</sup>I.e. 23 Now he made the sea of cast metal ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and its height was five cubits, and <sup>a</sup>thirty cubits in circumference. 24Under its brim gourds went around encircling it ten to a cubit, completely surrounding the sea; the gourds were in two rows, cast <sup>b</sup>with the rest. 25It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; and the sea was set on top of them, and all their rear parts turned inward. 26It was a handbreadth thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, as a lily blossom; it could hold two thousand baths. [23 <sup>a</sup>Lit a line of 30 cubits went around it 24 <sup>b</sup>Lit in its casting]

27 Then he made the ten stands of bronze; the length of each stand was four cubits and its width four cubits and its height three cubits. <sup>28</sup>This was the design of the stands: they had borders, even borders between the <sup>a</sup>frames, <sup>29</sup>and on the borders which were between the <sup>a</sup>frames were lions, oxen and cherubim; and on the <sup>a</sup>frames there was a pedestal above, and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work. <sup>30</sup>Now each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and its four feet had supports; beneath the basin were cast supports with wreaths at each side. <sup>31</sup>Its opening inside the crown at the top was a cubit, and its opening was round like the design of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on its opening there were engravings, and their borders were square, not round. <sup>32</sup>The four wheels were underneath the borders, and the axles of the wheels were on the stand. And the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half. <sup>33</sup>The workmanship of the wheels was like the workmanship of a chariot wheel. Their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all cast. <sup>34</sup>Now there were four supports at the four corners of each stand; its supports were part of the stand itself. <sup>35</sup>On the top of the stand there was a circular form half a <sup>b</sup>cubit high, and on the top of the stand its <sup>c</sup>stays and its borders were part of it. <sup>36</sup>He engraved on the plates of its stays and on its borders, cherubim, lions and palm trees, according to the clear space on each, with wreaths all around. <sup>37</sup>He made the ten stands like this: all of them had one casting, one measure and one form. [<sup>28</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or crossbars <sup>35</sup> <sup>b</sup>I.e. One cubit equals approx 18 in. <sup>c</sup>Lit hands]

38 He made ten basins of bronze, one basin held forty baths; each basin was four cubits, and on each of the ten stands was one basin. <sup>39</sup>Then he set the stands, five on the right side of the house and five on the left side of the house; and he set the sea of cast metal on the right side of the house eastward toward the south.

40 Now Hiram made the basins and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing all the work which he performed for King Solomon in the house of the LORD: <sup>41</sup>the two pillars and the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; <sup>42</sup>and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the tops of the pillars; <sup>43</sup>and the ten stands with the ten basins on the stands; <sup>44</sup>and the one sea and the twelve oxen under the sea; <sup>45</sup>and the pails and the shovels and the bowls; even all these utensils which Hiram made for King Solomon in the house of the LORD were of polished bronze. <sup>46</sup>In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan. <sup>47</sup>Solomon left all the utensils unweighed, because they were too many; the weight of the bronze could not be ascertained.

48 Solomon made all the furniture which was in the house of the LORD: the golden altar and the golden table on which was the bread of the Presence; <sup>49</sup>and the lampstands, five on the right side and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary, of pure gold; and the flowers and the lamps and the tongs, of gold; <sup>50</sup>and the cups and the snuffers and the bowls and the spoons and the firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, that is, of the nave, of gold.

51 Thus all the work that King Solomon performed in the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things dedicated by his father David, the silver and the gold and the utensils, and he put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' households of the sons of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David, which is Zion. 2 All the men of Israel assembled themselves to King Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. 3 Then all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. 4 They brought up the ark of the LORD and the tent of meeting and all the holy utensils, which were in the tent, and the priests and the Levites brought them up. 5 And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing <sup>a</sup>so many sheep and oxen they could not be counted or numbered. 6 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, under the wings of the cherubim. 7 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim made a covering over the ark and its poles from above. 8 But the poles were so long that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; they are there to this day. 9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. 10 It happened that when the priests came from the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the LORD, 11 so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD. ### Solomon Addresses the People

12 Then Solomon said,

“The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud.

<sup>13</sup>“I have surely built You a lofty house,
A place for Your dwelling forever.”

<sup>14</sup> Then the king <sup>a</sup>turned about and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing. <sup>15</sup>He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David and has fulfilled it with His hand, saying, <sup>16</sup>‘Since the day that I brought My people Israel from Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house that My name might be there, but I chose David to be over My people Israel.’ <sup>17</sup>Now it was <sup>b</sup>in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>18</sup>But the LORD said to my father David, ‘Because it was <sup>b</sup>in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well that it was <sup>b</sup>in your heart. <sup>19</sup>Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who <sup>c</sup>will be born to you, he will build the house for My name.’ <sup>20</sup>Now the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke; for I have risen in place of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD <sup>d</sup>promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>21</sup>There I have set a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD, which He made with our fathers when He brought them from the land of Egypt.” [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit turned his face about 17 <sup>b</sup>Lit with 19 <sup>c</sup>Lit will come forth from your loins 20 <sup>d</sup>Lit spoke]

<sup>22</sup> Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven. <sup>23</sup>He said, “O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and showing lovingkindness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart, <sup>24</sup>who have kept with Your servant, my father David, that which You have <sup>a</sup>promised him; indeed, You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand as it is this day. <sup>25</sup>Now therefore, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep with Your

62 Now the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before the LORD.

<sup>63</sup>Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. <sup>64</sup>On the same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD, because there he <sup>a</sup>offered the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings; for the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to hold the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings. ### God's Promise and Warning

1 Now it came about when Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all <sup>a</sup>that Solomon desired to do, <sup>2</sup>that the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. <sup>3</sup>The LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built by putting My name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually. <sup>4</sup>As for you, if you will walk before Me as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and uprightness, doing according to all that I have commanded you and will keep My statutes and My ordinances, <sup>5</sup>then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, just as I <sup>b</sup>promised to your father David, saying, '<sup>c</sup>You shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.' 6 "But if you or your sons indeed turn away from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them, <sup>7</sup>then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them, and the house which I have consecrated for My name, I will <sup>a</sup>cast out of My sight. So Israel will become a proverb and a byword among all peoples. <sup>8</sup>And this house will become <sup>b</sup>a heap of ruins; everyone who passes by will be astonished and hiss and say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?' <sup>9</sup>And they will say, 'Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and adopted other gods and worshiped them and served them, therefore the LORD has brought all this adversity on them.' ### Cities Given to Hiram

10 It came about at the end of twenty years in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house <sup>11</sup>(Hiram king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber and gold according to all his desire), then King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. <sup>12</sup>So Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they <sup>a</sup>did not please him. <sup>13</sup>He said, "What are these cities which you have given me, my brother?" So <sup>b</sup>they were called the land of <sup>c</sup>Cabul to this day. <sup>14</sup>And Hiram sent to the king 120 talents of gold. 15 Now this is the account of the forced labor which King Solomon levied to build the house of the LORD, his own house, the <sup>a</sup>Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, Hazer, Megiddo, and Gezer. <sup>16</sup>For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and captured Gezer and burned it with fire, and killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and had given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife. <sup>17</sup>So Solomon rebuilt Gezer and the lower Beth-horon <sup>18</sup>and Baalath and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land of Judah, <sup>19</sup>and all the storage cities which Solomon had, even the cities for <sup>b</sup>his chariots and the cities for <sup>b</sup>his horsemen, and <sup>c</sup>all that it pleased Solomon to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land <sup>d</sup>under his rule. <sup>20</sup>As for all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, who were not of the sons of Israel, <sup>21</sup>their descendants who were left after them in the land whom the sons of Israel were unable to destroy utterly, from them Solomon levied forced laborers, even to this day. <sup>22</sup>But Solomon did not make slaves of the sons of Israel; for they were men of war, his servants, his princes, his captains, his chariot commanders, and his horsemen. 23 These were the <sup>a</sup>chief officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people doing the work. [<sup>23</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or officers of the deputies]

24 As soon as Pharaoh's daughter came up from the city of David to her house which Solomon had built for her, then he built the Millo.

25 Now three times in a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he built to the LORD, burning incense with them on the altar which was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26 King Solomon also built a fleet of ships in Ezion-geber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the <sup>a</sup>Red Sea, in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup>And Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, sailors who knew the sea, along with the servants of Solomon. <sup>28</sup>They went to Ophir and took four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon. The Queen of Sheba <sup>1</sup> Now when the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with difficult questions. <sup>2</sup> So she came to Jerusalem with a very large retinue, with camels carrying spices and very much gold and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart. <sup>3</sup> Solomon <sup>a</sup> answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from the king which he did not <sup>b</sup> explain to her. <sup>4</sup> When the queen of Sheba perceived all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, <sup>5</sup> the food of his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his waiters and their attire, his cupbearers, and <sup>c</sup> his stairway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her. <sup>6</sup> Then she said to the king, "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless I did not believe the <sup>d</sup> reports, until I came and my eyes had seen it. And behold, the half was not told me. You exceed in wisdom and prosperity the report which I heard. <sup>8</sup> How blessed are your men, how blessed are these your servants who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom. <sup>9</sup> Blessed be the LORD your God who delighted in you to set you on the throne of Israel; because the LORD loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, to do justice and righteousness." <sup>10</sup> She gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and a very great amount of spices and precious stones. <sup>11</sup> Also the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir a very great number of almug trees and precious stones.

Wealth, Splendor and Wisdom 14 Now the weight of gold which came in to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold, <sup>15</sup>besides that from the traders and the <sup>a</sup>wares of the merchants and all the kings of the Arabs and the governors of the country. <sup>16</sup>King Solomon made 200 large shields of beaten gold, <sup>b</sup>using 600 shekels of gold on each large shield. <sup>17</sup>He made 300 shields of beaten gold, <sup>b</sup>using three minas of gold on each shield, and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>18</sup>Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with refined gold. <sup>19</sup>There were six steps to the throne and a round top to the throne at its rear, and <sup>c</sup>arms <sup>d</sup>on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the <sup>c</sup>arms. <sup>20</sup>Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps on the one side and on the other; nothing like it was made for any other kingdom. <sup>21</sup>All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold.

None was of silver; it was not considered <sup>e</sup>valuable in the days of Solomon. <sup>22</sup>For the king had at sea the ships of Tarshish with the ships of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory and apes and peacocks. 23 So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. <sup>24</sup>All the earth was seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart. <sup>25</sup>They brought every man his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

common as stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamore trees that are in the <sup>b</sup>lowland. <sup>28</sup>Also Solomon's import of horses was from Egypt and Kue, and the king's merchants procured them from Kue for a price. <sup>29</sup>A chariot <sup>c</sup>was imported from Egypt for 600 shekels of silver, and a horse for 150; and <sup>d</sup>by the same means they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of the Arameans. ### Solomon Turns from God

1 Now King Solomon loved many foreign women along with the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women, <sup>2</sup>from the nations concerning which the LORD had said to the sons of Israel, “You shall not <sup>a</sup>associate with them, nor shall they <sup>a</sup>associate with you, for they will surely turn your heart away after their gods.” Solomon held fast to these in love. <sup>3</sup>He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned his heart away. <sup>4</sup>For when Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart away after other gods; and his heart was not <sup>b</sup>wholly devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been. <sup>5</sup>For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians and after <sup>c</sup>Milcom the detestable idol of the Ammonites. <sup>6</sup>Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not follow the LORD fully, as David his father had done. <sup>7</sup>Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the detestable idol of Moab, on the mountain which is <sup>d</sup>east of Jerusalem, and for Molech the detestable idol of the sons of Ammon. <sup>8</sup>Thus also he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods. 9 Now the LORD was angry with Solomon because his heart was turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, <sup>10</sup>and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not observe what the LORD had commanded. <sup>11</sup>So the LORD said to Solomon, “Because <sup>a</sup>you have done this, and you have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant. <sup>12</sup>Nevertheless I will not do it in your days for the sake of your father David, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son. <sup>13</sup>However, I will not tear away all the kingdom, but I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen.” [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit this is with you]

God Raises Adversaries

14 Then the LORD raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the <sup>a</sup>royal line in Edom. <sup>15</sup>For it came about, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, and had struck down every male in Edom <sup>16</sup>(for Joab and all Israel stayed there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom), <sup>17</sup>that Hadad fled <sup>b</sup>to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, while Hadad was a young boy. <sup>18</sup>They arose from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house and assigned him food and gave him land. <sup>19</sup>Now Hadad found great favor <sup>c</sup>before Pharaoh, so that he gave him in marriage the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. <sup>20</sup>The sister of Tahpenes bore his son Genubath, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh. <sup>21</sup>But when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Send me away, that I may go to my own country." <sup>22</sup>Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that behold, you are seeking to go to your own country?" And he answered, "Nothing; nevertheless you must surely <sup>d</sup>let me go." [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit king's seed 17 <sup>b</sup>Lit to go into 19 <sup>c</sup>Lit in the sight of 22 <sup>d</sup>Lit send me away]

23 God also raised up another adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah. <sup>24</sup>He gathered men to himself and became leader of a marauding band, after David slew them of Zobah; and they went to Damascus and stayed <sup>a</sup>there, and reigned in Damascus. <sup>25</sup>So he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, along with the evil that Hadad did; and he abhorred Israel and reigned over Aram. [24 <sup>a</sup>Lit in it]

26 Then Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also <sup>a</sup>rebelled against the king. <sup>27</sup>Now this was the reason why he <sup>a</sup>rebelled against the king: Solomon built the <sup>b</sup>Millo, and closed up the breach of the city of his father

David. <sup>28</sup>Now the man Jeroboam was a valiant warrior, and when Solomon saw that the young man was <sup>s</sup>industrious, he appointed him over all the <sup>d</sup>forced labor of the house of Joseph. <sup>29</sup>It came about at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road. Now <sup>e</sup>Ahijah had clothed himself with a new cloak; and both of them were alone in the field. <sup>30</sup>Then Ahijah took hold of the new cloak which was on him and tore it into twelve pieces. <sup>31</sup>He said to Jeroboam, “Take for yourself ten pieces; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and give you ten tribes <sup>32</sup>(but he will have one tribe, for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel), <sup>33</sup>because they have forsaken Me, and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the sons of Ammon; and they have not walked in My ways, doing what is right in My sight and observing My statutes and My ordinances, as his father David did. <sup>34</sup>Nevertheless I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him <sup>f</sup>ruler all the days of his life, for the sake of My servant David whom I chose, who observed My commandments and My statutes; <sup>35</sup>but I will take the kingdom from his son’s hand and give it to you, even ten tribes. <sup>36</sup>But to his son I will give one tribe, that My servant David may have a lamp always before Me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen for Myself to put My name. <sup>37</sup>I will take you, and you shall reign over whatever <sup>g</sup>you desire, and you shall be king over Israel. <sup>38</sup>Then it will be, that if you listen to all that I command you and walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight by observing My statutes and My commandments, as My servant David did, then I will be with you and build you an enduring house as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you. <sup>39</sup>Thus I will afflict the <sup>h</sup>descendants of David for this, but not always.’ ” <sup>40</sup>Solomon sought therefore to put Jeroboam to death; but Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt to Shishak king of Egypt, and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon. ### The Death of Solomon

41 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon and whatever he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon? <sup>42</sup>Thus the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

1 KINGS 12 [\[Books\]](#)

King Rehoboam Acts Foolishly 1 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. 2 Now when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, <sup>a</sup>he was living in Egypt (for he was yet in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon). 3 Then they sent and called him, and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, 4 “Your father made our yoke hard; now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you.” 5 Then he said to them, “Depart <sup>b</sup>for three days, then return to me.” So the people departed. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit Jeroboam 5 <sup>b</sup>Lit yet three]

6 King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had <sup>a</sup>served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, “How do you counsel me to answer this people?” 7 Then they spoke to him, saying, “If you will be a servant to this people today, and will serve them and <sup>b</sup>grant them their petition, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.” 8 But he forsook the counsel of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who grew up with him <sup>c</sup>and served him. 9 So he said to them, “What counsel do you give that we may answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, ‘Lighten the yoke which your father put on us?’” 10 The young men who grew up with him spoke to him, saying, “Thus you shall say to this people who spoke to you, saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, now you make it lighter for us!’ But you shall speak to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s loins! 11 Whereas my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.’” [6 <sup>a</sup>Lit stood before 7 <sup>b</sup>Lit answer them 8 <sup>c</sup>Lit who stood before]

12 Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had <sup>a</sup>directed, saying, “Return to me on the third day.” 13 The king answered the people harshly, for he forsook the advice of the elders which they had <sup>b</sup>given him, <sup>14</sup>and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.” <sup>15</sup>So the king did not listen to the people; for it was a turn of events from the LORD, that He might establish His word, which the LORD spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. The Kingdom Divided; Jeroboam Rules Israel <sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, “What portion do we have in David?

We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse; To your tents, O Israel! Now look after your own house, David!”

So Israel departed to their tents. <sup>17</sup>But as for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>18</sup>Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him <sup>a</sup>to death. And King Rehoboam made haste to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day. [<sup>18</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit with stones that he died]

<sup>20</sup> It came about when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. None but the tribe of Judah followed the house of David.

<sup>21</sup> Now when Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. <sup>22</sup>But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, <sup>23</sup>“Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and to the rest of the people, saying, <sup>24</sup>“Thus says the LORD, “You must not go up and fight against your <sup>a</sup>relatives the sons of Israel; return every man to his house, for this thing has come from Me.” ’ ” So they listened to the word of the LORD,

Jeroboam's Idolatry 25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived <sup>a</sup>there. And he went out from there and built Peniel. 26 Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will return to the house of David. 27 If this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will return to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah." 28 So the king <sup>b</sup>consulted, and made two golden calves, and he said to them, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; behold your gods, O Israel, that brought you up from the land of Egypt." 29 He set one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan. 30 Now this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one as far as Dan. 31 And he made houses on high places, and made priests from among <sup>c</sup>all the people who were not of the sons of Levi. 32 Jeroboam <sup>d</sup>instituted a feast in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast which is in Judah, and he <sup>e</sup>went up to the altar; thus he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves which he had made. And he stationed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. 33 Then he <sup>e</sup>went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had <sup>d</sup>devised <sup>f</sup>in his own heart; and he <sup>d</sup>instituted a feast for the sons of Israel and <sup>e</sup>went up to the altar to burn <sup>g</sup>incense. ### Jeroboam Warned, Stricken

1 Now behold, there came a man of God from Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD, while Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. <sup>2</sup>He cried against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, “O altar, altar, thus says the LORD, ‘Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and human bones shall be burned on you.’ ” <sup>3</sup>Then he gave a <sup>a</sup>sign the same day, saying, “This is the <sup>a</sup>sign which the LORD has spoken, ‘Behold, the altar shall be split apart and the <sup>b</sup>ashes which are on it shall be poured out.’ ” <sup>4</sup>Now when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, “Seize him.” But his hand which he stretched out against him dried up, so that he could not draw it back to himself. <sup>5</sup>The altar also was split apart and the <sup>b</sup>ashes were poured out from the altar, according to the <sup>a</sup>sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>The king said to the man of God, “Please <sup>c</sup>entreat the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me.” So the man of God <sup>d</sup>entreated the LORD, and the king’s hand was restored to him, and it became as it was before. <sup>7</sup>Then the king said to the man of God, “Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.” <sup>8</sup>But the man of God said to the king, “If you were to give me half your house I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water in this place. <sup>9</sup>For so <sup>e</sup>it was commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘You shall eat no bread, nor drink water, nor return by the way which you came.’ ” <sup>10</sup>So he went another way and did not return by the way which he came to Bethel. ### The Disobedient Prophet

11 Now an old prophet was living in Bethel; and his <sup>a</sup>sons came and told him all the deeds which the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words which he had spoken to the king, these also they related to their father. <sup>12</sup>Their father said to them, “<sup>b</sup>Which way did he go?” Now his sons <sup>c</sup>had seen the way which the man of God who came from Judah had gone. <sup>13</sup>Then he said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him and he rode away on it. <sup>14</sup>So he went after the man of God and found him sitting under <sup>d</sup>an oak; and he said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” And he said, “I am.” <sup>15</sup>Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat bread.” <sup>16</sup>He said, “I cannot return with you, nor go with you, nor will I eat bread or drink water with you in this place. <sup>17</sup>For a command came to me by the word of the LORD, ‘You shall eat no bread, nor drink water there; do not return by going the way which you came.’ ” <sup>18</sup>He said to him, “I also am a prophet like you, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘Bring him back with you to your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.’ ” But he lied to him. <sup>19</sup>So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house and drank water. [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit son 12 <sup>b</sup>Lit Where is the way he went <sup>c</sup>Some ancient versions read showed him 14 <sup>d</sup>Or a terebinth]

20 Now it came about, as they were sitting down at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back; <sup>21</sup>and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because you have <sup>a</sup>disobeyed the <sup>b</sup>command of the LORD, and have not observed the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you, <sup>22</sup>but have returned and eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which He said to you, “Eat no bread and drink no water”; your body shall not come to the grave of your fathers.’ ” <sup>23</sup>It came about after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back. <sup>24</sup>Now when he had gone, a lion met him on the way and killed him, and his body was thrown on the road, with the donkey standing beside it; the lion also was standing beside the body. <sup>25</sup>And behold, men passed by and saw the body thrown on the road, and the lion standing beside the body; so they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. [21 <sup>a</sup>Lit rebelled against <sup>b</sup>Lit mouth]

26 Now when the prophet who brought him back from the way heard it, he said, “It is the man of God, who <sup>a</sup>disobeyed the <sup>b</sup>command of the LORD; therefore the LORD has given him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him.” <sup>27</sup>Then he spoke to his sons, saying, “Saddle the donkey for me.” And they saddled it. <sup>28</sup>He went and found his body thrown on the road with the donkey and the lion standing beside the body; the lion had not eaten the body nor torn the donkey. <sup>29</sup>So the prophet took up the body of the man of God and laid it on the donkey and brought it back, and he came to the city of the old prophet to mourn and to bury him. <sup>30</sup>He laid his body in his own grave, and they mourned over him, saying, “Alas, my brother!” <sup>31</sup>After he had buried him, he spoke to his sons, saying, “When I die, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones. <sup>32</sup>For the thing shall surely come to pass which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria.” [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit rebelled against <sup>b</sup>Lit mouth]

<sup>1</sup> At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick. <sup>2</sup> Jeroboam said to his wife, “Arise now, and disguise yourself so that they will not know that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh; behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, who spoke concerning me that I would be king over this people. <sup>3</sup> Take ten loaves with you, some cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

<sup>6</sup> When Ahijah heard the sound of her feet coming in the doorway, he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam, why do you pretend to be another woman? For I am sent to you with a harsh message. <sup>7</sup> Go, say to Jeroboam, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel, “Because I exalted you from among the people and made you leader over My people Israel, <sup>8</sup> and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you—yet you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only that which was right in My sight; <sup>9</sup> you also have done more evil than all who were before you, and have gone and made for yourself other gods and molten images to provoke Me to anger, and have cast Me behind your back— <sup>10</sup> therefore behold, I am bringing calamity on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam <sup>a</sup>every male person, both bond and free in Israel, and I will make a clean sweep of the house of Jeroboam, as one sweeps away dung until it is all gone. <sup>11</sup> Anyone belonging to Jeroboam who dies in the city the dogs will eat. And he who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat; for the LORD has spoken it.” ’ <sup>12</sup> Now you, arise, go to your house. When your feet enter the city the child will die. <sup>13</sup>All Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for <sup>b</sup>he alone of Jeroboam's family will come to the grave, because in him something good was found toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam. <sup>14</sup>Moreover, the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will cut off the house of Jeroboam this day <sup>c</sup>and from now on. [<sup>10</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit him who urinates against the wall <sup>13</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit the one <sup>14</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit and what even now?]

<sup>15</sup> "For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the Euphrates River, because they have made their <sup>a</sup>Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger. <sup>16</sup>He will give up Israel on account of the sins of Jeroboam, which he <sup>b</sup>committed and with which he made Israel to sin." [<sup>15</sup> <sup>a</sup>I.e. wooden symbols of a female deity <sup>16</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit sinned]

<sup>17</sup> Then Jeroboam's wife arose and departed and came to Tirzah. As she was entering the threshold of the house, the child died. <sup>18</sup>All Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

<sup>19</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he made war and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup>The time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years; and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place.

Rehoboam Misleads Judah

<sup>21</sup> Now Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>22</sup>Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked Him to jealousy more than all that their fathers had done, with <sup>a</sup>the sins which they <sup>b</sup>committed. <sup>23</sup>For they also built for themselves high places and sacred pillars and <sup>c</sup>Asherim on every high hill and beneath every luxuriant tree. <sup>24</sup>There were also male cult prostitutes in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel. [22 <sup>a</sup>Lit their <sup>b</sup>Lit sinned 23 <sup>c</sup>I.e. wooden symbols of a female deity]

<sup>29</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? <sup>30</sup>There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. <sup>31</sup>And Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And Abijam his son became king in his place.

Abijam Reigns over Judah <sup>1</sup> Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah. <sup>2</sup> He reigned three years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was <sup>a</sup>Maacah the daughter of <sup>b</sup>Abishalom. <sup>3</sup> He walked in all the sins of his father which he had committed before him; and his heart was not <sup>c</sup>wholly devoted to the LORD his God, like the heart of his father David. <sup>4</sup> But for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to raise up his son after him and to establish Jerusalem; <sup>5</sup> because David did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and had not turned aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the case of Uriah the Hittite. <sup>6</sup> There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. <sup>7</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

<sup>9</sup> So in the twentieth year of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Asa began to reign as king of Judah. <sup>10</sup> He reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>11</sup> Asa did what was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father. <sup>12</sup> He also put away the male cult prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols which his fathers had made. <sup>13</sup> <sup>a</sup> He also removed Maacah his mother from being queen mother, because she had made a horrid image <sup>b</sup> as an Asherah; and Asa cut down her horrid image and burned

it at the brook Kidron. <sup>14</sup>But the high places were not taken away; nevertheless the heart of Asa was <sup>c</sup>wholly devoted to the LORD all his days. <sup>15</sup>He brought into the house of the LORD the dedicated things of his father and his own dedicated things: silver and gold and utensils. [13 <sup>a</sup>Lit also Maacah his mother and he removed her <sup>b</sup>Or for Asherah 14 <sup>c</sup>Lit complete with]

<sup>16</sup> Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>17</sup>Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and <sup>a</sup>fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>18</sup>Then Asa took all the silver and the gold which were left in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasuries of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, saying, <sup>19</sup>“Let there be a treaty between <sup>b</sup>you and me, as between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you a present of silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me.” <sup>20</sup>So Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and <sup>c</sup>conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah and all Chinneroth, besides all the land of Naphtali. <sup>21</sup>When Baasha heard of it, he ceased <sup>d</sup>fortifying Ramah and remained in Tirzah. <sup>22</sup>Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah—none was exempt—and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had built. And King Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah. [17 <sup>a</sup>Lit built 19 <sup>b</sup>Lit me and you 20 <sup>c</sup>Lit smote 21 <sup>d</sup>Lit building]

Jehoshaphat Succeeds Asa <sup>23</sup> Now the rest of all the acts of Asa and all his might and all that he did and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. <sup>24</sup>And Asa slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

Nadab, then Baasha, Rules over Israel <sup>25</sup> Now Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years. <sup>26</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father and in his sin which he made Israel sin. <sup>27</sup>Then Baasha the son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.

<sup>28</sup> So Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah and reigned in his place. <sup>29</sup>It came about as soon as he was king, he struck down all the household of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam <sup>a</sup>any persons alive, until he had destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, <sup>30</sup>and because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger. [<sup>29</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit any breath]

<sup>31</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

War with Judah

<sup>32</sup>There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

<sup>33</sup> In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel at Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years. <sup>34</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin which he made Israel sin.

Prophecy against Baasha

<sup>1</sup> Now the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Inasmuch as I exalted you from the dust and made you leader over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have made My people Israel sin, provoking Me to anger with their sins, <sup>3</sup>behold, I will consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup>Anyone of Baasha who dies in the city the dogs will eat, and anyone of his who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat.”

<sup>5</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Baasha and what he did and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

The Israelite Kings

<sup>6</sup>And Baasha slept with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his son became king in his place. <sup>7</sup>Moreover, the word of the LORD through the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani also came against Baasha and his household, both because of all the evil which he did in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck <sup>a</sup>it. [<sup>7</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or him]

<sup>8</sup> In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel at Tirzah, and reigned two years. <sup>9</sup>His servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was at Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household at Tirzah. <sup>10</sup>Then Zimri went in and struck him and put him to death in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and became king in his place. <sup>11</sup>It came about when he became king, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he <sup>a</sup>killed all the household of Baasha; he did not leave <sup>b</sup>a single male, neither of his <sup>c</sup>relatives nor of his friends. [<sup>11</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit smote <sup>b</sup>Lit him who

12 Thus Zimri destroyed all the household of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke against Baasha through Jehu the prophet, <sup>13</sup>for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned and which they made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their <sup>a</sup>idols. <sup>14</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? [<sup>13</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit vanities]

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days at Tirzah. Now the people were camped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. <sup>16</sup>The people who were camped heard <sup>a</sup>it said, “Zimri has conspired and has also struck down the king.” Therefore all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. <sup>17</sup>Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah. <sup>18</sup>When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the king’s house and burned the king’s house over him with fire, and died, <sup>19</sup>because of his sins which he sinned, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, making Israel sin. <sup>20</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Zimri and his conspiracy which he <sup>b</sup>carried out, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? [<sup>16</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit saying <sup>20</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit conspired]

21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; the other half followed Omri. <sup>22</sup>But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. And Tibni died and Omri became king. <sup>23</sup>In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel and reigned twelve years; he reigned six years at Tirzah. <sup>24</sup>He bought the hill <sup>a</sup>Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and named the city which he built <sup>a</sup>Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill. [<sup>24</sup> <sup>a</sup>Heb Shomeron]

25 Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, and acted more wickedly than all who were before him. <sup>26</sup>For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and in his sins which he made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of

Israel with their <sup>a</sup>idols. <sup>27</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did and his might which he <sup>b</sup>showed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? <sup>28</sup>So Omri slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son became king in his place. [<sup>26</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit vanities <sup>27</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit did]

<sup>29</sup> Now Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years. <sup>30</sup>Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all who were before him.

<sup>31</sup> It came about, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he married Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went to serve Baal and worshiped him.

<sup>32</sup>So he erected an altar for Baal in the house of Baal which he built in Samaria. <sup>33</sup>Ahab also made the <sup>a</sup>Asherah. Thus Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

<sup>34</sup>In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho; he laid its foundations with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke by Joshua the son of Nun. ### Elijah Predicts Drought

1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, who was of <sup>a</sup>the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab, “As the LORD, the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, surely there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word.” <sup>2</sup>The word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Go away from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, which is <sup>b</sup>east of the Jordan. <sup>4</sup>It shall be that you will drink of the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to provide for you there.” <sup>5</sup>So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and lived by the brook Cherith, which is <sup>b</sup>east of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup>The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he would drink from the brook. <sup>7</sup>It happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land. 8 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>9</sup>“Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there; behold, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you.” <sup>10</sup>So he arose and went to Zarephath, and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks; and he called to her and said, “Please get me a little water in a <sup>a</sup>jar, that I may drink.” <sup>11</sup>As she was going to get it, he called to her and said, “Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand.” <sup>12</sup>But she said, “As the LORD your God lives, I have no <sup>b</sup>bread, only a handful of flour in the <sup>c</sup>bowl and a little oil in the jar; and behold, I am gathering <sup>d</sup>a few sticks that I may go in and prepare for me and my son, that we may eat it and die.” <sup>13</sup>Then Elijah said to her, “Do not fear; go, do as you have said, but make me a little bread cake from <sup>e</sup>it first and bring it out to me, and afterward you may make one for yourself and for your son. <sup>14</sup>For thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘The <sup>c</sup>bowl of flour shall not be exhausted, nor shall the jar of oil <sup>f</sup>be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain on the face of the earth.’ ” <sup>15</sup>So she went and did according to the word of Elijah, and she and he and her household ate for many days. <sup>16</sup>The <sup>c</sup>bowl of flour was not exhausted nor did the jar of

Elijah Raises the Widow's Son

17 Now it came about after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick; and his sickness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. <sup>18</sup>So she said to Elijah, “What do I have to do with you, O man of God? <sup>a</sup>You have come to me to bring my iniquity to remembrance and to put my son to death!” <sup>19</sup>He said to her, “Give me your son.” Then he took him from her bosom and carried him up to the upper room where he was living, and laid him on his own bed. <sup>20</sup>He called to the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, have You also brought calamity to the widow with whom I am <sup>b</sup>staying, by causing her son to die?” <sup>21</sup>Then he stretched himself upon the child three times, and called to the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, I pray You, let this child's life return <sup>c</sup>to him.” <sup>22</sup>The LORD heard the voice of Elijah, and the life of the child returned <sup>c</sup>to him and he revived. <sup>23</sup>Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house and gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, “See, your son is alive.” <sup>24</sup>Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.” [18 <sup>a</sup>Or Have you come...death? 20 <sup>b</sup>Lit sojourning 21 <sup>c</sup>Lit upon his inward part]

Obadiah Meets Elijah

1 Now it happened after many days that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, “Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the face of the earth.” <sup>2</sup>So Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. Now the famine was severe in Samaria. <sup>3</sup>Ahab called Obadiah who was over the household. (Now Obadiah <sup>a</sup>feared the LORD greatly; <sup>4</sup>for when Jezebel <sup>b</sup>destroyed the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave, and provided them with bread and water.) <sup>5</sup>Then Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the valleys; perhaps we will find grass and keep the horses and mules alive, and not <sup>b</sup>have to kill some of the cattle.” <sup>6</sup>So they divided the land between them to <sup>c</sup>survey it; Ahab went one way by himself and Obadiah went another way by himself. 7 Now as Obadiah was on the way, behold, Elijah <sup>a</sup>met him, and he recognized him and fell on his face and said, “Is this you, Elijah my master?” <sup>8</sup>He said to him, “It is I. Go, say to your master, ‘Behold, Elijah is here.’ ” <sup>9</sup>He said, “What <sup>b</sup>sin have I committed, that you are giving your servant into the hand of Ahab to put me to death? <sup>10</sup>As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent to search for you; and when they said, ‘He is not here,’ he made the kingdom or nation swear that they could not find you. <sup>11</sup>And now you are saying, ‘Go, say to your master, “Behold, Elijah is here.” ’ <sup>12</sup>It will come about when I leave you that the Spirit of the LORD will carry you where I do not know; so when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me, although I your servant have <sup>c</sup>feared the LORD from my youth. <sup>13</sup>Has it not been told to my master what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, that I hid <sup>d</sup>a hundred prophets of the LORD by fifties in a cave, and provided them with bread and water? <sup>14</sup>And now you are saying, ‘Go, say to your master, “Behold, Elijah is here” ’; he will then kill me.” <sup>15</sup>Elijah said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today.”<sup>16</sup> So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah. 17 When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, “Is this you, you troubler of Israel?”<sup>18</sup> He said, “I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father’s house have, because you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and you have followed the Baals.”<sup>19</sup> Now then send and gather to me all Israel at Mount Carmel, together with 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of the Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

God or Baal on Mount Carmel

20 So Ahab sent a message among all the sons of Israel and brought the prophets together at Mount Carmel.<sup>21</sup> Elijah came near to all the people and said, “How long will you <sup>a</sup>hesitate between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him.” But the people did not answer him a word.<sup>22</sup> Then Elijah said to the people, “I alone am left a prophet of the LORD, but Baal’s prophets are 450 men.”<sup>23</sup> Now let them give us two oxen; and let them choose one ox for themselves and cut it up, and place it on the wood, but put no fire under it; and I will prepare the other ox and lay it on the wood, and I will not put a fire under it.<sup>24</sup> Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD, and the God who answers by fire, He is God.” And all the people said, “<sup>b</sup>That is a good idea.” [21<sup>a</sup> Lit limp on the two divided opinions 24<sup>b</sup> Lit The matter is good]

25 So Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one ox for yourselves and prepare it first for you are many, and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it.”<sup>26</sup> Then they took the ox which <sup>a</sup>was given them and they prepared it and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon saying, “O Baal, answer us.” But there was no voice and no one answered. And they <sup>b</sup>leaped about the altar which <sup>c</sup>they made.<sup>27</sup> It came about at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, “Call out with a loud voice, for he is a god; either he is occupied or gone aside, or is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and needs to be awakened.”<sup>28</sup> So they cried with a loud voice and cut themselves according to their custom with swords and lances until the blood gushed out on them.<sup>29</sup> When midday was past, they <sup>d</sup>raved until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice; but there was no voice, no one answered, and no <sup>e</sup>one paid attention. 30 Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come near to me.” So all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD which had been torn down.<sup>31</sup> Elijah took twelve stones according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, “Israel shall be your name.”<sup>32</sup> So with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD, and he made a trench around the altar, large enough to hold two <sup>a</sup>measures of seed.<sup>33</sup> Then he arranged the wood and cut the ox in pieces and laid it on the wood.<sup>34</sup> And he said, “Fill four pitchers with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood.” And he said, “Do it a second time,” and they did it a second time. And he said, “Do it a third time,” and they did it a third time.<sup>35</sup> The water flowed around the altar and he also filled the trench with water. ### Elijah’s Prayer

<sup>36</sup>At the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet came near and said, “O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, today let it be known that You are God in Israel and that I am Your servant and I have done all these things at Your word.<sup>37</sup> Answer me, O LORD, answer me, that this people may know that You, O LORD, are God, and that You have turned their heart back again.”<sup>38</sup> Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.<sup>39</sup> When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, “The LORD, He is God; the LORD, He is God.”<sup>40</sup> Then Elijah said to them, “Seize the prophets of Baal; do not let one of them escape.” So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

41 Now Elijah said to Ahab, “Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of the roar of a heavy shower.” 42 So Ahab went up to eat and drink. But Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he crouched down on the earth and put his face between his knees. 43 He said to his servant, “Go up now, look toward the sea.” So he went up and looked and said, “There is nothing.” And he said, “Go back” seven times. 44 It came about at the seventh time, that he said, “Behold, a cloud as small as a man’s hand is coming up from the sea.” And he said, “Go up, say to Ahab, ‘<sup>a</sup>Prepare your chariot and go down, so that the heavy shower does not stop you.’ ” 45 In a little while the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy shower. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel. 46 Then the hand of the LORD was on Elijah, and he girded up his loins and <sup>b</sup>outran Ahab <sup>c</sup>to Jezreel. [44 <sup>a</sup>Lit Tie, harness

Elijah Flees from Jezebel

1 Now Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and <sup>a</sup>how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. <sup>2</sup>Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, “So may the gods do to me and even more, if I do not make your <sup>b</sup>life as the <sup>b</sup>life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.” <sup>3</sup>And he <sup>c</sup>was afraid and arose and ran for his <sup>b</sup>life and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there. <sup>4</sup>But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a <sup>d</sup>juniper tree; and he requested for himself that he might die, and said, “It is enough; now, O LORD, take my <sup>b</sup>life, for I am not better than my fathers.” <sup>5</sup>He lay down and slept under a <sup>d</sup>juniper tree; and behold, there was an angel touching him, and he said to him, “Arise, eat.” <sup>6</sup>Then he looked and behold, there was at his head a bread cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank and lay down again. <sup>7</sup>The angel of the LORD came again a second time and touched him and said, “Arise, eat, because the journey is too great for you.” <sup>8</sup>So he arose and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of God. ### Elijah at Horeb

9 Then he came there to a cave and lodged there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?” <sup>10</sup>He said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.”

11 So He said, “Go forth and stand on the mountain before the LORD.” And behold, the LORD was passing by! And a great and strong wind was rending the mountains and breaking in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup>After the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of a gentle blowing. <sup>13</sup>When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. And behold, a voice came to him and said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?” <sup>14</sup>Then he said, “I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.”

<sup>15</sup> The LORD said to him, “Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus, and when you have arrived, you shall anoint Hazael king over Aram; <sup>16</sup>and Jehu the son of Nimshi you shall anoint king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place. <sup>17</sup>It shall come about, the one who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall put to death, and the one who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall put to death. <sup>18</sup>Yet I will leave 7,000 in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

<sup>19</sup> So he departed from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, while he was plowing with twelve pairs of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth. And Elijah passed over to him and threw his mantle on him. <sup>20</sup>He left the oxen and ran after Elijah and said, “Please let me kiss my father and my mother, then I will follow you.” And he said to him, “Go back again, for what have I done to you?” <sup>21</sup>So he returned from following him, and took the pair of oxen and sacrificed them and boiled their flesh with the implements of the oxen, and gave it to the people and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah and ministered to him.

War with Aram <sup>1</sup> Now Ben-hadad king of Aram gathered all his army, and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria and fought against it. <sup>2</sup> Then he sent messengers to the city to Ahab king of Israel and said to him, “Thus says Ben-hadad, <sup>3</sup> ‘Your silver and your gold are mine; your most beautiful wives and children are also mine.’ ” <sup>4</sup> The king of Israel replied, “It is according to your word, my lord, O king; I am yours, and all that I have.” <sup>5</sup> Then the messengers returned and said, “Thus says <sup>a</sup>Ben-hadad, ‘Surely, I sent to you saying, “You shall give me your silver and your gold and your wives and your children,” <sup>6</sup> but about this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will search your house and the houses of your servants; and <sup>b</sup>whatever is desirable in your eyes, they will <sup>c</sup>take in their hand and carry away.’ ” [5 <sup>a</sup>Lit Ben-hadad, saying 6 <sup>b</sup>Lit all the desire of your eyes <sup>c</sup>Lit put]

<sup>7</sup> Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, “Please observe and see how this man is looking for trouble; for he sent to me for my wives and my children and my silver and my gold, and I did not refuse him.” <sup>8</sup> All the elders and all the people said to him, “Do not listen or consent.” <sup>9</sup> So he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, “Tell my lord the king, ‘All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do, but this thing I cannot do.’ ” And the messengers departed and brought him word again. <sup>10</sup> Ben-hadad sent to him and said, “May the gods do so to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria will suffice for handfuls for all the people who <sup>a</sup>follow me.” <sup>11</sup> Then the king of Israel replied, “Tell him, ‘Let not him who girds on his armor boast like him who takes it off.’ ” <sup>12</sup> When Ben-hadad heard this message, as he was drinking <sup>b</sup>with the kings in the <sup>c</sup>temporary shelters, he said to his servants, “Station yourselves.” So they stationed themselves against the city. Ahab Victorious 13 Now behold, a prophet approached Ahab king of Israel and said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver them into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD.’ ” 14Ahab said, “By whom?” So he said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘By the young men of the rulers of the provinces.’ ” Then he said, “Who shall <sup>a</sup>begin the battle?” And he <sup>b</sup>answered, “You.” 15Then he mustered the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and there were 232; and after them he mustered all the people, even all the sons of Israel, 7,000. [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit bind <sup>b</sup>Lit said]

19 So these went out from the city, the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and the army which followed them. 20They <sup>a</sup>killed each his man; and the Arameans fled and Israel pursued them, and Ben-hadad king of Aram escaped on a horse with horsemen. 21The king of Israel went out and <sup>a</sup>struck the horses and chariots, and <sup>a</sup>killed the Arameans with a great slaughter. [20 <sup>a</sup>Lit smote]

22 Then the prophet came near to the king of Israel and said to him, “Go, strengthen yourself and observe and see what you have to do; for at the turn of the year the king of Aram will come up against you.”

23 Now the servants of the king of Aram said to him, “Their gods are gods of the mountains, therefore they were stronger than we; but rather let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they. 24Do this thing: remove the kings, each from his place, and put captains in their place, 25and <sup>a</sup>muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they.” And he listened to their voice and did so. [25 <sup>a</sup>Lit number]

Another Aramean War <sup>26</sup> At the turn of the year, Ben-hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel. <sup>27</sup> The sons of Israel were mustered and were provisioned and went to meet them; and the sons of Israel camped before them like two little flocks of goats, but the Arameans filled the country. <sup>28</sup> Then a man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel and said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because the Arameans have said, “The LORD is a god of the mountains, but He is not a god of the valleys,” therefore I will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.’ ” <sup>29</sup> So they camped one over against the other seven days. And on the seventh day the battle was joined, and the sons of Israel <sup>a</sup>killed of the Arameans 100,000 foot soldiers in one day. <sup>30</sup> But the rest fled to Aphek into the city, and the wall fell on 27,000 men who were left. And Ben-hadad fled and came into the city into an inner chamber. [29 <sup>a</sup>Lit smote]

<sup>31</sup> His servants said to him, “Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings, please let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will save your <sup>a</sup>life.” <sup>32</sup> So they girded sackcloth on their loins and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben-hadad says, ‘Please let me live.’ ” And he said, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.” <sup>33</sup> Now the men <sup>b</sup>took this as an omen, and quickly <sup>c</sup>catching his word said, “Your brother Ben-hadad.” Then he said, “Go, bring him.” Then Ben-hadad came out to him, and he <sup>d</sup>took him up into the chariot. <sup>34</sup> Ben-hadad said to him, “The cities which my father took from your father I will restore, and you shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria.” Ahab said, “And I will let you go with this covenant.” So he made a covenant with him and let him go. <sup>35</sup> Now a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to <sup>a</sup>another by the word of the LORD, “Please strike me.” But the man refused to strike him. <sup>36</sup> Then he said to him, “Because you have not listened to the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you have departed from me, a lion will

Ahab Covets Naboth's Vineyard <sup>1</sup> Now it came about after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in Jezreel beside the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. <sup>2</sup> Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden because it is close beside my house, and I will give you a better vineyard than it in its place; if <sup>a</sup>you like, I will give you the price of <sup>b</sup>it in money." <sup>3</sup> But Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid me that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers." <sup>4</sup> So Ahab came into his house sullen and vexed because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed and turned away his face and ate no <sup>c</sup>food. [2 <sup>a</sup>Lit it is good in your eyes <sup>b</sup>Lit this 4 <sup>c</sup>Lit bread]

<sup>5</sup> But Jezebel his wife came to him and said to him, "How is it that your spirit is so sullen that you are not eating <sup>a</sup>food?" <sup>6</sup> So he said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you a vineyard in its place.' But he said, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'" <sup>7</sup> Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you now <sup>b</sup>reign over Israel? Arise, eat bread, and let your heart be joyful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite." [5 <sup>a</sup>Lit bread 7 <sup>b</sup>Lit exercise kingship]

<sup>8</sup> So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal, and sent letters to the elders and to the nobles who were living with Naboth in his city. <sup>9</sup> Now she wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth at the head of the people; <sup>10</sup> and seat two worthless men before him, and let them testify against him, saying, 'You cursed God and the king.' Then take him out and stone him <sup>a</sup>to death." [10 <sup>a</sup>Lit so that he dies]

Jezebel's Plot 11 So the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent word to them, just as it was written in the letters which she had sent them. 12They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the people. 13Then the two worthless men came in and sat before him; and the worthless men testified against him, even against Naboth, before the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." So they took him outside the city and stoned him <sup>a</sup>to death with stones. 14Then they sent word to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead." [13 <sup>a</sup>Lit with stones so that he died]

15 When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth, the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead." 16When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 18"Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria; behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth where he has gone down to take possession of it. 19You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "Have you murdered and also taken possession?" ' And you shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "In the place where the dogs licked up the blood of Naboth the dogs will lick up your blood, even yours." ' "

20 Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" And he <sup>a</sup>answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD. 21Behold, I will bring evil upon you, and will utterly sweep you away, and will cut off from Ahab every male, both bond and free in Israel; 22and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, because of the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger, and because you have made Israel sin. 23Of Jezebel also has the LORD spoken, saying, 'The dogs will eat Jezebel in the <sup>b</sup>district of Jezreel.' 24The one belonging to Ahab, who dies in the city, the dogs will

25 Surely there was no one like Ahab who sold himself to do evil in the sight of the LORD, <sup>a</sup>because Jezebel his wife incited him. <sup>26</sup>He acted very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites had done, whom the LORD cast out before the sons of Israel. ### Ahab's Third Campaign against Aram

1 Three <sup>a</sup>years passed without war between Aram and Israel. <sup>2</sup>In the third year Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Now the king of Israel said to his servants, “Do you know that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us, and we <sup>b</sup>are still doing nothing to take it out of the hand of the king of Aram?” <sup>4</sup>And he said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?” And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit they sat for three years 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit are silent so as not]

5 Moreover, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please inquire <sup>a</sup>first for the word of the LORD.” <sup>6</sup>Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, “Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle or shall I refrain?” And they said, “Go up, for the Lord will give it into the hand of the king.” <sup>7</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there not yet a prophet of the LORD here that we may inquire of him?” <sup>8</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.” But Jehoshaphat said, “Let not the king say so.” <sup>9</sup>Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, “<sup>b</sup>Bring quickly Micaiah son of Imlah.” <sup>10</sup>Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. <sup>11</sup>Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself and said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘With these you will gore the Arameans until they are consumed.’” <sup>12</sup>All the prophets were prophesying thus, saying, “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and prosper, for the LORD will give it into the hand of the king.” [5 <sup>a</sup>Lit as the day 9 <sup>b</sup>Lit Hasten Micaiah]

13 Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, “Behold now, the words of the prophets are uniformly favorable to the king. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably.”<sup>14</sup>But Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, what the LORD says to me, that I shall speak.”

15 When he came to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we refrain?” And he <sup>a</sup>answered him, “Go up and succeed, and the LORD will give it into the hand of the king.”<sup>16</sup>Then the king said to him, “How many times must I adjure you to speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”<sup>17</sup>So he said,

“I saw all Israel
Scattered on the mountains,
Like sheep which have no shepherd.
And the LORD said,
‘These have no master.
Let each of them return to his house in peace.’ ”

<sup>18</sup>Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?” [15 <sup>a</sup>Lit said to]

19 <sup>a</sup>Micaiah said, “Therefore, hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him on His right and on His left.<sup>20</sup>The LORD said, ‘Who will entice Ahab to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?’ And one said this while another said that.<sup>21</sup>Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, ‘I will entice him.’<sup>22</sup>The LORD said to him, ‘How?’ And he said, ‘I will go out and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ Then He said, ‘You are to entice him and also prevail. Go and do so.’<sup>23</sup>Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and the LORD has proclaimed disaster against you.” [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit he]

24 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, “How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?” <sup>25</sup>Micaiah said, “Behold, you shall see on that day when you enter an inner room to hide yourself.” <sup>26</sup>Then the king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king’s son; <sup>27</sup>and say, ‘Thus says the king, “Put this man in prison and feed him <sup>a</sup>sparingly with bread and water until I return safely.’” ’ ” <sup>28</sup>Micaiah said, “If you indeed return safely the LORD has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Listen, all you people.” [27 <sup>a</sup>Lit with bread of affliction and water of affliction]

Defeat and Death of Ahab

<sup>29</sup> So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead. <sup>30</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle. <sup>31</sup>Now the king of Aram had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, “Do not fight with small or great, but with the king of Israel alone.” <sup>32</sup>So when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “Surely it is the king of Israel,” and they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out. <sup>33</sup>When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

<sup>34</sup> Now a certain man drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel <sup>a</sup>in a joint of the armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn <sup>b</sup>around and take me out of the <sup>c</sup>fight; for I am severely wounded.” <sup>35</sup>The battle <sup>d</sup>raged that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot in front of the Arameans, and died at evening, and the blood from the wound ran into the bottom of the chariot. <sup>36</sup>Then a cry passed throughout the army close to sunset, saying, “Every man to his city and every man to his <sup>e</sup>country.” [34 <sup>a</sup>Lit between the scale-armor and the breastplate <sup>b</sup>Lit your hand <sup>c</sup>Lit camp <sup>35</sup> <sup>d</sup>Lit went up <sup>36</sup> <sup>e</sup>Lit land]

the word of the LORD which He spoke. <sup>39</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did and the ivory house which he built and all the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? <sup>40</sup>So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Ahaziah his son became king in his place.

The New Rulers

41 Now Jehoshaphat the son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. <sup>42</sup>Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>43</sup>He walked in all the way of Asa his father; he did not turn aside from it, doing right in the sight of the LORD. However, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense on the high places. <sup>44</sup>Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might which he showed and how he warred, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? <sup>46</sup>The remnant of the sodomites who remained in the days of his father Asa, he <sup>a</sup>expelled from the land. [<sup>46</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit consumed]

47 Now there was no king in Edom; a deputy was king. <sup>48</sup>Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber. <sup>49</sup>Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat was not willing. <sup>50</sup>And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David, and Jehoram his son became king in his place.

51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. <sup>52</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. <sup>53</sup>So he served Baal and worshiped him and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

Ahaziah's Messengers Meet Elijah <sup>1</sup> Now Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. <sup>2</sup> And Ahaziah fell through the lattice in his upper chamber which was in Samaria, and became ill. So he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover from this sickness." <sup>3</sup> But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?'" <sup>4</sup> Now therefore thus says the LORD, <sup>a</sup> "You shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but you shall surely die.'" Then Elijah departed. [<sup>4</sup> <sup>a</sup> Lit The bed where you went up, you shall not come down from it]

<sup>5</sup> When the messengers returned to him he said to them, <sup>a</sup> "Why have you returned?" <sup>6</sup> They said to him, "A man came up to meet us and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you and say to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore <sup>b</sup> you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.' " ' " <sup>7</sup> He said to them, "What kind of man was he who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you?" <sup>8</sup> They <sup>c</sup> answered him, "He was a hairy man with a leather girdle <sup>d</sup> bound about his loins." And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite." [<sup>5</sup> <sup>a</sup> Lit What is this that you have returned? <sup>6</sup> <sup>b</sup> V 4, note 1 <sup>8</sup> <sup>c</sup> Lit said <sup>d</sup> Or girt]

<sup>9</sup> Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him, and behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. And he said to him, "O man of God, the king says, 'Come down.'" <sup>10</sup> Elijah replied to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty." Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

11 So he again sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he said to him, “O man of God, thus says the king, ‘Come down quickly.’ ”

<sup>12</sup>Elijah replied to them, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty.” Then the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

13 So he again sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. When the third captain of fifty went up, he came and bowed down on his knees before Elijah, and begged him and said to him, “O man of God, please let my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight. <sup>14</sup>Behold fire came down from heaven and consumed the first two captains of fifty with their fifties; but now let my <sup>a</sup>life be precious in your sight.” <sup>15</sup>The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.” So he arose and went down with him to the king. <sup>16</sup>Then he said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron—is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word?—therefore <sup>b</sup>you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.’ ” [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit soul 16 <sup>b</sup>V 4, note 1]

Jehoram Reigns over Israel* <sup>17</sup> So Ahaziah died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. ### Elijah Taken to Heaven

1 And it came about when the LORD was about to take up Elijah by a <sup>a</sup>whirlwind to heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. <sup>2</sup>Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here please, for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel. <sup>3</sup>Then the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over <sup>b</sup>you today?” And he said, “Yes, I know; be still.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Or windstorm 3 <sup>b</sup>Lit your head]

4 Elijah said to him, “Elisha, please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho.” But he said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they came to Jericho. <sup>5</sup>The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho approached Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over <sup>a</sup>you today?” And he <sup>b</sup>answered, “Yes, I know; be still.” <sup>6</sup>Then Elijah said to him, “Please stay here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” And he said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on. [5 <sup>a</sup>Lit your head <sup>b</sup>Lit said]

7 Now fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood opposite them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan. <sup>8</sup>Elijah took his mantle and folded it together and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

9 When they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken from you.” And Elisha said, “Please, let a double portion of your spirit be upon me.” <sup>10</sup>He said, “You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so.” <sup>11</sup>As they were going along and talking, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire and horses of fire which separated the two of them. And Elijah went up by a <sup>a</sup>whirlwind to heaven. <sup>12</sup>Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father, my father, the <sup>b</sup>chariots of Israel and its horsemen!” And he saw <sup>c</sup>Elijah no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces. <sup>13</sup>He also took up the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and returned and stood by the bank of the Jordan. <sup>14</sup>He took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and struck the waters and said, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” And when he also had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha crossed over. ### Elisha Succeeds Elijah

<sup>15</sup> Now when the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho opposite him saw him, they said, “The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha.” And they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground before him. <sup>16</sup>They said to him, “Behold now, there are with your servants fifty strong men, please let them go and search for your master; perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him on some mountain or into some valley.” And he said, “You shall not send.” <sup>17</sup>But when they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, “Send.” They sent therefore fifty men; and they searched three days but did not find him. <sup>18</sup>They returned to him while he was staying at Jericho; and he said to them, “Did I not say to you, ‘Do not go’?”

<sup>19</sup> Then the men of the city said to Elisha, “Behold now, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad and the land <sup>a</sup>is unfruitful.” <sup>20</sup>He said, “Bring me a new jar, and put salt <sup>b</sup>in it.” So they brought it to him. <sup>21</sup>He went out to the spring of water and threw salt <sup>b</sup>in it and said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘I have <sup>c</sup>purified these waters; there shall not be from there death or <sup>d</sup>unfruitfulness any longer.’ ” <sup>22</sup>So the waters have been <sup>c</sup>purified to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke. <sup>23</sup> Then he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up by the way, young lads came out from the city and mocked him and said to him, “Go up, you baldhead; go up, you baldhead!” <sup>24</sup>When he looked behind him and saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the woods and tore up forty-two lads of <sup>a</sup>their number.

Jehoram Meets Moab Rebellion

1 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. <sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and his mother; for he put away the sacred pillar of Baal which his father had made. <sup>3</sup>Nevertheless, he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.

4 Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder, and used to pay the king of Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams. <sup>5</sup>But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup>And King Jehoram went out of Samaria <sup>a</sup>at that time and mustered all Israel. <sup>7</sup>Then he went and sent word to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?” And he said, “I will go up; I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.” <sup>8</sup>He said, “Which way shall we go up?” And he <sup>b</sup>answered, “The way of the wilderness of Edom.” [<sup>6</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit in that day <sup>8</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit said]

9 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days’ journey, and there was no water for the army or for the cattle that followed them. <sup>10</sup>Then the king of Israel said, “Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab.” <sup>11</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there not a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?” And one of the king of Israel’s servants answered and said, “Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.” <sup>12</sup>Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the LORD is with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 Now Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What do I have to do with you?”

Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother.” And the king of Israel said to him, “No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to give them into the hand of Moab.” <sup>14</sup>Elisha said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look at you nor see you. <sup>15</sup>But now bring me a minstrel.” And it came about, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him. <sup>16</sup>He said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Make this valley full of trenches.’ <sup>17</sup>For thus says the LORD, ‘You shall not see wind nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you shall drink, both you and your cattle and your beasts. <sup>18</sup>This is but a slight thing in the sight of the LORD; He will also give the Moabites into your hand. <sup>19</sup>Then you shall strike every fortified city and every choice city, and fell every good tree and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.’ ” <sup>20</sup>It happened in the morning about the time of offering the sacrifice, that behold, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup> Now all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. And all who were able to <sup>a</sup>put on armor and older were summoned and stood on the border. <sup>22</sup>They rose early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood. <sup>23</sup>Then they said, “This is blood; the kings have surely fought together, and they have slain one another. Now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!” <sup>24</sup>But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites arose and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward <sup>b</sup>into the land, <sup>c</sup>slaughtering the Moabites. <sup>25</sup>Thus they destroyed the cities; and each one threw a stone on every piece of good land and filled it. So they stopped all the springs of water and felled all the good trees, until in Kir-hareseth only they left its stones; however, the slingers went about it and struck it. <sup>26</sup>When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him 700 men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not. <sup>27</sup>Then he took his oldest son who was to reign in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering on the wall. And there came great wrath against Israel, and they departed from him and returned to their own land. ### The Widow's Oil

1 Now a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to <sup>a</sup>Elisha, “Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD; and the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves.” <sup>2</sup>Elisha said to her, “What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?” And she said, “Your maidservant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil.” <sup>3</sup>Then he said, “Go, borrow vessels at large for yourself from all your neighbors, even empty vessels; do not get a few. <sup>4</sup>And you shall go in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour out into all these vessels, and you shall set aside what is full.” <sup>5</sup>So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons; they were bringing the vessels to her and she poured. <sup>6</sup>When the vessels were full, she said to her son, “Bring me another vessel.” And he said to her, “There is not one vessel more.” And the oil stopped. <sup>7</sup>Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, “Go, sell the oil and pay your debt, and you and your sons can live on the rest.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit Elisha, saying]

The Shunammite Woman <sup>8</sup> Now there came a day when Elisha passed over to Shunem, where there was a <sup>a</sup>prominent woman, and she persuaded him to eat <sup>b</sup>food. And so it was, as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat <sup>b</sup>food. <sup>9</sup>She said to her husband, “Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God passing by us continually. <sup>10</sup>Please, let us make a little walled upper chamber and let us set a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; and it shall be, when he comes to us, that he can turn in there.” [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit great <sup>b</sup>Lit bread]

<sup>11</sup> <sup>a</sup>One day he came there and turned in to the upper chamber and <sup>b</sup>rested. <sup>12</sup>Then he said to Gehazi his servant, “Call this Shunammite.” And when he had called her, she stood before him. <sup>13</sup>He said to him,

“Say now to her, ‘Behold, you have been <sup>c</sup>careful for us with all this <sup>d</sup>care; what can I do for you? Would you be spoken for to the king or to the captain of the army?’ ” And she <sup>e</sup>answered, “I live among my own people.” <sup>14</sup>So he said, “What then is to be done for her?” And Gehazi <sup>e</sup>answered, “Truly she has no son and her husband is old.” <sup>15</sup>He said, “Call her.” When he had called her, she stood in the doorway. <sup>16</sup>Then he said, “At this season <sup>f</sup>next year you will embrace a son.” And she said, “No, my lord, O man of God, do not lie to your maidservant.” [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit Now a day came that <sup>b</sup>Lit lay there <sup>13</sup> <sup>c</sup>Lit fearful <sup>d</sup>Lit fear <sup>e</sup>Lit said <sup>16</sup> <sup>f</sup>Lit when the time revives]

<sup>17</sup> The woman conceived and bore a son at that season <sup>a</sup>the next year, as Elisha had said to her. [17 <sup>a</sup>Lit when the time revived]

The Shunammite’s Son <sup>18</sup> When the child was grown, the day came that he went out to his father to the reapers. <sup>19</sup>He said to his father, “My head, my head.” And he said to his servant, “Carry him to his mother.” <sup>20</sup>When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her <sup>a</sup>lap until noon, and then died. <sup>21</sup>She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door behind him and went out. <sup>22</sup>Then she called to her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and return.” <sup>23</sup>He said, “Why will you go to him today? It is neither new moon nor sabbath.” And she said, “It will be well.” <sup>24</sup>Then she saddled a donkey and said to her servant, “Drive and go forward; do not slow down <sup>b</sup>the pace for me unless I tell you.” <sup>25</sup>So she went and came to the man of God to Mount Carmel. [20 <sup>a</sup>Lit knees <sup>24</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit riding]

When the man of God saw her at a distance, he said to Gehazi his servant, “Behold, <sup>a</sup>there is the Shunammite. <sup>26</sup>Please run now to meet her and say to her, ‘Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?’ ” And she <sup>b</sup>answered, “It is well.” <sup>27</sup>When she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. And Gehazi came near to push her away; but the man of God said, “Let her alone, for her soul is <sup>c</sup>troubled within her; and the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me.” <sup>28</sup>Then she said, “Did I ask for a son from my lord? Did I not say, ‘Do not deceive me?’” [25 <sup>a</sup>Lit this Shunammite 26 <sup>b</sup>Lit said 27 <sup>c</sup>Lit bitter]

<sup>29</sup> Then he said to Gehazi, “Gird up your loins and take my staff in your hand, and go your way; if you meet any man, do not salute him, and if anyone salutes you, do not answer him; and lay my staff on the lad’s face.” <sup>30</sup>The mother of the lad said, “As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” And he arose and followed her.

<sup>32</sup> When Elisha came into the house, behold the lad was dead and laid on his bed. <sup>33</sup>So he entered and shut the door behind them both and prayed to the LORD. <sup>34</sup>And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth and his eyes on his eyes and his hands on his hands, and he stretched himself on him; and the flesh of the child became warm. <sup>35</sup>Then he returned and walked in the house once back and forth, and went up and stretched himself on him; and the lad sneezed seven times and the lad opened his eyes. <sup>36</sup>He called Gehazi and said, “Call this Shunammite.” So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, “Take up your son.” <sup>37</sup>Then she went in and fell at his feet and bowed herself to the ground, and she took up her son and went out.

The Poisonous Stew <sup>38</sup> When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. <sup>a</sup>As the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he said to his servant, “Put on the large pot and boil stew for the sons of the prophets.” <sup>39</sup>Then one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine and gathered from it his lap full of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, for they did not know what they were. <sup>40</sup>So they poured it out for the men to eat. And as they were eating of the stew, they cried out and said, “O man of God, there is death in the pot.” And they were unable to eat. <sup>41</sup>But he said, “Now bring meal.” He threw it into the pot and said, “Pour it out for the people that they may eat.” Then there was no harm in the pot. [38 <sup>a</sup>Lit

And]

<sup>42</sup> Now a man came from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And he said, “Give them to the people that they may eat.” <sup>43</sup>His attendant said, “What, will I set this before a hundred men?” But he said, “Give them to the people that they may eat, for thus says the LORD, ‘They shall eat and have some left over.’ ” <sup>44</sup>So he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "And now as this letter comes to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may cure him of his leprosy." <sup>7</sup> When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man is sending word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? But consider now, and see how he is seeking <sup>a</sup>a quarrel against me." [<sup>7</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit an occasion]

<sup>8</sup> It happened when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent word to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Now let him come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel." <sup>9</sup> So Naaman came with his horses and his chariots and stood at the doorway of the house of Elisha. <sup>10</sup> Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh will be restored to you and you will be clean." <sup>11</sup> But Naaman was furious and went away and said, "Behold, I <sup>a</sup>thought, 'He will surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place and cure the leper.'" <sup>12</sup> Are not

<sup>b</sup>Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?” So he turned and went away in a rage. <sup>13</sup>Then his servants came near and spoke to him and said, “My father, had the prophet told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, ‘Wash, and be clean’?” <sup>14</sup>So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child and he was clean. Gehazi's Greed <sup>15</sup> When he returned to the man of God <sup>a</sup>with all his company, and came and stood before him, he said, “Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel; so please take a <sup>b</sup>present from your servant now.” <sup>16</sup>But he said, “As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will take nothing.” And he urged him to take it, but he refused. <sup>17</sup>Naaman said, “If not, please let your servant at least be given two mules’ load of earth; for your servant will no longer offer burnt offering nor will he sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>In this matter may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon your servant in this matter.” <sup>19</sup>He said to him, “Go in peace.” So he departed from him some distance. <sup>20</sup> But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, <sup>a</sup>thought, “Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Aramean, <sup>b</sup>by not receiving from his hands what he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him.” <sup>21</sup>So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him and said, “Is all well?” <sup>22</sup>He said, “All is well. My master has sent me, saying, ‘Behold, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothes.’ ” <sup>23</sup>Naaman said, “Be pleased to take two talents.” And he urged him, and bound

two talents of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes and gave them to two of his servants; and they carried them before him. <sup>24</sup>When he came to the <sup>c</sup>hill, he took them from their hand and deposited them in the house, and he sent the men away, and they departed. <sup>25</sup>But he went in and stood before his master. ### The Axe Head Recovered

1 Now the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “Behold now, the place before you where we are living is too limited for us. 2Please let us go to the Jordan and each of us take from there a beam, and let us make a place there for ourselves where we may live.” So he said, “Go.” 3Then one said, “Please be willing to go with your servants.” And he <sup>a</sup>answered, “I shall go.” 4So he went with them; and when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees. 5But as one was felling a beam, <sup>b</sup>the axe head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, “Alas, my master! For it was borrowed.” 6Then the man of God said, “Where did it fall?” And when he showed him the place, he cut off a stick and threw it in there, and made the iron float. 7He said, “Take it up for yourself.” So he put out his hand and took it. ### The Arameans Plot to Capture Elisha

8 Now the king of Aram was warring against Israel; and he <sup>a</sup>counseled with his servants saying, “In such and such a place shall be my camp.” 9The man of God sent word to the king of Israel saying, “Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Arameans are coming down there.” 10The king of Israel sent to the place about which the man of God had told him; thus he warned him, so that he guarded himself there, <sup>b</sup>more than once or twice. [8 <sup>a</sup>Lit took counsel 10 <sup>b</sup>Lit not once or twice]

11 Now the heart of the king of Aram was enraged over this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, “Will you tell me which of us is for the king of Israel?” 12One of his servants said, “No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom.” 13So he said, “Go and see where he is, that I may send and take him.” And it was told him, saying, “Behold, he is in Dothan.” 14He sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 Now when the attendant of the man of God had risen early and gone out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was circling the city. And his servant said to him, “Alas, my master! <sup>a</sup>What shall we do?” <sup>16</sup>So he <sup>b</sup>answered, “Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.” <sup>17</sup>Then Elisha prayed and said, “O LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see.” And the LORD opened the servant’s eyes and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha. <sup>18</sup>When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD and said, “Strike this <sup>c</sup>people with blindness, I pray.” So He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. <sup>19</sup>Then Elisha said to them, “This is not the way, nor is this the city; follow me and I will bring you to the man whom you seek.” And he brought them to Samaria. 20 When they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, “O LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see.” So the LORD opened their eyes and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria. <sup>21</sup>Then the king of Israel when he saw them, said to Elisha, “My father, shall I <sup>a</sup>kill them? Shall I <sup>a</sup>kill them?” <sup>22</sup>He <sup>b</sup>answered, “You shall not <sup>a</sup>kill them. Would you <sup>a</sup>kill those you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master.” <sup>23</sup>So he prepared a great feast for them; and when they had eaten and drunk he sent them away, and they went to their master. ### The Siege of Samaria—Cannibalism

24 Now it came about after this, that Ben-hadad king of Aram gathered all his army and went up and besieged Samaria. <sup>25</sup>There was a great famine in Samaria; and behold, they besieged it, until a donkey’s head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and a fourth of a <sup>a</sup>kab of dove’s dung for five

shekels of silver. <sup>26</sup>As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall a woman cried out to him, saying, “Help, my lord, O king!” <sup>27</sup>He said, “<sup>b</sup>If the LORD does not help you, from where shall I help you? From the threshing floor, or from the wine press?” <sup>28</sup>And the king said to her, “What <sup>c</sup>is the matter with you?” And she <sup>d</sup>answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give your son that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.’” <sup>29</sup>So we boiled my son and ate him; and I said to her on the next day, ‘Give your son, that we may eat him’; but she has hidden her son.” <sup>30</sup>When the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes—now he was passing by on the wall—and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth <sup>e</sup>beneath on his <sup>f</sup>body. <sup>31</sup>Then he said, “May God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat <sup>g</sup>remains on him today.” [25 <sup>a</sup>I.e. <sup>32</sup> Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Elisha Promises Food 1 Then Elisha said, “Listen to the word of the LORD; thus says the LORD, ‘Tomorrow about this time a <sup>a</sup>measure of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.’ ” 2The royal officer on whose hand the king was leaning answered the man of God and said, “Behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, could this thing be?” Then he said, “Behold, you will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat <sup>b</sup>of it.” [1 <sup>a</sup>Heb seah 2 <sup>b</sup>Lit from there]

Four Lepers Relate Arameans' Flight 3 Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, “Why do we sit here until we die? 4If we say, ‘We will enter the city,’ then the famine is in the city and we will die there; and if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us <sup>a</sup>go over to the camp of the Arameans. If they spare us, we will live; and if they kill us, we will but die.” 5They arose at twilight to go to the camp of the Arameans; when they came to the outskirts of the camp of the Arameans, behold, there was no one there. 6For the Lord had caused the army of the Arameans to hear a sound of chariots and a sound of horses, even the sound of a great army, so that they said to one another, “Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.” 7Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents and their horses and their donkeys, even the camp just as it was, and fled for their life. 8When these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they entered one tent and ate and drank, and carried from there silver and gold and clothes, and went and hid them; and they returned and entered another tent and carried from there also, and went and hid them. [4 <sup>a</sup>Lit fall] day of good news, but we are keeping silent; if we wait until morning light, punishment will <sup>a</sup>overtake us. Now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household." <sup>10</sup>So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and they told them, saying, "We came to the camp of the Arameans, and behold, there was no one there, nor the voice of man, only the horses tied and the donkeys tied, and the tents just as they were." <sup>11</sup>The gatekeepers called and told it within the king's household. <sup>12</sup>Then the king arose in the night and said to his servants, "I will now tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore they have gone from the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we will capture them alive and get into the city.'" <sup>13</sup>One of his servants said, "Please, let some men take five of the horses which remain, which are left <sup>b</sup>in the city. Behold, they will be in any case like all the multitude of Israel who are left in it; behold, they will be in any case like all the multitude of Israel who have already perished, so let us send and see." <sup>14</sup>They took therefore two chariots with horses, and the king sent after the army of the Arameans, saying, "Go and see." The Promise Fulfilled <sup>15</sup>They went after them to the Jordan, and behold, all the way was full of clothes and equipment which the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. Then the messengers returned and told the king.

<sup>16</sup> So the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. Then a <sup>a</sup>measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel and two <sup>a</sup>measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Now the king appointed the royal officer on whose hand he leaned <sup>b</sup>to have charge of the gate; but the people trampled on him at the gate, and he died just as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. <sup>18</sup>It happened just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two <sup>a</sup>measures of barley for a shekel and a <sup>a</sup>measure of fine flour for a shekel, will be sold tomorrow about this time at the gate of Samaria." <sup>19</sup>Then the royal officer answered the man of God and said, "Now behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?” And he said, “Behold, you will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat <sup>c</sup>of it.” <sup>20</sup>And so it happened to him, for the people trampled on him at the gate and he died. Jehoram Restores the Shunammite's Land <sup>1</sup> Now Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go <sup>a</sup>with your household, and sojourn wherever you can sojourn; for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will even come on the land for seven years." <sup>2</sup> So the woman arose and did according to the word of the man of God, and she went with her household and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years. <sup>3</sup> At the end of seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went out to <sup>b</sup>appeal to the king for her house and for her field. <sup>4</sup> Now the king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please relate to me all the great things that Elisha has done." <sup>5</sup> As he was relating to the king how he had restored to life the one who was dead, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life <sup>c</sup>appealed to the king for her house and for her field. Elisha Predicts Evil from Hazael <sup>7</sup> Then Elisha came to Damascus. ### Judgment upon Ahab's House

1 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and to the guardians of the children of Ahab, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Now, when this letter comes to you, since your master’s sons are with you, <sup>a</sup>as well as the chariots and horses and a fortified city and the weapons, <sup>3</sup>select the best and <sup>b</sup>fittest of your master’s sons, and set him on his father’s throne, and fight for your master’s house.” <sup>4</sup>But they feared greatly and said, “Behold, the two kings did not stand before him; how then can we stand?” <sup>5</sup>And the one who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders, and the guardians of the children, sent word to Jehu, saying, “We are your servants, all that you say to us we will do, we will not make any man king; do what is good in your sight.” <sup>6</sup>Then he wrote a letter to them a second time saying, “If you are on my side, and you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men, your master’s sons, and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow about this time.” Now the king’s sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were rearing them. <sup>7</sup>When the letter came to them, they took the king’s sons and slaughtered them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him at Jezreel. <sup>8</sup>When the messenger came and told him, saying, “They have brought the heads of the king’s sons,” he said, “Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning.” <sup>9</sup>Now in the morning he went out and stood and said to all the people, “You are <sup>c</sup>innocent; behold, I conspired against my master and killed him, but who <sup>d</sup>killed all these? <sup>10</sup>Know then that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, for the LORD has done what He spoke <sup>e</sup>through His servant Elijah.” <sup>11</sup>So Jehu <sup>d</sup>killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men and his acquaintances and his priests, until he left him without a survivor. ### Jehu Destroys Baal Worshipers

18 Then Jehu gathered all the people and said to them, “Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much. <sup>19</sup>Now, summon all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers and all his priests; let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal; whoever is missing shall not live.” But Jehu did it in <sup>a</sup>cunning, so that he might destroy the worshipers of Baal. <sup>20</sup>And Jehu said, “Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal.” And they proclaimed it. <sup>21</sup>Then Jehu sent <sup>b</sup>throughout Israel and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. And when they went into the house of Baal, the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other. <sup>22</sup>He said to the one who was <sup>c</sup>in charge of the wardrobe, “Bring out garments for all the worshipers of Baal.” So he brought out garments for them. <sup>23</sup>Jehu went into the house of Baal with Jehonadab the son of Rechab; and he said to the worshipers of Baal, “Search and see that there is here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but only the worshipers of Baal.” <sup>24</sup>Then they

28 Thus Jehu eradicated Baal out of Israel. <sup>29</sup>However, as for the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin, from these Jehu did not depart, even the golden calves that were at Bethel and that were at Dan. <sup>30</sup>The LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in executing what is right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in My heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.” <sup>31</sup>But Jehu <sup>a</sup>was not careful to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, which he made Israel sin. ### Athaliah Queen of Judah

1 When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose and destroyed all the royal <sup>a</sup>offspring. <sup>2</sup>But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and placed him and his nurse in the bedroom. So they hid him from Athaliah, and he was not put to death. <sup>3</sup>So he was hidden with her in the house of the LORD six years, while Athaliah was reigning over the land. [1 <sup>a</sup>Lit seed]

4 Now in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds of the Carites and of the <sup>a</sup>guard, and brought them to him in the house of the LORD. Then he made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son. <sup>5</sup>He commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do: one third of you, who come in on the sabbath and keep watch over the king's house <sup>6</sup>(one third also shall be at the gate Sur, and one third at the gate behind the <sup>a</sup>guards), <sup>b</sup>shall keep watch over the house for defense. <sup>7</sup>Two parts of you, even all who go out on the sabbath, shall also keep watch over the house of the LORD for the king. <sup>8</sup>Then you shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes within the ranks shall be put to death. And be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in." [4 <sup>a</sup>Lit runners <sup>6</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit and shall]

9 So the captains of hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each one of them took his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with those who were to go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. <sup>10</sup>The priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>The <sup>a</sup>guards stood each with his weapons in his hand, from the right <sup>b</sup>side of the house to the left <sup>b</sup>side of the house, by the altar and by the house, around the king. <sup>12</sup>Then he brought the king's son out and put the crown on him and gave him the testimony; and they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, “Long live the king!” [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit runners <sup>b</sup>Lit shoulder]

13 When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people in the house of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>She looked and behold, the king was standing by the pillar, according to the custom, with the captains and the <sup>a</sup>trumpeters beside the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, “Treason! Treason!” <sup>15</sup>And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army and said to them, “Bring her out <sup>b</sup>between the ranks, and whoever follows her put to death with the sword.” For the priest said, “Let her not be put to death in the house of the LORD.” <sup>16</sup>So they <sup>c</sup>seized her, and when she arrived at the horses’ entrance of the king’s house, she was put to death there. [14 <sup>a</sup>Lit trumpets 15 <sup>b</sup>Lit from within 16 <sup>c</sup>Lit placed hands to her]

17 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they would be the LORD’s people, also between the king and the people. <sup>18</sup>All the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed <sup>a</sup>officers over the house of the LORD. <sup>19</sup>He took the captains of hundreds and the Carites and the <sup>b</sup>guards and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the <sup>b</sup>guards to the king’s house. And he sat on the throne of the kings. <sup>20</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword at the king’s house. <sup>1</sup> In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

<sup>2</sup>Jehoash did right in the sight of the LORD all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. <sup>3</sup>Only the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

The Temple to Be Repaired

<sup>4</sup> Then Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the sacred things which is brought into the house of the LORD, in current money, both the money of each man's assessment and all the money <sup>a</sup>which any man's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the LORD, <sup>5</sup>let the priests take it for themselves, each from his acquaintance; and they shall repair the <sup>b</sup>damages of the house wherever any damage may be found." <sup>6</sup> But it came about that in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash the priests had not repaired the damages of the house. <sup>7</sup>Then King Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the other priests and said to them, "Why do you not repair the damages of the house? Now therefore take no more money from your acquaintances, but pay it for the damages of the house." <sup>8</sup>So the priests agreed that they would take no more money from the people, nor repair the damages of the house.

<sup>9</sup> But Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid and put it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the money which was brought into the house of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>When they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest came up and tied it in bags and counted the money which was found in the house of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>They gave the money which was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they <sup>a</sup>paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the house of the LORD; <sup>12</sup>and to the masons and the stonecutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the damages to the house of the LORD, and for all that was <sup>b</sup>laid out for the house to repair it. <sup>13</sup>But there were not made for the house of the LORD silver cups, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver from the money which was brought into the house of the LORD; <sup>14</sup>for they gave that to those who did the work, and with it they repaired the house of the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Moreover, they did not require an accounting from the men into whose hand they gave the money to pay to those who did the work, for they dealt faithfully. <sup>16</sup>The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD; it was for the priests. Zechariah over Israel <sup>8</sup>In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in Samaria for six months. <sup>9</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel sin. <sup>10</sup>Then Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him and struck him before the people and <sup>a</sup>killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>11</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. <sup>12</sup>This is the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." 32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham the son of <sup>a</sup>Uzziah king of Judah became king. <sup>33</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. <sup>34</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. <sup>35</sup>Only the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD. <sup>36</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jotham and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? <sup>37</sup>In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Aram and Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah. <sup>38</sup>And Jotham slept with his

Ahaz Reigns over Judah <sup>1</sup> In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, became king. <sup>2</sup> Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David had done. <sup>3</sup> But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and even made his son pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had <sup>a</sup>driven out from before the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup> He sacrificed and burned incense on the high places and on the hills and under every green tree. [3 <sup>a</sup>Or dispossessed]

<sup>5</sup> Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to wage war; and they besieged Ahaz, but could not <sup>a</sup>overcome him. <sup>6</sup> At that time Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram, and cleared the Judeans out of <sup>b</sup>Elath entirely; and the <sup>c</sup>Arameans came to Elath and have lived there to this day. 17 Then King Ahaz cut off the borders of the stands, and removed the laver from them; he also took down the sea from the bronze oxen which were under it and put it on a pavement of stone. <sup>18</sup>The covered way for the sabbath which they had built in the house, and the outer entry of the king, he removed from the house of the LORD because of the king of Assyria.

Hoshea Reigns over Israel

<sup>1</sup> In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned nine years. <sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, only not as the kings of Israel who were before him.

<sup>3</sup>Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him, and Hoshea became his servant and paid him tribute. <sup>4</sup>But the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea, who had sent messengers to So king of Egypt and had offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; so the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in prison.

<sup>5</sup> Then the king of Assyria invaded the whole land and went up to Samaria and besieged it three years.

Israel Captive

<sup>6</sup>In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and carried Israel away into exile to Assyria, and settled them in Halah and Habor, on the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

Why Israel Fell

places in all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city. <sup>10</sup>They set for themselves sacred pillars and <sup>e</sup>Asherim on every high hill and under every green tree, <sup>11</sup>and there they burned incense on all the high places as the nations did which the LORD had carried away to exile before them; and they did evil things provoking the LORD. <sup>12</sup>They served idols, concerning which the LORD had said to them, “You shall not do this thing.” <sup>13</sup>Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah through all His prophets and every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways and keep My commandments, My statutes according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you through My servants the prophets.” <sup>14</sup>However, they did not listen, but stiffened their neck <sup>f</sup>like their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God. <sup>15</sup>They rejected His statutes and His covenant which He made with their fathers and His warnings with which He warned them. And they followed vanity and became vain, and went after the nations which surrounded them, concerning which the LORD had commanded them not to do like them. <sup>16</sup>They forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God and made for themselves molten images, even two calves, and made an <sup>g</sup>Asherah and worshiped all the host of heaven and served Baal. <sup>17</sup>Then they made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire, and practiced divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him. <sup>18</sup>So the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from His <sup>h</sup>sight; none was left except the tribe of Judah. <sup>19</sup> Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the <sup>a</sup>customs <sup>b</sup>which Israel had <sup>c</sup>introduced. <sup>20</sup>The LORD rejected all the <sup>d</sup>descendants of Israel and afflicted them and gave them into the hand of plunderers, until He had cast them <sup>e</sup>out of His sight. <sup>21</sup> When He had torn Israel from the house of David, they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam drove Israel away from following the LORD and made them <sup>a</sup>commit a great sin. <sup>22</sup>The sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them <sup>23</sup>until the LORD removed Israel from His sight, as He spoke through all His servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away into exile from their own land to Assyria until this day. [21 <sup>a</sup>Lit sin]

Cities of Israel Filled with Strangers

24 The king of Assyria brought men from Babylon and from Cuthah and from <sup>a</sup>Avva and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the sons of Israel. So they possessed Samaria and lived in its cities. <sup>25</sup>At the beginning of their living there, they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them which killed some of them. <sup>26</sup>So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, “The nations whom you have carried away into exile in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the god of the land; so he has sent lions among them, and behold, they kill them because they do not know the custom of the god of the land.” [24 <sup>a</sup>In 2 Kin 18:34, Ivvah]

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, “Take there one of the priests whom you carried away into <sup>a</sup>exile and let <sup>b</sup>him go and live there; and let him teach them the custom of the god of the land.” <sup>28</sup>So one of the priests whom they had carried away into exile from Samaria came and lived at Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD. [27 <sup>a</sup>Lit exile from there <sup>b</sup>Lit them]

29 But every nation still made gods of its own and put them in the houses of the high places which the people of Samaria had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived. <sup>30</sup>The men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, <sup>31</sup>and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech the gods of Sepharvaim. <sup>32</sup>They also feared the LORD and <sup>a</sup>appointed from among themselves priests of the high places, who acted for them in the houses of the high places. <sup>33</sup>They feared the LORD and served their own gods according to the custom of the nations from among whom they had been carried away into exile. [32 <sup>a</sup>Lit made for themselves from among]

<sup>34</sup> To this day they do according to the earlier customs: they do not fear the LORD, nor do they <sup>a</sup>follow their statutes or their ordinances or the law, or the commandments which the LORD commanded the sons of Jacob, whom He named Israel; <sup>35</sup>with whom the LORD made a covenant and commanded them, saying, “You shall not fear other gods, nor bow down yourselves to them nor serve them nor sacrifice to them. <sup>36</sup>But the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, Him you shall fear, and to Him you shall bow yourselves down, and to Him you shall sacrifice. <sup>37</sup>The statutes and the ordinances and the law and the commandment which He wrote for you, you shall observe to do forever; and you shall not fear other gods. <sup>38</sup>The covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, nor shall you fear other gods. <sup>39</sup>But the LORD your God you shall fear; and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.” <sup>40</sup>However, they did not listen, but they did according to their earlier custom. <sup>41</sup>So while these nations feared the LORD, they also served their <sup>b</sup>idols; their children likewise and their grandchildren, as their fathers did, so they do to this day. ### Hezekiah Reigns over Judah

<sup>1</sup> Now it came about in the third year of Hoshea, the son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah became king. <sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>3</sup>He did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done. <sup>4</sup>He removed the high places and broke down the sacred pillars and cut down the <sup>a</sup>Asherah. He also broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the sons of Israel burned incense to it; and it was called <sup>b</sup>Nehushtan. <sup>5</sup>He trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; so that after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among those who were before him. <sup>6</sup>For he clung to the LORD; he did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>9</sup> Now in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it. <sup>10</sup>At the end of three years they captured it; in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was captured. <sup>11</sup>Then the king of Assyria carried Israel away into exile to Assyria, and put them in Halah and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, <sup>12</sup>because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded; they would neither listen nor do it.

Invasion of Judah

14 Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, “I have done wrong. <sup>a</sup>Withdraw from me; whatever you <sup>b</sup>impose on me I will bear.” So the king of Assyria <sup>c</sup>required of Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. 15 Hezekiah gave him all the silver which was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king’s house. 16 At that time Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the doorposts which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria. ### Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

<sup>1</sup> In those days Hezekiah became <sup>a</sup>mortally ill. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live.’ ” <sup>2</sup>Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Remember now, O LORD, I beseech You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a whole heart and have done what is good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept <sup>b</sup>bitterly. <sup>4</sup>Before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>5</sup>“Return and say to Hezekiah the leader of My people, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of your father David, “I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>I will add fifteen years to your <sup>c</sup>life, and I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.” ’ ” <sup>7</sup>Then Isaiah said, “Take a cake of figs.” And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. ### Hezekiah Shows Babylon His Treasures

12 At that time <sup>a</sup>Berodach-baladan a son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>13</sup>Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all his treasure house, the silver and the gold and the spices and the precious oil and the house of his armor and all that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house nor in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them. <sup>14</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, “What did these men say, and from where have they come to you?” And Hezekiah said, “They have come from a far country, from Babylon.” <sup>15</sup>He said, “What have they seen in your house?” So Hezekiah <sup>b</sup>answered, “They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasuries that I have not shown them.” [12 <sup>a</sup>Many mss and ancient versions read Merodach-baladan; cf Is 39:1 15 <sup>b</sup>Lit said]

16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>‘Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and all that your fathers have laid up in store to this day will be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,’ says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>‘Some of your sons who shall issue from you, whom you will beget, will be taken away; and they will become officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.’ ” <sup>19</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good.” For he <sup>a</sup>thought, “Is it not so, if there will be peace and truth in my days?” [19 <sup>a</sup>Lit said]

20 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his might, and how he made the pool and the conduit and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? <sup>21</sup>So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and Manasseh his son became king in his place.

Manasseh Succeeds Hezekiah

<sup>1</sup> Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel. <sup>3</sup>For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he erected altars for Baal and made an <sup>a</sup>Asherah, as Ahab king of Israel had done, and worshiped all the host of heaven and served them. <sup>4</sup>He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My name." <sup>5</sup>For he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>He made his son pass through the fire, practiced witchcraft and used divination, and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD provoking Him to anger. <sup>7</sup>Then he set the carved image of Asherah that he had made, in the house of which the LORD said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever. <sup>8</sup>And I will not make the feet of Israel wander anymore from the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them." <sup>9</sup>But they did not listen, and Manasseh seduced them to do evil more than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel. [<sup>3</sup> <sup>a</sup>I.e. a wooden symbol of a female deity]

The King's Idolatries Rebuked

<sup>10</sup> Now the LORD spoke through His servants the prophets, saying,
<sup>11</sup>"Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, having done wickedly more than all the Amorites did who were before him, and has also made Judah sin with his idols; <sup>12</sup>therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Behold, I am bringing such calamity on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle. <sup>13</sup>I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. <sup>14</sup>I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies, and they will become as plunder and spoil to all their enemies; <sup>15</sup>because they have done evil in My sight, and have been provoking Me to anger since the day their fathers came from Egypt, even to this day.’ ”

<sup>16</sup> Moreover, Manasseh shed very much innocent blood until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah sin, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh and all that he did and his sin which he <sup>a</sup>committed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? <sup>18</sup> And Manasseh slept with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza, and Amon his son became king in his place. ### Amon Succeeds Manasseh

<sup>19</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem; and his mother’s name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. <sup>20</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manasseh his father had done. <sup>21</sup> For he walked in all the way that his father had walked, and served the idols that his father had served and worshiped them. <sup>22</sup> So he forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD. <sup>23</sup> The servants of Amon conspired against him and killed the king in his own house. <sup>24</sup> Then the people of the land <sup>a</sup>killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place. <sup>25</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? <sup>26</sup> He was buried in his grave in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son became king in his place. ### Josiah Succeeds Amon

<sup>3</sup> Now in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam the scribe, to the house of the LORD saying, <sup>4</sup>“Go up to Hilkiah the high priest that he may <sup>a</sup>count the money brought in to the house of the LORD which the doorkeepers have gathered from the people. <sup>5</sup>Let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD, and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of the LORD to repair the <sup>b</sup>damages of the house, <sup>6</sup>to the carpenters and the builders and the masons and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the house. <sup>7</sup>Only no accounting shall be made with them for the money delivered into their hands, for they deal faithfully.” [<sup>4</sup> <sup>a</sup>Or total <sup>5</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit breach]

The Lost Book

<sup>8</sup> Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD.” And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan who read it. <sup>9</sup>Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king and said, “Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD.” <sup>10</sup>Moreover, Shaphan the scribe told the king saying, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read it in the presence of the king.

<sup>12</sup>Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, <sup>a</sup>Achbor the son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant saying, <sup>13</sup>“Go, inquire of the LORD for me and the people and all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found, for great is the wrath of the LORD that burns against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us.” [<sup>12</sup> <sup>a</sup>In 2 Chr 34:20, Abdon, son of Micah]

Huldah Predicts

<sup>14</sup> So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of <sup>a</sup>Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter); and they spoke to her. <sup>15</sup>She said to them, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ‘Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>16</sup>thus says the LORD, “Behold, I bring evil on this place and on its inhabitants, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. <sup>17</sup>Because they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods that they might provoke Me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore My wrath burns against this place, and it shall not be quenched.” ’ <sup>18</sup>But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD thus shall you say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD God of Israel, “Regarding the words which you have heard, <sup>19</sup>because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants that they should become a desolation and a curse, and you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I truly have heard you,” declares the LORD. <sup>20</sup>“Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the evil which I will bring on this place.” ’ ” So they brought back word to the king. ### Josiah's Covenant

1 Then the king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. 2The king went up to the house of the LORD and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests and the prophets and all the people, both small and great; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD. 3The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to carry out the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people <sup>a</sup>entered into the covenant. [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit took a stand in]

Reforms under Josiah

4 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest and the priests of the second order and the <sup>a</sup>doorkeepers, to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, for <sup>b</sup>Asherah, and for all the host of heaven; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. 5He did away with the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah and in the surrounding area of Jerusalem, also those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and to the moon and to the constellations and to all the host of heaven. 6He brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD outside Jerusalem to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and ground it to dust, and threw its dust on the graves of the <sup>c</sup>common people. 7He also broke down the houses of the male cult prostitutes which were in the house of the LORD, where the women were weaving <sup>d</sup>hangings for the Asherah. 8Then he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates which were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on one's left at the city gate. <sup>9</sup>Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. <sup>10</sup>He also defiled <sup>e</sup>Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter pass through the fire for Molech. <sup>11</sup>He did away with the horses which the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the official, which was in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. <sup>12</sup>The altars which were on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king broke down; and he <sup>f</sup>smashed them there and threw their dust into the brook Kidron. <sup>13</sup>The high places which were before Jerusalem, which were on the right of the mount of destruction which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the sons of Ammon, the king defiled. <sup>14</sup>He broke in pieces the sacred pillars and cut down the Asherim and filled their places with human bones. <sup>15</sup> Furthermore, the altar that was at Bethel and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down. Then he <sup>a</sup>demolished its stones, ground them to dust, and burned the Asherah. <sup>16</sup>Now when Josiah turned, he saw the graves that were there on the mountain, and he sent and took the bones from the graves and burned them on the altar and defiled it according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things. <sup>17</sup>Then he said, "What is this monument that I see?" And the men of the city told him, "It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel." <sup>18</sup>He said, "Let him alone; let no one disturb his bones." So they <sup>b</sup>left his bones undisturbed with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria. <sup>19</sup>Josiah also removed all the houses of the high places which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made provoking <sup>c</sup>the LORD; and he did to them <sup>d</sup>just as he had done in Bethel. <sup>20</sup>All the priests of the high places who were there he slaughtered on the altars and burned human bones on them; then he returned to Jerusalem. ### Passover Reinstated

21 Then the king commanded all the people saying, “Celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God as it is written in this book of the covenant.” <sup>22</sup>Surely such a Passover had not been celebrated from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and of the kings of Judah. <sup>23</sup>But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was observed to the LORD in Jerusalem.

24 Moreover, Josiah <sup>a</sup>removed the mediums and the spiritists and the teraphim and the idols and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might <sup>b</sup>confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiyah the priest found in the house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup>Before him there was no king like him who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; nor did any like him arise after him. [24 <sup>a</sup>Lit consumed <sup>b</sup>Or perform]

26 However, the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath with which His anger burned against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him. <sup>27</sup>The LORD said, “I will remove Judah also from My sight, as I have removed Israel. And I will cast off Jerusalem, this city which I have chosen, and the <sup>a</sup>temple of which I said, ‘My name shall be there.’ ” [27 <sup>a</sup>Lit house]

Jehoahaz Succeeds Josiah

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? <sup>29</sup>In his days Pharaoh

Neco king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates. And King Josiah went to meet him, and when Pharaoh Neco saw him he killed him at Megiddo. <sup>30</sup>His servants drove <sup>a</sup>his body in a chariot from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father. [<sup>30</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit him, dead]

<sup>31</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>32</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. <sup>33</sup>Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a fine of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

Jehoiakim Made King by Pharaoh

<sup>34</sup>Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz away and <sup>a</sup>brought him to Egypt, and he died there. <sup>35</sup>So Jehoiakim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land in order to give the money at the <sup>b</sup>command of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, each according to his valuation, to give it to Pharaoh Neco. [<sup>34</sup> <sup>a</sup>So with Gr; Heb he came <sup>35</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit mouth]

<sup>36</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiiah of Rumah. <sup>37</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

2 KINGS 24 [\[Books\]](#)

Babylon Controls Jehoiakim <sup>1</sup>In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant for three years; then he turned and rebelled against him. <sup>2</sup>The LORD sent against him bands of Chaldeans, bands of Arameans, bands of Moabites, and bands of Ammonites. So He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken through His servants the prophets. <sup>3</sup>Surely at the <sup>a</sup>command of the LORD it came upon Judah, to remove them from His sight because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done, <sup>4</sup>and also for the innocent blood which he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; and the LORD would not forgive. <sup>5</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? [3

Jehoiachin Reigns

<sup>6</sup>So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Jehoiachin his son became king in his place. <sup>7</sup>The king of Egypt did not come out of his land again, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates.

<sup>8</sup> Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

Deportation to Babylon <sup>10</sup>At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege. <sup>11</sup>And Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it. <sup>12</sup>Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother and his servants and his captains and his officials. So the king of Babylon took him captive in the eighth year of his reign. <sup>13</sup>He carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, just as the LORD had said. <sup>14</sup>Then he led away into exile all Jerusalem and all the captains and all the mighty men of valor, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land.

<sup>15</sup> So he led Jehoiachin away into exile to Babylon; also the king's mother and the king's wives and his officials and the leading men of the land, he led away into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>16</sup>All the men of valor, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths, one thousand, all strong and fit for war, and these the king of Babylon brought into exile to Babylon.

Zedekiah Made King

2 KINGS 25 [\[Books\]](#)

Nebuchadnezzar Besieges Jerusalem 1 Now in the ninth year of his reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, camped against it and built a siege wall all around <sup>a</sup>it. 2 So the city was under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. 3 On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land. 4 Then the city was broken into, and all the men of war fled by night by way of the gate between the two walls beside the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. And <sup>b</sup>they went by way of the Arabah. 5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho and all his army was scattered from him. 6 Then they captured the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and <sup>c</sup>he passed sentence on him. 7 They slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, then put out the eyes of Zedekiah and bound him with bronze fetters and brought him to Babylon. Jerusalem Burned and Plundered 8 Now on the seventh day of the fifth month, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. 9 He burned the house of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; even every great house he burned with fire. 10 So all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down the walls around Jerusalem. 11 Then the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon and the rest of the people, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away into exile. 12 But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and plowmen.

13 Now the bronze pillars which were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea which were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and carried the <sup>a</sup>bronze to Babylon. <sup>14</sup>They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the spoons, and all the bronze vessels which were used in temple service. <sup>15</sup>The captain of the guard also took away the firepans and the basins, what was fine gold and what was fine silver. <sup>16</sup>The two pillars, the one sea, and the stands which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight. <sup>17</sup>The height of the one pillar was eighteen <sup>b</sup>cubits, and a bronze capital was on it; the height of the capital was three <sup>b</sup>cubits, with a network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze. And the second pillar was like these with network. [13 <sup>a</sup>Lit bronze of them 17 <sup>b</sup>I.e. One cubit equals approx 18 in.]

Genealogy from Reuben 1 Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn, but because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; so that he is not enrolled in the genealogy according to the birthright. 2 Though Judah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came the leader, yet the birthright belonged to Joseph), 3 the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. 4 The sons of Joel were Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, 5 Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, 6 Beerah his son, whom <sup>a</sup>Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away into exile; he was leader of the Reubenites. 7 His <sup>b</sup>kinsmen by their families, in the genealogy of their generations, were Jeiel the chief, then Zechariah <sup>8</sup>and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer, even to Nebo and Baal-meon. 9 To the east he settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their cattle had increased in the land of Gilead. 10 In the days of Saul they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand, so that they <sup>c</sup>occupied their tents throughout <sup>d</sup>all the land east of Gilead. People of Jerusalem 1 So all Israel was enrolled by genealogies; and behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel. And Judah was carried away into exile to Babylon for their unfaithfulness.

2 Now the first who lived in their possessions in their cities were Israel, the priests, the Levites and the <sup>a</sup>temple servants. 3 Some of the sons of Judah, of the sons of Benjamin and of the sons of Ephraim and Manasseh lived in Jerusalem: 4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, from the sons of Perez the son of Judah. 5 From the Shilonites were Asaiah the firstborn and his sons. 6 From the sons of Zerah were Jeuel and their <sup>b</sup>relatives, 690 of them. 7 From the sons of Benjamin were Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah, <sup>8</sup>and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; <sup>9</sup>and their relatives according to their generations, 956. All these were heads of fathers' households according to their fathers' houses. [<sup>2</sup> <sup>a</sup>Heb Nethinim <sup>6</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit brothers, and so throughout the ch]

10 From the priests were Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin, <sup>11</sup>and <sup>a</sup>Azariah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the chief officer of the house of God; <sup>12</sup>and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; <sup>13</sup>and their relatives, heads of their fathers' households, 1,760 very able men for the work of the service of the house of God. 17 Now the gatekeepers were <sup>a</sup>Shallum and Akkub and Talmon and Ahiman and their relatives (Shallum the chief <sup>18</sup>being stationed until now at the king's gate to the east). Defeat and Death of Saul and His Sons <sup>1</sup> Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines closely pursued Saul and his sons, and the Philistines struck down Jonathan, <sup>a</sup>Abinadab and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. <sup>3</sup>The battle became heavy against Saul, and the archers <sup>b</sup>overtook him; and he was wounded by the archers. <sup>4</sup>Then Saul said to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised will come and abuse me.” But his armor bearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took his sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup>When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died. <sup>6</sup>Thus Saul died with his three sons, and all those of his house died together. <sup>7</sup> When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

<sup>8</sup> It came about the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>So they stripped him and took his head and his armor and sent messengers around the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to their idols and to the people. <sup>10</sup>They put his armor in the house of their gods and fastened his head in the house of Dagon.

Jabesh-gilead's Tribute to Saul <sup>11</sup>When all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>all the valiant men arose and took away the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons and brought them to Jabesh, and they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

David Made King over All Israel <sup>1</sup> Then all Israel gathered to David at Hebron <sup>a</sup>and said, “Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup>In times past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led out and brought in Israel; and the LORD your God said to you, ‘You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be prince over My people Israel.’ ” <sup>3</sup>So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD through Samuel. Jerusalem, Capital City <sup>4</sup> Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. <sup>5</sup>The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You shall not enter here.” Nevertheless David captured the stronghold of Zion (that is, the city of David). <sup>6</sup>Now David had said, “Whoever strikes down a Jebusite first shall be chief and commander.” Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief. <sup>7</sup>Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore it was called the city of David. <sup>8</sup>He <sup>a</sup>built the city all around, from the <sup>b</sup>Millo even to the surrounding area; and Joab <sup>c</sup>repaired the rest of the city. <sup>9</sup>David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts was with him. David's Supporters in Ziklag <sup>1</sup> Now these are the ones who came to David at Ziklag, while he was still restricted because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men who helped him in war. <sup>2</sup>They were equipped with bows, using both the right hand and the left to sling stones and to shoot arrows from the bow; they were Saul's kinsmen from Benjamin. <sup>3</sup>The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah and Jehu the Anathothite, <sup>4</sup>and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty. <sup>a</sup>Then Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite, <sup>5b</sup>Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Haruphite, <sup>6</sup>Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, Jashobeam, the Korahites, <sup>7</sup>and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. ### Peril in Transporting the Ark

1 Then David consulted with the captains of the thousands and the hundreds, even with every leader. <sup>2</sup>David said to all the assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if it is from the LORD our God, let us send everywhere to our kinsmen who remain in all the land of Israel, also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their cities with pasture lands, that they may meet with us; <sup>3</sup>and let us bring back the ark of our God to us, for we did not seek it in the days of Saul.” <sup>4</sup>Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim. <sup>6</sup>David and all Israel went up to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, the LORD who is enthroned above the cherubim, where His name is called. <sup>7</sup>They <sup>a</sup>carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. <sup>8</sup>David and all Israel were celebrating before God with all their might, even with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals and with trumpets. [<sup>7</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit caused to ride]

9 When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, because the oxen nearly upset it. <sup>10</sup>The anger of the LORD burned against Uzza, so He struck him down because he put out his hand to the ark; and he died there before God. <sup>11</sup>Then David became angry because <sup>a</sup>of the LORD’s outburst against Uzza; and he called that place <sup>b</sup>Perez-uzza to this day. <sup>12</sup>David was afraid of God that day, saying, “How can I bring the ark of God home to me?” <sup>13</sup>So David did not take the ark with him to the city of David, but took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. <sup>14</sup>Thus the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months; and the LORD blessed the family of Obed-edom with all that

And will You give them into my hand?" Then the LORD said to him, "Go up, for I will give them into your hand." 11So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David <sup>a</sup>defeated them there; and David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like the breakthrough of waters." ### Plans to Move the Ark to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Now David built houses for himself in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it. <sup>2</sup>Then David said, “No one is to carry the ark of God but the Levites; for the LORD chose them to carry the ark of God and to minister to Him forever.” <sup>3</sup>And David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place which he had prepared for it. <sup>4</sup>David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites: <sup>5</sup>of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and 120 of his <sup>a</sup>relatives; <sup>6</sup>of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and 220 of his relatives; <sup>7</sup>of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and 130 of his relatives; <sup>8</sup>of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and 200 of his relatives; <sup>9</sup>of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and 80 of his relatives; <sup>10</sup>of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and 112 of his relatives. <sup>11</sup> Then David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab, <sup>12</sup>and said to them, “You are the heads of the fathers’ households of the Levites; consecrate yourselves both you and your relatives, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place that I have prepared for it. <sup>13</sup>Because you did not carry it at the first, the LORD our God made an outburst on us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance.” <sup>14</sup>So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>The sons of the Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles thereon, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

Merari their relatives, Ethan the son of Kushaiah, <sup>18</sup>and with them their relatives of the second rank, Zechariah, <sup>a</sup>Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom and Jeiel, the gatekeepers. <sup>19</sup>So the singers, Heman, Asaph and Ethan were appointed to sound aloud cymbals of bronze; <sup>20</sup>and Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah, with <sup>b</sup>harps tuned to alamoah; <sup>21</sup>and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel and Azaziah, to lead with <sup>c</sup>lyres tuned to the sheminith. <sup>22</sup>Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was in charge of the singing; he gave instruction in singing because he was skillful. <sup>23</sup>Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the ark. <sup>24</sup>Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer, the priests, blew the trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah also were gatekeepers for the ark. [18 <sup>a</sup>Omitted in Gr and many mss 20 <sup>b</sup>Or harps of maiden-like tone 21 <sup>c</sup>Or octave harps]

<sup>25</sup> So it was David, with the elders of Israel and the captains over thousands, who went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-edom with joy. <sup>26</sup>Because God was helping the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. <sup>27</sup>Now David was clothed with a robe of fine linen with all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers and Chenaniah the leader of the singing with the singers. David also wore an ephod of linen. <sup>28</sup>Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the horn, with trumpets, with loud-sounding cymbals, with harps and lyres.

<sup>29</sup> It happened when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and celebrating; and she despised him in her heart.

A Tent for the Ark

1 And they brought in the ark of God and placed it inside the tent which David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. <sup>2</sup>When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>He distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread and a portion of meat and a raisin cake.

4 He appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the ark of the LORD, even to celebrate and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel: <sup>5</sup>Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, then <sup>a</sup>Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom and Jeiel, with musical instruments, harps, lyres; also Asaph played loud-sounding cymbals, <sup>6</sup>and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests blew trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God. [<sup>5</sup> <sup>a</sup>In 1 Chr 15:18, Jaaziel]

Psalm of Thanksgiving

<sup>8</sup>Oh give thanks to the LORD, call upon His name;
Make known His deeds among the peoples.

Let the heart of those who seek the LORD be glad. [<sup>a</sup>Or Boast]

His marvels and the judgments from His mouth,

<sup>13</sup>O seed of Israel His servant,
Sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!
<sup>14</sup>He is the LORD our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
<sup>15</sup>Remember His covenant forever,
<sup>16</sup>The covenant which He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac.
<sup>17</sup>He also confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel as an everlasting covenant,
<sup>18</sup>Saying, “To you I will give the land of Canaan,
As the portion of your inheritance.”
<sup>19</sup>When they were only a few in number,
Very few, and strangers in it,
<sup>20</sup>And they wandered about from nation to nation,
And from one kingdom to another people,
<sup>21</sup>He permitted no man to oppress them,
And He reproved kings for their sakes, saying,
<sup>22</sup>“Do not touch My anointed ones,
<sup>23</sup>Sing to the LORD, all the earth;
Proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day.
<sup>24</sup>Tell of His glory among the nations,
His wonderful deeds among all the peoples.
<sup>25</sup>For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
He also is to be feared above all gods.
<sup>26</sup>For all the gods of the peoples are <sup>a</sup>idols,
But the LORD made the heavens. [<sup>a</sup>Or non-existent things]
<sup>27</sup>Splendor and majesty are before Him, Strength and joy are in His place.
<sup>28</sup>Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, Ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
<sup>29</sup>Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name;
Bring an <sup>a</sup>offering, and come before Him;
Worship the LORD in <sup>b</sup>holy array. [<sup>a</sup>Or a grain offering <sup>b</sup>Or *the splendor

<sup>30</sup>Tremble before Him, all the earth;

<sup>31</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
And let them say among the nations, “The LORD reigns.”

Let the field exult, and all that is in it. [<sup>a</sup>Or thunder <sup>b</sup>Lit its fullness]

<sup>33</sup>Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the LORD;
For He is coming to judge the earth.

For His lovingkindness is everlasting.

<sup>35</sup>Then say, “Save us, O God of our salvation,
And gather us and deliver us from the nations,
To give thanks to Your holy name,

<sup>36</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
From everlasting even to everlasting.

Then all the people said, “Amen,” and praised the LORD.

Worship before the Ark

<sup>1</sup> And it came about, when David dwelt in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, “Behold, I am dwelling in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under curtains.” <sup>2</sup>Then Nathan said to David, “Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you.”

<sup>3</sup> It came about the same night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Go and tell David My servant, ‘Thus says the LORD, “You shall not build a house for Me to dwell in; <sup>5</sup>for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but I have <sup>a</sup>gone from tent to tent and from one dwelling place to another. <sup>6</sup>In all places where I have walked with all Israel, have I spoken a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, ‘Why have you not built for Me a house of cedar?’ ” ’ <sup>7</sup>Now, therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, “I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader over My people Israel. <sup>8</sup>I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a name like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. <sup>9</sup>I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and not be moved again; and the <sup>b</sup>wicked will not waste them anymore as formerly, <sup>10</sup>even from the day that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. And I will subdue all your enemies. [ <sup>5</sup> <sup>a</sup>Lit been <sup>9</sup> <sup>b</sup>Lit sons of wickedness ]

Moreover, I tell you that the LORD will build a house for you. <sup>11</sup>When your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up one of your <sup>a</sup>descendants after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>12</sup>He shall build for Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. <sup>13</sup>I will be his father and he shall be My son; and I will not take My lovingkindness away from him, as I took it from him who was before you. <sup>14</sup>But I will settle him in My house and in My kingdom forever, and his throne shall be established forever.” ’ ’ <sup>15</sup>According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David. [11 <sup>a</sup>Lit seed]

David's Prayer in Response

<sup>16</sup> Then David the king went in and sat before the LORD and said, “Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house that You have brought me this far? <sup>17</sup>This was a small thing in Your eyes, O God; but You have spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the standard of a man of high degree, O LORD God. <sup>18</sup>What more can David still say to You concerning the honor bestowed on Your servant? For You know Your servant. <sup>19</sup>O LORD, for Your servant’s sake, and according to Your own heart, You have wrought all this greatness, to make known all these great things. <sup>20</sup>O LORD, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>21</sup>And what one nation in the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make You a name by great and terrible things, in driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed out of Egypt? <sup>22</sup>For Your people Israel You made Your own people forever, and You, O LORD, became their God.

<sup>23</sup> “Now, O LORD, let the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house be established forever, and do as You have spoken. <sup>24</sup>Let Your name be established and magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel; and the house of David Your servant is established before You.’ <sup>25</sup>For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build for him a house; therefore Your servant has found courage to pray before You. <sup>26</sup>Now, O LORD, You are God, and have <sup>a</sup>promised this good thing to Your servant. <sup>27</sup>And now it has pleased You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may <sup>b</sup>continue forever before You; for You, O LORD, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.” [26 <sup>a</sup>Lit said 27 <sup>b</sup>Lit be]

14 So David reigned over all Israel; and he <sup>a</sup>administered justice and righteousness for all his people. <sup>15</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; <sup>16</sup>and Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were priests, and Shavsha was secretary; <sup>17</sup>and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David were chiefs at the king's side. ## 1 CHRONICLES 19 [\[Books\]](#)

David's Messengers Abused 1 Now it came about after this, that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon died, and his son became king in his place. 2 Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the sons of Ammon to Hanun to console him. 3 But the princes of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, "<sup>a</sup>Do you think that David is honoring your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?" 4 So Hanun took David's servants and shaved them and cut off their garments in the middle as far as their hips, and sent them away. 5 Then certain persons went and told David about the men. And he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "<sup>b</sup>Stay at Jericho until your beards grow, and then return." [3 <sup>a</sup>Lit In your eyes is David honoring your father because 5 <sup>b</sup>Lit Return to]

6 When the sons of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the sons of Ammon sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Aram-maacah and from Zobah. 7 So they hired for themselves 32,000 chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. And the sons of Ammon gathered together from their cities and came to battle. 8 When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men. 9 The sons of Ammon came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

Ammon and Aram Defeated 10 Now when Joab saw that the <sup>a</sup>battle was set against him in front and in the rear, he selected from all the choice men of Israel and they arrayed themselves against the Arameans. 11 But
